as it considers appropriate, having regard to the matters set out in subsection (3).

(3) The matters are—

- (a) the spirit of the original gift,

(5) In this section references to property given include the property for the time being representing the property originally given or property derived from it.

(6) In this section references to the transfer of property to a charity are references to its transfer—

- (c) to any trustee for the charity, or
- (d) to a person nominated by the charity trustees to hold it in trust for the charity, as the scheme may provide.

[<sup>F1</sup>(7) In this section references to the original purposes of a gift are to be read, where the application of the property given has been altered or regulated by a scheme or otherwise, as referring to the purposes for which the property is for the time being applicable.]
