The “forfeiture rule”

3.—(1) In this Order, the “forfeiture rule” means the rule of public policy which in certain circumstances precludes a person who has unlawfully killed another from acquiring a benefit in consequence of the killing.

(2) References in this Order to a person who has unlawfully killed another include a reference to a person who has unlawfully aided, abetted, counselled or procured the death of that other and references in this Order to unlawful killing shall be interpreted accordingly.

Power to modify the rule

4.—(1) Where a court determines that the forfeiture rule has precluded a person (in this Article referred to as the “offender”) who has unlawfully killed another from acquiring any interest in property mentioned in paragraph (4), the court may make an order under this Article modifying the effect of that rule.

(2) The court shall not make an order under this Article modifying the effect of the forfeiture rule in any case unless it is satisfied that, having regard to the conduct of the offender and of the deceased and to such other circumstances as appear to the court to be material, the justice of the case requires the effect of the rule to be so modified in that case.

(3) In any case where a person stands convicted of an offence of which unlawful killing is an element, the court shall not make an order under this Article modifying the effect of the forfeiture rule in that case unless proceedings for the purpose are brought before the expiry of the period of three months beginning with his conviction.

(4) The interests in property referred to in paragraph (1) are—

(a) any beneficial interest in property which (apart from the forfeiture rule) the offender would have acquired—

(i) under the deceased's will or the law relating to intestacy;

(ii) on the nomination of the deceased in accordance with the provisions of any statutory provision; or

(iii) as a donatio mortis causa made by the deceased; or

(b) any beneficial interest in property which (apart from the forfeiture rule) the offender would have acquired in consequence of the death of the deceased, being property which, before the death, was held on trust for any person.

(5) An order under this Article may modify the effect of the forfeiture rule in respect of any interest in property to which the determination referred to in paragraph (1) relates and may do so in either or both of the following ways, that is—

(a) where there is more than one such interest, by excluding the application of the rule in respect of any (but not all) of those interests; and in the case of any such interest in property, by excluding the application of the rule in respect of part of the property.

(6) On the making of an order under this Article, the forfeiture rule shall have effect for all purposes (including purposes relating to anything done before the order is made) subject to the modifications made by the order.

(7) The court shall not make an order under this Article modifying the effect of the forfeiture rule in respect of any interest in property which, in consequence of the rule, has been acquired before the commencement of this Article by a person other than the offender or a person claiming through him.

(8) In this Article—

“property” includes any chose in action; and

“will” includes codicil.

Application for financial provision not affected by the rule

Social Security Commissioner to decide whether rule applies to social security benefits

6<sup>F6</sup>.—(1) Where a question arises as to whether, if a person were otherwise entitled to or eligible for any benefit or advantage under a relevant enactment, he would be precluded by virtue of the forfeiture rule from receiving the whole or part of the benefit or advantage, that question shall (notwithstanding anything in any relevant enactment) be determined by a Commissioner.

[<sup>F7</sup>(1A) Where a Commissioner determines that the forfeiture rule has precluded a person (in this Article referred to as “the offender”) who has unlawfully killed another from receiving the whole or part of any such benefit or advantage, the Commissioner may make a decision under this paragraph modifying the effect of that rule and may do so whether the unlawful killing occurred before or after the coming into operation of this paragraph.

(1B) The Commissioner shall not make a decision under paragraph (1A) modifying the effect of the forfeiture rule in any case unless he is satisfied that, having regard to the conduct of the offender and of the deceased and to such other circumstances as appear to the Commissioner to be material, the justice of the case requires the effect of the rule to be so modified in that case.

(1C) Subject to paragraph (1D), a decision under paragraph (1A) may modify the effect of the forfeiture rule in either or both of the following ways—

- (a) so that it applies only in respect of a specified proportion of the benefit or advantage;
- (b) so that it applies in respect of the benefit or advantage only for specified period of time.

(1D) Such a decision may not modify the effect of the forfeiture rule so as to allow any person to receive the whole or any part of a benefit or advantage in respect of any period before the commencement of this paragraph.

(1E) If the Commissioner thinks it expedient to do so, he may direct that his decision shall apply to any future claim for a benefit or advantage under a relevant enactment, on which a question such as is mentioned in paragraph (1) arises by reason of the same unlawful killing.

(1F) It is immaterial for the purposes of paragraph (1E) whether the claim is in respect of the same or a different benefit or advantage.

(1G) For the purpose of obtaining a decision whether the forfeiture rule should be modified the Department of Health and Social Services may refer to a Commissioner for review any determination of a question such as is mentioned in paragraph (1) that was made before the commencement of paragraphs (1A) to (1F) (whether by a Commissioner or not) and shall do so if the offender requests that Department to refer such a determination.

(1H) Paragraphs (1A) to (1F) shall have effect on a reference under paragraph (1G) as if in paragraph (1A) the words “it has been determined” were substituted for the words “a Commissioner determines”.]

(2) Regulations under this Article may make such provision as appears to the<sup>F8</sup> Lord Chancellor] to be necessary or expedient for carrying this Article into effect; and (without prejudice to the generality of that) the regulations may, in relation to the question mentioned in paragraph (1) or any determination under that paragraph<sup>F7</sup> or any decision under paragraph (1A)]

- (a) apply any provision of any relevant enactment, with or without modifications, or exclude or contain provision corresponding to any such provision; and
- (b) make provision for purposes corresponding to those for which provision may be made by regulations under<sup>F9</sup> Article 16 of the Social Security (Northern Ireland) Order 1998] (matters relating to adjudication).

(3) Regulations under this Article shall be subject to negative resolution.

(4) [<sup>F10</sup>Section 171(3) to (5) of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits (Northern Ireland) Act 1992] (provision about extent of power to make regulations) shall apply to the power to make regulations conferred by this Article as it applies to the power to make regulations conferred by that Act, but as if for references to that Act there were substituted references to this Article.

(5) <sup>F11</sup> In this Article—

“Commissioner” has the same meaning as in the Social Security<sup>F10</sup> Administration (Northern Ireland) Act 1991]; and “relevant enactment” means any provision of the following and any instrument made by virtue of such a provision:
