- (b) an amount to be paid by the employing authority equal to eight per cent. of his remuneration or, if the remuneration is at any time reduced or suspended, of the remuneration which would be taken into account under the provisos to paragraph (1) of regulation 29 in respect of the period of reduction or suspension were the officer's average remuneration being calculated for a period which included that period:

Provided that in the case of an officer whose employment is by way of manual labour, five per cent. and six per cent. shall be substituted for six per cent. and eight per cent. respectively.

(2) There shall be paid by every employing authority in respect of every officer for whom the authority are liable to contribute under paragraph (1) a contribution, supplementary to that payable under the said paragraph, equal to one and one half per cent. of the officer's remuneration which is for the time being taken into account for the purpose of the said paragraph, being remuneration which is paid or is deemed to have been paid on or after the first day of August, 1960:

Provided that nothing in this paragraph shall require the payment of supplementary contributions by the governing body of any hospital to whom these regulations apply by virtue of an agreement entered into under sub-sections (1B), (1C) and (1D) of section 61 of the Act.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of these regulations, an employing authority may, instead of calculating separately in respect of each officer the employer's contributions payable by them to the Ministry, calculate by a method approved by the Ministry the total employing authority's contributions payable by the employing authority in respect of the officers of the employing authority or such class or classes of such officers as may be specified by the Ministry.

(4) The reference in paragraph (1), in the definition of "service" contained in paragraph (1) of regulation 2 and in paragraph (1) of regulation 29 to an officer mentioned in this paragraph is a reference to an officer who—

- (a) has attained the age of seventy years; or
- (b) being a mental health officer or a woman who is a nurse, physiotherapist, midwife or health visitor, has attained the age of sixty-five years; or
- (c) has completed forty-five years service, counting contributing service at its full length and non-contributing service at half its actual length, and has attained—
 - (i) in the case of a mental health officer or a woman who is a nurse, physiotherapist, midwife or health visitor, an age of not less than sixty years; or
 - (ii) in any other case an age of not less than sixty-five years; or
- (d) has or had attained on the date when he first becomes or became an officer whether by virtue of these regulations or of any of the previous regulations—
 - (i) in the case of a mental health officer or of a woman who is a nurse, physiotherapist, midwife or health visitor, the age of sixty years; or
 - (ii) in any other case the age of sixty-five years :

Provided that sub-paragraph (d) shall not apply in the case of a person who before becoming an officer was entitled to a pension or injury allowance payable out of public funds otherwise than under the National Insurance Acts (Northern Ireland), 1946, or who apart from that sub-paragraph might become entitled to a pension under these regulations.

(5) Where an officer, on being transferred to other employment under any employing authority, suffers a reduction in his remuneration, or while continuing in the same employment suffers a reduction in his remuneration which is not attributable to his own act, then, if he gives notice in writing to the employing authority, within one month after the reduction, or such longer period as the Ministry may in any particular case allow, that he wishes this provision to apply to him, he shall pay contributions under this regulation as if his remuneration had not been reduced :

Provided that the provisions of this paragraph shall not apply or shall cease to apply to an officer who has suffered a reduction in his remuneration in the circumstances aforesaid, if at the time of such reduction, or within twelve months thereafter, he entered or enters other employment in circumstances in which—

- (i) a transfer value was or is payable in respect of him; or
- (ii) the Ministry has made or decides to make a payment in respect of him under paragraph (1) of regulation 70.

(6) An officer who is on leave of absence from duty with reduced remuneration or without remuneration shall pay contributions under this regulation on the remuneration on which he was paying contributions immediately before he went on leave of absence, and, notwithstanding the provisions of any enactment or scheme, contributions by and in respect of him shall not be paid during his absence, except in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph, for the purpose of his participation in superannuation benefits :

Provided that where the absence from duty is by reason of illness or injury the provisions of this paragraph shall not apply, unless the officer's remuneration is reduced solely by reason of his having become entitled to benefit under the National Insurance Acts (Northern Ireland), 1946.

(7) The employing authority may deduct from the remuneration payable to an officer the contributions payable by him and, in so far as deductions are not so made, they may recover any such contributions as a simple contract debt in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(8) The employing authority's contributions, and the officer's contributions after they have been obtained from him by the employing authority, shall be paid by the authority to the Ministry.

(9) Subject to the provisions of regulation 55, but notwithstanding any other provisions of these regulations, a person who after leaving employment under an employing authority became engaged in national service shall, as a condition of becoming entitled to reckon any of that service for the purposes of these regulations, pay the like contributions (if any) under this regulation as he would have been liable to pay if, during the period of his national service, he had continued to follow that employment and to have been entitled to the remuneration thereof and if he has paid or pays such contributions the employing authority by whom he was formerly employed shall pay the like contributions in respect of him as they would have been liable to pay if he had so continued to follow his employment as aforesaid.

Officer's pension and retiring allowance

7.—(1) An officer of an employing authority shall be entitled, on ceasing to be employed by them, to receive from the Ministry—

- (a) an annual pension, if either—
 - (i) he has completed ten years service and is incapable of discharging efficiently the duties of his employment by reason of permanent ill-health or infirmity of mind or body; or
 - (ii) he has attained the age of sixty years and completed ten years service; and
- (b) a lump sum retiring allowance, if he satisfies sub-paragraph (a)(i), or has attained the age of sixty years and completed five years service.

(2) A person who, while continuing to be employed in employment under an employing authority, ceases, on or after attaining the age of sixty years, to hold one or more other such employments and on that account ceases to be, in his continuing employment, an officer to whom this part applies, shall be entitled on ceasing to hold that employment to receive from the Ministry—

- (a) an annual pension, if on ceasing to be an officer he had completed ten years service; and
- (b) a lump sum retiring allowance, if on ceasing to be officer he had completed five years service.

(3) In regulation 8 (except where it occurs for the second time in the proviso to paragraph (1), in proviso (ii) to paragraph (3) and in sub-paragraph (a) of paragraph (7)) and, so far as may be necessary for the purpose of calculating a benefit payable under these regulations to or in respect of a person to whom paragraph (2) applies, elsewhere in these regulations, the expression "officer" shall include a person to whom that paragraph applies.

