Planning (Northern Ireland) Order 1972

PART VIII

COMPENSATION

Compensation in respect of tree preservation orders

66.—^F1 A tree preservation order may make provision for the payment by the Department, subject to such exceptions and conditions as may be specified in the order, of compensation in respect of loss or damage caused or incurred in consequence—

- (a) of the refusal of any consent required under the order; or
- (b) of the grant of any such consent subject to conditions.]

(2) In assessing compensation payable under paragraph (1) account shall be taken of—

- (a) any compensation under paragraph (1) which has been paid whether to the claimant or to any other person, in respect of the same tree; and
- (b) any injurious affection to any land of the claimant which would result from the felling of the tree which is the subject of the claim.

^F1 Except in so far as may be otherwise provided by any tree preservation order, any question of disputed compensation under paragraph (1) shall be referred to and determined by the Lands Tribunal.]
