SCHEDULE 2

Article 3(2)

Transitional and saving provisions

6. Any proceedings before the Transport Tribunal under any of the provisions of the Transport Act 2000 specified in article 2(2) pending immediately before the date on which this Order comes into force shall continue on and after that date as proceedings before the Upper Tribunal.
7. Where proceedings are continued in the Upper Tribunal by virtue of paragraph 6—
 - (a) where a hearing began before the date on which this order comes into force but was not completed by that date, the Upper Tribunal must, for the continuation of that hearing, be comprised of the person or persons who began it;
 - (b) the Upper Tribunal may give any direction to ensure that proceedings are dealt with fairly and, in particular, may disapply provisions of the Tribunal Procedure Rules and apply the provisions of the Transport Tribunal Rules 2000(10) instead;
 - (c) any direction or order given or made in proceedings which is in force immediately before the date on which this Order comes into force remains in force on and after that date as if it were a direction or order of the Upper Tribunal;
 - (d) if—
 - (i) by virtue of the Transport Tribunal Rules 2000, a requirement on a person to do something by a specified date has effect immediately before the date on which this Order comes into force (the commencement date), and
 - (ii) that requirement has not been complied with by the commencement date,the requirement to do the thing by the specified date continues to apply on and after the commencement date, and is to be treated as if it were a requirement imposed under the Tribunal Procedure Rules.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

8. As regards proceedings arising under any provision specified in article 2(2)—
- (a) where an appeal lies to the Court of Appeal from any decision made by the Transport Tribunal before the date on which this Order comes into force, the right of appeal has not been exercised and the time to exercise that right of appeal has not expired prior to that date, section 13 of the Tribunals, Courts and Enforcement Act 2007 (right of appeal to Court of Appeal etc) shall apply as if the decision were a decision made by the Upper Tribunal, and any reference to the Transport Tribunal in enactments relating to such an appeal, express or otherwise, is to be taken as a reference to the Upper Tribunal;
 - (b) any case remitted by a court on or after the date on which this Order comes into force and which, if it had been remitted before that date would have been remitted to the Transport Tribunal, shall be remitted to the Upper Tribunal.
9. A decision of the Transport Tribunal made under any provision specified in article 2(2) before the date on which this Order comes into force is to be treated on or after that date as a decision of the Upper Tribunal.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order is made under the Tribunals, Courts and Enforcement 2007 (“the 2007 Act”). Part 1 of the 2007 Act created a two tier tribunal structure; the First-tier Tribunal and the Upper Tribunal are established under section 3 of the 2007 Act. Order making powers are provided under Part 1 of the 2007 Act to enable functions of existing tribunals to be transferred into the new structure. This Order transfers further functions of the Transport Tribunal to the Upper Tribunal. A previous transfer of functions was made by the Transfer of Tribunal Functions Order 2009 (S.I. 2009/1885).

Article 2 transfers functions of the Transport Tribunal which relate to bus quality contract schemes to the Upper Tribunal. The listed functions were added to Part 2 of the Transport Act 2000 (c. 38) by the Local Transport Act 2008 (c. 26).

Schedule 1 makes consequential amendments to the Transport Act 2000.

Schedule 2 contains transitional and savings provisions.
