

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

SCHEDULE

Conditions for keeping petshops

16. Reasonable precautions shall be taken for the protection of animals in the case of fire or other emergency and written procedures for emergency precautions shall be kept up to date and shall be made known to all staff.