

SECTION 2 OF THE POISONS (IRELAND) ACT, 1870,

AS AMENDED BY

SECTION 5 OF THE DANGEROUS DRUGS AND POISONS (AMENDMENT) ACT (NORTHERN IRELAND), 1924, AND BY

SECTION 24 OF THE PHARMACY AND POISONS ACT (NORTHERN IRELAND), 1925.

2. It shall be unlawful to sell any poison either by wholesale or retail unless the box, bottle, vessel, wrapper, or cover in which such poison is contained be distinctly labelled with the name and address of the seller of the poison, with the word "poison," and with the name of the poison, and, in the case of a preparation which contains a poison as one of the ingredients thereof, with such particulars as to the proportion which the poison contained in the preparation bears to the other ingredients as the Governor of Northern Ireland may by Order in Council prescribe; and it shall be unlawful to sell any of the poisons which are named in the first part of the Fourth Schedule to the Pharmacy and Poisons Act (Northern Ireland), 1925, or which may hereafter be added thereto under Section 1 of this Act, to any person unknown to the seller, unless such person is introduced by some person known to the seller; and on every sale of any such article the seller shall, before delivery, make or cause to be made an entry in a book to be kept for that purpose, stating, in the form set forth in the Schedule B, to this Act annexed, the date of the sale, the name and address of the purchaser, the name and quantity of the article sold, and the purpose for which it is stated by the purchaser to be required, to which entry the signature of the purchaser and of the person (if any) who introduced him shall be affixed, and any person selling poison otherwise than is herein provided shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds for the first offence, and to a penalty not exceeding Ten Pounds for the second or any subsequent offence; and for the purposes of this Section the person on whose behalf any sale is made by any apprentice or servant shall be deemed to be the seller; but the provisions of this Section, which are solely applicable to poisons in the first part of the Fourth Schedule to the Pharmacy and Poisons Act (Northern Ireland), 1925, or which require that the label shall contain the name and address of the seller, shall not apply to articles to be exported from Ireland by wholesale dealers nor to sales by wholesale to retail dealers in the ordinary course of wholesale dealing, nor shall any of the provisions of this Section apply to any medicine supplied by a duly qualified apothecary or registered pharmaceutical chemist, nor apply to any article when forming part of the ingredients of any medicine dispensed by a duly qualified apothecary, provided such medicine be labelled in the manner aforesaid with the name and address of the seller, and the ingredients thereof be entered with the name of the person to whom it is sold or delivered, in a book to be kept by the seller for that purpose; and nothing in this Act contained shall repeal or affect any of the provisions of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty intituled "An Act to regulate the sale of Arsenic."

Note.—Regulations 16—23 both inclusive, are also to be printed on the back of the licence.