Scales of pension and retiring allowance

8.—(1) The pension to be paid to an officer shall, subject to the provisions of these regulations, be on the following scale:—

- (a) in respect of each year of contributing service, one eightieth of his average remuneration; and
- (b) in respect of each year of non-contributing service, one one-hundred-and-sixtieth of his average remuneration:

Provided that the pension, before any reduction thereof under regulation 44, shall not exceed forty-five eightieths of the officer's average remuneration, and shall not in the case of a pension payable under subparagraph (a)(i) of paragraph (1) of regulation 7 be less than twenty eightieths of such remuneration, or one eightieth of such remuneration in respect of each year of contributing service which he could have completed before attaining the age of sixty-five years, had he continued to be an officer, and one one-hundred-and-sixtieth of such remuneration in respect of each year of non-contributing service, whichever is the less.

(2) The retiring allowance to be paid to an officer shall, subject to the provisions of these regulations, be a sum equal to the aggregate of the following amounts, namely, three eightieths of his average remuneration in respect of each year of contributing service, and three one-hundred-and-sixtieths of such remuneration in respect of each year of non-contributing service:

Provided that—

- (a) in the case of a married male officer in respect of whose service a widow's pension may become payable, the amount of the allowance shall be a sum equal to the aggregate of the following amounts, namely, one eightieth of his average remuneration in respect of each year of contributing service and one one-hundred-and-sixtieth of such remuneration in respect of each year of non-contributing service;
- (b) in the case of a married male officer to whose wife, if she survives him, a widow's pension will not become payable because she is such a person as is mentioned in proviso (iv) to paragraph (1) of regulation 13, the amount of the allowance shall be reduced by two ninths thereof, unless at the time of her marriage to him she was already entitled to a pension otherwise than as a practitioner or, being an officer other than a practitioner, had reached such an age and completed such number of years of service as would entitle her to a pension on her ceasing to be employed;
- (c) in the case of an officer entitled to a pension or injury allowance who is a widower or who is divorced or judicially separated from his wife and who satisfies the description contained in paragraph (7), the amount of the retiring allowance shall be a sum equal to the aggregate of the following amounts:—
 - (i) three eightieths of his average remuneration in respect of each year of contributing service since the date of his wife's death or the divorce or separation, as the case may be;
 - (ii) one eightieth of such remuneration in respect of each year of contributing service before that date;

- (iii) three one-hundred-and-sixtieths of such remuneration in respect of each year of non-contributing service since that date; and
 - (iv) one one-hundred-and-sixtieth of such remuneration in respect of each year of non-contributing service before that date;
- (d) if the contributing service of an officer who becomes entitled to a retiring allowance, together with his non-contributing service (if any) reckoned at half its actual length, exceeds forty-five years, the sum to be calculated under the foregoing provisions of this paragraph by reference to contributing service and non-contributing service shall be calculated by reference to the last forty-five years actual service, any non-contributing service within that period being reckoned as contributing service; and
- (e) in the case of an officer to whom no pension is payable, if the amount of the allowance, calculated as aforesaid, is less than the amount of his contributions, together with compound interest thereon, the allowance shall be increased by the amount of the deficiency.
- (3) The pension to be paid to an officer whose service includes service as a practitioner shall be on the following scale:—
- (a) in respect of each year of contributing service otherwise than as a practitioner, one eightieth of his average remuneration;
 - (b) in respect of each year of non-contributing service, one one-hundred-and-sixtieth of his average remuneration; and
 - (c) in respect of any period of contributing service as a practitioner, one and one half per cent. of any remuneration for that period paid to him prior to 1st April, 1963, and one and three quarters per cent. of any such remuneration paid to him on or after that date:

Provided that—

- (i) in the case of an officer whose contributing service, together with his non-contributing service (if any) reckoned at half its actual length, exceeds forty-five years, the pension shall be calculated by reference to the last forty-five years actual service, any non-contributing service within that period being reckoned as contributing service;
 - (ii) in the case of an officer who is entitled to a pension under subparagraph (a)(i) of paragraph (1) of regulation 7, and whose service is less than twenty years, any non-contributing service being reckoned at half its actual length, the pension shall be an amount obtained by multiplying the amount of the pension which would have been payable apart from this proviso by such number of years of service, not exceeding twenty, as he could have completed before attaining the age of sixty-five years, any non-contributing service being reckoned as aforesaid, and dividing the product by the number of years of actual service, any non-contributing service being reckoned as aforesaid; and
 - (iii) in the case of an officer whose contributing service includes a period of service as a practitioner during which he devoted substantially the whole of his time to the performance of part-time specialist services pursuant to section 21 of the Act, that service shall be treated as service otherwise than as a practitioner if such method of calculation is more advantageous to him.
- (4) The retiring allowance to be paid to an officer whose service includes service as a practitioner shall be a sum equal to the aggregate of the following amounts:—

- (a) in respect of each year of contributing service otherwise than as a practitioner, three eightieths of his average remuneration;
- (b) in respect of each year of non-contributing service, three one-hundred-and-sixtieths of his average remuneration; and
- (c) in respect of any period of contributing service as a practitioner, four and one half per cent. of any remuneration for that period paid to him prior to 1st April, 1963, and five and one quarter per cent. of any such remuneration paid to him on or after that date:

