

(xiii) The permanent stretch shown by the water jacket test should not exceed 10 per cent. of the elastic stretch.

(xiv) In cases where cylinders are closed at the end by welding, a further hydraulic test not exceeding 190 atmospheres or 2,850 lbs. per sq. in, should be imposed in order to prove that the cylinders are watertight.

(xv) The weight of any cylinder of a given type should not be less than an agreed minimum dependent upon the designed thickness.

(xvi) Cylinders should be periodically examined to determine the amount of corrosion and to ascertain that there are no surface defects.

(xvii) Each cylinder should undergo the hydraulic test specified in paras. 38 and 39 at least once in two years.

(xviii) If in the case of any particular cylinder, re-heat-treatment is considered to be desirable, that specified in para. 28 should be given. After this re-heat-treatment the cylinder should again be thoroughly examined and be subjected to the hydraulic test.

(xix) A record should be kept of all tests made at the cylinder maker's works, and copies forwarded to the purchasers of the cylinders.

(xx) Provided that the valves are adequately protected by screwed-on caps, cylinders need not be protected by coir mats.

(xxi) All cylinders should be marked with:—

(a) Manufacturer's and owner's mark and rotation number.

(b) Last date of hydraulic test.

(c) Last date of heat treatment.

(d) A mark indicating the specification to which the cylinder has been made.

All marks except those of the manufacturer which may be on the base should be made on the necked end of the cylinder and should be permanent and easily visible.

1931. No. 120.

WHEREAS by Regulation 5 of the Regulations made in accordance with the provisions of the Civil Authorities (Special Powers) Act (Northern Ireland), 1922 (hereinafter referred to as "the Regulation") it is provided that the Minister of Home Affairs may by Order declare the Regulations to be in force in any area :

And whereas the Regulation further provides that in any such area no person, other than a member of the police forces, shall, subject to any exceptions for which provision may be made in the Order, practise, take part in, or be concerned in any exercise, movement, evolution, or drill of a military nature, or be concerned in or assist the promotion or organisation of any such exercise, movement, evolution, or drill by persons other than members of the police forces; and that if any person acts in contravention of the Regulation he shall be guilty of an offence against the Regulations made in accordance with the provisions of the Civil Authorities (Special Powers) Act (Northern Ireland), 1922 :

Now, in pursuance of the powers conferred on him by the Regulation, the Minister of Home Affairs doth hereby order and declare as follows :—

1. From and after the date of this Order the Regulation shall, subject to the exceptions for which provision is hereinafter made, be in force throughout Northern Ireland.

2. The Regulation shall not apply to persons practising, taking part in, or being concerned in any exercise, movement, evolution, or drill of a military nature under the authority and in accordance with the conditions of a permit granted by the Inspector General, Royal Ulster Constabulary, for the time being in force, or to persons concerned in or assisting the promotion or organisation of any such exercise, movement, evolution, or drill so permitted.

3. This Order may be cited as The Military Exercise and Drill (Northern Ireland) Order, 1931.

Given under my hand at Belfast, this 28th day of October, 1931.

R. Dawson Bates,

Minister of Home Affairs for Northern Ireland.
Civil Authority.

1931. No. 85.

WHEREAS certain Regulations for Peace and Order in Northern Ireland are contained in the Schedule to the Civil Authorities (Special Powers) Act (Northern Ireland), 1922, and it is provided by sub-section (3) of Section 1 of the said Act that the Minister of Home Affairs shall have power to make Regulations (a) for making further provision for the preservation of the Peace and Maintenance of Order, and (b) for varying or revoking any provision of the Regulations, whether contained in the said Schedule, or made as aforesaid, and that any Regulations made as aforesaid shall, subject to the provisions of the said Act have effect and be enforced in like manner as Regulations contained in the said Schedule :

Now therefore, I, The Right Honourable Sir Richard Dawson Bates, Minister of Home Affairs for Northern Ireland, do make the following Regulation for making further provision for the preservation of the Peace and Maintenance of Order, and the said Regulation shall be enforced and have effect in like manner
