Extension of powers of trustees of certain charities

Resolution by trustees of old charity to alter objects N.I.

- 3.—(1) This Article applies to any charity—
- (a) which has the following characteristics—
 - (i) the sole or primary object of the charity is the relief of poverty (within any meaning given to that expression under the law of charitable trusts, as applied for the time being), and
 - (ii) it is established for purposes which are by their nature or by the trusts of the charity directed wholly or mainly to the benefit of a particular area in Northern Ireland; and
 - (b) which is not a company or other body corporate; and
 - (c) where—
 - (i) at least 50 years have elapsed since the date of the charity's foundation, or
 - (ii) it is subject to a scheme (whether established by the court or by the Department) for the joint administration of two or more charities, and in the case of each of the charities comprised in the scheme at least 50 years have elapsed since the date of its foundation.
- (2) If the trustees are of the opinion—
- (a) that the objects of the charity may fairly be considered obsolete or lacking in usefulness, or impossible of achievement, having regard to the period that has elapsed since the charity was founded, the social and economic changes that have taken place in that period and other circumstances (if any) relevant to the functioning and administration of the charity, and
 - (b) that an alteration of the charity's objects is required in order that the charity's resources may be applied to better effect, consistently with the spirit of the original gift,
- they may (subject to the following provisions) pass a resolution that the trusts of the charity be modified by replacing the objects of the charity by other objects, being in law charitable, specified in the resolution.
- (3) The objects so specified must be, in the trustees' opinion, not so far dissimilar in character to those of the original charitable gift that this modification of the charity's trusts would constitute an unjustifiable departure from the intentions of the founder of the charity or violate the spirit of the gift.
- (4) The trustees must take such steps as are reasonably open to them to secure the approval to the proposed alteration of objects of any person identifiable as having been the founder of the charity.
- (5) The resolution of the trustees must be unanimous and be in the form set out in Schedule 1.
- (6) Having passed the resolution, the trustees shall—
- (a) give such public notice that they have done so as they think reasonable and justified, having regard to the resources of the charity and the extent of its area of benefit, and
 - (b) send copies of the resolution to the Department, accompanied by a statement of their reasons for being of the opinions specified in paragraphs (2) and (3).

The trustees need not comply with sub-paragraph (a) if they consider that, in all the circumstances, no useful purpose would be served by giving public notice of the resolution.

(7) The Department may, when considering the resolution, require the trustees to provide additional information or explanation as to the circumstances in and by reference to which they have determined to act under this Article or as to their compliance with this Article; and the Department shall take into consideration any representations made by any persons appearing to the Department to be interested.

(8) The Department shall, not more than 3 months from the time when it receives a copy of the resolution from the trustees—

- (a) if it appears to the Department that the requirements of this Article are satisfied in respect of the resolution, and that the proposed alteration of objects is justified in all the circumstances (treating the trustees' opinion under paragraphs (2) and (3) as prima facie well-founded and not to be set aside in the absence of contrary considerations), give to the trustees notice of the Department's concurrence with the resolution, or
- (b) give them notice that further time is required in which to consider the case (but so that not more than an additional 6 months shall be taken for that purpose), or
- (c) give them notice that the Department does not concur with the resolution.

Any notice given by the Department under this paragraph (including any notice of concurrence, or non-concurrence, given after the Department has taken further time for consideration) shall be in writing.

(9) If the Department gives notice of its concurrence with the resolution then, with effect from the date specified in the notice, the trusts of the charity shall, by virtue of this Article, be deemed modified in accordance with the terms of the resolution, and the trust instrument shall have effect accordingly.

(10) References in this Article to a charity's trust instrument include any document which for the time being lays down or regulates the manner in which the charity's property may or must be applied.

(11) This Article does not apply to a charity which is a company or other body corporate.

Power for trustees of small charities to transfer whole property to another charity N.I.

4.—(1) Subject to and in accordance with this Article, the trustees of a charity may pass a resolution that the whole property of the charity be transferred to another charity, to be held and applied by, and as property of, that other charity.

