Article 120

<sup>F4</sup>... Controls in third countries

1 [<sup>F5</sup>Experts appointed by the competent authorities] may perform controls in third countries in order to:

- a verify the compliance or equivalence of third-country legislation and systems, including official certification and the issuance of official certificates, official labels, official marks and other official attestations, with the requirements laid down in the rules referred to in Article 1(2);
- b verify the capacity of the third country control system to ensure that consignments of animals and goods exported to [<sup>F6</sup>Great Britain] comply with relevant requirements established by the rules referred to in Article 1(2) or with requirements recognised to be at least equivalent thereto;
- c collect information and data to elucidate the causes of recurring or emerging problems in relation to exports of animals and goods from a third country.

2 The controls provided for in paragraph 1 shall have particular regard to:

- a the legislation of the third country;
- b the organisation of the third country's competent authorities, their powers and independence, the supervision to which they are subject and the authority they have to enforce the applicable legislation effectively;
- c the training of staff of the competent authority of the third country in the performance of official controls;
- d the resources including analytical, testing and diagnostic facilities available to competent authorities;

Status: Point in time view as at 31/12/2020.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Regulation (EU) 2017/625 of the European Parliament and of the Council, TITLE VI. (See end of Document for details)

- e the existence and operation of documented control procedures and control systems based on priorities;
- f where applicable, the situation regarding animal health, animal welfare, zoonoses and plant health, and procedures for notifying the [<sup>F7</sup>competent authorities in Great Britain] and relevant international bodies of outbreaks of animal diseases and pests of plants;
- g the extent and operation of controls performed by the competent authority of the third country on animals, plants and their products arriving from other third countries; and
- h the assurances which the third country can give regarding compliance with, or equivalence to, the requirements laid down in the rules referred to in Article 1(2).

3 In order to facilitate the efficiency and effectiveness of the controls provided for in paragraph 1, the [<sup>F8</sup>appropriate authority] may, prior to performing such controls, request that the third country concerned provide:

- a the necessary information referred to in Article 125(1); and
- b where appropriate and necessary, the written records on the controls its competent authorities perform.

Inclusion in the list of third countries referred to in point (a) of Article 126(2)

1 The inclusion of a third country or region thereof in the list referred to in point (a) of Article 126(2) shall be made in accordance with paragraphs 2 and 3 of this Article.

[<sup>F362</sup>The appropriate authority may, by means of regulations, approve a request by a third country for inclusion on the list referred to in Article 126(2)(a), provided that the request is accompanied by appropriate evidence and guarantees that consignments of the animals and goods concerned from that third country comply with the conditions referred to in Article 126(1), or with equivalent requirements.]

Status: Point in time view as at 31/12/2020.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Regulation (EU) 2017/625 of the European Parliament and of the Council, TITLE VI. (See end of Document for details)

3 The [<sup>F37</sup>appropriate authority] shall decide on the request referred to in paragraph 2 taking into account, as appropriate:

- a the third country's legislation in the sector concerned;
- b the structure and organisation of the competent authorities of the third country and its control services, the powers available to them, the guarantees that can be provided with regard to the application and enforcement of the legislation of the third country applicable to the sector concerned, and the reliability of the official certification procedures;
- c the performance by the competent authorities of the third country of adequate official controls and other activities to assess the presence of hazards for human, animal or plant health, for animal welfare or, in relation to GMOs and plant protection products, also for the environment;
- d the regularity and rapidity of information supplied by the third country on the presence of hazards for human, animal or plant health, for animal welfare or, in relation to GMOs and plant protection products, also for the environment;
- e the guarantees given by the third country that:
  - (i) conditions applied to the establishments from which animals or goods are exported to [<sup>F38</sup>Great Britain] comply with requirements that are equivalent to those referred to in Article 126(1);
  - (ii) a list of the establishments referred to in point (i) is drawn up and kept up to date;
  - (iii) <sup>F39</sup> ...
  - (iv) the establishments referred to in point (i) are the subject of regular and effective controls by the competent authorities of the third country;
- f the findings of controls performed by the [<sup>F40</sup>experts appointed by the appropriate authority] in the third country in accordance with Article 120(1);
- g any other information or data on the capability of the third country to ensure that only animals or goods which provide the same or an equivalent level of protection as that afforded by the relevant requirements referred to in Article 126(1) enter [<sup>F41</sup>Great Britain].

