MONEY MARKET CHARGES

Money market charges

20. The general law of insolvency shall have effect in relation to a money market charge subject to the provisions of regulations 21 to 24 of these Regulations.

Administration orders, &c

21.—(1) The provisions of this regulation are subject to the provisions of regulations 22 to 24 below.

(2) The following provisions of the Insolvency Act 1986⁽¹⁶⁾(which relate to administration orders and administrators) do not apply in relation to a money market charge—

- (a) sections 10(1)(b) and 11(3)(c) (restriction on enforcement of security while petition for administration order pending or order in force); and
- (b) section 15(1) and (2) (power of administrator to deal with charged property); and section 11(2) of that Act (receiver to vacate office when so requested by administrator) does not apply to a receiver appointed under a money market charge.

(3) However, where a money market charge falls to be enforced after an administration order has been made or a petition for an administration order has been presented, and there exists another charge over some or all of the same property ranking in priority to or pari passu with the market charge, the court may, on the application of any person interested, order that there shall be taken after enforcement of the money market charge such steps as the court may direct for the purpose of ensuring that the chargee under the other charge is not prejudiced by the enforcement of the money market charge.

(4) The following provisions of the Insolvency Act 1986 (which relate to the powers of receivers) do not apply to a money market charge—

- (a) section 43 (power of administrative receiver to dispose of charged property); and
- (b) section 61 (power of receiver in Scotland to dispose of an interest in property).

(5) Sections 127 and 284 of the Insolvency Act 1986 (avoidance of property dispositions effected after the commencement of winding up or presentation of a bankruptcy petition), and section 32(8) of the Bankruptcy (Scotland) Act 1985⁽¹⁷⁾(effect of dealing with debtor relating to estate vested in permanent trustee), do not apply to a disposition of property as a result of which the property becomes subject to a money market charge or any transaction pursuant to which that disposition is made.

(6) However, if a person (other than the chargee under the money market charge) who is a party to a disposition mentioned in paragraph (5) above has notice at the time of the disposition that a petition has been presented for the winding up, bankruptcy or sequestration of the estate of the party making the disposition, the value of any profit to him arising from the disposition is recoverable by the relevant office-holder unless the court directs otherwise.

(7) Any sum recoverable by virtue of paragraph (6) above ranks for priority, in the event of the insolvency of the person from whom it is due, immediately before preferential or, in Scotland, preferred debts.

(8) In a case falling within paragraph (5) above (as a disposition of property as a result of which the property becomes subject to a money market charge) and section 164(3) of the Act as it has effect by virtue of these Regulations (as the provision of margin or other property in relation to money market contracts), section 164(4), as it has effect by virtue of these Regulations, applies with respect to the recovery of the amount or value of the margin or other property and paragraph (6) above does not apply.

Limitations on extent to which charge to be treated as money market charge

22.—(1) Where a money market charge is granted partly for purposes other than securing debts or liabilities arising in connection with the settlement of money market contracts or related contracts, the provisions of these Regulations apply in relation to it only in so far as it has effect for the purpose of securing such debts and liabilities.

(2) The provisions of these Regulations shall not have effect in relation to any money market charge, whether fixed or floating, to the extent that it is a charge on land or any interest in land.

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (2) above, a charge on a debenture forming part of a series shall not be treated as a charge on land or any interest in land by reason of the fact that the debenture is itself secured by a charge on land or any interest in land.

(4) The provisions of these Regulations shall apply to a money market charge only to the extent that—

- (a) it is a charge over property provided, whether as margin or otherwise, by a person to a listed person for the purposes of or in connection with the settlement of money market contracts or related contracts; and
- (b) either—
 - (i) it secures the obligation to pay to that listed person the net sum referred to in paragraph 2(2)(a) of the Schedule to these Regulations; or
 - (ii) its enforcement is, by reason of the inadequacy of other property provided to that listed person, whether as margin or otherwise, necessary to enable that listed person to settle money market contracts or related contracts.

Limitation of disapplication of sections 10(1)(b) and 11(3)(c) of Insolvency Act 1986 in relation to certain charges

23. The disapplication of sections 10(1)(b) and 11(3)(c) of the Insolvency Act 1986 by section 175(1)(a) of the Act as it applies by virtue of these Regulations shall be limited in respect of a charge falling within sub-paragraphs (a) and (b)(ii) of regulation 22(4) of these Regulations so that it has effect only to the extent necessary for there to be realised a sum equal to the total amount necessary to enable the listed person to settle money market contracts and related contracts effected before the end of the tenth business day after the day on which an administration order is made pursuant to the petition.

Ability of administrator or receiver to recover assets in case of property subject to certain charges

24.—(1) The disapplication of sections 15(1) and (2), 43 and 61 of the Insolvency Act 1986 by section 175(1)(b) and 175(3) of the Act as they apply by virtue of these Regulations shall cease to have effect in relation to a charge of the kind mentioned in regulation 23 of these Regulations after the end of the tenth business day after the day on which an administration order is made or, as the case may be, an administrative receiver or a receiver is appointed in relation to the grantor of the charge so far as the charge has effect in relation to property which is not, on the basis of a valuation conducted in accordance with paragraph (2) of this Regulation, required for the realisation of the sum referred to in regulation 23 of these Regulations.