Provided that—

- (i) in the case of a married male officer in respect of whose service a widow's pension may become payable, one eightieth shall be substituted for three eightieths in sub-paragraph (a), one one-hundred-and-sixtieth shall be substituted for three one-hundred-and-sixtieths in sub-paragraph (b), and one and one half per cent. shall be substituted for four and one half per cent. and one and three quarters per cent. shall be substituted for five and one quarter per cent. in sub-paragraph (c);
- (ii) in the case of a married male officer to whose wife, if she survives him, a widow's pension will not become payable because she is such a person as is mentioned in proviso (iv) to paragraph (1) of regulation 13, the amount of the allowance shall be reduced by two ninths thereof unless at the time of her marriage to him she was already entitled to a pension otherwise than as a practitioner or, being an officer other than a practitioner, had reached such an age and completed such number of years of service as would entitle her to a pension on her ceasing to be employed;
- (iii) in the case of an officer entitled to a pension or injury allowance who is a widower or who is divorced or judicially separated from his wife and who satisfies the description contained in paragraph (7), one eightieth shall be substituted for three eightieths in sub-paragraph (a) in relation to each year of contributing service otherwise than as a practitioner before the date of his wife's death or the divorce or separation, as the case may be, one one-hundred-and-sixtieth shall be substituted for three one-hundred-and-sixtieths in sub-paragraph (b) in relation to each year of non-contributing service before the said date, and one and one half per cent. shall be substituted for four and one half per cent. and one and three quarters per cent. shall be substituted for five and one quarter per cent. in sub-paragraph (c) in relation to any period of contributing service as a practitioner before the said date;
- (iv) in the case of an officer whose contributing service, together with his non-contributing service (if any) reckoned at half its actual length, exceeds forty-five years, the amount of the allowance shall be calculated by reference to the last forty-five years actual service, any non-contributing service within that period being reckoned as contributing service;
- (v) in the case of an officer whose contributing service includes a period of service as a practitioner during which he devoted substantially the whole of his time to the performance of part-time specialist services pursuant to section 21 of the Act, that service shall be treated as service otherwise than as a practitioner if such method of calculation is more advantageous to him; and
- (vi) in the case of an officer to whom no pension is payable, if the amount of the allowance, calculated as aforesaid, is less than the amount of his contributions together with compound interest thereon, the allowance shall be increased by the amount of the deficiency.

(5) Where the retiring allowance paid to a married male officer has been calculated in accordance with the provisions of proviso (a) to paragraph (2) or proviso (i) to paragraph (4), or the corresponding provisions of the previous regulations, and, because she has become such a person as is mentioned in paragraph (8), his wife will not, on his death, become entitled to a widow's pension, there shall be paid to the officer a sum equal to two thirds of the difference between the amount of the retiring allowance paid to him and the amount of the retiring allowance which would have been paid to him had he not been a person to whom the said provisions applied.

(6) Where an officer has become entitled to a retiring allowance, and the amount of such allowance, together with the capital value of any pension to which the officer may also have become entitled, is less than the amount of his average remuneration, then, if he requests the Ministry in writing to apply this provision in his case, the Ministry may either increase the amount of the retiring allowance by the amount of the capital value of the death gratuity and of any widow's pension which would, apart from this provision, become payable on his death or increase the amount of any such pension as aforesaid by an equivalent annual sum, and if the Ministry exercises this discretion no death gratuity or widow's pension shall be payable in respect of him.

(7) An officer to whom proviso (c) to paragraph (2) or proviso (iii) to paragraph (4) refers is an officer (other than an officer who married in such circumstances that his wife could not become entitled to a widow's pension by reason of proviso (ii) to paragraph (1) of regulation 13 or the corresponding provisions of the previous regulations) whose wife died or was divorced or judicially separated from him—

- (a) on or after the date on which he first became an officer within the meaning of these regulations, or the previous regulations; or
- (b) while he was subject to a superannuation scheme the service reckonable in which is reckonable by him for the purposes of these regulations and which provided a widow's pension as one of its benefits; or
- (c) during the period between his leaving employment in which he was subject to any such scheme as is mentioned in sub-paragraph (b) and his entry into employment in which he became an officer as aforesaid.

(8) The reference in paragraph (5) to a person mentioned in this paragraph is a reference to a person entitled to a pension otherwise than as a practitioner, or a person, being an officer other than a practitioner, who has reached such an age and completed such number of years of service as would entitle her to a pension on ceasing to be employed.

Injury allowance

9.—(1) Where an officer ceases to be employed in consequence of his being permanently incapacitated by an injury sustained by him in the actual discharge of his duty and specifically attributable to the nature of his duty or by a disease contracted by him to which he was exposed by the nature of his duty (not being an injury or disease wholly or mainly due to, or seriously aggravated by, his own serious and culpable negligence or misconduct) he shall be entitled to receive from the Ministry, subject to the provisions of paragraph (4), an annual injury allowance of such amount not exceeding two thirds of his average remuneration, as the Ministry may from time to time consider reasonable, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, including the right to any other benefit under these regulations.

(2) An injury sustained while an officer is, with the express or implied permission of an employing authority, travelling as a passenger by any vehicle to or from his place of employment shall, notwithstanding that he is under no obligation to the employing authority to travel by that vehicle, be deemed to have been sustained in the actual discharge of his duty, if—

- (a) the injury would have been deemed so to have been sustained had he been under such an obligation; and
 - (b) at the time of the injury, the vehicle—
 - (i) was being operated by or on behalf of the employing authority or some other person by whom it was provided in pursuance of arrangements made with the employing authority; and
 - (ii) was not being operated in the ordinary course of a public transport service.
- (3) If a person to whom paragraph (1) applies dies as a direct result of the injury he sustained or the disease he contracted, the Ministry may grant to his widow or to any dependant of his such gratuity or such annual allowance as the Ministry may from time to time consider reasonable, having regard to all the circumstances of the case.

(4) (a) There shall be taken into account against the allowances referred to in paragraphs (1) and (3) the following sums:—

- (i) the amount or value of any benefit payable under the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) Act (Northern Ireland), 1946, and of any other statutory benefit or compensation in respect of the injury or disease, other than any such benefit payable under these regulations; and
- (ii) such amount (if any) as the Ministry considers reasonable of any damages which the Ministry is satisfied have been or will be recovered by any person, being damages in respect of the injury or disease or damages in respect of the death of the person to whom this regulation applies, and the said allowances shall be withheld or reduced accordingly:

Provided that in the case of an allowance payable under paragraph (3) the amount of any benefit payable to the widow or dependant under the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) Act (Northern Ireland), 1946, shall be taken into account for the purposes of this paragraph only to such extent as the Ministry may in any particular case determine.

