

Directive 97/7/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 20 May 1997 on the protection of consumers in respect of distance contracts (repealed)

Article 12

Binding nature

- 1 The consumer may not waive the rights conferred on him by the transposition of this Directive into national law.
- 2 Member States shall take the measures needed to ensure that the consumer does not lose the protection granted by this Directive by virtue of the choice of the law of a non-member country as the law applicable to the contract if the latter has close connection with the territory of one or more Member States.
