1868 CHAPTER 100 31 and 32 Vict

An Act to amend the Procedure in the Court of Session and the Judicial Arrangements in the Superior Courts of Scotland, and to make certain changes in the other Courts thereof. [31st July 1868]

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C1 Preamble omitted under authority of Statute Law Revision Act 1893 \(c. 14\)

1 Short title.

This Act may be cited for all purposes as “The Court of Session Act 1868.”

2 Interpretation of terms.

The following words and expressions in this Act shall have the meanings hereby assigned to them, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction; that is to say,

The expression “the Court” shall include the whole Court sitting together, also either division of the Inner House, or any Lord Ordinary:

The word “pursuer” shall include complainer, suspender, petitioner, or appellant:

The word “defender” shall include respondent.

C10 Ss. 15–44 repealed (S.) by Court of Session Act 1988 (c. 36, SIF 36:1), s. 52(2), Sch. 2 Pt. I (and re-enacted in part as referred to in Sch. 2 Pt. II of that Act)

III.—CALLING AND DECREE IN ABSENCE

22 New procedure in reference to calling of summonses and enrolment for decree.

Summonses may be called in Court on any sederunt day; and the calling lists shall be printed and published in the daily rolls of Court, under such regulations as the Court may see proper to make, in place of the separate calling lists now in use to be published; and in case a pursuer shall not call his summons in Court on the first sederunt day after the expiration of the induciæ thereof, or on one of the two sederunt days next ensuing, the defender shall be entitled to the like remedy by protestation as is now competent, and subject to the like conditions. The weekly printed rolls of new causes shall be discontinued; and where a defender shall not enter appearance on or before the second day after the summons has been called in Court, the cause may immediately be enrolled in the Lord Ordinary's motion roll as an undefended cause for decree in absence; and where appearance is timeously entered as aforesaid on behalf of a defender, his defence shall be lodged on or before the tenth day after the date of calling of the summons, failing which the cause may be immediately enrolled for decree in absence, or in the case of actions containing reductive conclusions the cause may be enrolled for the purpose of obtaining an order for satisfying the production, and thereafter the cause may be enrolled by either party for further procedure.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C11 Ss. 15–44 repealed (S.) by Court of Session Act 1988 (c. 36, SIF 36:1), s. 52(2), Sch. 2 Pt. I (and re-enacted in part as referred to in Sch. 2 Pt. II of that Act)

23 Mode of obtaining decrees in absence.

When any cause is enrolled as an undefended cause before the Lord Ordinary, the Lord Ordinary shall, without any attendance of counsel or agent, grant decree in absence in common form in terms of the conclusions of the summons, or subject to such restrictions as may be set forth in a minute written on the summons by the agent of the pursuer; and such decree shall, except as herein-after provided, have the like effect and be subject to the like conditions in all respects as a decree in absence pronounced according to the present law and practice: Provided always, that at any time within ten days from the date of such decree it shall be competent for the defender to enrol the cause in the Lord Ordinary's motion roll; or when such ten days shall expire in time of vacation or recess, it shall be competent for the defender at any time within the said ten days to lodge his defences with the clerk, and at the next ensuing sitting of the Lord

V.—JURY TRIAL

34 Exceptions taken at a jury trial may be insisted in, either by motion for new trial, or by bill of exceptions.

When an exception is taken in the course of a jury trial a note thereof shall be taken by the judge, or, if he shall so direct, or the party excepting shall think proper, a note thereof shall be written out, and signed by such party or his counsel, and also by the judge at the time; and such exception may be made the ground of an application to set aside the verdict, either by motion for a new trial, or by bill of exceptions.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C25 Ss. 15–44 repealed (S.) by Court of Session Act 1988 (c. 36, SIF 36:1), s. 52(2), Sch. 2 Pt. I (and re-enacted in part as referred to in Sch. 2 Pt. II of that Act)

35 Form of bill of exceptions; evidence need not be set forth at length in the bill.

The bill of exceptions (which may be subsequently prepared, and of which notice shall be given as in the case of a motion for a new trial,) shall consist of a distinct statement of the exception or exceptions so noted, with such a statement of the circumstances in which the exception or exceptions were taken (including, if necessary, a statement of the purport of the evidence, or extracts therefrom, so far as bearing upon such exception or exceptions, but without any argument,) as, along with the record in the cause, may enable the Court to judge of such exception or exceptions; and, unless the party excepting shall choose, or the judge at the trial, or the Court at the discussion of the bill, shall so direct, it shall be unnecessary to print or submit to the Court the notes of evidence or the documentary evidence adduced at the trial; and when such notes and documents are submitted to the Court, they shall form no part of the bill of exceptions; and in discussing a bill of exceptions it shall be competent for either party to refer to the record, and to every document produced and put in evidence at the trial, and the notes of evidence at the trial may be produced and founded on at any time.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C26 Ss. 15–44 repealed (S.) by Court of Session Act 1988 (c. 36, SIF 36:1), s. 52(2), Sch. 2 Pt. I (and re-enacted in part as referred to in Sch. 2 Pt. II of that Act)

36 Verdict may be taken subject to the opinion of the Court on a point reserved.

The judge at the trial may direct the jury upon any matter of law (subject to the opinion of the Court upon such direction), and with liberty to either party to move the Court to enter the verdict for such party, although returned against him, if the Court should be of opinion that such direction was erroneous, and that such party was truly entitled to a verdict. The opinion of the Court upon any direction so given may be obtained upon motion to enter the verdict for the party moving; and if the Court shall be of opinion that the direction was erroneous, and that the party moving is truly entitled to the verdict in whole or in part, they shall direct the verdict to be entered for him in whole or in part, either absolutely, or on such terms as they may think fit; otherwise they shall refuse the motion, or they may, if necessary, set aside the verdict and order a new trial: Provided also, that in such applications, as well as in motions for a new
