
STATUTORY RULES OF NORTHERN IRELAND

1991 No. 364

The Insolvency Rules (Northern Ireland) 1991

PARTS 7 TO 12

PART 9

EXAMINATION OF PERSONS CONCERNED IN COMPANY AND INDIVIDUAL INSOLVENCY

Preliminary

- 9.1.—(1) This Part relates to applications to the court for an order under—
- (a) Article 200 (inquiry into company's dealings when it is, or is alleged to be, insolvent), or
 - (b) Article 337 (inquiry in bankruptcy, with respect to the bankrupt's dealings).
- (2) The following definitions apply—
- (a) the person in respect of whom an order is applied for is “the respondent”;
 - (b) “the applicable Article” is Article 200 or Article 337, according to whether the affairs of a company or those of a bankrupt or (where the application under Article 337 is made by virtue of Article 339) a debtor are in question;
 - (c) the company or, as the case may be, the bankrupt or debtor concerned is “the insolvent”.
