

THE SCHEDULE

General Provisions

1. The processing of confidential patient information for medical purposes with a view to making the patient in question less readily identifiable from that information.