EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the Industrial Tribunals (Interest on Awards in Sex and Disability Discrimination Cases) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1996 (“the 1996 Regulations”). The amendments are technical in nature. They concern interest on awards that may be made by industrial tribunals.

Regulation 2(1) makes it clear that an award on which interest is calculated in sex or disability discrimination cases does not include an award in respect of costs, allowances or preparation time under the rules of procedure governing industrial tribunals.

Regulation 2(2) amends the 1996 Regulations to reflect industrial tribunals’ power to deal with complaints of harassment as well as of discrimination.
