FINANCIAL SERVICES AND MARKETS

The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000
(Regulated Activities) (Amendment) (No.2) Order 2006

Approved by both Houses of Parliament

Made - - - - 12th September 2006

Laid before Parliament 13th September 2006

Coming into force in accordance with article 1(2)

In the opinion of the Treasury, one of the effects of the following Order is that an activity which is not a regulated activity (within the meaning of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000⁽¹⁾) will become a regulated activity;

The Treasury make the following Order in exercise of the powers conferred on them by sections 22(1) and (5), 426, 427 and 428(3) of, and paragraph 25 of Schedule 2 to, that Act:

PART 1

GENERAL

Citation and commencement

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) (Amendment) (No.2) Order 2006.

(2) This Order comes into force—

(a) for the purposes of enabling applications to be made for—

(i) a Part IV permission, or a variation of a Part IV permission, in relation to activities of the kind specified by article 25B, 25C, 53B, 53C, 63B or 63F or, so far as relevant to any such activity, article 64 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001⁽²⁾; or

(ii) the Authority's approval under section 59 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 in relation to any of those activities, on 6th November 2006; and

(1) 2000 c.8. A relevant amendment was made by the Regulation of Financial Services (Land Transactions) Act 2005 \(c.24\) which inserts paragraph 23A of Schedule 2 to the 2000 Act.

(2) S.I. 2001/544, amended by S.I. 2003/1475; there are other amending instruments but none is relevant.

- (b) for all other purposes, on 6th April 2007.

“CHAPTER 15A

REGULATED HOME REVERSION PLANS

The activities

Entering into and administering regulated home reversion plans

63B.—(1) Entering into a regulated home reversion plan as plan provider is a specified kind of activity.

(2) Administering a regulated home reversion plan is also a specified kind of activity where the plan was entered into on or after 6th April 2007.

(3) In this Chapter—

(a) a “regulated home reversion plan” is an arrangement comprised in one or more instruments or agreements, in relation to which the following conditions are met at the time it is entered into—

(i) the arrangement is one under which a person (the “plan provider”) buys all or part of a qualifying interest in land (other than timeshare accommodation) in the United Kingdom from an individual or trustees (the “reversion seller”);

(ii) the reversion seller (if he is an individual) or an individual who is a beneficiary of the trust (if the reversion seller is a trustee), or a related person, is entitled under the arrangement to occupy at least 40% of the land in question as or in connection with a dwelling, and intends to do so; and

(iii) the arrangement specifies one or more qualifying termination events, on the occurrence of which that entitlement will end;

(b) “administering” a regulated home reversion plan means any of—

(i) notifying the reversion seller of changes in payments due under the plan, or of other matters of which the plan requires him to be notified;

(ii) taking any necessary steps for the purposes of making payments to the reversion seller under the plan; and

(iii) taking any necessary steps for the purposes of collecting or recovering payments due under the plan from the reversion seller, but a person is not to be treated as administering a regulated home reversion plan merely because he has, or exercises, a right to take action for the purposes of enforcing the plan (or to require that such action is or is not taken).

