- (c) a counterclaim has been made under rule 39 and a defence to the counterclaim has not been filed, and, in any of those cases, the relevant time for filing has expired.

(2) A default judgment may not be given if the defendant has made an application—

- (a) disputing the Tribunal’s jurisdiction under rule 34;
- (b) to have the claim struck out under rule 41; or
- (c) for summary judgment under rule 43, and that application has not been disposed of.

(3) Where the claim form has been served on the defendant in accordance with the directions of the Registrar, the claimant may not obtain default judgment unless the claimant has complied with any directions concerning proof of service.

(4) A default judgment given under this rule shall be—

- (a) such judgment as it appears to the Tribunal that the claimant is entitled to on the claim form;
- (b) for an amount to be decided by the Tribunal as to damages, costs and interest or for such other relief to be decided by the Tribunal in accordance with any directions it may give for the determination of those matters.

(5) A default judgment may be given against one of two or more defendants and the claimant may proceed against the other defendants.

(6) The Tribunal may only give a default judgment against one of two or more defendants in accordance with paragraph (5) if it is satisfied that the claim against that defendant can be dealt with separately from the claim against the other defendants.

(7) The Tribunal shall set aside a default judgment if the judgment was wrongly entered because any of the conditions set out in paragraph (1) were not satisfied.

(8) In any other case, the Tribunal may set aside or vary a default judgment (and attach any conditions it may think fit) if—

- (a) the defendant has a real prospect of defending the claim; or
- (b) it appears to the Tribunal that there is some other good reason why—
 - (i) the judgment should be set aside or varied; or
 - (ii) the defendant should be allowed to defend the claim;

(9) In considering whether to set aside or vary a default judgment under paragraph (8)(b), the matters to which the Tribunal shall have regard include whether the person seeking to set aside the judgment made an application to do so promptly.

(10) Where—

- (a) the claimant claimed a remedy in addition to damages;
- (b) the claimant has abandoned its claim for that remedy in order to apply for default judgment; and
- (c) the default judgment is set aside, the abandoned claim is restored when the default judgment is set aside.

Summary judgment

43.—(1) The Tribunal may of its own initiative or on the application of a party, after giving the parties an opportunity to be heard, give summary judgment against a claimant or defendant on the whole of a claim or on a particular issue if—

- (a) it considers that—
 - (i) the claimant has no real prospect of succeeding on the claim or issue; or
 - (ii) the defendant has no real prospect of successfully defending the claim or issue; and
- (b) there is no other compelling reason why the case or issue should be disposed of at a substantive hearing.

(2) The Tribunal may give any directions it considers appropriate for dealing with an application under this rule.

(3) Upon giving summary judgment, the Tribunal may make any consequential order it considers appropriate.

Withdrawal of the claim

44.—(1) The claimant may withdraw its claim only—

- (a) with the consent of the defendant; or
 - (b) with the permission of the Tribunal or, if no Tribunal has been constituted, the President.
- (2) Where a claim is withdrawn, the Tribunal may make any consequential order it thinks fit.

OFFERS TO SETTLE

Settlement offers

45.—(1) For the purposes of this rule and rules 46 to 49—

“Rule 45 Offer” means an offer to settle which is made in accordance with this rule; and

“relevant period” means—

- (a) in the case of an offer made not less than 21 days before the main substantive hearing of the claim, the period specified under paragraph (3)(c) or such longer period as the parties agree; or
- (b) in any other case, the period up to the end of the main substantive hearing of the claim.

(2) A Rule 45 Offer may be made at any time, including before the commencement of proceedings.

(3) A Rule 45 Offer shall—

- (a) be in writing;
- (b) state on its face that it is intended to be a Rule 45 Offer under these Rules;
- (c) except where the Rule 45 Offer is made less than 21 days before the start of the substantive hearing of the claim, specify a period of not less than 21 days within which the defendant will be liable for the claimant’s costs in accordance with rule 48 if the offer is accepted;
- (d) state whether it relates to the whole of the claim, to part of it or to an issue that arises in it and, if so, to which part or issue;
- (e) state whether it takes into account any counterclaim; and
- (f) where it is made by some, but not all, of a number of defendants, state whether or not it is made in satisfaction of the claim against all defendants.

(4) A Rule 45 Offer which offers to pay or offers to accept a sum of money is to be treated as inclusive of all interest until—

- (a) the date on which the period specified under paragraph (3)(c) expires; or
- (b) where paragraph (3)(c) does not apply, a date 21 days after the date the Rule 45 Offer was made.

(5) A defendant's offer that includes an offer to pay all or part of the sum at a date later than 14 days following the date of acceptance is not to be treated as a Rule 45 Offer unless the claimant accepts the offer.

(6) A Rule 45 Offer is accepted by serving written notice of acceptance on the offeror.

(7) A Rule 45 Offer may—

- (a) be accepted any time before the substantive hearing of the claim, unless it has already been withdrawn;
- (b) only be accepted after the substantive hearing of the claim has started with the permission of the Tribunal.

(8) The fact that a Rule 45 Offer has been made shall not be communicated to the members of the Tribunal deciding the case until all questions of liability and the amount of money to be awarded have been agreed between the parties or determined by the Tribunal.

(9) Paragraph (8) does not apply where—

- (a) the offeror and offeree agree in writing to that effect; or
- (b) although the case has not been decided—
 - (i) any part of, or issue in, the case has been decided; and
 - (ii) the Rule 45 Offer relates only to parts or issues that have been decided.

(10) In a case to which paragraph (9)(b)(i) applies, the members of the Tribunal deciding the case may be told whether or not there are Rule 45 Offers other than those referred to in paragraph (9)(b)(ii), but must not be told the terms of any such other offers unless the offeror and offeree agree in writing to that effect.