(2) Such a resolution shall not have effect unless in the case of the charity first-mentioned (“the transferor charity”) its gross income in the preceding accounting period was £200 or less; and the trustees must, before passing such a resolution—

- (a) obtain from the trustees of the other charity (“the transferee charity”) written confirmation that they are willing to accept a transfer of property under this Article, and
- (b) have formed the opinion that the objects of the transferee charity are not so far dissimilar in character to those of the original charitable gift that the proposed transfer would constitute an unjustifiable departure from the intentions of the founder of the transferor charity or violate the spirit of the gift.

(3) The trustees must also take such steps as are reasonably open to them to secure the approval to the proposed transfer of any person identifiable as having been the founder of the charity.

(4) The resolution of the trustees must be unanimous and be in the form set out in Schedule 2.

(5) Having passed the resolution, the trustees shall—

- (a) give such public notice that they have done so as they think reasonable and justified, having regard to the resources of the charity and the extent of its area of benefit, and
- (b) send copies of the resolution to the Department accompanied by a statement of their reasons for wishing to effect a transfer of property under this Article.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/10/2009.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Charities (Northern Ireland) Order 1987. (See end of Document for details)

The trustees need not comply with sub-paragraph (a) if they consider that, in all the circumstances, no useful purpose would be served by giving public notice of the resolution.

(6) The Department may, when considering the resolution, require the trustees to provide additional information or explanation as to the circumstances in and by reference to which they have determined to act under this Article or as to their compliance with this Article; and the Department shall take into consideration any representations made by any persons appearing to the Department to be interested.

(7) The Department shall, not more than 3 months from the time when it receives a copy of the resolution from the trustees—

- (a) if it appears to the Department that the requirements of this Article are satisfied in respect of the resolution and that it is a proper case (treating the trustees' opinion under paragraph (2)(b) as prima facie well-founded and not to be set aside in the absence of contrary considerations), give to the trustees notice of the Department's concurrence with the resolution, or
- (b) give them notice that further time is required in which to consider the case (but so that not more than an additional 6 months shall be taken for that purpose), or
- (c) give them notice that the Department does not concur with the resolution.

Any notice given by the Department under this paragraph (including any notice of concurrence, or non-concurrence, given after the Department has taken further time for consideration) shall be in writing.

(8) If the Department gives notice of its concurrence with the resolution, the trustees of the transferor charity shall on receipt of the notice make arrangements for the transfer of the whole property of the charity to the trustees of the transferee charity, to be acquired by that charity on the terms of this Article.

(9) Those terms are as follows—

- (a) all property acquired from the transferor charity which was expendable as income in the hands of that charity is to be treated as expendable in the hands of the transferee charity;
- (b) any property of the transferor charity which was not expendable as income, having formed part of that charity's permanent endowment, is to remain subject to the same restrictions on expenditure as applied before the transfer;
- (c) the whole property acquired by the transferee charity is to be held and applied for the objects of that charity.

(10) The trustees of the transferor charity shall have all such powers as are necessary to transfer the property of the charity under this Article.

(11) This Article does not apply to a charity which is a company or other body corporate.

(12) The Department may by order subject to affirmative resolution amend paragraph (2) by substituting for the sum there specified such other sum as the Department considers appropriate.

Power for very small charities to spend capital N.I.

5.—(1) Where, in the case of a charity having a permanent endowment—

- (a) the value of the endowment is £25 or less and the endowment does not consist of or comprise any land or interest in land, and
- (b) the charity's gross income in the preceding accounting period was £5 or less, and
- (c) the charity trustees are of the opinion that the property of the charity is too small, in relation to its objects, for any useful purpose to be achieved by the expenditure of income alone, the trustees may pass a resolution that the charity ought to be freed from any restrictions imposed by law with respect to expenditure of capital.

(2) Before passing such a resolution, the trustees must consider whether any reasonable possibility exists of effecting a transfer of the charity's property to another charity under Article 4 (disregarding any such transfer as would, in the trustees' opinion, impose on their charity an unacceptable burden of costs).

(3) The resolution of the trustees must be unanimous and be in the form set out in Schedule 3.

(4) Having passed the resolution, the trustees shall send a copy of it to the Department and shall then have power by virtue of this Article to expend any property of the charity without regard to any restriction imposed by law and applying to the expenditure of capital but not to the expenditure of income.

(5) The Department may by order subject to affirmative resolution amend paragraph (1)(a) and (b) by substituting for either of the sums there specified such other sum as the Department considers appropriate.
