

Directive 2002/14/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 11 March 2002 establishing a general framework for informing and consulting employees in the European Community

Article 10

Transitional provisions

Notwithstanding Article 3, a Member State in which there is, at the date of entry into force of this Directive, no general, permanent and statutory system of information and consultation of employees, nor a general, permanent and statutory system of employee representation at the workplace allowing employees to be represented for that purpose, may limit the application of the national provisions implementing this Directive to:

- (a) undertakings employing at least 150 employees or establishments employing at least 100 employees until 23 March 2007, and
- (b) undertakings employing at least 100 employees or establishments employing at least 50 employees during the year following the date in point (a).