(4) For the purposes of paragraph (3)—

(a) the reference to a “qualifying interest” in land—

- (i) in relation to land in England or Wales, is to an estate in fee simple absolute or a term of years absolute, whether subsisting at law or in equity;
 - (ii) in relation to land in Scotland, is to the interest of an owner in land or the tenant's right over or interest in a property subject to a lease;
 - (iii) in relation to land in Northern Ireland, is to any freehold estate or any leasehold estate, whether subsisting at law or in equity;
- (b) "timeshare accommodation" has the meaning given by section 1 of the Timeshare Act 1992⁽⁵⁾;
- (c) "related person" in relation to the reversion seller or, where the reversion seller is a trustee, a beneficiary of the trust, means—
 - (i) that person's spouse or civil partner;
 - (ii) a person (whether or not of the opposite sex) whose relationship with that person has the characteristics of the relationship between husband and wife; or
 - (iii) that person's parent, brother, sister, child, grandparent or grandchild; and
- (d) "qualifying termination event", in relation to a person's entitlement to occupy land, means—
 - (i) the person becomes a resident of a care home;
 - (ii) the person dies;
 - (iii) the end of a specified period of at least twenty years beginning with the day on which the reversion seller entered into the arrangement.
- (5) For the purposes of paragraph (3)(a)(ii), the area of any land which comprises a building or other structure containing two or more storeys is to be taken to be the aggregate of the floor areas of each of those storeys.
- (6) For the purposes of the definition of "qualifying termination event" in paragraph (4), "care home"—
 - (a) in relation to England and Wales, has the meaning given by section 3 of the Care Standards Act 2000⁽⁶⁾;
 - (b) in relation to Scotland, means accommodation provided by a "care home" within the meaning of section 2(3) of the Regulation of Care (Scotland) Act 2001⁽⁷⁾;
 - (c) in relation to Northern Ireland, means—
 - (i) a residential care home within the meaning of article 10 of the Health and Personal Social Services (Quality, Improvement and Regulation) (Northern Ireland) Order 2003⁽⁸⁾; or
 - (ii) a nursing home within the meaning of article 11 of that Order.
- (7) In this Order—
 - (a) references to entering into a regulated home reversion plan as plan provider include acquiring any obligations or rights (including his interest in land) of the plan provider, under such a plan; but
 - (b) in relation to a person who acquires any such obligations or rights, an activity is a specified kind of activity for the purposes of articles 25B(1)(b) and 53B(b)(ii)

⁽⁵⁾ 1992 c. 35.

⁽⁷⁾ 2001 asp 8.

⁽⁸⁾ S.I. 2003/431 (N.I.9).

and paragraph (2) only if the plan was entered into by the plan provider (rather than the obligations or rights acquired) on or after 6th April 2007.

(8) Accordingly, references in this Order to a plan provider, other than in paragraph (7), include a person who acquires any such obligations or rights.

Exclusions

Arranging administration by authorised person

63C. A person who is not an authorised person does not carry on an activity of the kind specified by article 63B(2) in relation to a regulated home reversion plan where he—

- (a) arranges for another person, being an authorised person with permission to carry on an activity of that kind, to administer the plan; or
- (b) administers the plan himself during a period of not more than one month beginning with the day on which any such arrangement comes to an end.

Administration pursuant to agreement with authorised person

63D. A person who is not an authorised person does not carry on an activity of the kind specified by article 63B(2) in relation to a regulated home reversion plan where he administers the plan pursuant to an agreement with an authorised person who has permission to carry on an activity of that kind.

63E. Article 63B is also subject to the exclusions in articles 66 (trustees etc.), 72 (overseas persons) and 72A (information society services).

CHAPTER 15B

REGULATED HOME PURCHASE PLANS

The activities

Entering into and administering regulated home purchase plans

63F.—(1) Entering into a regulated home purchase plan as home purchase provider is a specified kind of activity.

(2) Administering a regulated home purchase plan is also a specified kind of activity where the plan was entered into by way of business on or after 6th April 2007.

(3) In this Chapter—

- (a) a “regulated home purchase plan” is an arrangement comprised in one or more instruments or agreements, in relation to which the following conditions are met at the time it is entered into—
 - (i) the arrangement is one under which a person (the “home purchase provider”) buys a qualifying interest or an undivided share of a qualifying interest in land (other than timeshare accommodation) in the United Kingdom;
 - (ii) where an undivided share of a qualifying interest in land is bought, the interest is held on trust for the home purchase provider and the individual or trustees mentioned in paragraph (iii) as beneficial tenants in common;

- (iii) the arrangement provides for the obligation of an individual or trustees (the “home purchaser”) to buy the interest bought by the home purchase provider over the course of or at the end of a specified period; and
 - (iv) the home purchaser (if he is an individual) or an individual who is a beneficiary of the trust (if the home purchaser is a trustee), or a related person, is entitled under the arrangement to occupy at least 40% of the land in question as or in connection with a dwelling during that period, and intends to do so;
- (b) “administering” a regulated home purchase plan means either or both of—
- (i) notifying the home purchaser of changes in payments due under the plan, or of other matters of which the plan requires him to be notified; and
 - (ii) taking any necessary steps for the purposes of collecting or recovering payments due under the plan from the home purchaser;
- but a person is not to be treated as administering a regulated home purchase plan merely because he has, or exercises, a right to take action for the purposes of enforcing the plan or to require that such action is or is not taken.
- (4) Article 63B(4)(a) to (c) applies for the purposes of paragraph (3)(a) with references to the “reversion seller” being read as references to the “home purchaser”.
- (5) Article 63B(5) applies for the purposes of paragraph (3)(a)(iv) with the reference to “paragraph (3)(a)(ii)” being read as a reference to “paragraph (3)(a)(iv)”.

