“33G Head teacher's or principal's decision as to entitlement

- (1) If the head teacher or principal of a student's relevant school or institution is satisfied that any of the grounds in subsection (2) apply, the head teacher or principal may decide that the student is not entitled to follow a course of study which the student has elected to follow under section 33E.
- (2) The grounds referred to in subsection (1) are that—
 - (a) as a result of the student's level of educational attainment, the course of study is not suitable for him or her;
 - (b) as a result of other elections made by the student under section 33E(1), it is not reasonably practicable for him or her to follow the course of study;
 - (c) the amount of time likely to be spent travelling to the place at which the course is likely to be delivered would be detrimental to the student's education;
 - (d) disproportionate expenditure would be incurred if the student were to follow the course of study;
 - (e) the student's or another person's health or safety would be placed unacceptably at risk if the student were to follow the course of study.
- (3) Regulations may make provision connected with the making of decisions under subsection (1), including in particular provision—
 - (a) as to the time or date by which decisions are to be made;
 - (b) as to the procedure to be followed in connection with the making of decisions;
 - (c) for appeals against decisions to be made to the school or institution's governing body or another person specified in the regulations;
 - (d) as to the time or date by which appeals are to be determined;
 - (e) as to the procedure to be followed in connection with the determination of an appeal.
- (4) A head teacher or principal and governing body or other person charged with determining appeals under regulations made under subsection (3) must have regard to any guidance given from time to time by the Welsh Ministers as to the exercise of their functions under this section.
- (5) The Welsh Ministers may by order—
 - (a) amend or omit any paragraph of subsection (2);
 - (b) add additional paragraphs to that subsection;

 - (b) the governing body of an institution within the further education sector in Wales.
- (3) In this section “learner support services” means services which in the opinion of the Welsh Ministers will encourage, enable or assist young persons (directly or indirectly) —
 - (a) to participate effectively in education or training;
 - (b) to take advantage of opportunities for employment; or
 - (c) to participate effectively and responsibly in the life of their communities.
- (4) A direction under subsection (1)—
 - (a) may include provision for grants, loans and other kinds of financial assistance to be provided by the Welsh Ministers (whether or not on conditions);
 - (b) may require a governing body to have regard to guidance given by the Welsh Ministers;
 - (c) may require a governing body when making arrangements with other persons to require those persons to have regard to guidance given by the Welsh Ministers.
- (5) A direction under subsection (1)—
 - (a) may relate to a particular class of young person;
 - (b) may make different provision for different classes of young person;
 - (c) may be revoked or varied by a later direction.
- (6) Where a direction under subsection (1) relates to the provision of a service in the form of advice or information, it must be framed so that—
 - (a) it relates only to information which is presented in an impartial manner; and
 - (b) it relates only to advice which—
 - (i) is given by a person who considers that it will promote the best interests of the young person concerned; and
 - (ii) does not seek to promote, contrary to the young person's best interests, the interests or aspirations of any school, institution or other person.
- (7) In this section—
 - (a) “young persons” means persons who have attained the age of eleven but not the age of twenty six;
