INDUSTRIAL TRAINING

The Industrial Training Levy (Construction Industry) Order (Northern Ireland) 2015

Made - - - - 3rd June 2015

Coming into operation 31st August 2015

This Order gives effect to levy proposals submitted by the Construction Industry Training Board⁽¹⁾ (“the Board”) to the Department for Employment and Learning⁽²⁾ (“the Department”) under Article 23(2) of the Industrial Training (Northern Ireland) Order 1984⁽³⁾ (“the Order of 1984”).

The levy to be paid by any employer in the construction industry does not exceed an amount which the Department estimates is equal to one per cent of the relevant earnings, being the aggregate of the earnings and payments intended to be disbursed as earnings which have been paid or are payable by any such employer to or in respect of persons employed in the industry, in respect of the period specified in the levy proposals.

In relation to the requirement set out at Article 23(3) of the Order of 1984 the levy proposals provide for the exemption of employers who, in view of the small amount of the relevant earnings, ought in the opinion of the Department to be exempted from it.

In relation to the requirement set out at Article 25(6) (a) of the Order of 1984 the levy proposals include proposals that no remission be given to employers in the industry.

In relation to the requirement set out at Article 23(6) of the Order of 1984 the Department is satisfied and the relevant organisations consider, after taking reasonable steps to ascertain the views of the persons they represent, that the levy proposals are necessary to encourage adequate training in the industry.

The conditions set out in Article 23(7) (b) of the Order of 1984 are satisfied.

The Department makes the following Order in exercise of the powers conferred by Articles 23(2) and (3) and 24(3) and (4) of the Order of 1984 and now vested in it.

Appeals

(3) If the Board shall not allow an application for extension of time for appealing, an industrial tribunal shall, upon application to the tribunal by the person assessed to the levy within the period of fourteen days from the date of receipt of the decision of the Board refusing such an application, have the like powers as the Board under paragraph (2).

As in the previous levy period there will be no remission of levy given to employers in the industry.

An employer will be exempt from levy in the fifty-first levy period where the relevant earnings are less than £80,000.
