

Council Regulation (EC) No 834/2007 of 28 June 2007 on organic production and labelling of organic products and repealing Regulation (EEC) No 2092/91

TITLE III

PRODUCTION RULES

CHAPTER 4

Production of processed food

Article 19

General rules on the production of processed food

- 1 The preparation of processed organic food shall be kept separate in time or space from non-organic food.
- 2 The following conditions shall apply to the composition of organic processed food:
 - a the product shall be produced mainly from ingredients of agricultural origin; in order to determine whether a product is produced mainly from ingredients of agricultural origin added water and cooking salt shall not be taken into account;
 - b only additives, processing aids, flavourings, water, salt, preparations of micro-organisms and enzymes, minerals, trace elements, vitamins, as well as amino acids and other micronutrients in foodstuffs for particular nutritional uses may be used, and only in so far as they have been authorised for use in organic production in accordance with Article 21;
 - c non-organic agricultural ingredients may be used only if they have been authorised for use in organic production in accordance with Article 21 or have been provisionally authorised ^{F1}...;
 - d an organic ingredient shall not be present together with the same ingredient in non-organic form or an ingredient in conversion;
 - e food produced from in-conversion crops shall contain only one crop ingredient of agricultural origin.
- 3 Substances and techniques that reconstitute properties that are lost in the processing and storage of organic food, that correct the results of negligence in the processing of these products or that otherwise may be misleading as to the true nature of these products shall not be used.

The measures necessary for the implementation of the production rules contained in this Article, and in particular regarding processing methods and the conditions for the provisional authorisation ^{F2}... mentioned in paragraph 2(c), shall be adopted [^{F3}by the appropriate authority by regulations].