- (b) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (a)(ii) a person shall be deemed to recover damages—
 - (i) whether they are paid in pursuance of a judgment or order of any court of competent jurisdiction or by way of settlement or compromise of his claim and whether or not proceedings are instituted to enforce the claim; or
 - (ii) if they are recovered for his benefit in respect of a claim under the Fatal Accidents Acts (Northern Ireland), 1846 to 1959.

Short service gratuity

10. An officer who has completed five but less than ten years service, and who ceases to be employed through incapacity to discharge efficiently the duties of his employment by reason of permanent ill-health, or infirmity of mind or body shall be entitled to receive from the Ministry a short service gratuity of a sum equal to the amount of his average remuneration or a sum equal to the amount of his contributions together with compound interest thereon, whichever is the greater:

Provided that if the officer is also entitled to a retiring allowance, the short service gratuity shall be reduced by the amount of the said allowance.

Allocation of part of pension or injury allowance to spouse or dependant

11.—(1) An officer who becomes entitled to a pension or injury allowance may thereupon notify his desire, subject to and in accordance with the provisions of the first schedule, to surrender part of the pension or allowance in consideration of the grant of a pension to the spouse or any dependant of the officer on his death of such value as, according to tables to be prepared from time to time by the Government Actuary, is actuarially equivalent at the date on which he ceased to be employed to the value of that part of the pension or allowance which is surrendered.

(2) If an officer not having reached—

(a) in the case of a mental health officer, or of a woman who is a nurse, physiotherapist, midwife or health visitor, the age of sixty years; or would, if he ceased to be employed, be entitled to a pension, and he has completed forty years contributing service or forty years contributing service and non-contributing service, the non-contributing service being reckoned at half its actual length, or if an officer, having reached the said age, would, if he ceased to be employed, be entitled to a pension, he may, at any time before ceasing to be employed, notify his desire, subject to and in accordance with the provisions of the first schedule, to surrender part of the pension to which he may become entitled, in consideration of the grant of a pension to his spouse or any dependant of the person aforesaid on his death, of such value as, according to tables to be prepared from time to time by the Government Actuary, will be actuarially equivalent at the date on which he ceases to be employed to the value of that part of the pension which is surrendered; and if he dies before having become entitled to the pension but after having so notified his desire to surrender a part of the pension, he shall be deemed to have become entitled to the pension to which he would have become entitled had he retired on the day of his death.

(3) A person to whom paragraph (2) of regulation 7 applies may, at any time after ceasing to be an officer and before ceasing to be employed, notify his desire, subject to and in accordance with the provisions of the first schedule, to surrender part of the pension to which he may become entitled in consideration of the grant of a pension to his spouse or any dependant of the person aforesaid on his death, of such value as, according to tables to be prepared from time to time by the Government Actuary, will be actuarially equivalent at the date on which he ceases to be employed to the value of that part of the pension which is surrendered, and if he dies before having become entitled to the pension but after having so notified his desire to surrender a part thereof, he shall be deemed to have become entitled to the pension to which he would have become entitled had he retired on the day of his death.

Death gratuity

12. If—

(a) an officer dies, and at the date of his death he had completed five years service;

(b) a person who has ceased to be an officer after completing five years service (other than a person to whom paragraph (2) of regulation 7 applies) dies within twelve months after so ceasing to be an officer or, if immediately after he ceased to be an officer he became engaged in national service, within six months after the termination of that service, without having received a return of contributions or become entitled to any other benefit under these regulations or the previous regulations, and without having again become entitled to participate in superannuation benefits;

- (c) a person dies after having become entitled to a pension or retiring allowance or short service gratuity under these regulations or the previous regulations; or
- (d) a person to whom paragraph (2) of regulation 7 applies dies in the continuing employment referred to in that paragraph and at the date of his death he had completed five years service, then the Ministry shall pay to his personal representatives a death gratuity of a sum equal to three eightieths of his average remuneration in respect of each year of his contributing service and three one-hundred-and-sixtieths thereof in respect of each year of his non-contributing service, or the amount of his contributions, together with compound interest on such amount or, except in the case mentioned in paragraph (b), his average remuneration, whichever is the greatest :

Provided that—

- (i) in the case of a person in respect of whose death a widow's pension is payable, the amount of the death gratuity shall be a sum equal to one eightieth of his average remuneration in respect of each year of his contributing service and one one-hundred-and-sixtieth thereof in respect of each year of his non-contributing service or, if the capital value of the widow's pension is less than the amount of the death gratuity which would have been payable apart from this proviso, a sum equal to the difference between such capital value and such amount, whichever of the two sums is the greater;
- (ii) in the case of such a person as is mentioned in paragraph (3) of regulation 8, for the references in the foregoing provisions of this regulation to a sum to be calculated by reference to a fraction of his average remuneration in respect of each year of service there shall, subject to the provisions of proviso (iii), be substituted a reference to a sum obtained by the addition of the following amounts :—
 - (i) in respect of each year of contributing service otherwise than as a practitioner, three eightieths of his average remuneration or, if a widow's pension is payable in respect of his death, one eightieth thereof;
 - (ii) in respect of each year of non-contributing service, three one-hundred-and-sixtieths of his average remuneration or, if a widow's pension is payable as aforesaid, one one-hundred-and-sixtieth thereof; and
 - (iii) in respect of any period of contributing service as a practitioner, four and one half per cent. of any remuneration for that period paid to him prior to 1st April, 1963, and five and one quarter per cent. of any such remuneration paid to him on or after that date, or if a widow's pension is payable as aforesaid, one and one half per cent. shall be substituted for four and one half per cent. and one and three quarters per cent. for five and one quarter per cent.;
- (iii) if in the case of any person the contributing service, together with the non-contributing service (if any) reckoned at half its actual length, exceeds forty-five years, the sum to be calculated by reference to contributing service and non-contributing service shall be calculated by reference to the last forty-five years actual service, any non-contributing service within that period being reckoned as contributing service; and

- (iv) in the case of a person who dies after having become entitled to a pension, retiring allowance, injury allowance or short service gratuity under these regulations or the previous regulations, there shall be deducted from the death gratuity a sum equal to the aggregate amount of any payments made on account of that benefit, and in addition, if the person was entitled to a pension or injury allowance and had surrendered a part thereof, any sum which would have been paid on account thereof but for the surrender.

