2017 No. 1249

The Policing and Crime Act 2017 (Commencement
No. 6 and Transitional Provisions) Regulations 2017

Transitional provisions

3.—(1) Anything done (or having effect as if done) before the commencement date by or in relation to a transferor in connection with a function transferred to the Director General by a relevant provision of the 2017 Act is to have effect, so far as necessary for continuing its effect on and after the commencement date, as if done by or in relation to the Director General.

(2) Anything which, immediately before the commencement date, is in the process of being done by or in relation to a transferor in connection with a function transferred to the Director General by a relevant provision of the 2017 Act, may be continued by or in relation to the Director General.

(3) Anything which immediately before the commencement date, is in the process of being done by or in relation to the Commission in connection with a function which, by virtue of a relevant provision of the 2017 Act, is exercisable on or after the commencement date by that body (as renamed the Independent Office for Police Conduct⁽¹⁾) and the Director General jointly may be continued by or in relation to that body and the Director General acting jointly.

(4) Any person who, before the commencement date, has been designated by the Commission under paragraph 19(2)(2) of Schedule 3 to the 2002 Act (“the relevant provision”) in respect of an investigation is, if the investigation is not completed or discontinued before that date, to be treated on and after that date as having been designated by the Director General under the relevant provision (as amended by paragraph 56 of Schedule 9 to the 2017 Act) whether or not the person satisfies the conditions for designation under the relevant provision (as amended).

(5) Paragraph (4) does not prevent the Director General from making a further designation in respect of an investigation under paragraph 19(2) of Schedule 3 to the 2002 Act after the commencement date.

(6) Anything—

(a) done (or having effect as if done) before the commencement date by or in relation to the Commission in connection with a historic case; but

(b) which does not fall within paragraph (1), is, to have effect, so far as necessary for continuing its effect after the commencement date as if done by or in relation to the Director General.

(7) Anything which—

(a) immediately before the commencement date, is in the process of being done by or in relation to the Commission in connection with a historic case; but

(b) does not fall within paragraph (2), may be continued by or in relation to the Director General.

(1) The Independent Police Complaints Commission is renamed the Independent Office for Police Conduct by section 9(1) of the 2002 Act. Section 9 is inserted by section 33 of the 2017 Act.

(2) There have been amendments to paragraph 19 which are not relevant.

(8) Any enactment, instrument or other document passed or made before the commencement date is to have effect on and after that date, so far as necessary for the purposes of or in consequence of paragraphs (1) to (7), as if any references (however expressed) to a transferor were references to the Director General.

(9) In this regulation—

“2002 Act” means the Police Reform Act 2002⁽³⁾;

“Commission” means the Independent Police Complaints Commission;

“Director General” means the Director General of the Independent Office for Police Conduct;