(11) Where the claimant wishes to accept a Rule 45 Offer made by one or more, but not all, of a number of defendants—

- (a) if the claimant alleges that the defendants are jointly and severally liable and the Rule 45 Offer states that it is in satisfaction of the claim against all defendants, the claimant may accept the Rule 45 Offer and the Tribunal shall then direct that the claim against the defendants who did not make the Rule 45 Offer be discontinued;
- (b) if the claimant alleges that the defendants are jointly and severally liable and the Rule 45 Offer states that it is in satisfaction of the claim against those defendants making it, the claimant may—
 - (i) serve notice on the defendants making the Rule 45 Offer agreeing not to continue its claims against them in return for payment of the sum offered; and
 - (ii) continue with the claims against the other defendants;
- (c) if the claimant alleges that the defendants are severally but not jointly liable, the claimant may—
 - (i) accept the Rule 45 Offer; and
 - (ii) continue with its claims against the other defendants;
- (d) if the defendants are sued only jointly or in the alternative, the claimant may accept the Rule 45 Offer if—

- (i) the claimant discontinues the claim against those defendants who have not made the Rule 45 Offer; and
- (ii) those defendants give written consent to the acceptance of the Rule 45 Offer.

(12) Service of a notice under paragraph (11)(b)(i) is to be treated as acceptance of the Rule 45 Offer for the purposes of rules 47 to 49 and references in those rules to notice of acceptance are to be construed as including a reference to notice under paragraph (11)(b)(i).

(13) A Rule 45 Offer is to be treated as “without prejudice except as to costs”.

(14) This rule does not preclude a party from making an offer to settle at any time or by any other means but, if not made in accordance with this rule, it shall not have the consequences specified in rules 48 and 49.

Clarification of a Rule 45 Offer

46.—(1) The offeree may, within seven days of a Rule 45 Offer being made, request the offeror to clarify the offer.

(2) If the offeror does not give the clarification requested under paragraph (1) within seven days of receiving the request, the offeree may, unless the substantive hearing of the claim has started, apply for an order that the offeror do so.

(3) If the Tribunal makes an order under paragraph (2), it shall specify the date when the Rule 45 Offer is to be treated as having been made.

Withdrawing or changing a Rule 45 Offer

47.—(1) A Rule 45 Offer may only be withdrawn, or its terms changed, if the offeree has not previously served notice of acceptance.

(2) The offeror withdraws the offer or changes its terms by serving written notice of the withdrawal or change of terms on the offeree.

(3) Subject to paragraph (1), after the expiry of the relevant period—

- (a) the offeror may withdraw the Rule 45 Offer or change its terms without the permission of the Tribunal; or
- (b) the Rule 45 Offer may be automatically withdrawn in accordance with its terms.

(4) Where the offeror changes the terms of a Rule 45 Offer to make it more advantageous to the offeree, such improved offer is to be treated, not as the withdrawal of the original Rule 45 Offer, but as the making of a new Rule 45 Offer on improved terms.

(5) Subject to paragraphs (1) and (6), if the offeror serves notice, before the expiry of the relevant period, of withdrawal of the Rule 45 Offer or change of its terms to be less advantageous to the offeree, that notice has effect on the expiry of the relevant period.

(6) If the offeree serves notice of acceptance of the original Rule 45 Offer before expiry of the relevant period but after the offeror has served a notice of withdrawal of that offer or change of its terms to be less advantageous to the offeree, that acceptance has effect unless the Tribunal gives permission for the original Rule 45 Offer to be withdrawn or its terms changed.

(7) The offeror shall apply for such permission—

- (a) within seven days of the offeree’s notice of acceptance; or
- (b) if earlier, before the first day of the substantive hearing.

(8) On an application under paragraph (7), the Tribunal may give permission for the original Rule 45 Offer to be withdrawn or its terms changed if satisfied that there has been a change of circumstances since the making of the original Rule 45 Offer and that it is in the interests of justice to give permission.

Costs consequences of acceptance of a Rule 45 Offer

48.—(1) Subject to paragraphs (4) and (5), where a Rule 45 Offer is accepted within the relevant period, the claimant is entitled to the relevant costs of the proceedings up to the date on which notice of acceptance of the Rule 45 Offer was served on the offeror.

(2) Subject to paragraph (4), where a Rule 45 Offer is accepted after the expiry of the relevant period, unless the parties have agreed the liability for costs or the Tribunal otherwise directs—

- (a) the claimant is entitled to the relevant costs of the proceedings up to the date on which the relevant period expired; and
- (b) the offeree is liable for the offeror’s relevant costs for the period from the date of expiry of the relevant period to the date on which notice of acceptance was served on the offeror.

(3) The relevant costs for the purposes of paragraphs (1) and (2) are the costs related to the proceedings against the defendants making or accepting the Rule 45 Offer, except where rule 45(11) (a) applies when they are the costs of the proceedings against all defendants.

(4) Where—

- (a) a Rule 45 Offer made less than 21 days before the start of the substantive hearing of the claim is accepted, or
- (b) subject to paragraph (5), a Rule 45 Offer which does not relate to the whole of the claim is accepted at any time, the Tribunal shall make an order as to costs unless the parties have agreed the liability for costs.

(5) Where—

- (a) a defendant’s Rule 45 Offer relates to part only of the claim; and
- (b) at the time of serving notice of acceptance within the relevant period the claimant abandons the balance of the claim, the claimant is only entitled to the costs of such part of the claim unless the Tribunal otherwise directs.

Costs consequences following judgment

49.—(1) This rule applies where a Rule 45 Offer is not accepted and upon judgment being handed down—

- (a) a claimant fails to obtain a judgment more advantageous than a defendant’s Rule 45 Offer; or
- (b) judgment against the defendant is at least as advantageous to the claimant as the proposals contained in a claimant’s Rule 45 Offer.

(2) Where paragraph (1)(a) applies, the Tribunal shall, unless it considers it unjust to do so, order that any defendant who made the Rule 45 Offer, either alone or jointly with any other defendant, is entitled to—

- (a) costs from the date on which the relevant period expired; and
- (b) interest on those costs.