Exclusions

PART 5

TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

Interpretation

36. In this Part—

- “the Act” means the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000(22);
- “commencement” means the beginning of 6th April 2007;
- “the Regulated Activities Order” means the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001.

Interim permission

37.—(1) This article applies where—

- (a) a person (“the applicant”) has submitted to the Authority an application for Part IV permission or a variation of a Part IV permission, to the extent that the application relates to an activity of the kind specified by any of the following articles of the Regulated Activities Order (as amended by this Order)—
 - (i) article 25B (arranging regulated home reversion plans);
 - (ii) article 25C (arranging regulated home purchase plans);
 - (iii) article 53B (advising on regulated home reversion plans);
 - (iv) article 53C (advising on regulated home purchase plans);
 - (v) article 63B (entering into and administering regulated home reversion plans);
 - (vi) article 63F (entering into and administering regulated home purchase plans); or
 - (vii) article 64 (agreeing to carry on specified kinds of activity), so far as relevant to any of the above activities;
- (b) the applicant had carried on such activity before 6th November 2006;
- (c) the Authority received the application on or before 23rd March 2007; and
- (d) the application has not been finally decided before commencement.

(2) The applicant is to be treated as having on commencement the permission to which the application relates.

(3) A permission which an applicant is to be treated as having is referred to in this Part as an “interim permission”.

(4) Without prejudice to the exercise by the Authority of its powers under Part 4 of the Act, an interim permission lapses—

- (a) where the application relates to an activity of the kind specified by article 63B or 63F of the Regulated Activities Order or article 64 of that Order, so far as relevant to any such activity, when the application has been finally decided;
- (b) where the application relates to an activity of the kind specified by article 25B, 25C, 53B or 53C of the Regulated Activities Order or article 64 of that Order, so far as relevant to any such activity—
 - (i) when the application has been finally decided; or
 - (ii) at the beginning of 6th April 2008,whichever is the earlier.

(5) In this article, “finally decided” means—

- (a) subject to paragraph (6), when the application is withdrawn;
- (b) when the Authority grants permission under section 42 of the Act (giving permission) to carry on the activity in question;
- (c) when the Authority varies a permission under section 44 of the Act (variation etc. at request of authorised person) to add the activity in question;
- (d) where the Authority has refused an application and the matter is not referred to the Tribunal, when the time for referring the matter to the Tribunal has expired;
- (e) where the Authority has refused an application and the matter is referred to the Tribunal, when—

- (i) if the reference is determined by the Tribunal (including a determination following remission back to the Tribunal for rehearing in accordance with section 137(3)(a) of the Act (appeal on a point of law)), the time for bringing an appeal has expired; or
- (ii) on an appeal from a determination by the Tribunal on a point of law, the Court itself determines the application in accordance with section 137 of the Act.

(6) An applicant who is treated as having an interim permission may not withdraw the application without first obtaining the consent of the Authority.

(7) Where—

- (a) the Authority exercises its powers under section 45 (variation etc. on the Authority's own initiative) in relation to an authorised person who holds an interim permission; and
- (b) as a result of the variation there are no longer any regulated activities for which the authorised person has permission, the Authority must, once it is satisfied that it is no longer necessary to keep the interim permission in force, cancel it.

Interim approval

38.—(1) This article applies where—

- (a) the applicant (within the meaning of article 37(1)(a)) has submitted to the Authority an application made under section 60 of the Act (applications for approval); and
- (b) the application has not been finally decided before commencement.

(2) The person in respect of whom the application is made is to be treated as having on commencement the approval of the Authority for the purposes of section 59 of the Act (approval for particular arrangements) in relation to the functions to which the application relates.