Widow's pension

13.—(1) The widow of a person who dies and who—

- (a) was entitled at the time of his death to a pension or injury allowance under these regulations or the previous regulations; or
- (b) was at the time of his death employed in employment in which he was an officer and had completed not less than ten years service; or
- (c) was at the time of his death employed in employment in which paragraph (2) of regulation 7 applied to him and had completed not less than ten years service;

shall be entitled to receive from the Ministry an annual widow's pension :

Provided that a widow shall not be entitled to receive a widow's pension—

- (i) by virtue of sub-paragraph (a), if the marriage took place on or after the date on which her husband became entitled to the pension or allowance;
- (ii) by virtue of sub-paragraph (a) or (b), if her husband, before ceasing to be employed, or, if he died while still an officer, before dying, had reached the age of sixty-five years, or in the case of a mental health officer, the age of sixty years or, not having reached the said age, would have been entitled to a pension on ceasing to be employed and had completed forty years contributing service, or forty years contributing service and non-contributing service, the non-contributing service being reckoned at half its actual length, and the marriage took place on or after the date on which he reached the said age or would have been so entitled to a pension as aforesaid;
- (iii) by virtue of sub-paragraph (c), if the marriage took place after the date on which her husband ceased to be an officer and became subject to the provisions of paragraph (2) of regulation 7;
- (iv) if she was herself entitled to a pension under these regulations or the previous regulations otherwise than as a practitioner or became so entitled on the death of her husband, or if, being an officer other than a practitioner, she had reached such an age and completed such number of years of service as would entitle her to a pension on her ceasing to be employed; or
- (v) if at the date on which her husband became entitled to a pension or injury allowance under these regulations or the previous regulations or at the date of his death, the husband and wife were judicially separated.

(2) The widow of such a person as is mentioned in paragraph (b) of regulation 12 shall be entitled to the like benefit (if any) by way of widow's pension as would have been granted under these regulations or the previous regulations if her husband had died immediately before ceasing to be an officer.

(3) The amount of the widow's pension shall be as follows—

- (a) in the case of the widow of an officer, one third of the pension which would have been payable to the officer had he become entitled to a pension under sub-paragraph (a)(i) of paragraph (1) of regulation 7 on the day of his death;

- (b) in the case of the widow of a person who was entitled to a pension or injury allowance, one third of such pension or allowance; and
- (c) in the case of the widow of a person to whom paragraph (2) of regulation 7 applies—
 - (i) if the person dies within twelve months after ceasing to be an officer, one third of the pension which would have been payable to him had he become entitled to a pension under sub-paragraph (a)(i) of paragraph (1) of regulation 7 on the day on which he ceased to be an officer; or
 - (ii) if he dies twelve months or more after ceasing to be an officer, one third of the pension which would have been payable to him had he ceased to be employed on the day on which he ceased to be an officer:

Provided that if any such pension as is mentioned in sub-paragraph (a) would have been reduced under regulation 44, no account shall be taken of the reduction, and any such pension as is mentioned in sub-paragraphs (b) and (c) shall be deemed to be the pension that would have been payable but for any reduction under that regulation, or under any corresponding provision of the previous regulations.

(4) A widow's pension shall not be payable to a widow—

- (a) if she re-marries, in respect of any period after her re-marriage; or
- (b) in respect of any period during which she is cohabiting with a man as his wife.

(5) If on the re-marriage or death of a widow to whom a widow's pension has been payable under these regulations or the previous regulations the aggregate amount of the payments made to her, her husband or her husband's personal representatives by way of pension, retiring allowance, injury allowance, short service gratuity or death gratuity under these regulations or the previous regulations, other than a pension under regulation 11 or any corresponding provision of the previous regulations, is less than the amount of the death gratuity which would have been payable under these regulations or the previous regulations in respect of the death of her husband had no widow's pension been payable in respect thereof, there shall be paid to her or to her personal representatives, as the case may require, a sum equal to the deficiency.

Power to compound small annual benefits

14. Where any benefit payable under these regulations or the previous regulations is an annual sum not exceeding twenty-six pounds, the Ministry may discharge its liability in respect thereof by the payment of a lump sum representing the capital value of the annual sum.

Payment of transfer value in lieu of benefits in certain cases

15. Notwithstanding anything in the preceding provisions of these regulations, if, on or after ceasing to be employed by an employing authority and before receiving any payment on account of any benefit which apart from this regulation would be payable to him under these regulations, a person—

- (a) notifies the Ministry in writing of his impending entry into further employment in circumstances in which (subject to his not having become or being entitled to any benefit under these regulations other than a return of contributions and to compliance with such other conditions as are prescribed) paragraph (2) of regulation 51, regulation 70 or

- regulation 73 would apply in relation to him, and in pursuance of that notice enters that employment in those circumstances; or
- (b) notifies the Ministry in writing that he has entered such employment in the circumstances aforesaid, then, if he notifies the Ministry that he wishes this regulation to apply in relation to him, the Ministry may (in lieu of any benefit which would otherwise be payable on or after the person's ceasing to be employed by an employing authority) enter such particulars in the account referred to in paragraph (1) of regulation 51 as are mentioned in paragraph (2) of that regulation or pay such sum as the Ministry considers appropriate under paragraph (1) of regulation 70 or, as the case may be, a transfer value under paragraph (1) of regulation 73 and, if the Ministry makes any such entry or payment, the person shall be deemed, for the purposes of these regulations, not to have become or to be entitled to a benefit under these regulations.