(3) Where paragraph (1)(b) applies, the Tribunal shall, unless it considers it unjust to do so, order that the claimant is entitled to—

- (a) interest on the whole or part of any sum of money (excluding interest) awarded, at a rate not exceeding 10% above base rate for some or all of the period starting with the date on which the relevant period expired;

- (b) costs on the indemnity basis from the date on which the relevant period expired;
 - (c) interest on those costs at a rate not exceeding 10% above base rate; and
 - (d) an additional amount to be determined by the Tribunal in accordance with CPR Rule 36.17(4)(d)(28).
- (4) In considering whether it would be unjust to make the orders referred to in paragraphs (1) and (2), the Tribunal shall take into account all the circumstances of the case including—
- (a) the terms of any Rule 45 Offer;
 - (b) the stage in the proceedings when any Rule 45 Offer was made, including in particular how long before the substantive hearing of the claim started the offer was made;
 - (c) the information available to the parties to the Rule 45 Offer at the time when the Rule 45 Offer was made;
 - (d) the conduct of the parties to the Rule 45 Offer with regard to the giving or refusal to give information for the purposes of enabling the Rule 45 Offer to be made or evaluated; and
 - (e) whether the offer was a genuine attempt to settle the proceedings.
- (5) Paragraphs (2) and (3) do not apply to a Rule 45 Offer—
- (a) which has been withdrawn;
 - (b) which has been changed so that its terms are less advantageous to the offeree, where the offeree has beaten the less advantageous offer; or
 - (c) made less than 21 days before the substantive hearing of the claim, unless the Tribunal has abridged the relevant period.

 - (d) be determined by the Tribunal taking into account the observations of the parties.

Case management conference etc.

54.—(1) Where it appears to the Tribunal that any proceedings would be facilitated by holding a case management conference or pre-hearing review the Tribunal may, on the request of a party or of its own initiative, give directions for such a conference or review to be held.

(2) Unless the Tribunal otherwise directs, a case management conference is to be held as soon as practicable after the service of the reply or the expiry of the time for the filing of the reply if none is served.

(4) Where it appears to the Tribunal that any proceedings would be facilitated by holding a subsequent case management conference, the Tribunal may, on the request of a party or of its own initiative, give directions for such a conference to be held.

(5) The Tribunal may authorise the President or a chairman to carry out on its behalf a case management conference, pre-hearing review or any other preparatory measure relating to the organisation or disposal of the proceedings.

55.—(1) The Tribunal may give directions as to—

(3) The Tribunal may require any witness to give evidence on oath or affirmation or, if in writing, by way of affidavit.

(4) The Tribunal may allow a witness to give evidence through a video link or by other means.

(5) The Tribunal may dispense with the need to call a witness to give oral evidence if a witness statement or expert report has been submitted in respect of that witness.

(6) The Tribunal may limit cross-examination of witnesses to any extent or in any manner it considers appropriate.

Summoning or citing of witnesses

56.—(1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), the Tribunal may, at any time, at the request of any party, issue a summons (or in relation to proceedings taking place in Scotland, a citation) in any form, requiring any person wherever that person may be in the United Kingdom to do one or both of the following—

- (a) attend as a witness before the Tribunal, at the time and place set out in the summons or citation;
- (b) answer any questions or produce any documents or other material in the possession or under the control of that person which relate to any matter in question in the proceedings.

(2) A request by a party for the issue of a summons or citation under this rule shall state with reasons—

- (a) upon which facts the witness is to be questioned; and
- (b) the documents or material required to be produced.

(3) No person may be required to attend in compliance with a summons or citation under this rule unless the person—

- (a) has been given at least seven days' notice of the hearing; and
- (b) is offered or paid such sum as would be recoverable by that witness in respect of attendance in proceedings before the Senior Courts of England and Wales, the Court of Session or the Court of Judicature of Northern Ireland, as appropriate according to any determination of the Tribunal under rule 18.

(4) The Tribunal may make the summoning or citation of a witness in accordance with paragraph (1) conditional upon the deposit with the Registrar of a sum determined by the Tribunal as sufficient to cover—

- (a) the costs of the summons or citation;
- (b) the sum referred to in paragraph (3)(b).

(5) The Tribunal may direct a party to serve on its behalf a summons issued under this rule and pay the sum referred to in paragraph (3)(b).

Failure to comply with directions

57.—(1) If any party fails to comply with any direction given in accordance with these Rules, the Tribunal may, if it considers that the justice of the case so requires, order that—

- (a) the requirements of the direction be waived;
- (b) the failure be remedied;
- (c) such party be debarred from taking any further part in the proceedings without the permission of the Tribunal;
- (d) such party (or its representative) be subject to an order for any costs the Tribunal sees fit.

(2) Before making an order under paragraph (1)(c) or (d), the Tribunal shall give the party (or its representative) the opportunity to make submissions as to why the order should not be made.

FAST-TRACK PROCEDUREFast-track procedure

58.—(1) The Tribunal may, at any time, either of its own initiative or on the application of a party, make an order that particular proceedings be, or cease to be, subject to the fast-track procedure.

- (2) Where the Tribunal has ordered that particular proceedings be subject to the fast-track procedure—
- (a) the main substantive hearing is to be fixed to commence as soon as practicable and in any event within six months of an order of the Tribunal stating that the particular proceedings are to be subject to the fast-track procedure; and
 - (b) the amount of recoverable costs is to be capped at a level to be determined by the Tribunal.
- (3) In deciding whether to make particular proceedings subject to the fast-track procedure the Tribunal shall take into account all matters it thinks fit, including—
- (a) whether one or more of the parties is an individual or a micro, small or medium-sized enterprise within the meaning of Commission Recommendation No. 361 (EC) of 2003 concerning the definition of micro, small and medium-sized enterprises⁽²⁹⁾;

 - (g) whether any disclosure is required and, if so, the likely extent of such disclosure; and
 - (h) the nature of the remedy being sought and, in respect of any claim for damages, the amount of any damages claimed.

SECURITY FOR COSTS

Security for costs

- 59.—(1) A defendant to a claim may seek security for its costs of the proceedings.
- (2) A request for security for costs shall be supported by written evidence.
- (3) Where the Tribunal makes an order for security for costs, it shall—
- (a) determine the amount of security; and
 - (b) direct—
 - (i) the manner in which, and
 - (ii) the time within which,
- the security must be given.
- (4) The Tribunal may make an order for security for costs under this rule if it is satisfied, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, that it is just to make such an order, and—
- (a) one or more of the conditions in paragraph (5) or, as the case may be, paragraph (6) applies; or
 - (b) an enactment permits the Tribunal to require security for costs.
- (5) Where a defendant seeks security for costs against the claimant, the conditions are that—
- (a) the claimant is—
 - (i) resident out of the jurisdiction; but

