COMMISSION DECISION

of 18 March 1969

appointing veterinary experts who may be instructed to formulate opinions on slaughterhouses and cutting plants

(69/100/EEC)

THE COMMISSION OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES,

Having regard to the Treaty establishing the European Economic Community;

Having regard to the Council Directive of 26 June 1964¹ on health problems affecting intra-Community trade in fresh meat, as amended by the Directive of 25 October 1966²;

Having regard to the Commission Directive of 13 May 1965³ on the procedure for formulation of opinions concerning the official approval of slaughterhouses and cutting plants in intra-Community trade in fresh meat, and in particular Article 2 (2) thereof;

Whereas under Article 4 (3) of the above-mentioned Council Directive the Commission may have to grant, refuse or withdraw the authorisation to suspend importation of fresh meat from certain slaughterhouses or cutting plants; whereas such decision must be made in the light of the opinion delivered by one or more veterinary experts at the request of the Commission; whereas, pursuant to that Directive, the Commission Directive of 13 May 1965 laid down detailed rules for appointing veterinary experts who may be instructed to formulate opinions and stipulated, in particular, that such veterinary experts be appointed beforehand by the Commission on proposals from the Member States in agreement with the persons concerned;

Whereas the veterinary experts named below were proposed by the Member States and have agreed to their appointment;

HAS ADOPTED THIS DECISION:
