THE HOUSING GRANTS (AMENDMENT) RULES (NORTHERN IRELAND), 1928.

1928. No. 78.

Whereas the Ministry of Home Affairs for Northern Ireland in pursuance of the powers conferred on it by the Housing Acts (Northern Ireland), 1890-1927, and of all other powers thereto enabling it, on the 22nd February, 1928, made Rules* (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Rules") prescribing the conditions under which grants might be paid to local authorities and private persons building houses under the Housing Acts :

*See S.R.O. 1928. No. 22 (p. 115 supra):

And whereas it is desirable to amend the principal Rules in manner hereinafter appearing :

Now, therefore, the Ministry of Home Affairs for Northern Ireland in pursuance of the aforesaid powers hereby makes the following Rules :—

1. Part II. of the Second Schedule to the principal Rules shall henceforth be read and have effect subject to the following amendments :—

(a) The following shall be substituted for the paragraph relating to "Roof coverings" :—

"Roof coverings" :—"Roofs must be covered with tiles, slates or other fire resisting material approved by the Ministry. All slates are to be equal in quality to second quality Bangor slates. Roof coverings other than slates such as artificial slates, tiles, etc., shall be of a standard make approved by the Ministry."

(b) The following shall be substituted for the general specification relating to "Timber" :—

Timber.

"General" :—"Timber must be of unsorted quality grown and produced in Canada, Scandinavia, Finland, or European Countries north of Riga."

"Timber in general must be straight, close grained, free from decay, and suitable in durability for the purpose intended."

"All timber must be reasonably free from sapwood and waney edges. It shall not contain any loose, large, dead or rotten knots, or knots approximately one quarter the width of face in question."

"Twist open shakes, cross shakes, upsets and splits will not be permitted."

"All timber shall be properly seasoned and shall receive proper protection against the weather."

"The timber used for external door frames, window frames and sashes shall be good quality red deal."

2. These Rules may be cited as the Housing Grant (Amendment) Rules (Northern Ireland), 1928, and shall be construed as one with the principal Rules.

Given under the Seal of the Ministry of Home Affairs for Northern Ireland this 30th day of July in the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Twenty-eight.

D. L. Clarke,
Assistant Secretary.
