

---

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order is made only for purposes corresponding to the purposes of Part II of the Private International Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1995.

The Order provides that a potentially polygamous marriage entered into outside Northern Ireland by parties neither of whom is already married shall not be void on the ground that either party is domiciled in Northern Ireland.