Reckoning as service of previous periods of employment, war service and national service

16.—(1) Subject to the provisions of these regulations, where a person, before entering the employment in which he is an officer, had been entitled by virtue of any such employment as is mentioned in paragraph (3) to participate in superannuation benefits, and on his leaving that other employment any period of employment or any war service or national service would have been reckonable for the purpose of determining whether he was entitled to receive a superannuation benefit, that period of employment, war service or national service shall be reckonable as service in relation to the employment in which he is an officer, if he entered that employment within twelve months after leaving that other employment or, if he left that other employment in order to undertake war service or immediately after leaving that employment became engaged in national service, within six months after the termination of that service:

Provided that—

- (a) this paragraph shall not apply to any officer who, unless he was excepted from a similar requirement by the 1948 regulations, has not, within three months after entering their employment, or within such longer period as the Ministry may in any particular case allow, given notice in writing to the employing authority of his previous period of employment and war service or national service (if any), or, if he is a person to whom rules made under section 2 of the Act of 1948 apply, the notice and particulars of his national service (if any) required by those rules, and paid or repaid to that authority an amount equal to any sum paid to him by way of return of contributions on or after his ceasing to hold that other employment, together with an amount equal to any income tax which was deducted from his contributions in respect of such payment;
- (b) in the case of a person who, before entering the employment in which he is an officer, was employed in such employment as is mentioned in sub-paragraph (c) of paragraph (3)—
- (i) for the purposes of the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, the term "period of employment" shall include any period treated as a period of employment in contributory service or as a period of contributory service under the Teachers Act and any period reckonable as recognised service for the purposes of the said Act;
- (ii) any period of contributory service under any scheme made under section 42 of the Teachers Act and any period of approved external service within the meaning of that Act or any period of service which is treated under any scheme made under the said section 42 in the same manner as such approved external service shall not be reckonable as service under these regulations except for the sole purpose of determining whether he is entitled to any benefit thereunder; and

- (iii) any period of employment which was qualifying service within the meaning of the Teachers Act and any period of employment in respect of which the person received a return of contributions (not being a return of contributions after last ceasing to be employed in contributory or recognised service within the meaning of the said Act) which he has not subsequently repaid to the Ministry of Education under the proviso to sub-section (2) of section 10 of the said Act shall be disregarded;
- (c) in the case of a person who, before entering employment in which he is an officer, was an established civil servant, this paragraph shall apply as if for the reference to employment or war service or national service which would have been reckonable for the purpose of determining whether a person was entitled to receive a superannuation benefit there were substituted a reference to employment or war service or national service which would have been reckonable for the purpose of determining whether the officer had served for the minimum period prescribed by the Superannuation Acts as necessary for the grant of any retiring award to him, and any part of his established service which is attributable to service which previous to his becoming an established civil servant had been non-contributing service under these regulations or the previous regulations or had been reckonable in the same or substantially the same manner as such non-contributing service by virtue of the provisions of any enactment or scheme (not being service which has become reckonable at its actual length for the purpose of calculating benefits under the Superannuation Acts) shall be treated as being double the length at which it was reckonable for the purposes of the Superannuation Acts;
- (d) in the case of a person who, before entering employment as an officer, was in employment in which he was subject to the Act of 1937, a local Act scheme, the Belfast Corporation Superannuation Scheme or the Local Government Superannuation Regulations, there shall not be reckonable under this paragraph any period of employment, war service or national service, unless the Ministry has received a transfer value calculated in accordance with the rules for the time being in force under section 2 of the Act of 1948 relating to the entry into employment under an employing authority of a person who has left employment in which he was a contributory employee or local Act contributor, or, as the case may be, a transfer value calculated in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Belfast Corporation Superannuation Scheme or the Local Government Superannuation Regulations, less an amount equal to any sum which the authority or body by whom the transfer value is payable may become liable to pay by way of income tax in respect of the amount transferred by way of transfer value;
- (e) where a person has become an officer within twelve months after ceasing to be a contributory employee, and by virtue of the provisions of a scheme modifying the Act of 1937 any period of employment was reckonable at a fraction of its actual length for the purpose of calculating the transfer value payable in respect of the officer, that period of employment shall be reckonable as service at its actual length solely for the purpose of determining whether any benefit is payable to or in respect of him and shall otherwise be reckonable as service at the aforesaid fraction of its actual length;

- (f) where before entering employment as an officer a person was in employment in which he was subject to the Act of 1937 or a local Act scheme there shall not be reckonable as service under these regulations except for the sole purpose of determining whether any benefit is payable to or in respect of the person thereunder—
- (i) such service as is mentioned in sub-section (1) of section 17 of the Local Government Superannuation Act, 1937, not being such service as is mentioned in proviso (a) to that sub-section;
 - (ii) such service as is mentioned in section 15 of the Local Government Superannuation (Scotland) Act, 1937, not being such service as is mentioned in proviso (a) to that section; or
 - (iii) service, corresponding to the service referred to in paragraphs (i) and (ii), for the reckoning of which provision is made in a local Act scheme; and
- (g) any period of employment which on a person's leaving such employment as is mentioned in sub-paragraph (a), (b) or (e) of paragraph (3) would have been reckonable solely for the purpose of determining whether he was entitled to receive a superannuation benefit shall not be reckonable as service under these regulations except for the sole purpose of determining whether he is entitled to any benefit thereunder.
- (2) If an officer—
- (a) is a person who became an officer of an employing authority by virtue of sub-paragraph (e) or (h) of paragraph (1) of regulation 4, or any corresponding provision of the previous regulations, or
 - (b) was such a person as is mentioned in any of those provisions and before completing the period of two years therein mentioned became an officer by virtue of sub-paragraph (a) or (f) of paragraph (1) of regulation 4, or any corresponding provision of the previous regulations,

then any previous period of employment under any employing authority reckonable towards the completion of the said period of two years, and any period of national service undertaken by the person on his ceasing to hold employment under any employing authority which was reckonable towards the completion of the said period of two years by virtue of proviso (ii)(iv) to paragraph (1) of regulation 4 or any corresponding provision of the previous regulations shall be reckonable as service:

Provided that no part of the said period of two years or of any such period of national service as aforesaid shall be reckonable as service unless, if the said period of two years had been reckonable as service at the time when it was completed, it would be reckonable as service in relation to the employment in which he is an officer.

