REGULATION (EU) No 640/2010 OF THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND OF THE COUNCIL of 7 July 2010

establishing a catch documentation programme for bluefin tuna
Thunnus thynnus and amending Council Regulation (EC) No 1984/2003

THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN UNION,

Having regard to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union and in particular Article 43(2) thereof,

Having regard to the proposal from the European Commission,

Having regard to the opinion of the European Economic and Social Committee<sup>(1)</sup>,

Acting in accordance with the ordinary legislative procedure<sup>(2)</sup>,

Whereas:

- (1) The Union is a Contracting Party to the United Nations Convention of 10 December 1982 on the Law of the Sea approved by Council Decision 98/392/EC<sup>(3)</sup>, to the Agreement on the implementation of the provisions of that Convention relating to the conservation and management of straddling stocks and highly migratory fish stocks ratified by Council Decision 98/414/EC<sup>(4)</sup> and to the Agreement to promote compliance with international conservation and management measures by fishing vessels on the high seas accepted by Council Decision 96/428/EC<sup>(5)</sup>. In the framework of those international obligations, the Union participates in efforts made to ensure sustainable management of highly migratory fish stocks.
- (2) The Union is a Contracting Party to the International Convention for the Conservation of Atlantic Tunas pursuant to Council Decision 86/238/EEC<sup>(6)</sup> (ICCAT Convention). The ICCAT Convention provides for a framework for regional cooperation on the conservation and management of tuna and tuna-like species in the Atlantic Ocean and adjacent seas through an International Commission for the Conservation of Atlantic Tunas (ICCAT), and for the adoption of recommendations applicable in the ICCAT Convention area which become binding on the Contracting Parties, cooperating non-contracting Parties, entities and fishing entities (CPCs).
- (3) ICCAT Recommendations 1992-01, 1993-03, 1996-10, 1997-04, 1998-12, 03-19 and 06-15 and Resolutions 1993-02, 1994-04 and 1994-05 on a statistical document programme for bluefin tuna have been implemented by Council Regulation (EC) No 1984/2003 of 8 April 2003 introducing a system for the statistical monitoring of trade in bluefin tuna, swordfish and bigeye tuna within the Community<sup>(7)</sup>.

- (4) As part of the measures to regulate stocks of bluefin tuna, to improve the quality and reliability of statistical data and in order to prevent, deter and eliminate illegal fishing, ICCAT adopted at its annual meeting in Recife (Brazil), on 15 November 2009, Recommendation 09-11 amending Recommendation 08-12 on an ICCAT bluefin tuna catch documentation programme. That Recommendation entered into force on 1 June 2010 and needs to be implemented by the Union.
- (5) In order to ensure that the provisions on an ICCAT bluefin tuna catch documentation programme are easily readable and applied uniformly, the relevant provisions of Regulation (EC) No 1984/2003 related to the ICCAT bluefin tuna statistical document and re-export certificate should be deleted. Therefore, Regulation (EC) No 1984/2003 should be amended accordingly.
- (6) The Commission should be empowered to adopt delegated acts in accordance with Article 290 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union in respect of the transposition of new conservation measures adopted by ICCAT, thus updating and supplementing the Annexes to this Regulation. ### BLUEFIN TUNA CATCH DOCUMENT

Article 3

General provisions

1 Member States shall require a completed bluefin tuna catch document (‘catch document’) for each bluefin tuna landed or transhipped at their ports, caged as specified in Annex IV, and harvested from their farms.

2 Each lot of bluefin tuna domestically traded, imported into, exported or re-exported from the territory of the Union shall be accompanied by a validated catch document – except in cases where Article 4(3) applies – and, where applicable, an ICCAT transfer declaration or a validated bluefin tuna re-export certificate (‘re-export certificate’).

Any such landing, transshipment, caging, harvest, domestic trade, import, export or re-export of bluefin tuna without a completed and validated catch document and, where applicable, a re-export certificate shall be prohibited.

Status: Point in time view as at 07/07/2010.

Changes to legislation: There are outstanding changes not yet made to Regulation (EU) No 640/2010 of the European Parliament and of the Council. Any changes that have already been made to the legislation appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

---

3 Member States shall not place bluefin tuna into a farm not authorised by a Member State or the CPCs or not listed in the ICCAT record of farming facilities authorised to operate for farming of bluefin tuna caught in the ICCAT Convention area.

4 Farm Member States shall ensure that bluefin tuna catches are placed in separate cages or series of cages and partitioned on the basis of the Member State or CPC of origin.

