(4) Where different information is applicable to different members, prospective members and beneficiaries, nothing in this regulation shall be construed as requiring the trustees to disclose information in relation to a member, prospective member or beneficiary that is not relevant to that person’s rights or prospective rights under the scheme, or, where disclosure is made to a trade union, of any matter which is not relevant to the rights or prospective rights of members or prospective members who are of a class of employee in relation to which the trade union is a recognised trade union for the purposes of collective bargaining.

(5) The trustees shall notify all members and beneficiaries (except excluded persons) of any change in relation to the scheme which will result in a material alteration in the information referred to in paragraphs 1 to 25 and 29 of Schedule 1, before that change takes effect, where it is practicable so to do, and in any event not later than 3 months after that change has taken effect.

(5) In the case of a scheme which provides money purchase benefits, the information mentioned in paragraphs 5 and 6 of Schedule 2 shall be furnished in relation to those money purchase benefits, as of course, to each member of the scheme eligible for money purchase benefits so far as it relates to such member (except excluded persons), within 9 months of the end of the first scheme year and thereafter at least once in every period of 12 months after the date of his becoming a member of it.

(6) Where a scheme is, or has been, a money purchase scheme, or a scheme which makes provision for the payment of money purchase benefits in relation to one or more members' employments, the information mentioned in paragraph 7 of Schedule 2 shall be sent, as of course, to each such member—

(a) in a case where the trustees or managers of the scheme know of no reason to suppose that the member will not give effect to his rights on the date on which he attains normal pension age, at least 6 months before he attains that age;

(b) in any other case—

(i) if the date of the agreement in respect of when the member is to give effect to his rights (“the date of agreement”) is more than 6 months before the agreed date for giving effect to his rights (“the agreed date”), at least 6 months before the agreed date; and
(ii) if the date of agreement is not more than 6 months before the agreed date, within 7 days of the date of agreement and in any event before the agreed date.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations.)

These Regulations replace the Occupational Pension Schemes (Disclosure of Information) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1986 (“the 1986 Regulations”) which are now revoked. The Regulations supplement changes introduced by the Pensions (Northern Ireland) Order 1995 (“the Order”). They also consolidate and amend those provisions of the 1986 Regulations which are carried forward in these Regulations.

In addition to minor and drafting amendments, the Regulations make the following changes of substance—they provide for information to be given as of course to prospective members;

they set time limits within which the trustees must make available certain documents and limit the maximum charge which trustees can levy for providing documents;
they provide, where practicable, for information about certain changes to be given before they take effect, for trustees to advise members why a scheme is being wound up, and for additional information to be included in the scheme’s annual report;
they provide that money purchase schemes must provide details of the options available to members approaching retirement;
they provide for the disclosure of information in consequence of new requirements introduced by the Order, for example, relating to the minimum funding requirement, actuarial valuations and statements and certificates of schedules of contributions;
they provide for the imposition of penalties by the Occupational Pensions Regulatory Authority (“the Regulatory Authority”).

Regulation 1 relates to the citation, commencement and interpretation.
Regulation 2 sets out the conditions for the application of these Regulations to an occupational pension scheme.
Regulation 3 provides for the trustees to make available documents containing information about the constitution of the scheme for inspection by specified persons, and for copies to be furnished on request.
Regulation 4 and Schedule 1 provide for certain basic information about the scheme to be given by the trustees to prospective or new members as of course and to members and other specified persons on request, and for material alterations to be drawn to the attention of members and other specified persons.
Regulation 5 and Schedule 2 provide for the trustees to make information about individual entitlement available to specified persons in specified circumstances.
Regulation 6 and Schedule 3 provide for the trustees to make available a document which contains the audited accounts, the actuarial statement and certain other information when requested by specified persons.
Regulation 7 provides for the trustees to make available actuarial valuations, the schedule of contributions, the payment schedule and statement of investment principles for inspection by specified persons, and for copies to be furnished on request.
Regulation 8 and Schedule 1 provide for a limited disclosure requirement to be imposed on the trustees of occupational pension schemes which are not tax-approved or public service pension schemes.

Regulation 9 provides that any question as to whether an organisation is an independent trade union recognised for the purposes of collective bargaining in relation to the scheme shall be referred to an industrial tribunal.

Regulation 10 relates to the service of documents by post.

Regulation 11 provides for the imposition of penalties by the Regulatory Authority where requirements imposed by the Regulations are not complied with.

Revocations are made in regulation 12 and Schedule 4.

The Pensions (1995 Order) (Commencement No. 2) Order (Northern Ireland) 1996 (S.R. 1996 No. 91 (C. 4)) provides for the coming into operation of the enabling provisions of the Order under which these Regulations are partly made as follows—

Articles 10(3) and 41(1) and (6), for the purpose only of authorising the making of regulations, on 6th April 1996; and Article 166(1) to (3), in so far as not already in operation, on 6th April 1996.

As these Regulations make in relation to Northern Ireland only provision corresponding to provision contained in regulations made by the Secretary of State for Social Security in relation to Great Britain, the requirement for consultation under Article 117(1) of the Order does not apply by virtue of paragraph (2)(e) of that Article.