(3) An approval which a person is to be treated as having is referred to in this Part as an “interim approval”.

(4) Without prejudice to the exercise by the Authority of its powers under Part 5 of the Act, an interim approval lapses—

- (a) where the application relates to an activity of the kind specified by article 63B or 63F of the Regulated Activities Order or article 64 of that Order, so far as relevant to any such activity, when the application has been finally decided;
- (b) where the application relates to an activity of the kind specified by article 25B, 25C, 53B or 53C of the Regulated Activities Order or article 64 of that Order, so far as relevant to any such activity—
 - (i) when the application has been finally decided; or
 - (ii) at the beginning of 6th April 2008, whichever is the earlier.

(5) In this article, “finally decided” means—

- (a) when the application is withdrawn;
- (b) when the Authority grants the application for approval under section 62 of the Act (applications for approval: procedure and right to refer to Tribunal);
- (c) where the Authority has refused an application and the matter is not referred to the Tribunal, when the time for referring the matter to the Tribunal has expired;
- (d) where the Authority has refused an application and the matter is referred to the Tribunal, when—

- (i) if the reference is determined by the Tribunal (including a determination following remission back to the Tribunal for rehearing in accordance with section 137(3)(a) of the Act), the time for bringing an appeal has expired; or
- (ii) on an appeal from a determination by the Tribunal on a point of law, the Court itself determines the application in accordance with section 137 of the Act.

Application of the Authority's rules etc. to persons with an interim permission or an interim approval

39.—(1) The Authority may direct in writing that any relevant provision which would otherwise apply to a person by virtue of his interim permission or interim approval is not to apply or is to apply to him as modified in the way specified in the direction.

(2) Where the Authority makes a rule, gives guidance or issues a statement or code which applies only to persons with an interim permission or an interim approval (or only to a class of such persons), sections 65 (statements and codes: procedure), 155 (consultation) and 157(3) (guidance) of the Act do not apply to that rule, guidance, statement or code.

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (1) a “relevant provision” is any provision made as a result of the exercise by the Authority of any of its legislative functions mentioned in paragraph 1(2) of Schedule 1 to the Act (the Financial Services Authority).

Application of the Act etc.

40. The Schedule modifies the application of the Act and the Regulated Activities Order in relation to persons with an interim permission or an interim approval.

SCHEDULE

Article 40

APPLICATION OF THE ACT AND THE REGULATED ACTIVITIES ORDER TO PERSONS WITH AN INTERIM PERMISSION OR AN INTERIM APPROVAL

1. Paragraphs 2 and 3 apply to every person with an interim permission.
2. For the purposes of section 20 (authorised persons acting without permission), a person's interim permission is treated as having been given to him under Part 4 of the Act.
3. A person's interim permission is to be disregarded for the purposes of—
 - (a) section 38(2) (exemption orders);
 - (b) section 40(2) (application for permission);
 - (c) subject to paragraph 7, section 42 (giving permission);
 - (d) section 43 (imposition of requirements); and
 - (e) section 44(1), (4) and (5) (variation etc at request of authorised person).
4. Paragraphs 5(1) and 6 to 10 apply to a person who falls within section 31(1) (authorised persons) by virtue only of having an interim permission.
- 5.—(1) A person with an interim permission is to be treated on or after commencement as an authorised person for the purposes of the Act (and any provision made under the Act), unless otherwise expressly provided for by this Schedule.
 (2) A person with an interim approval is to be treated on or after commencement as an approved person for the purposes of the Act (and any provision made under the Act).
6. For the purposes of section 21(2) (restrictions on financial promotion), a person with an interim permission is not to be treated as an authorised person for the purposes of communicating or approving the content of a communication except where the communication invites or induces a person to enter into (or offer to enter into) an agreement the making or performance of which constitutes a controlled activity which corresponds to a regulated activity which is covered by his interim permission.
7. A person with an interim permission may still be an appointed representative within the meaning of section 39(2) (exemption of appointed representatives) (and hence may be treated as exempt from the general prohibition as a result of section 39(1) for the purposes of section 42(3) (a) (giving permission)).
8. Subsection (3)(a) of section 213 (the compensation scheme) does not apply to—
 - (a) a person who is a relevant person, within the meaning of that section, by virtue only of having an interim permission; or
 - (b) an appointed representative of such person.
9. In article 29 of the Regulated Activities Order (arranging deals with or through authorised persons), with the exception of the first reference, the references to an “authorised person” do not include a person with an interim permission.
10. In sub-paragraph (a) of both paragraphs (2) and (3) of article 29A of the Regulated Activities Order (arrangements made in the course of administration by authorised person), the references to an “authorised person” do not include a person with an interim permission.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order amends the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001 (the “principal Order”) so as to specify as regulated activities for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (c. 8) (“FSMA”) the activities of entering into, administering, arranging and advising on regulated home reversion plans and regulated home purchase plans. The matters with respect to which regulated activities may be specified include finance arrangements in connection with the acquisition or disposal of land (paragraph 23A of Schedule 2 to FSMA, inserted by the Regulation of Financial Services (Land Transactions) Act 2005 (c. 24)). The Order also clarifies an existing provision relating to high net worth companies.

