

Regulation (EC) No 1069/2009 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 21 October 2009 laying down health rules as regards animal by-products and derived products not intended for human consumption and repealing Regulation (EC) No 1774/2002 (Animal by-products Regulation)

TITLE I

GENERAL PROVISIONS

CHAPTER II

Disposal and use of animal by-products and derived products

Section 4

Alternative methods

Article 20

Authorisation of alternative methods

1 The procedure for authorisation of an alternative method of use or disposal of animal by-products or derived products may be initiated either by [^{F1}an appropriate authority] or by an interested party, which may represent several interested parties.

2 Interested parties shall send their applications to the competent authority of the [^{F2}constituent nation] where they intend to use the alternative method.

The competent authority shall evaluate, within a period of two months following receipt of a complete application, whether the application complies with the standard format for applications referred to in paragraph 10.

3 The competent authority shall communicate the applications of the ^{F3}... interested parties, together with a report on its evaluation to the [^{F4}appropriate authority.]

^{F5}4

5 [^{F6}The appropriate authority shall assess whether the method submitted by an interested party or any other method which the appropriate authority considers to be appropriate for authorisation ensures that risks to public or animal health are:

- a controlled in a manner which prevents their proliferation before disposal in accordance with this Regulation or the implementing measures thereof; or
- b reduced to a degree which is at least equivalent, for the relevant category of animal by-products, to the processing methods laid down pursuant to point (b) of the first subparagraph of Article 15(1), and, taking these matters into account, may, by regulations, authorise an alternative method of use or disposal of animal by-products or derived products.]

^{F7} ...

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Regulation (EC) No 1069/2009 of the European Parliament and of the Council, Section 4. (See end of Document for details)