(2) For the purpose of paragraph (1) of this Regulation, the value of any property shall be the value agreed between whichever is relevant of the administrator, administrative receiver or receiver on the one hand and the listed person on the other.

MONEY MARKET PROPERTY

Money market property

25.—(1) Section 177 of the Act (application of margin not affected by certain other interests) shall apply to any description of property provided as cover for margin and to any description of property otherwise provided by a person to a listed person for the purposes of or in connection with the settlement of money market contracts or related contracts.

(2) Section 179 of the Act (priority of market charge over unpaid vendor's lien) shall apply to property subject to an unpaid vendor's lien which becomes subject to a money market charge.

(3) Section 180 of the Act (proceedings against market property by unsecured creditors) shall apply to any description of property provided as cover for margin, to any description of property otherwise provided by a person to a listed person for the purposes of or in connection with the settlement of money market contracts or related contracts and to property which is subject to a money market charge.

Requirements as to listing

27.—(1) The Bank of England shall not admit a person to the list unless it is satisfied that the person in question has rules and arrangements meeting the requirements of the Schedule to these Regulations.

(2) The Bank of England shall not admit a person to the list unless it is satisfied that the person in question is able and willing to co-operate, by the sharing of information or otherwise, with the Treasury, the Secretary of State, the Bank itself, any relevant office-holder and any other authority or body having responsibility for any matter arising out of, or connected with the default of a person party to a money market contract or the insolvency of a person party to a related contract.

(3) The arrangements made by the Bank of England for a person's removal from the list must enable the Bank to remove a person if the Bank is satisfied that the rules and arrangements of that person do not meet the requirements of the Schedule to these Regulations.

Application of Part VII following removal from the list

28. Section 169(3) of the Act shall apply as if—

- (a) functions under that provision were exercisable by the Bank of England and not by any other person; and

- (b) the reference to the revocation of recognition of an investment exchange or clearing house under the 1986 Act and the references to a revocation order were each a reference to the removal of a person from the list.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

The regulations apply the provisions of Part VII of the Companies Act 1989 ("the 1989 Act"), with modifications, to certain aspects of the settlement arrangements in relation to the money markets provided by persons admitted to a list maintained by the Bank of England under section 171 of the 1989 Act. Part VII of the 1989 Act is concerned with the relationship between insolvency law and the default proceedings of certain financial markets. The regulations also make provision to facilitate the supervision by the Bank of England of persons it has admitted to the list.

Regulations 4 and 5 of the regulations apply to certain contracts, with modifications, those provisions of Part VII of the 1989 Act that concern contracts connected with a body which is a recognised investment exchange or a recognised clearing house under the Financial Services Act 1986 to certain contracts entered into by a person on the list maintained by the Bank of England.

Regulations 6 to 18 apply, with modifications, certain provisions of the Financial Services Act 1986 in relation to a person on the list. The provisions in question enable the Bank of England to apply to the court for an order requiring a person on the list to comply with the requirements mentioned in the regulation 7, to exercise certain powers of intervention and to petition for the winding up or administration of a person on the list. They also enable the Bank of England to conduct an investigation into the affairs of a person on the list so far as relevant to the settlement arrangements which that person provides.

Regulation 19 requires a person on the list to give the Bank of England notice of any proposal to amend his default rules, to make a report to it on completion of default proceedings and confers power on the Bank to direct a person on the list to take, or refrain from taking, action under his default rules. Regulation 19 also enables an insolvency office-holder to ascertain whether a person on the list proposes to take action under his default rules and confers a limited indemnity from actions in damages on a person on the list.

Regulations 20 to 24 make provision as to enforcement of certain charges granted in favour of a person on the list in connection with the provision of settlement arrangements, and regulation 25 makes provision as to the rights of third parties in relation to certain property provided to a person on the list for the purposes of or in connection with the provision of settlement arrangements.

Regulation 26 deals with the application of Part VII where a person enters, in more than one capacity, into contracts in relation to which a person on the list provides settlement arrangements. It provides that, in such a case, the provisions of the Part apply as if contracts entered into in each capacity were entered into by different persons.

Regulation 27 requires the Bank of England not to admit a person to the list unless it is satisfied that the requirements of the Schedule to the regulations are met and the person in question is able and willing to cooperate with certain other regulatory authorities. It also requires the Bank of England to have arrangements for the removal of a person from the list if it is satisfied that the person does not meet the requirements of the Schedule.

Regulation 28 makes provision for the continued application of Part VII of the 1989 Act, as modified by the regulations, after a person is removed from the list and regulation 29 confers a limited exemption from liability in damages on the Bank of England. Regulation 30 limits to Great Britain the territorial scope of the regulations and the provisions of Part VII of the 1989 Act applied by the regulations in modified form.
