

2011 CHAPTER 16

PART 4

ENFORCEMENT

Enforcement powers

Inspection in connection with licences

24.—(1) An inspector may carry out an inspection in order to check compliance with—

- (a) the conditions subject to which a licence is granted;
- (b) provision made by or under this Act which is relevant to the carrying on of an activity to which a licence relates.

(2) An inspector may, for the purpose of carrying out an inspection under subsection (1), enter—

- (a) premises specified in a licence as premises on which the carrying on of an activity is authorised;
- (b) premises on which the inspector reasonably believes an activity to which a licence relates is being carried on.

(3) Subsection (2) does not authorise entry to any part of premises which is used as a private dwelling unless 24 hours' notice of the intended entry is given to the occupier.
