1989 No. 490

The Laganside Development (Northern Ireland) Order 1989

PART I
INTRODUCTORY

The designated area

3.—(1) In this Order “the designated area” means such area of land as the Department may by order designate for the purposes of this Order.

(2) The Department may by order alter the area of land for the time being designated by an order under paragraph (1) or this paragraph.

(3) <sup>F1</sup>.....

(4) Where the effect of an order under paragraph (2) is that any area of land ceases to be within the designated area, the order may contain such transitional provisions relating to that land as appear to the Department to be appropriate. <sup>F2</sup> . . .

(5) An order under paragraph (1) or (2)—

- (a) shall define the boundaries of the designated area by means of a map or plan; and
- (b) may designate separate parcels of land as one area.