- (ii) not resident in a Brussels Contracting State, a State bound by the Lugano Convention or a Regulation State, as defined in section 1(3) of the Civil Jurisdiction and Judgments Act 1982⁽³⁰⁾;
 - (b) the claimant is a company or other body (whether incorporated in or outside the United Kingdom) and there is reason to believe that it will be unable to pay the defendant's costs if ordered to do so;
 - (c) the claimant has changed its address since the claim was commenced with a view to evading the consequences of the litigation;
 - (d) the claimant failed to give its address in the claim form, or gave an incorrect address in that form;
 - (e) the claimant is acting as a nominal claimant, other than under section 47B of the 1998 Act (collective proceedings)⁽³¹⁾, and there is reason to believe that it will be unable to pay the defendant's costs if ordered to do so;
 - (f) the claimant has been authorised to act as the class representative in collective proceedings under rule 78 and there is reason to believe that the claimant will be unable to pay the defendant's costs if ordered to do so;
 - (g) the claimant has taken steps in relation to its assets that would make it difficult to enforce an order for costs against it.
- (6) Where a defendant seeks security for costs against someone other than the claimant, the conditions are that the person—
- (a) has assigned the right to the claim to the claimant with a view to avoiding the possibility of a costs order being made against the person; or
 - (b) has contributed or agreed to contribute to the claimant's costs in return for a share of any money or property which the claimant may recover in the proceedings,
- and is a person against whom a costs order may be made.

DISCLOSURE

Disclosure by parties to the proceedings

- 60.—(1) In this rule, and in rules 61 to 65—
- (a) a party discloses a document by stating that the document exists or has existed;
 - (b) a “disclosure report” means a report verified by a statement of truth, which—
 - (i) describes briefly what documents exist or may exist that are or may be relevant to the matters in issue in the case;
 - (ii) describes where and with whom those documents are or may be located;
 - (iii) in the case of electronic documents, describes how those documents are stored;
 - (iv) estimates the broad range of costs that could be involved in giving disclosure in the case, including the costs of searching for and disclosing any electronically stored documents; and
 - (v) states which directions are to be sought regarding disclosure;
 - (c) an “Electronic Documents Questionnaire” means a questionnaire in the form of the questionnaire in the Schedule to Practice Direction 31B of the CPR.

⁽³⁰⁾ 1982 c. 27; relevant amendments were made to section 1 by section 2(2) of the Civil Jurisdiction and Judgments Act 1991 (c. 12), S.I. 1989/1346, S.I. 1990/2591, S.I. 2000/1824, S.I. 2007/1655, S.I. 2009/3131, S.I. 2012/1809 and S.I. 2014/2947.

⁽³¹⁾ 1998 c. 41; section 47B was substituted by paragraph 5 of Schedule 8 to the Consumer Rights Act 2015 (c. 15).

- (2) Subject to paragraph (3) and unless the Tribunal otherwise thinks fit—
 - (a) at the first case management conference, the Tribunal shall decide whether and when the disclosure report and a completed Electronic Documents Questionnaire should be filed; and
 - (b) at a subsequent case management conference, the Tribunal shall decide, having regard to the governing principles and the need to limit disclosure to that which is necessary to deal with the case justly, what orders to make in relation to disclosure.
- (3) The Tribunal may at any point give directions as to how disclosure is to be given, and in particular—
 - (a) what searches are to be undertaken, of where, for what, in respect of which time periods and by whom and the extent of any search for electronically stored documents;
 - (b) whether lists of documents are required;
 - (c) in what format documents are to be disclosed (and whether any identification is required);
 - (d) what is required in relation to documents that once existed but no longer exist; and
 - (e) whether disclosure is to take place in stages.
- (4) A party's duty to disclose documents is limited to documents which are or have been in its control; and for this purpose, a party has or has had a document in its control if—
 - (a) the document is or was in its physical possession;
 - (b) it has or has had a right to possession of the document; or
 - (c) it has or has had a right to inspect or take copies of the document.
- (5) A party need not disclose more than one copy of a document, and for that purpose a copy of a document that contains a modification, obliteration or other marking or feature is to be treated as a separate document.
- (6) Any duty of disclosure continues until the proceedings are concluded.
- (7) If documents to which such a duty extends come to a party's notice at any time during the proceedings, it shall immediately notify every other party.

Documents referred to in statements of case etc.

- 61. A party may request disclosure of any document mentioned in—
- (a) a claim form, defence, or reply to a defence;
 - (b) a witness statement or affidavit; or
 - (c) an expert report, except that any instructions referred to in an expert's report shall not (unless the party serving the report consents) be disclosed without an order of the Tribunal.

Disclosure before proceedings start

- 62.—(1) This rule applies where an application is made to the Tribunal for disclosure before proceedings have started.
- (2) The application shall be supported by evidence.
 - (3) The Tribunal may make an order under this rule only where—
 - (a) the respondent, or an associated body corporate (as defined in section 256 of the Companies Act 2006⁽³²⁾), is likely to be a party to subsequent proceedings;
 - (b) the applicant is also likely to be a party to those proceedings;

(32) 2006 c.46.

- (c) disclosure before proceedings have started is desirable in order to—
 - (i) dispose fairly of the anticipated proceedings;
 - (ii) assist the dispute to be resolved without proceedings; or
 - (iii) save costs; and
- (d) the Tribunal would, if proceedings had started, have ordered disclosure under rule 60.
- (4) An order under this rule shall—
 - (a) specify the documents or the classes of documents which the respondent shall disclose; and
 - (b) require the respondent, when making disclosure, to specify any of those documents—
 - (i) which are no longer in its control; or
 - (ii) in respect of which it claims a right or duty to withhold disclosure.
- (5) Such an order may—
 - (a) require the respondent to indicate what has happened to any documents which are no longer in its control; and
 - (b) specify the time and place for disclosure.

Orders for disclosure against a person not a party

63.—(1) This rule applies where an application is made to the Tribunal by a party for disclosure by a person who is not a party to the proceedings.

- (2) The application shall be supported by evidence.
- (3) The Tribunal may make an order under this rule only where—
 - (a) the documents of which disclosure is sought are likely to support the case of the applicant or adversely affect the case of one of the other parties to the proceedings; and
 - (b) disclosure is necessary in order to dispose fairly of the claim or to save costs.
- (4) An order under this rule shall—
 - (a) specify the documents or the classes of documents which the respondent must disclose; and
 - (b) require the respondent, when making disclosure, to specify any of those documents—
 - (i) which are no longer in its control; or
 - (ii) in respect of which it claims a right or duty to withhold inspection.
- (5) Such an order may—
 - (a) require the respondent to indicate what has happened to any documents which are no longer in its control; and
 - (b) specify the time and place for disclosure.