- (3) The other employment referred to in paragraph (1) is—
- (a) employment as an officer;
 - (b) employment as an established civil servant;
 - (c) employment as a person in contributory service under the Teachers Act, or in recognised service within the meaning of that Act, other than employment in contributory service under any scheme made under section 42 of the said Act and other than employment which is treated as contributory service by virtue of its being approved external service within the meaning of the said Act or which is treated under any scheme made under section 42 of the said Act in the same manner as such approved external service;

- (d) except in the case of a person who first became an officer on or after the date of coming into operation of these regulations, employment subject to the Act of 1865, the Act of 1869 or the Act of 1943;
- (e) employment subject to—
 - (i) the Act of 1909;
 - (ii) the Act of 1937;
 - (iii) a local Act scheme;
 - (iv) the Belfast Corporation Superannuation Scheme;
 - (v) the Local Government Superannuation Regulations; or
 - (vi) any other scheme which the Ministry, with the consent of the body administering the scheme, may approve:

Provided that—

- (i) where a person has been in more than one such employment as is mentioned in this paragraph within a period of twelve months before the date on which he became an officer, the other employment referred to in paragraph (1) shall be the last of such employments; and
- (ii) a person who has been in such employment as is mentioned in sub-paragraph (e)(vi) shall be treated as not having been in such employment if the Ministry so directs.

(4) In the case of an officer who was transferred to the employment of an employing authority by virtue of the provisions of sub-section (4) or (5) of section 58 of the Act and who immediately before being transferred as aforesaid was employed in an unestablished capacity in the civil service of Northern Ireland there shall be reckonable as service in relation to his employment as an officer the last continuous period of employment immediately prior to the date on which he became an officer:

Provided that—

- (a) this paragraph shall not apply to any person who has not remained an officer of an employing authority without a break in employment of twelve months or more at any one time;
- (b) this paragraph shall not apply to any person who received a gratuity from the Ministry of Finance in respect of his employment as an unestablished civil servant unless he has repaid to that Ministry a sum equal to the amount of that gratuity; and
- (c) for the purposes of this paragraph the expression "continuous period of employment" shall include—
 - (i) employment as an unestablished civil servant and any period of war service which would have been or might have been reckonable as such employment for the purposes of the Superannuation Acts had he continued to be an unestablished civil servant; and
 - (ii) any period in the employment of an employing authority immediately following the employment as an unestablished civil servant.

Intervals in service due to illness or injury

17.—(1) Notwithstanding anything in these regulations, an officer whose remuneration is suspended owing to leave of absence from duty on account of illness or injury shall be deemed to have ceased his employment as an officer from the date on which his remuneration was so suspended except for the purposes of regulations 7, 9 and 10, paragraph (1) of regulation 11, paragraph (b) of regulation 12, sub-paragraph (b) of paragraph (1) and sub-paragraph (a) of paragraph (3) of regulation 13, and regulation 40.

(2) Where a person ceases or is deemed by virtue of paragraph (1) to have ceased his employment as an officer on account of illness or injury, no account shall be taken of any period during which he is incapable of resuming employment as an officer or a period of two years, whichever is the less, in determining whether—

- (a) he has entered employment as an officer within any such period as is referred to in regulation 16; or
- (b) for the purposes of paragraph (1) of regulation 36, regulation 38, paragraphs (2) and (3) of regulation 39, sub-paragraphs (a) and (b) of paragraph (3) and paragraphs (8), (9) and (11) of regulation 44, he has had any such break in employment as is referred to therein:

Provided that—

- (i) the said period of two years may be extended to such longer period as the Ministry may in any particular case allow; and
- (ii) in the case of a person mentioned in paragraph (1) who ceases to be employed whilst his remuneration is suspended and whilst he is incapable of resuming his employment, the period during which his remuneration is suspended and any further consecutive period during which he is incapable of resuming employment as an officer shall be aggregated for the purposes of this paragraph.

Special provisions with respect to breaks between employments

18. For the purpose of determining whether for the purpose of regulation 16 a person has entered employment as an officer within any such period as is referred to in that regulation—

- (a) where a person left such employment as is mentioned in sub-paragraph (a) of paragraph (3) of regulation 16 (hereinafter in this paragraph called "his first employment") he shall be deemed to have entered the employment in which he is an officer within twelve months after leaving his first employment if, since leaving his first employment, there has not been any continuous period of twelve months or more (excluding any period which by reason of the provisions of these regulations relating to war service and national service either is or becomes reckonable as service or does not preclude the reckoning of a previous period of employment as service) during no part of which he was an officer;
- (b) where a person (other than a person to whom paragraph (a) applies) ceased to be employed as an officer of an employing authority but continued in the employment of that authority otherwise than as an officer, he shall be deemed to have ceased to be an officer on the date on which he left his last-mentioned employment;
- (c) where a person left employment as an officer in order to enter an approved course of study or training no account shall be taken of any period spent by him on that course of study or training;
- (d) where a person left employment as an officer, immediately thereafter became engaged in national service and on the termination of that service entered an approved course of study or training, no account shall be taken of any period spent by him on that course of study or training;
- (e) where a person left employment as an officer in order to enter an approved course of study or training and on completion of that course became engaged in national service, he shall be deemed to have left that employment at the time when he completed that course of study or training;

(f) where a person was in—

- (i) employment in which he was a contributory employee or local Act contributor to whom regulation 21 or 22 of the English or Scottish Local Government regulations, 1954, applied, or was such a person as is referred to in regulation 23 of those regulations or, being a male person, was employed in a children's home or hostel provided by a local authority under any enactment, other than an enactment relating to education, and in that employment had the care of persons under the age of eighteen years; or
- (ii) employment in which he was subject to the Belfast Corporation Superannuation Scheme or the Local Government Superannuation Regulations and in which he was a member of the medical, dental or nursing staff of a health authority, then, if he left his former employment in order to enter a course of study or training, no account shall be taken of any period spent by him on that course of study or training;