Article 3 inserts new definitions and makes a consequential amendment to the definition of “overseas person” in the principal Order.

Article 4 inserts new articles into the principal Order which specify the new regulated activities of arranging regulated home reversion plans (“home reversion arranging”) and arranging regulated home purchase plans (“home purchase arranging”).

Articles 5 to 11 amend articles 26 to 33A of the principal Order, so as to apply the exclusions specified in those articles to home reversion arranging and home purchase arranging. Those exclusions relate, for example, to arrangements not causing a deal, the provision of the means of communication between the parties to a transaction, arrangements to which the arranger is a party and arrangements where the transaction is with or through an authorised person.

Article 13 inserts new articles into the principal Order which specify the new regulated activities of advising on regulated home reversion plans (“home reversion advising”) and advising on regulated home purchase plans (“home purchase advising”).

Articles 14 and 15 amend respectively articles 54 and 54A of the principal Order so as to apply the exclusion specified in those articles to home reversion advising and home purchase advising. Those exclusions relate to advice given in the media and advice given in the course of administration by an authorised person.

Article 17 amends article 61 of the principal Order to provide that products which have the features of both a regulated home purchase plan and a regulated mortgage contract will not be considered a regulated mortgage contract.

Article 18 inserts new articles into the principal Order which specify the new regulated activities of entering into and administering regulated home reversion plans (“home reversion entry”) and entering into and administering regulated home purchase plans (“home purchase entry”) and apply exclusions relating to arranging administration by an authorised person and administration pursuant to an agreement with an authorised person.

Articles 19, 20 and 21 amend respectively articles 66, 67 and 72 of the principal Order so as to extend certain other exclusions to home reversion and home purchase entry, home reversion and home purchase arranging and home reversion and home purchase advising.

Article 22 amends the definition of “high net worth company” in article 72F of the principal Order to clarify that in order to be a high net worth company and benefit from the exception for business angel-led enterprise capital funds, a company must execute the specified document in a manner which binds it.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

Articles 23 and 24 insert new articles into the principal Order which specify rights under regulated home reversion plans and rights under regulated home purchase plans as specified investments and exclude such rights from the scope of article 89 of the principal Order.

Articles 25 to 28 make consequential amendments to the Consumer Credit Act 1974 (c. 39), the Companies Act 1985 (c. 6), the Law of Property (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1989 (c. 34) and FSMA.

Articles 29 to 35 make consequential amendments to other secondary legislation including other instruments made under FSMA.

Article 37 confers an interim permission on certain applicants who have applied for permission under Part 4 of FSMA to enter into, administer, arrange or advise on regulated home reversion plans or regulated home purchase plans and whose application is pending on the date (6th April 2007) when those activities become regulated activities.

Article 38 confers interim approval, in similar terms to those in article 36, on people who are working for a person who has applied for a Part IV permission and who would need approval under Part 5 of FSMA.

Article 39 enables the Financial Services Authority to modify, amongst other things, its rules in their application to persons with an interim permission or interim approval.

Article 40 and the Schedule provide for the application of provisions in FSMA and the principal Order to persons with an interim permission or interim approval, indicating where such provisions are to be treated as including or not including such persons.