Claim to withhold inspection or disclosure of a document

64.—(1) A person may apply, without notice, for an order permitting that person to withhold disclosure of a document on the ground that disclosure would damage the public interest.

- (2) Unless the Tribunal orders otherwise, an order of the Tribunal under paragraph (1)—
 - (a) shall not be served on any other person; and
 - (b) shall not be open to inspection by any person.
- (3) A person who wishes to claim a right or a duty to withhold inspection of a document, or part of a document, shall state in writing—

- (a) that that person is claiming such a right or duty; and
 - (b) the grounds on which that person claims that right or duty.
- (4) The statement referred to in paragraph (3) shall be made—
- (a) in the list in which the document is disclosed; or
 - (b) if there is no list, to the person wishing to inspect the document.
- (5) A party may apply to the Tribunal to decide whether a claim made under paragraph (3) should be upheld.
- (6) For the purpose of deciding an application under paragraph (1) or paragraph (5) the Tribunal may—
- (a) require the person seeking to withhold disclosure or inspection of a document to produce that document to the Tribunal;
 - (b) invite any person, whether or not a party, to make representations; and
 - (c) give any directions it considers appropriate.
- (7) An application under paragraph (1) or paragraph (5) shall be supported by evidence.
- (8) This rule does not affect any rule of law which permits or requires a document to be withheld from disclosure or inspection on the ground that its disclosure or inspection would damage the public interest.

Restriction on use of a privileged document inspection of which has been inadvertently allowed

65. Where a party inadvertently discloses a privileged document, the party who has seen the document may use it or its contents only with the permission of the Tribunal.

INTERIM PAYMENTS

Interim payments on claims

66.—(1) An interim payment is an order for payment by the defendant (in one sum or in instalments) on account of any damages or other sum of money (except costs) which the Tribunal may hold the defendant liable to pay.

(2) The claimant may not apply for an order for an interim payment before the end of the period for filing a defence by the defendant against whom the claim is made.

(3) The claimant may make more than one application for an order for an interim payment.

(4) The Tribunal may make an interim payment order if—

- (a) the defendant against whom the order is sought has admitted liability to pay damages to the claimant;
- (b) the claimant has obtained judgment against that defendant for damages to be assessed or for a sum of money (other than costs) to be assessed; or
- (c) it is satisfied that, if the claim were to be heard, the claimant would obtain judgment for a substantial amount of money (other than costs) against that defendant.

(5) The Tribunal shall not order an interim payment of more than a reasonable proportion of the likely amount of the final judgment.

(6) An application for an interim payment shall be supported by evidence and include—

- (a) the grounds on which an interim payment is sought; and
- (b) any directions necessary in the opinion of the claimant for the determination of the application.

(7) On receiving an application for an interim payment the Registrar shall send a copy to all the other parties to the proceedings and shall inform them of the date by which they may submit written or oral observations to the Tribunal.

Injunctions generally

67.—(1) This rule and rules 68 to 70 do not apply to proceedings in Scotland.

Interim injunctions

68.—(1) An order for an interim injunction may be made at any time, including—

How to apply for an interim remedy

69.—(1) The Tribunal may grant an interim remedy on an application made without notice if it appears to the Tribunal that there are good reasons for not giving notice.

(2) An application for an interim remedy shall be supported by evidence, unless the Tribunal orders otherwise.

(3) The evidence in support of the application shall—

- (a) include all material information regarding the applicant's ability to pay under any undertaking as to damages that the Tribunal may require to be given; and
- (b) if the application is made without notice, state the reasons why notice has not been given.

Enforcement

70.—(1) After the granting of an injunction by the Tribunal, if a party contends that the party subject to the injunction has failed to comply, the party so contending may apply to the Tribunal for certification of the matter to the High Court in accordance with paragraph 1A of Schedule 4 to the 2002 Act (Tribunal: procedure)(33).

(2) Any evidence relied on in an application made under paragraph (1) shall be served on all other parties to the proceedings.

(3) The Tribunal may, after giving the parties an opportunity to be heard, make any directions as it thinks fit for determining whether to certify the matter to the High Court.

TRANSFERS

Transfer of claims from the Tribunal

71. The Tribunal may, at any stage of the proceedings, on the request of a party or of its own initiative, and after considering any observations of the parties, direct that all or part of a claim made in proceedings brought under section 47A of the 1998 Act (proceedings before the Tribunal: claims for damages etc.)(34) be transferred to—

(2) Where service of the collective proceedings claim form outside the jurisdiction requires the permission of the Tribunal in accordance with rule 31, the collective proceedings claim form may be served on the defendant only if permission is granted.

(11) Subject to any directions of the Tribunal, the defendant does not need to file a defence before the hearing of the application for a collective proceedings order.

(12) A defendant who opposes an application for a collective proceedings order does not, by doing so, lose any right that the defendant may have to dispute the Tribunal's jurisdiction.

Determination of the application for a collective proceedings order

77.—(1) The Tribunal may make a collective proceedings order, after hearing the parties, only—

- (a) if it considers that the proposed class representative is a person who, if the order were made, the Tribunal could authorise to act as the class representative in those proceedings in accordance with rule 78; and
- (b) in respect of claims or specified parts of claims which are eligible for inclusion in collective proceedings in accordance with rule 79.

(2) If the Tribunal makes a collective proceedings order it may attach such conditions to the order or give such directions as it thinks fit, including—

- (b) directions regarding any class member who is a child or person who lacks capacity.

