

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

SCHEDULE 10

Information to be supplied in the event of a Radiation Emergency

1. Information on the type of emergency which has occurred, and, where possible, its characteristics, for example, its origin, extent and probable development.