
STATUTORY RULES OF NORTHERN IRELAND

1995 No. 293

The Social Security (Adjudication)
Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1995

PART IV

PROVISIONS RELATING TO PARTICULAR BENEFITS OR PROCEDURES

SECTION C — REVIEW OF DECISIONS

Review in social fund maternity, funeral or heating expenses cases

67. Except in a case to which regulation 57(2), (3) or (4) or regulation 58 applies, a determination on a claim or question relating to maternity or funeral expenses or expenses for heating, which appear to the Department to have been or to be likely to be incurred in cold weather, out of the social fund under Part VIII of the Contributions and Benefits Act and section 64 of the Administration Act shall not be revised on review under sections 23 to 27 and 67 of the Administration Act so as to make such expenses payable or to increase the amount of such expenses payable in respect of a determination of a claim for such expenses made more than 12 months before the date on which the review was requested or, where no request is made, the date of review.