YOUTH EMPLOYMENT SERVICE

Youth Employment Committees

REGULATIONS, DATED 10TH JULY, 1962, MADE BY THE MINISTRY OF LABOUR AND NATIONAL INSURANCE UNDER THE YOUTH EMPLOYMENT SERVICE ACT (NORTHERN IRELAND), 1961.

The Ministry of Labour and National Insurance, in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (3) of section 3 of the Youth Employment Service Act (Northern Ireland), 1961(a), and of all other powers enabling it in that behalf, hereby makes the following regulations:—

(a) 1961. c. 8.

Citation, commencement and interpretation

1.—(1) These regulations may be cited as the Youth Employment Service (Youth Employment Committees) Regulations (Northern Ireland), 1962, and shall come into operation on the 10th July, 1962.

(2) In these regulations—

“the Act” means the Youth Employment Service Act (Northern Ireland), 1961;

“the Board” means the Northern Ireland Youth Employment Service Board;

“the Ministry” means the Ministry of Labour and National Insurance for Northern Ireland.

Appointment of Youth Employment Committees

2. For the purpose of advising it as to the performance of its functions under the Act and for the purpose of performing such other duties as are specified in these regulations, the Board may appoint for such areas as it may determine advisory committees to be known as Youth Employment Committees and to be constituted in accordance with section 3(3) of the Act and these regulations.

Duties of Youth Employment Committees

3. Each Youth Employment Committee shall advise the Board as to the performance in the area in respect of which the Committee is constituted of its functions under the Act and such Committee shall also assist the Board:—

- (i) in making known the facilities offered by the Youth Employment Service established under the Act and in securing the co-operation of all interested parties in the effective operation of the Service;
- (ii) in encouraging employers and persons for whose benefit the Act was passed to make use of the facilities provided by the Service;
- (iii) in obtaining information as to occupations open to persons for whose benefit the Act was passed;
- (iv) in encouraging the development of schemes for the recruitment and training for employment of such persons;
- (v) in reviewing from time to time the progress made in their employment by such persons; and
- (vi) by advising it upon applications made by or on behalf of persons for whose benefit the Act was passed for any payment, facility or service to be provided by the Ministry under section 3(4) of the Employment and Training Act (Northern Ireland), 1950(a), in connection with the training of such persons.

Power to appoint sub-committees

4. A Youth Employment Committee may appoint such sub-committees as it thinks fit to consider and report upon questions referred to them by the Committee, and any such sub-committee may include persons who are not members of the appointing Committee.

Membership of Youth Employment Committees

5.—(1) Every Youth Employment Committee shall consist of not more than 24 members and shall include amongst its members:—

(a) 1950. c. 29.

- (a) one or more representatives nominated by each Education Committee which functions in the area or any part of the area for which the Committee is appointed;
 - (b) one or more persons as representing teachers in the area for which the Committee is appointed;
 - (c) one or more persons as representing employers in the area for which the Committee is appointed;
 - (d) one or more persons as representing workers in the area for which the Committee is appointed;
 - (e) one other person with experience and knowledge of the conditions affecting the welfare of persons for whose benefit the Act was passed.
- (2) The number of persons on the Committee nominated by Education Committees shall constitute one-half of the total membership of the Committee.
- (3) There shall be appointed to every Youth Employment Committee an equal number of persons representing employers and workers respectively, and the number of persons on the Committee together representing employers and workers shall constitute one-quarter of the total membership of the Committee.
- (4) The proceedings of a Youth Employment Committee shall not be invalidated by any vacancy in the membership of the Committee or by any defect in the appointment or qualification of any member.

Period of Office

6. Subject to the provisions of regulation 7 hereof, the term of office of any person appointed to be a member of a Youth Employment Committee shall be for a period of three years or such other period as may be specified by the Board at the time of his appointment, provided that a member appointed to fill a casual vacancy shall hold office for the unexpired term of office of his predecessor.

7.—(1) The Board may terminate the appointment of any member of any Youth Employment Committee:—

- (a) if it is of the opinion that a member appointed in a representative capacity has ceased to be so representative; and
- (b) if in the interests of the Youth Employment Service the Board is satisfied that it is desirable so to do.

(2) A member of a Youth Employment Committee may resign his office by notice in writing addressed to the Board.

Quorum, Procedure and Place of Meeting

8. The quorum, procedure and place of meeting of any youth employment committee shall be such as may be appointed by standing orders to be made by the Board.

Persons entitled to attend meetings of Committees

9. Inspectors of the Ministry of Education and such officers of the Ministry as may be nominated by it for that purpose, shall, although not members, be entitled to attend meetings of any Youth Employment Committee or sub-committee thereof.