Authorisation of the class representative

- 78.—(1) The Tribunal may authorise an applicant to act as the class representative—
- (a) whether or not the applicant is a class member, but
 - (b) only if the Tribunal considers that it is just and reasonable for the applicant to act as a class representative in the collective proceedings.
- (2) In determining whether it is just and reasonable for the applicant to act as the class representative, the Tribunal shall consider whether that person—
- (a) would fairly and adequately act in the interests of the class members;
 - (b) does not have, in relation to the common issues for the class members, a material interest that is in conflict with the interests of class members;
 - (c) if there is more than one applicant seeking approval to act as the class representative in respect of the same claims, would be the most suitable;
 - (d) will be able to pay the defendant’s recoverable costs if ordered to do so; and
 - (e) where an interim injunction is sought, will be able to satisfy any undertaking as to damages required by the Tribunal.
- (3) In determining whether the proposed class representative would act fairly and adequately in the interests of the class members for the purposes of paragraph (2)(a), the Tribunal shall take into account all the circumstances, including—
- (a) whether the proposed class representative is a member of the class, and if so, its suitability to manage the proceedings;
 - (b) if the proposed class representative is not a member of the class, whether it is a pre-existing body and the nature and functions of that body;
 - (c) whether the proposed class representative has prepared a plan for the collective proceedings that satisfactorily includes—
 - (i) a method for bringing the proceedings on behalf of represented persons and for notifying represented persons of the progress of the proceedings; and
 - (ii) a procedure for governance and consultation which takes into account the size and nature of the class; and
 - (iii) any estimate of and details of arrangements as to costs, fees or disbursements which the Tribunal orders that the proposed class representative shall provide.
- (4) If the represented persons include a sub-class of persons whose claims raise common issues that are not shared by all the represented persons, the Tribunal may authorise a person who satisfies the criteria for approval in paragraph (1) to act as the class representative for that sub-class.

Certification of the claims as eligible for inclusion in collective proceedings

- 79.—(1) The Tribunal may certify claims as eligible for inclusion in collective proceedings where, having regard to all the circumstances, it is satisfied by the proposed class representative that the claims sought to be included in the collective proceedings—
- (a) are brought on behalf of an identifiable class of persons;
 - (b) raise common issues; and
 - (c) are suitable to be brought in collective proceedings.
- (2) In determining whether the claims are suitable to be brought in collective proceedings for the purposes of paragraph (1)(c), the Tribunal shall take into account all matters it thinks fit, including—

- (a) whether collective proceedings are an appropriate means for the fair and efficient resolution of the common issues;
 - (b) the costs and the benefits of continuing the collective proceedings;
 - (c) whether any separate proceedings making claims of the same or a similar nature have already been commenced by members of the class;
 - (d) the size and the nature of the class;
 - (e) whether it is possible to determine in respect of any person whether that person is or is not a member of the class;
 - (f) whether the claims are suitable for an aggregate award of damages; and
 - (g) the availability of alternative dispute resolution and any other means of resolving the dispute, including the availability of redress through voluntary schemes whether approved by the CMA under section 49C of the 1998 Act⁽³⁷⁾ or otherwise.
- (3) In determining whether collective proceedings should be opt-in or opt-out proceedings, the Tribunal may take into account all matters it thinks fit, including the following matters additional to those set out in paragraph (2)—
- (a) the strength of the claims; and
 - (b) whether it is practicable for the proceedings to be brought as opt-in collective proceedings, having regard to all the circumstances, including the estimated amount of damages that individual class members may recover.
- (4) At the hearing of the application for a collective proceedings order, the Tribunal may hear any application by the defendant—
- (a) under rule 41(1), to strike out in whole or part any or all of the claims sought to be included in the collective proceedings; or
 - (b) under rule 43(1), for summary judgment.
- (5) Any member of the proposed class may apply to make submissions either in writing or orally at the hearing of the application for a collective proceedings order.

The collective proceedings order

- 80.—(1) A collective proceedings order shall authorise the class representative to act as such in continuing the collective proceedings and shall—
- (a) state the name and address for service of the class representative or, where there are sub-classes, representatives;
 - (b) state the name of each defendant;
 - (c) describe or otherwise identify the class and any sub-classes;
 - (d) describe or otherwise identify the claims certified for inclusion in the collective proceedings;
 - (e) state the remedy sought;
 - (f) state whether the collective proceedings are opt-in or opt-out collective proceedings;
 - (g) specify the domicile date;
 - (h) specify the time and the manner by which—
 - (i) in the case of opt-in collective proceedings, a class member may opt in;

(37) 1998 c. 41; section 49C of the Competition Act 1998 was inserted by paragraph 12 of Schedule 8 to the Consumer Rights Act 2015 (c. 15).

- (ii) in the case of opt-out collective proceedings, a class member who is domiciled in the United Kingdom on the domicile date may opt out; and
 - (iii) in the case of opt-out collective proceedings, a class member who is not domiciled in the United Kingdom on the domicile date may opt in;
 - (i) order the publication of a notice to class members in accordance with rule 81; and
 - (j) specify the part of the United Kingdom in which the collective proceedings are to be treated as taking place.
- (2) In describing or otherwise identifying the class for the purposes of paragraph (1)(c), it is not necessary for the order to name or specify the number of the class members.

Notice of the collective proceedings order

81.—(1) The class representative shall give notice of the collective proceedings order to class members in a form and manner approved by the Tribunal.

- (2) The notice referred to in paragraph (1) shall—
- (a) incorporate or have annexed to it the collective proceedings order;
 - (b) identify each defendant;
 - (c) contain a summary in easily understood language of the collective proceedings claim form and the common issues;
 - (d) include a statement explaining that any judgment on the common issues for the class members or any sub-class will bind represented persons in the class, or those within the sub-class;
 - (e) draw attention to the provisions of the order setting out what a class member is required to do and by what date so as to opt into or opt out of the collective proceedings and
 - (f) give such other information as the Tribunal directs.

Opting in and opting out of collective proceedings

82.—(1) A class member may on or before the time and in the manner specified in the collective proceedings order—

- (a) in the case of opt-in collective proceedings, opt into the collective proceedings; or
- (b) in the case of opt-out collective proceedings, either—
 - (i) opt out of the collective proceedings; or
 - (ii) if not domiciled in the United Kingdom at the domicile date, opt into the collective proceedings.

(2) A class member who does not opt in or opt out in accordance with paragraph (1) may not do so without the permission of the Tribunal.

(3) In considering whether to grant permission under paragraph (2), the Tribunal shall consider all of the circumstances, including in particular—

- (a) whether the delay was caused by the fault of that class member; and
- (b) whether the defendant would suffer substantial prejudice if permission were granted.