5 By way of derogation from paragraph 4, farm Member States shall ensure that bluefin tuna caught in the context of a joint fishing operation, as defined by Article 2(g) of Council Regulation (EC) No 302/2009 of 6 April 2009 concerning a multiannual recovery plan for bluefin tuna in the eastern Atlantic and Mediterranean<sup>(8)</sup>, are placed in separate cages or series of cages and partitioned on the basis of joint fishing operations.

6 Farm Member States shall ensure that bluefin tuna are harvested from farms in the same year in which they were caught, or before the beginning of the purse seiners fishing period, if harvested in the following year. Where harvesting operations are not completed within that period, farm Member States shall complete and transmit an annual carry-over declaration to the Commission within ten days of the end of that period. That declaration shall include:

- quantities (expressed in kg) and number of fish intended to be carried over,
- year of catch,
- size composition,
- flag Member State or CPC, ICCAT number and name of the catching vessel,
- reference numbers of the catch document corresponding to the catches carried over,
- name and ICCAT number of the fattening facility,
- cage number, and,
- information on harvested quantities (expressed in kg), when completed,

The Commission shall forward such declarations to the ICCAT Secretariat within five days.

7 Quantities carried over in accordance with paragraph 6 shall be placed in separate cages or series of cages in the farm and partitioned on the basis of the catch year.

8 Flag or trap Member States shall provide catch document forms only to their catching vessels and traps authorised to fish bluefin tuna in the ICCAT Convention area, including as by-catch.

9 Each catch document form shall have a unique document identification number. Document numbers shall be specific to the flag or trap Member State and shall be assigned to each catching vessel or trap. Such forms shall not be transferable to another catching vessel or trap.

10 Copies of catch documents shall follow each part of split lots or processed product, using the unique document identification number of the original catch document in order to track them.

11 Domestic trade, import, export and re-export of fish parts other than the meat (i.e. heads, eyes, roes, guts and tails) shall be exempted from the requirements of this Regulation.

Article 4

Validation

1 Catching vessel masters, trap operators, farm operators, sellers, exporters, or their authorised representatives, shall complete a catch document, if possible electronically, by providing the required information in appropriate sections and shall request its validation in accordance with paragraph 2 on each occasion when they land, transfer, cage, harvest, tranship, domestically trade or export bluefin tuna.

2 The catch document shall be validated by a competent authority of the flag, trap or farm Member State or the Member State where the seller or exporter is established. Member States shall validate the catch document for all bluefin tuna only where:

- a a catching vessel flies the flag of the Member State or a trap or farm is established in the Member State that harvested the bluefin tuna,
- b all the information contained in the catch document has been established to be accurate as a result of the verification of the lot,
- c the accumulated amounts to be validated are within their quotas or catch limits of each management year, including, where appropriate, individual quotas allocated to catching vessels or traps, and
- d the bluefin tuna complies with the relevant provisions of the ICCAT conservation and management measures.

3 Validation under paragraph 2 of this Article shall not be required where all the bluefin tuna available for sale are tagged, as referred to in Article 5, by the flag or trap Member State that fished them.

4 Where the bluefin tuna quantities caught and landed are less than 1 tonne or three fish, the fishing logbook or the sales note may be used as a temporary catch document, pending the validation of the catch document within seven days and prior to domestic trade or export.

5 A validated catch document shall include, as appropriate, the information set out in Annex II.

6 A catch document model is set out in Annex III. In cases where a section of the catch document model does not provide sufficient room to completely track movement of bluefin tuna from catch to trade, the relevant information section may be expanded as necessary and attached as an annex. The competent authority of the Member State concerned shall validate the annex as soon as possible, but not later than the next movement of bluefin tuna.

7 Instructions for the issuing, numbering, completion and validation of the catch document are set out in Annex IV.

Article 5

Tagging

1 Member States may require their catching vessels or traps to affix a tag to each bluefin tuna, preferably at the time of kill, but not later than at the time of landing. Tags shall have unique Member State specific numbers and be tamper-proof. The tag numbers shall be linked to the catch document.

Status: Point in time view as at 07/07/2010.

Changes to legislation: There are outstanding changes not yet made to Regulation (EU) No 640/2010 of the European Parliament and of the Council. Any changes that have already been made to the legislation appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

2 A summary of the implementation of the tagging programme shall be submitted to the Commission by the Member States concerned. The Commission shall forward the summaries to the ICCAT Secretariat within a reasonable period of time.

