PART 10

Reviews and Appeals

Right to review where the HMRC Commissioners are the appropriate collection authority

26.—(1) This regulation applies where the appropriate collection authority is the HMRC Commissioners.

(2) The HMRC Commissioners must offer a person liable to pay the levy a review of a decision that is an appealable decision of the HMRC Commissioners.

(3) The offer of a review must be made by notice to the person liable to pay the levy at the same time as the appealable decision is notified.

(4) If a person liable to pay the levy accepts the offer of a review, they must notify the HMRC Commissioners in writing of that acceptance within the period of 30 days beginning with—

- (a) the day on which the appealable decision is notified, or
- (b) such later day as is set out in a notice, or a further notice, sent by the HMRC Commissioners to the person liable to pay the levy to extend the period of time in which the offer of a review can be accepted.

⁽⁶⁾ “Tribunal” is defined in section 65(1) of the Act and means the First-tier Tribunal or, where determined by or under Tribunal Procedure Rules, the Upper Tribunal.

- (5) The HMRC Commissioners—
- (a) must review a decision if they receive a notification in accordance with paragraph (4), but
 - (b) may not review a decision if an appeal has been made.

Review out of time

- 27.—(1) The HMRC Commissioners must review a decision if—
- (a) the person liable to pay the levy does not accept the offer of a review within the time allowed under regulation 26(4),
 - (b) the person liable to pay the levy notifies the HMRC Commissioners in writing requesting a review out of time,
 - (c) the HMRC Commissioners are satisfied that the person liable to pay the levy had a reasonable excuse for not accepting the offer within the time allowed, and
 - (d) the HMRC Commissioners are satisfied that the person liable to pay the levy made the request without unreasonable delay after the excuse had ceased to apply.
- (2) The HMRC Commissioners may not review a decision if an appeal has been made.

Review procedure

- 28.—(1) Where the HMRC Commissioners must review a decision, the HMRC Commissioners must, within the review period—
- (a) review the appealable decision,
 - (b) conclude that the appealable decision is to be upheld, varied or cancelled, and
 - (c) give the person liable to pay the levy notice of the conclusions of the review, with reasons.
- (2) Where the HMRC Commissioners do not give notice of the conclusions of the review in accordance with paragraph (1)(c) within the review period—
- (a) the review is to be treated as having concluded that the appealable decision is upheld, and
 - (b) the HMRC Commissioners must notify the person liable to pay the levy of the conclusion which the review is treated as having reached.
- (3) In this regulation “the review period” means—
- (a) where the HMRC Commissioners have been notified in accordance with regulation 26(4) that a review is required, the period of 45 days beginning with the date on which the HMRC Commissioners were so notified,
 - (b) where the HMRC Commissioners have decided to undertake a review in accordance with regulation 27(1), the period of 45 days beginning with the date on which the HMRC Commissioners made that decision, or
 - (c) such other period as the HMRC Commissioners and the person liable to pay the levy may agree.

Reviews where the appropriate collection authority is the Financial Conduct Authority or the Gambling Commission

29. Regulations 26 to 28 do not restrict the ability of the Financial Conduct Authority or the Gambling Commission to conduct a review of a decision, at the request of a person liable to pay the levy.

Appealable decisions

30.—(1) A person may appeal to the tribunal against a decision of the Gambling Commission or the HMRC Commissioners in respect of any of the following matters—

- (a) that a person is a person liable to pay the levy;
- (b) the amount of levy charged for a financial year;
- (c) an assessment of amount of levy due under regulation 11A, 14A or 14B;
- (d) whether or not the appropriate collection authority must repay an amount to a person under regulation 18;
- (e) the amount that the appropriate collection authority must repay to a person under regulation 18;
- (f) whether or not a person is liable to a penalty under regulation 20;
- (g) the amount of a penalty payable under regulation 21.

(2) An appeal must be made to the tribunal by the date which is—

- (a) 30 days after the date the person making the appeal is notified by the Gambling Commission or the HMRC Commissioners of the appealable decision, or
- (b) where the Gambling Commission agrees, or the HMRC Commissioners agree, to review a decision, 30 days after the date on which the person making the appeal is notified of the conclusion of the review.

(3) An appeal may be made after the end of any period specified in paragraph (2) if the tribunal gives permission to do so.

Amounts of levy due must be paid before appeal except in cases of hardship

31.—(1) An appeal relating to a decision that an amount of levy is due from a person may not be considered by the tribunal unless the amount which the Gambling Commission has, or the HMRC Commissioners have, determined to be due has been paid or deposited with the Gambling Commission or the HMRC Commissioners.

(2) But sub-paragraph (1) does not apply if—

- (a) the Gambling Commission is or the HMRC Commissioners are satisfied or, if the Gambling Commission is not or the HMRC Commissioners are not satisfied but the tribunal has decided, on the application of the appellant, that the requirement to pay or deposit the amount would cause the appellant to suffer hardship, and
- (b) the appellant has paid or deposited such other amount (if any) by way of security as the Gambling Commission or the HMRC Commissioners or, as the case may be, the tribunal considers appropriate.

