

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM TO

The Statutory Paternity Pay and Statutory Adoption Pay (Parental Orders and Prospective Adopters) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2015

S.R. 2015 No. 92

1. Introduction

- 1.1. This Explanatory Memorandum has been prepared by the Department to accompany the Statutory Rule (details above) which is laid before the Northern Ireland Assembly.
- 1.2. The Statutory Rule is made under sections 167ZB(2)(a), 167ZBA(2)(b), 167ZC(1A) and (3)(a), (c), (d), (f) and (g), 167ZD(2) and (3), 167ZE(2), (3), (7) and (8), 167ZG(3), 167ZJ(1), (3) (4), (7) and (8), 167ZL(8)(b) to (d), (f) and (g), 167ZLA(2)(b), 167ZM(2) and (3), 167ZN(2), (5) and (6), 167ZP(6), 167ZS(1), (3), (4), (7) and (8) and 171(4) of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits (Northern Ireland) Act 1992, section 5(1)(g), (j) and (q) of the Social Security Administration (Northern Ireland) Act 1992 and Articles 9(1) and (2)(c) and 16(1) of the Employment (Northern Ireland) Order 2002 and is subject to the negative resolution procedure.

2. Purpose

- 2.1. These Regulations modify and amend the Statutory Paternity Pay and Statutory Adoption Pay (General) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2002 (“the 2002 Pay Regulations”) so that those regulations extend coverage to to groups of people. The first group is comprised of foster parents with whom a child is placed with a view to that placement becoming an adoptive placement. The second group is comprised of intended parents who are having a baby with the help of a surrogate (who intend to apply with another person for a parental order under section 54 of the Human Fertilisation and Embryology Act 2008, and expect that order to be granted). The modifications also provide entitlement to statutory paternity pay for qualifying spouses, civil partners and partners of these prospective adopters and intended parents.
- 2.2. 2.3 The Regulations also amend and modify the Statutory Paternity Pay and Statutory Adoption Pay (Administration) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2002 (“the 2002 Administration Regulations”) to cover these entitlements.

3. Background

- 3.1. The Work and Families Act (Northern Ireland) 2015 provides a legislative framework for the making of regulations that allow for the voluntary sharing of leave and pay entitlement between parents following the birth or adoption of a child, and for conferring other rights relating to the first year after birth, or placement, of the child. The Act further facilitates extension to the right to request flexible working for all qualifying employees.
- 3.2. These Regulations are part of a group of Statutory Rules which, taken collectively, have the purpose of enabling eligible working parents to share leave and pay entitlement in respect of children due to be born, or placed for adoption, on or after 5th April 2015.

- 3.3. The 2002 Pay Regulations, which these Regulations modify and amend, provide an entitlement to statutory paternity pay to qualifying fathers or mothers' partners (in birth scenarios) or the partner of an adopter (in adoption situations). They also provide an entitlement to statutory adoption pay for qualifying adopters. The Pay Regulations set out the evidence requirements in order to be entitled to statutory adoption pay or statutory paternity pay.
- 3.4. The 2002 Administration Regulations, which these Regulations amend and modify, provide for the funding of employers' liabilities to make payments of statutory paternity pay or statutory adoption pay and provide for record keeping and the inspection of employers' records.
- 3.5. The modifications to the respective 2002 provisions are as described above.

4. Consultation

- 4.1. Public consultation explaining Great Britain proposals and asking whether it would be appropriate to take forward comparable measures in Northern Ireland took place between 6th June and 23rd August 2013.
- 4.2. The consultation asked for views on the merits of the Great Britain programme; the extent (if any) to which it should be implemented in Northern Ireland; and whether alternative options would be appropriate.
- 4.3. There were 28 substantive responses to the consultation, demonstrating substantial support for the introduction of rights to leave and pay for Northern Ireland's working parents corresponding to the entitlements being brought forward in Great Britain.
- 4.4. The Department considered a number of policy options. The first was to retain unchanged the present leave, pay and/or flexible working arrangements, making such minor legislative amendments as necessary to support that objective. This received no substantive support.
- 4.5. The second option was to develop pay, leave and/or flexible working arrangements bespoke to Northern Ireland. Although the consultation did not make any specific alternative proposals concerning leave and pay, it did ask for stakeholder input on available options. None were identified.
- 4.6. The third option available to the Department was to provide leave, pay and/or flexible working entitlements corresponding to those envisaged in Great Britain. As this option received substantial support, the Department proceeded on this basis.

5. Equality Impact

- 5.1. An assessment of the equality impact of the complete package of proposals concluded that, of the nine equality categories set out under section 75 of the Northern Ireland Act 1998, the primary beneficiaries of the proposals are anticipated to be older workers, male and female employees, dependants and persons with disabilities.

- 5.2. These Regulations, constituting part of that package, will contribute to a positive impact from an equality perspective in that they will support fostering for adoption and surrogacy arrangements, providing those using these arrangements with additional choice and flexibility in balancing their responsibilities at work and in the home.

6. Regulatory Impact

- 6.1. A Regulatory Impact Assessment, carried out on the basis of the corresponding exercise in Great Britain, has identified only modest costs in respect of the package of new rights for working parents.
- 6.2. The assessment anticipates one-off transitional costs across all employers totalling £1,467,000, relating to the cost of management time in changes to payroll/HR systems in implementing the new rights.
- 6.3. Annually recurring costs of £747,000 are expected to be associated with parents exercising the new rights in respect of adoption leave and pay, antenatal appointments, unpaid parental leave and shared parental leave and pay.

7. Financial Implications

- 7.1. Estimated additional costs to the Exchequer in respect of introducing the new rights to Northern Ireland are: one-off transitional costs of £207,000 associated with preparing for the implementation of the new rights; and annually recurring costs totalling £288,000 comprised of administrative costs and costs associated with parents exercising the new rights in respect of adoption leave and pay and shared parental leave and pay.

8. Section 24 of the Northern Ireland Act 1998

- 8.1. The Department is satisfied that the Regulations are compliant with section 24 of the Northern Ireland Act 1998.
- 8.2. The package of which the Regulations are part impacts on family life to the extent that it increases choice and flexibility, improving options with regard to childcare. Negative impacts on the right to family life are not considered to arise.

9. EU Implications

- 9.1. Not applicable.

10. Parity or Replicatory Measure

- 10.1. The Regulations correspond to the Statutory Paternity Pay and Statutory Adoption Pay (Parental Orders and Prospective Adopters) Regulations 2014 in Great Britain (S.I. 2014/2934), and contribute to the continuation and enhancement of a UK wide system of rights for working parents. This reflects the wishes of contributors to successive public consultations in this area of law.

11. Additional Information

- 11.1. Not applicable.

12. 21-Day Rule

- 12.1. These Regulations form part of a very substantial series of Statutory Rules intended to extend new rights to parents of children expecting a child to be born or placed for adoption from 5th April 2015. As there is a need to cater (insofar as is possible) for premature births of babies due on or after 5th April, the Department considers that it is in the interests of this group of new parents to bring these Regulations into operation at the earliest possible date. Doing so enables parents to notify their employers from an early date of plans to avail of the new leave/pay entitlement; 8 weeks' notice is required to be given in order to do so. Given that the proposed system will operate on a UK wide basis, and that the corresponding regulations in Great Britain are already operative, it is also a priority for the Department to introduce relevant Northern Ireland provisions as soon as possible so as to minimise inconsistency and potential for confusion. The Department is conscious that this decision occasions a breach of the 21-day rule but, on balance, considers this action merited for the reasons given.
