
STATUTORY RULES OF NORTHERN IRELAND

2013 No. 179

The Local Government (Statutory Transition Committees) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2013

Application of existing local government legislation to statutory transition committees

22. The provisions of the 1972 Act specified in Schedule 2 shall apply to statutory transition committees as they apply to councils as if—

- (a) any reference to a council or to a committee of a council included a reference to a statutory transition committee;
- (b) any reference to a councillor included a reference to a member of a statutory transition committee;
- (c) any reference to the offices of a council included a reference to the place of meeting of a statutory transition committee; and
- (d) any reference to the district of a council included a reference to the districts of all the predecessor councils which have nominated councillors to a statutory transition committee.
