

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

SCHEDULE 2

Child Care Charges to be Deducted in the Calculation of Earnings

7. In a case where there is no information or insufficient information for calculating the average weekly charge paid for child care in accordance with paragraphs 4 to 6, the average weekly charge shall be estimated by reference to information provided by the child minder or person providing the care or, if such information is not available, by reference to information provided by the claimant.