(4) A class member who has already brought a claim that raises one or more of the common issues set out in the collective proceedings order may not be a represented person unless the class member:

- (a) discontinues the claim, or;
- (b) for claims brought in England, Wales or Northern Ireland, applies to stay that claim, or;

- (c) for claims brought in Scotland, applies to sist that claim before the time specified in the collective proceedings order under rule 80(1)(h) to opt into or out of the collective proceedings.

Class records

83.—(1) After a collective proceedings order has been made, the class representative shall establish a register on which it shall record the names of those class members who, in accordance with rule 82, opt in to or opt out of the collective proceedings.

(2) The class representative shall, on request, make such register available for inspection by the Tribunal and any defendant and by such other person as the Tribunal may direct.

Scope of the collective proceedings

84. A class representative may not in collective proceedings bring different claims or bring claims against different defendants to those specified in the collective proceedings order.

Stay of proceedings and variation or revocation of the collective proceedings order

85.—(1) The Tribunal may at any time, either of its own initiative or on the application of the class representative, a represented person or a defendant, make an order for the variation or revocation of the collective proceedings order, or for the stay or sist of collective proceedings.

(2) In deciding whether to vary or revoke a collective proceedings order, the Tribunal shall take account of all the relevant circumstances, including in particular—

- (a) whether the criteria for certification of claims set out in rule 79 still apply or apply in the same way as when the order was made; and
- (b) whether the class representative continues to satisfy the criteria for authorisation set out in rule 78 and if not, whether a suitable alternative class representative can be authorised;
- (c) whether the Tribunal has granted the class representative permission to withdraw in accordance with rule 87 and it will not be substituted.

(3) If the Tribunal makes an order under paragraph (1), the order may also make further provision including—

- (a) that the proceedings should be discontinued in whole or in part or continue between different parties and, for that purpose, the Tribunal may—
 - (i) order the addition, removal or substitution of parties; or
 - (ii) order the amendment of the collective proceedings claim form;
- (b) that there be substituted as the class representative another person who satisfies the criteria for approval in rule 78;
- (c) as regards costs.

(4) If the Tribunal varies the collective proceedings order so as to alter the description or identification of class members, it may also make any other orders that it considers appropriate, including an order relating to the specified time for the purposes of rules 80 and 82.

Individual settlement by the class representative in opt-in proceedings

86. If the class representative in opt-in collective proceedings is a member of the class and settles in whole or part its personal claim included within the collective proceedings, it shall promptly give notice of that fact—

- (a) to all represented persons; and

(b) to the Tribunal.

Applications for withdrawal by the class representative

87.—(1) A class representative may only withdraw from acting in that capacity in the collective proceedings if the Tribunal gives permission for the withdrawal.

(2) The Tribunal may only give permission for the withdrawal under paragraph (1)—

(5) The Registrar shall publish a summary of the application for a collective settlement order on the Tribunal website.

Determination of the application for a collective settlement order

(6) The Tribunal may make a collective settlement order only—

- (b) does not have, in relation to the common issues for the class members, a material interest that is in conflict with the interests of the class members.

(11) In determining whether the proposed settlement representative would act fairly and adequately in the interests of the class members for the purposes of paragraph (10)(a), the Tribunal may take into account all the circumstances, including—

Costs

- 98.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), costs may be awarded to or against the class representative, but may not be awarded to or against a represented person who is not the class representative, save that—
- (a) if the Tribunal has approved the appointment of a class representative for a sub-class, costs associated with the determination of the common issues for the sub-class may be awarded to or against that person, and not the class representative for the whole class; and
 - (b) costs associated with the determination of individual issues in accordance with rule 88(2) (c) may be awarded to or against the relevant individual represented persons.
- (2) Costs relating to an application made by a class member, whether or not that class member is a represented person under a collective proceedings order, may be awarded to or against that class member.

PART 6
GENERAL AND SUPPLEMENTARY
THE HEARING

Hearing to be in public

99.—(1) Every hearing is to be in public except that a hearing or part of a hearing may be in private if the Tribunal is satisfied that it will be considering information which is, in the opinion of the Tribunal, information of the kind referred to in paragraph 1(2) of Schedule 4 to the 2002 Act.

(2) Where a hearing, or part of it, is to be held in private, the Tribunal may determine who is entitled to attend the hearing or part of it.

Quorum

100.—(1) If, after the commencement of any hearing, the chairman is unable to continue, the President may appoint either of the remaining two members to chair the Tribunal; and in that case the Tribunal is to consist of the remaining two members for the rest of the proceedings.

(2) If the person appointed under paragraph (1) is not a member of the panel of chairmen, the President may attend the proceedings and advise the remaining members on any questions of law arising, or appoint some other suitably qualified person to do so.

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (2), a person is “suitably qualified” if that person is, or is qualified for appointment as, a member of the panel of chairmen.

(4) If, after the commencement of any hearing, a member of the Tribunal (other than its chairman) is unable to continue, the President may decide that the Tribunal is to consist of the remaining two members for the rest of the proceedings.

(5) Where in accordance with this rule the Tribunal consists of two members, a decision of the Tribunal shall be unanimous.

CONFIDENTIALITY

Requests for confidential treatment

101.—(1) A request for the confidential treatment of any document or part of a document provided in the course of proceedings before the Tribunal shall—

(a) be made in writing indicating the relevant words, figures or passages for which confidentiality is claimed; and

(b) be supported in each case by specific reasons, and, if so directed by the Registrar, the person making the request shall supply a non-confidential version of the relevant document.

(2) In the event of a dispute as to whether confidential treatment should be accorded, the Tribunal shall decide the matter after hearing the parties and having regard to the need to exclude information of the kind referred to in paragraph 1(2) of Schedule 4 to the 2002 Act.

(3) The Tribunal may direct that documents, or parts of a document, containing confidential information are disclosed within a confidentiality ring.

Subsequent use of documents provided in proceedings

102.—(1) Subject to paragraphs (2) to (4), a party to whom a document has been provided in the course of proceedings—

- (a) by the Tribunal;
- (b) by another party; or
- (c) in accordance with an order under rule 63, may use that document only for the purpose of those proceedings.

(2) Except where a document or a part of a document has been provided within a confidentiality ring, the restriction in paragraph (1) does not apply to a document if—

- (a) subject to paragraph (5), the document has been read to or by the Tribunal, or referred to, at a hearing which has been held in public;
- (b) the Tribunal gives permission; or
- (c) the party who produced or disclosed the document and the person to whom the document belongs agree.

