EXPLANATORY NOTES

COMMENTARY ON SECTIONS

Section 45 – Giving compliance notices to any person

74. The Commissioner may only give P a compliance notice if P is open to being required to comply with standards in accordance with Chapter 3.
75. A compliance notice given to P may set out, or refer to, a particular standard only if the standard:
 - is a type of standard with which P could potentially be required to comply (in accordance with Chapter 4); and
 - is specifically applicable to P (in accordance with Chapter 5).
76. Where P is given a compliance notice by the Commissioner, the Commissioner must give P a copy of any relevant code of practice issued under section 68 and inform P of the right of challenge under Chapter 7.
77. Provision about giving compliance notices to contractors is made in section 48.