3 The use of tags shall be authorised only when the accumulated catch amounts are within Member States' quotas or catch limits for each management year, including, where appropriate, individual quotas allocated to catching vessels or traps.

CHAPTER III

BLUEFIN TUNA RE-EXPORT CERTIFICATE

Article 6

General provisions

1 Member States shall ensure that each lot of bluefin tuna which is re-exported from their territory is accompanied by a validated re-export certificate.

The re-export certificate shall not apply in cases where farmed bluefin tuna is imported live.

2 The operator responsible for the re-export shall complete the re-export certificate by providing the required information in its appropriate sections and request its validation for the lot of bluefin tuna to be re-exported. The completed re-export certificate shall be accompanied by a copy of the validated catch document(s) relating to the bluefin tuna previously imported.

Article 7

Re-export validation

1 The re-export certificate shall be validated by the competent authority of the re-exporting Member State.

2 The competent authority shall validate the re-export certificate for all bluefin tuna products only when:

- a all the information contained in the re-export certificate has been established to be accurate,
- b the validated catch document(s) submitted in support of the re-export certificate had been accepted for the importation of the products declared on the re-export certificate,
- c the products to be re-exported are wholly or partly the same products appearing on the validated catch document(s), and
- d a copy of the catch document(s) is attached to the validated re-export certificate.

3 The validated re-export certificate shall include the information set out in Annex V.

COMMUNICATION AND VERIFICATION

Article 8

Communication and conservation of validated documents

1 Member States shall communicate, by electronic means, a copy of all validated catch documents or re-export certificates, except in cases where Article 4(3) applies, as soon as possible and in any event within five working days of the date of validation, or without delay where the expected duration of the transportation should not take more than five working days, to the following:

- a the Commission,
- b the competent authorities of the Member State or CPC where the bluefin tuna will be domestically traded, or farmed or imported, and
- c the ICCAT Secretariat.

2 Member States shall keep copies of the validated catch documents and re-export certificates issued or received for at least two years.

Article 9

Verification

1 Member States shall ensure that their competent authorities identify each lot of bluefin tuna landed in, transhipped in, domestically traded in, imported into or exported or re-exported from their territory. The competent authorities shall request and examine the validated catch document(s) and related documentation of each lot of bluefin tuna. The examination shall include the consultation of the database on validation held by the ICCAT Secretariat.

2 The competent authorities may also examine the content of the lot to verify the information contained in the catch document and in related documents and, where necessary, shall carry out verifications with the operators concerned.

3 If, as a result of examinations or verifications carried out pursuant to paragraphs 1 and 2, a doubt arises regarding the information contained in a catch document, Member States shall cooperate with the competent authorities which validated the catch document(s) or re-export certificate(s) to resolve such doubts.

4 If a Member State identifies a lot with no catch document, it shall notify its findings to the delivering Member State or the exporting CPC and, where known, the flag Member State or the flag CPC.

5 Pending the examinations or verifications under paragraphs 1 and 2, Member States shall not release the lot for domestic trade, import or export or, in the case of live bluefin tuna destined for farms, accept the transfer declaration.

6 Where a Member State, as a result of examinations or verifications pursuant to paragraph 1 and in cooperation with the validating authorities concerned, determines that a catch document or re-export certificate is invalid, the domestic trade, import, export or re-export of the lot of bluefin tuna concerned shall be prohibited.

Instructions for the issuing, numbering, completion and validation of the catch document

1. GENERAL PRINCIPLES

Status: Point in time view as at 07/07/2010.

Changes to legislation: There are outstanding changes not yet made to Regulation (EU) No 640/2010 of the European Parliament and of the Council. Any changes that have already been made to the legislation appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

(1) Language

If a language other than an official ICCAT language (English, French and Spanish) is used in completing the catch document, the English translation must be attached to it.

(2) Numbering

Member States must develop unique numbering systems for catch documents using their ISO 2-alpha country code in combination with a number consisting of at least eight digits, of which at least two digits should indicate the year of catch.

Example: FR-09-123456 (where FR stands for France)

In the case of split lots or processed products, copies of the original catch document must be numbered by supplementing the number of the original catch documents with a 2-digit number.

Example: FR-09-123456-01, FR-09-123456-02, FR-09-123456-03, etc.

The numbering must be sequential and preferably printed. The serial numbers of blank catch documents issued shall be recorded according to the name of the recipient.

(3) Validation

The catch document model shall not be a substitute for the prior transfer authorisation or the caging authorisation.
