The Polygamous Marriages (Northern Ireland) Order 1995

Validity of potentially polygamous marriages

3.—(1) A marriage entered into outside Northern Ireland between parties neither of whom is already married is not void under the law of Northern Ireland on the ground that it is entered into under a law which permits polygamy and that either party is domiciled in Northern Ireland.

(2) This Article does not affect the determination of the validity of a marriage by reference to the law of another country to the extent that it falls to be so determined in accordance with the rules of private international law.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Polygamous Marriages (Northern Ireland) Order 1995, Section 3.
