EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Act of Sederunt)

This Act of Sederunt amends the Rules of the Court of Session 1994 so as to provide a further exception to the requirement that a petition presented to the court must be signed by counsel or by some other person having a right of audience. In petitions by the Council of the Law Society of Scotland for a person's admission as a solicitor or notary public (or both) it is to suffice that signature be by an officer of the Society, authorised to sign by the Council.