4 The [<sup>F42</sup>appropriate authority] shall delete the reference to a third country or a region of a third country from the list referred to in point (a) of Article 126(2) where the conditions for inclusion on the list cease to be met. The procedure referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article shall apply.

Special measures regarding the entry [<sup>F43</sup>to Great Britain] of certain animals and goods

1 Where, in cases other than those referred to in Article 53 of Regulation (EC) No 178/2002 and Article 249 of Regulation (EU) 2016/429, there is evidence that the entry into [<sup>F44</sup>Great Britain] of certain animals or goods originating from a third country, a region thereof or a group of third countries, pose a risk to human, animal or plant health or, as regards GMOs, also to the environment, or where there is evidence that widespread serious non-compliance with the rules referred to in Article 1(2) of this Regulation is taking place, the [<sup>F45</sup>appropriate authority must make regulations laying down] the measures necessary to contain such risk or put an end to the identified non-compliance. <sup>F46</sup>...

2 The [<sup>F47</sup>regulations] referred to in paragraph 1 shall identify animals and goods by referring to their codes from the [<sup>F48</sup>classification system applicable in the United Kingdom, as amended from time to time, whether established and maintained pursuant to section 8(1) of the Taxation (Cross-border Trade) Act 2018 or under any other enactment], and may include:

- a the prohibition of entry into [<sup>F44</sup>Great Britain] of the animals and goods referred to in paragraph 1 originating in or dispatched from the third countries concerned or regions thereof;
- b the requirement that the animals and goods referred to in paragraph 1 originating in or dispatched from certain third countries or regions thereof be subject, prior to dispatch, to specific treatment or controls;
- c the requirement that the animals and goods referred to in paragraph 1 originating in or dispatched from certain third countries or regions thereof be subject, upon entry into [<sup>F44</sup>Great Britain], to specific treatment or controls;
- d the requirement that consignments of the animals and goods referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article originating in or dispatched from certain third countries or regions thereof, be accompanied by an official certificate, an official attestation, or by any other evidence that the consignment complies with requirements established by the rules referred to in Article 1(2) or with requirements recognised to be at least equivalent thereto;
- e the requirement that the evidence referred to in point (d) be provided in accordance with a specific format;
- f other measures necessary to contain the risk.

[<sup>F49</sup>The regulations may include provision allowing the appropriate authority from time to time to specify and publish online the required format for the purposes of point (e);]

3 When adopting the measures referred to in paragraph 2, account shall be taken of:

- a the information collected in accordance with Article 125;
- b any other information that the third countries concerned have provided; and

Article 133

Use of the [F72 computerised information management system] in the case of animals and goods subject to certain official controls

1 In the case of animals or goods whose movements within [F73 Great Britain] or placing on the market are subject to specific requirements or procedures established by the rules referred to in Article 1(2), the [F74 computerised information management system] shall enable the competent authorities at the place of dispatch and other competent authorities responsible for performing official controls on those animals or goods to exchange, in real time, data, information and documents concerning animals or goods [F75 entering or being moved within Great Britain, or concerning the official controls performed on or in relation to those animals or goods.]

The first subparagraph of this paragraph shall not apply to goods subject to the rules referred to in points (g) and (h) of Article 1(2).

2 In the case of exported animals and goods for which [F76 rules in force in the relevant constituent territory of Great Britain] apply in relation to the issuance of the export certificate, the [F77 computerised information management system] shall enable the competent authorities of the place of dispatch and other competent authorities responsible for performing official controls to exchange, in real time, data, information and documents concerning such animals and goods and the outcome of controls performed on those animals and goods.

3 In the case of animals or goods subject to the official controls referred to in Articles 44 to 64, the [F78 computerised information management system] shall:

- a enable the competent authorities at the border control posts and other competent authorities responsible for performing official controls on those animals or goods to exchange, in real time, data, information and documents concerning those animals and goods and on controls performed on those animals or goods;
- b enable the competent authorities at the border control posts to share and exchange relevant data, information and documents with customs authorities and other authorities responsible for performing controls on animals or goods entering [F79 Great Britain] from third countries, and with operators involved in entry procedures, in accordance with the rules adopted pursuant to Articles 15(4) and 75(2) and with [F80 any other relevant legislation in force in the relevant constituent territory of Great Britain]; and
- c support and operate the procedures referred to in point (a) of Article 54(3) and in Article 65(6).
