Transitional provisions

4.—(1) This paragraph applies to any undertaking which for the time being—

(a) is a residential care home, nursing home or mental nursing home in respect of which—

(i) a person is registered under Part I or II of the 1984 Act; and

(ii) the registration of that person under that Act continues in force after 1st April 2002 in accordance with Schedule 1 to the No. 9 Order; or

(b) is a home which is registered—

(i) in a register kept for the purposes of section 60 of the 1989 Act; or

(ii) under Part VIII of the 1989 Act, and the registration in respect of which under that Act continues in force on or after 1st April 2002 in accordance with Schedule 1 to the No. 9 Order.

(2) This Paragraph applies to any undertaking which for the time being is an agency for the supply of nurses within the meaning of the 1957 Act—

(a) which a person is authorised to carry on by a licence which has been granted to him by a local authority under section 2 of that Act; and

(b) in respect of which the licence so granted continues in force on or after 1st July 2002 in accordance with Schedule 1 to the No. 9 Order.

(3) This paragraph applies to any community home—

(a) in relation to which a person has applied in accordance with paragraph 15 of Schedule 1 to the No. 9 Order for registration under Part II of the Act as a person who carries on or manages a children's home;

(b) in respect of which, in accordance with paragraph 15 of that Schedule, section 11(1) to (3), (5) and (6) of the Act does not apply to that person.

(4) An enactment which is amended by virtue of any provision in Schedule 4 to the Act brought into force under article 3(3)(a) shall, in so far as the enactment relates to—

(a) any undertaking to which paragraph (1) applies; or

(b) any community home to which paragraph (3) applies,

have effect in relation to that undertaking or community home, as the case may be, as if the amendment had not been made.

(5) Any enactment which is repealed to any extent by virtue of any entry in Schedule 6 to the Act brought into force under article 3(3)(c) or (4) shall, in so far as it relates to—

(a) any undertaking to which paragraph (1) or (2) applies; or

(b) any community home to which paragraph (3) applies,

have effect in relation to that undertaking or community home, as the case may be, as if the enactment had not been repealed.

(18) 1972 c. 70.

(19) 1979 c. 36.

Amendment of the No. 9 Order

5.—(1) The No. 9 Order shall be amended in accordance with the following paragraphs of this article.

(2) In article 3 of the No. 9 Order, in paragraph (7)(i), after the words “Protection of Children Act” on the first and third occasions on which they occur, there shall be added “1999”.

(3) In Schedule 1 to the No. 9 Order—

(a) in paragraph 6(1), after the words “sub-paragraph (2)” there shall be added the words “or (2A)”;

(b) in paragraph 6, after sub-paragraph (2) there shall be inserted the following sub-paragraphs—

“(2A) This sub-paragraph applies where—

(a) the existing provider is an individual; and

(b) in the period commencing on 1st April 2001 and ending on 31st March 2002—

(i) the existing provider applied to be registered under Part I or II of the 1984 Act in respect of the existing undertaking, and his application for registration was granted; and

(ii) the authority received a police check in relation to the existing provider.

(2B) In sub-paragraph (2A)—

“police check” means a report, sent to the authority by, or by a person on behalf of, the chief officer of police or other member of a police force within the meaning of the Police Act 1996(20), which indicates that—

(a) in relation to the information provided about the existing provider, no record has been found of any police record relating to England or Wales; or

(b) the information provided about the existing provider appears identical with the person whose record is attached to the report.”;

(c) in paragraph 6(2)(a)(i), after the words “specified in” there shall be added the word “section”;

(d) in paragraph 6(3)(c)(i)(bb), the words “issued to the person” shall be omitted;

(e) in paragraph 11(3)(a), after the words “registered person” there shall be added the words “in writing before 13th November 2001”;

(f) in paragraph 14(9)(b), the words “(except for the purpose of making subordinate legislation)” shall be omitted;

(g) in paragraph 15(1)(a)(ii), the words “a children’s home, other than” shall be omitted.

(4) At the end of the Schedule 1 to the No. 9 Order, the following paragraph shall be added—

“Registered Homes Tribunal

16. Part III of the 1984 Act shall continue to have effect after 1st April 2002 in relation to any appeal to the Registered Homes Tribunal which—

(a) is commenced before 1st April 2002; or

(b) in accordance with this Schedule may be brought on or after 1st April 2002.”.

(5) In Schedule 2 to the No. 9 Order, in paragraph 2(b), after the word “categories” the word “of” shall be omitted.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order brings into force, in relation to England only, certain provisions of the Care Standards Act 2000 which amend or repeal other statutory provisions. It also makes transitional provision and amends the Care Standards Act 2000 (Commencement No. 9 (England) and Transitional and Savings Provisions) Order 2001 (“the No. 9 Order”).

Under the Care Standards Act 2000, the National Care Standards Commission is to be responsible for the regulation and registration of children’s homes, care homes, nurses agencies and certain other establishments and agencies. Voluntary and private children’s homes are currently registered under sections 60 and 63 of the Children Act 1989. Residential care homes, nursing homes and mental nursing homes are currently registered under the Registered Homes Act 1984, and nurses agencies are licensed under the Nurses Agencies Act 1957. The amendments and repeals are in general consequential on the replacement of the current systems of registration.

Article 3 of the Order brings into force certain minor and consequential amendments and repeals on 1st April 2002, and the repeals specified in article 3(4) on 1st July 2002. The transitional provisions in article 4 provide for the amendments or repeals not to have effect in a case where the registration under the current legislation continues in force, or in the case of a community home in relation to which a person has applied for registration under the Act and the application has not been determined.

Article 5 of the Order amends the No. 9 Order. Article 5(3)(b) applies to persons who are registered in respect of a home under the Registered Homes Act 1984. In order to become registered under the Care Standards Act 2000, it is necessary for them to apply for criminal record certificates under the Police Act 1997. Under the amendment, if they have become registered within the year ending on 31st March 2002 and the registration authority has received a police check in respect of them, it will not be necessary for them to apply for the certificates.

Under the No. 9 Order, persons who are registered in respect of a home under the Registered Homes Act 1984 will be subject to a condition in relation to the use of private rooms for the accommodation of service users which the registration authority previously notified were of insufficient size. The condition is amended by article 5(3)(e) so that the notification must have been given in writing before 13th November 2001.

The amendment made by article 5(4) provides for Part III of the Registered Homes Act 1984, which makes provision for appeals to the Registered Homes Tribunal, to continue to have effect in relation to appeals to the Tribunal which are commenced before 1st April 2002 or are subsequently brought in accordance with Schedule 1 to the No. 9 Order.

Article 5 also makes minor corrections to the No. 9 Order.

NOTE AS TO EARLIER COMMENCEMENT ORDERS

(This note is not part of the Order)

The following provisions of the Care Standards Act 2000 have been brought into force—