(3) Where a document or part of a document has been provided within a confidentiality ring, the restriction in paragraph (1) applies unless the Tribunal gives permission for further use of that document or the information contained in the document or part of a document.

(4) The restriction in paragraph (1) does not prevent the CMA or any statutory body which is the maker of a disputed decision that is remitted to it by the Tribunal from using such documents for the purposes of determining the remitted issue.

(5) The Tribunal may, either of its own initiative or on the application of a party under paragraph (6), make an order restricting or prohibiting the use of any document provided in the course of proceedings, even where the document has been read to or by the Tribunal, or referred to, at a hearing which has been held in public.

(6) An application for such an order may be made—

- (a) by a party;
- (b) by any person to whom the document belongs; or
- (c) by any person who claims that the document contains confidential information relating to them.

to proceedings under section 47A (claims for damages) or 47B (collective proceedings) of the 1998 Act⁽³⁹⁾, where the representation by a legal representative was provided free of charge.

(2) The Tribunal may at its discretion, subject to rules 48 and 49, at any stage of the proceedings make any order it thinks fit in relation to the payment of costs in respect of the whole or part of the proceedings.

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (2), applications made under rule 62 or 63 are considered to be proceedings of the Tribunal.

(4) In making an order under paragraph (2) and determining the amount of costs, the Tribunal may take account of—

- (b) any schedule of incurred or estimated costs filed by the parties;
- (c) whether a party has succeeded on part of its case, even if that party has not been wholly successful;

- (b) dealt with by the detailed assessment of a costs officer of the Senior Courts of England and Wales or a taxing officer of the Court of Judicature of Northern Ireland or by the Auditor of the Court of Session, as appropriate.

(6) The power to award costs under paragraphs (1) to (5) includes the power to direct any party to pay to the Tribunal such sum as may be appropriate in reimbursement of any costs incurred by the Tribunal in connection with the summoning or citation of witnesses or the instruction of experts on the Tribunal's behalf; and any sum due as a result of such a direction may be recovered by the Tribunal as a civil debt due to the Tribunal.

Interest

105.—(1) If it imposes, confirms or varies any penalty under Part 1 of the 1998 Act, the Tribunal may, in addition, order that interest is to be payable on the amount of any such penalty from such date, not being a date earlier than the date of the notice of appeal, and at such rate, as the Tribunal considers appropriate.

(2) Interest ordered to be paid under paragraph (1) is to form part of the penalty and be recoverable as a civil debt in addition to the amount recoverable under section 36 of the 1998 Act⁽⁴⁰⁾.

(3) If it makes an award of damages the Tribunal may include in any sum awarded interest on all or any part of the damages in respect of which the award is made, for all or any part of the period between the date when the cause of action arose and—

- (a) in the case of any sum paid before the decision making the award, the date of the payment; and

(4) Unless the Tribunal otherwise directs, the rate of interest ordered to be paid or included in an award in accordance with this rule shall not exceed the rate specified in any Order made under section 44 of the Administration of Justice Act 1970⁽⁴¹⁾.

Consent orders

106.—(1) If all the parties agree the terms of an order, the Tribunal may, if it thinks fit, make the order, in which case it shall be identified as having been made by consent.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Rules)

These Rules replace the Competition Appeal Tribunal Rules 2003 (S.I. 2003/1372) and the Competition Appeal Tribunal (Amendment and Communications Act Appeals) Rules 2004 (S.I. 2004/2068), which are revoked subject to savings in rule 119.

The Rules prescribe the procedure to be followed before the Competition Appeal Tribunal established by section 12 of the Enterprise Act 2002 (c. 40) in relation to proceedings before the Tribunal including proceedings under the Competition Act 1998 (c. 41), the Enterprise Act 2002 and the Communications Act 2003 (c. 21).

Part 1 of the Rules contains general provisions including definitions, the governing principles in accordance with which the Rules are to be applied and interpreted by the Tribunal and requirements on parties to co-operate.

Part 2 contains general provision governing the procedure for all proceedings before the Tribunal including provision in relation to the commencement of appeal proceedings and the response to an appeal. Part 2 also contains provision on the preparation of cases for hearing, including the Tribunal's case management powers and provisions regarding evidence and witnesses and the Tribunal's powers to make interim orders.

Part 3 makes specific provision in relation to proceedings under the Enterprise Act 2002 for the review by the Tribunal of decisions in connection with mergers and market investigations and for appeals against penalties under that Act.

Part 4 makes provision in relation to proceedings under section 47A of the Competition Act 1998 (private actions claiming damages for breaches of competition law) as substituted by Schedule 8 to the Consumer Rights Act 2015 (c. 15). This Part provides for the commencement of claims, responses to claims and offers to settle. It includes case management powers for the Tribunal, as well as the power to strike out claims, order similar matters to be heard together, and to add or substitute parties. Part 4 also includes rules reflecting the changes to the regime for private actions introduced by the Consumer Rights Act 2015. In particular, it provides for a fast-track procedure for simpler cases, gives the Tribunal the power to grant injunctions and provides for disclosure in private actions, including pre-action disclosure.

Part 5 regulates the procedure for collective actions under section 47B of the Competition Act 1998 as substituted by the Consumer Rights Act 2015 (which involve a case being brought forward on behalf of a group of claimants to obtain compensation for their losses). It also introduces rules relating to opt-out collective proceedings, which sit alongside the existing opt-in regime. In opt-out proceedings eligible consumers or businesses are automatically included in the proceedings unless they actively choose not to be. It also includes procedure for the authorisation of a class representative and for the certification of claims as being eligible for inclusion in collective proceedings. Part 5 also contains provision for collective settlements.

Part 6 contains general and supplementary provision regarding proceedings before the Tribunal, including provision on hearings, decisions and on appeals from decisions of the Tribunal.

Part 7 contains provision in relation to the reference of price control matters to the Competition and Markets Authority under the Communications Act 2003.

Part 8 revokes existing Rules and makes savings and Part 9 provides for the Secretary of State to review the operation and effect of the Rules and publish a report before 1st October 2020 and every five years after that. Following a review it will fall to the Secretary of State to consider whether the