Settling of appeals by agreement

32.—(1) An appropriate collection authority may settle an appeal by way of an agreement in writing (“a settlement agreement”) between the appellant and the appropriate collection authority that is—

- (a) entered into before the appeal is determined, and
- (b) to the effect that the decision appealed against should be upheld without variation, varied in a particular manner, discharged or cancelled.

(2) Where a settlement agreement is entered into in relation to an appeal, the consequences are to be the same (for all purposes) as if, at the time the agreement was entered into, the tribunal had decided the appeal and had upheld the decision without variation, varied it in that manner, discharged it or cancelled it, as the case may be.

(3) Paragraph (2) does not apply if, within 30 days beginning with the date on which the settlement agreement was entered into, the appellant gives notice in writing to the appropriate collection authority that they wish to withdraw from the agreement.

(4) Where an appeal has been made and—

- (a) the appellant notifies the appropriate collection authority, orally or in writing, that the appellant does not wish to proceed with the appeal, and
- (b) the appropriate collection authority does not, within 30 days after that notification, give the appellant notice in writing indicating that it is unwilling that the appeal should be withdrawn, paragraphs (1) to (3) have effect as if, at the date of the appellant’s notification, the appellant and the appropriate collection authority had agreed that the decision under appeal should be upheld without variation.

Payment of levy or penalty where appeal has been determined

33. On the determination of an appeal under regulation 30—

- (a) any levy or penalty overpaid must be repaid;
- (b) any levy or penalty appropriately charged but not yet paid, must be paid, by the date which is 30 days after the date the appeal is determined.

Payment of levy or penalty where there is a further appeal

34.—(1) Where the appellant makes a further appeal, the levy or penalty is to be payable or repayable in accordance with the determination of the tribunal, even though the further appeal is pending.

(2) But if the amount payable is altered by the order or judgment of the Upper Tribunal or court, then—

- (a) if too much levy or penalty has been paid, the amount overpaid must be refunded, with any interest allowed by the order or judgment, and
- (a) if too little levy or penalty has been charged, the amount not yet paid becomes due and payable.”.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations make provision about the assessment, payment, collection and recovery of the economic crime (anti-money laundering) levy (“the levy”) which is charged in accordance with Part 3 of the Finance Act 2022 (c. 3) for the financial year beginning with April 2022 and subsequent financial years (see section 66 of the Finance Act 2022). These Regulations amend the Economic Crime (Anti-Money Laundering) Levy Regulations 2022 (S.I. 2022/269, “the 2022 Regulations”) to complete the introduction of the levy.

The appropriate collection authority is responsible for the collection and management of the levy. The appropriate collection authority is either the Financial Conduct Authority, the Gambling Commission or the HMRC Commissioners, as provided for in section 53(3) of the Finance Act 2022.

Regulation 4 amends regulation 6 of the 2022 Regulations to provide that notifications by the Financial Conduct Authority as to levy due may be amended, replaced or withdrawn.

Regulations 5 and 7 insert new provisions where the appropriate collection authority is the Gambling Commission. The new provisions relate to the ability to amend an economic crime (anti-money laundering) levy return, assessments of levy due by the Gambling Commission, the issuing of notices of recalculation following an assessment and payment of the levy after such an assessment. Regulation 6 omits regulation 10 of the 2022 Regulations (which provided for information to be noted on a register) which is no longer needed.

Regulations 8 and 9 insert new provisions where the appropriate collection authority is the HMRC Commissioners. The new provisions relate to payments of levy due as a result of amendments made to an economic crime (anti-money laundering) levy return and assessments of levy due by the HMRC Commissioners and payment of the levy after such an assessment.

Regulation 10 amends regulation 15 of the 2022 Regulations (death, incapacity or insolvency) to ensure that levy incurred in respect of the period before an insolvency takes effect remains debt due by the person originally liable to pay the levy (and not any person treated as the person liable to pay the levy under regulation 15(2) of the 2022 Regulations) and to make levy incurred after the insolvency takes effect an expense of that insolvency.

Regulation 11 inserts new Parts 7 to 10 into the 2022 Regulations. Part 7 makes provision for information or documents to be supplied to the Financial Conduct Authority or the Gambling Commission on request (section 61 of the Finance Act 2022 already provides the equivalent for the HMRC Commissioners). Part 7 also contains a duty for persons liable to pay the levy to keep and preserve relevant records. Part 8 makes provision relating to the repayment of overpaid levy. Part 9 makes provision relating to enforcement through financial penalties. It includes provision as to when penalties may be imposed, the amount of such penalties (set out in the Schedule to be inserted into the 2022 Regulations by regulation 12) and the procedure for imposing them. Regulation 25 of the 2022 Regulations provides for the transfer of functions relating to the recovery of unpaid amounts from the Financial Conduct Authority or the Gambling Commission to the HMRC Commissioners. Part 10 makes provision for the right to review and the right to appeal of decisions.

Regulation 13 makes a consequential amendment to the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, to add levy functions to the list of functions in respect of which the Financial Conduct Authority is exempt from liability in damages.

An impact assessment has not been prepared for this instrument because the impact of the levy has been assessed, set out and published in advance of provisions being included in the Finance Act