- (g) where a person left such employment as is mentioned in paragraph (f), immediately thereafter became engaged in national service and on the termination of that service entered a course of study or training, no account shall be taken of any period spent by him on that course of study or training;
- (h) where a person left such employment as is mentioned in paragraph (f) in order to enter a course of study or training, and on completion of that course became engaged in national service, he shall be deemed to have left that employment at the time when he completed that course of study or training;
- (i) where a person left employment in the health service of England and Wales, Scotland or the Isle of Man and entered a course of study or training approved by the body administering that service, he shall be deemed for the purposes of paragraphs (c), (d) and (e) to have been an officer in that employment and the provisions of those paragraphs shall apply to him accordingly;
- (j) where a person left employment in the health service of England and Wales, Scotland or the Isle of Man and within a period of twelve months entered employment approved by the body administering that service, then on his leaving the employment so approved, he shall be deemed to have left employment in the health service of England and Wales, Scotland or the Isle of Man, as the case may be;
- (k) where a person left employment mentioned in sub-paragraph (c) of paragraph (3) of regulation 16, and entered a course of study or training approved for the purposes of these regulations by the Ministry on the written application of that person made before or within three months after the commencement of that course or within such longer period as the Ministry may in any particular case allow, he shall be deemed for the purposes of paragraphs (c), (d) and (e) to have been an officer in that employment, and the provisions of those paragraphs shall apply to him accordingly;

Provided that paragraphs (f), (g), (h), (i) and (k) shall not apply unless the Ministry is satisfied that by reason of the person's having undertaken the course of study or training the person is better fitted for the duties of his new employment.

Further provisions concerning reckoning of service with respect to certain continuing employments

19.—(1) Where a person immediately before entering the employment in which he is an officer (hereinafter in this regulation called “his new employment”) held any other employment under an employing authority (hereinafter in this regulation called “his old employment”) and did not cease to hold his old employment on entering his new employment, any service which he was entitled to reckon in relation to his old employment immediately before entering his new employment and which is not reckonable under any other provision of these regulations in relation to his new employment shall—

- (a) if he ceases to hold his new employment—
- (i) without having ceased to hold his old employment; or
 - (ii) at the time of ceasing to hold his old employment; or
 - (iii) after having ceased to hold his old employment in such circumstances that he became entitled to a benefit in respect thereof; or
 - (iv) after a transfer value has become payable in respect of his old employment or a payment has been made by the Ministry under paragraph (1) of regulation 70,
- be reckonable in relation to his new employment for the purpose of determining whether any benefit is payable to or in respect of him but not for the purpose of calculating the amount of any such benefit; and
- (b) if he ceases to hold his new employment—
- (i) after having ceased to hold his old employment; and
 - (ii) without having become entitled to any benefit in respect of his old employment; and
 - (iii) without a transfer value having become payable in respect of his old employment or a payment having been made by the Ministry under paragraph (1) of regulation 70,
- be reckonable in relation to his new employment to the extent and in the manner in which it was reckonable in his old employment immediately before he entered his new employment.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in paragraph (1)—

- (a) where, after taking into account service reckonable under sub-paragraph (a) of paragraph (1), a benefit becomes payable to or in respect of a person to whom that sub-paragraph applies and the amount of that benefit falls to be calculated by reference to any provision of these regulations (hereinafter in this paragraph referred to as “the said provision”) prescribing a minimum benefit or a method of calculating the benefit otherwise than by reference to the amount of the person’s contributions or the service reckonable by him or the amount of the pension which was or would in certain circumstances have become payable to him, then, if the number of years of service reckonable by the person is less than any minimum number of years of qualifying service prescribed for the receipt of the said benefit, the amount of the said benefit, in so far as it is obtained by reference to the said provision, shall be the amount which bears the same proportion to the sum otherwise payable as the number of years of service so reckonable bears to the minimum number of years of qualifying service; and
- (b) where a person has become entitled to any benefit under these regulations in respect of service reckonable under sub-paragraph (b) of paragraph

(1) as contributing or non-contributing service, that service shall not subsequently be reckonable in relation to any other employment as contributing or non-contributing service.

Further provisions with respect to war service and national service

20.—(1) If under regulation 16 there is reckonable any previous employment in the case of a person who became an officer after having been engaged in war service or national service, and that service would have been reckonable as service under the enactment or scheme to which he was subject before he ceased to hold his former employment had he again become subject to that enactment or scheme on the termination of his war service or national service, the period thereof shall be reckonable as a period of service under these regulations.

(2) Where a person—

(a) immediately after ceasing to be an officer became engaged in national service; or

(b) ceased to be an officer in order to enter an approved course of study or training and immediately after completing that course became engaged in national service, then, if on the termination of that service or within six months thereafter (excluding any period spent by him on an approved course of study or training entered by him on the termination of his national service) the person became an officer, the period of his national service shall be reckonable as a period of service under these regulations:

Provided that if on or after so ceasing to be an officer as aforesaid he received a return of contributions—

(i) no part of such period after the date of the return shall be reckonable as service; and

(ii) the part of such period before the date of the return shall be reckonable only if he has paid or repaid to the employing authority in whose employment he is an officer, within three months after becoming an officer, or within such longer period as the Ministry may in any particular case allow, an amount equal to the sum returned to him together with an amount equal to any income tax which was deducted from his contributions in respect of such return.

(3) Where an officer who has become engaged in national service in the circumstances mentioned in paragraph (2)—

(a) dies during his period of national service; or

(b) is prevented, in consequence of being permanently incapacitated by injury or disease received or contracted during that period, from resuming employment under any employing authority, he shall be deemed to have returned as an officer to the employment of an employing authority immediately before his death or on the termination of that period of service, as the case may be.

(4) Where a person in the employment of an employing authority is a person who—

(a) has previously been in the employment of any employing authority otherwise than as an officer;

(b) immediately after ceasing to be so employed became engaged in national service; and

- (c) on the termination of that service or within six months thereafter became an employee of the employing authority in whose employment he is, the period of his national service shall be taken into account for the purposes of these regulations in the same manner and to the same extent as it would have fallen to be taken into account if he had continued to follow his former employment throughout the period of his national service.

Reckoning of previous employment as qualifying service in certain cases

21.—(1) In the case of—

- (a) a person who was transferred under the Act to the employment of an employing authority and who thereupon became an officer of that employing authority;
- (b) a person who entered the employment of an employing authority in consequence of the acquisition of premises by the Authority under section 67 of the Act, having been employed solely or mainly at or for the purposes of the said premises immediately prior to their acquisition, and who thereupon became an officer of that employing authority; or
- (c) a person who being a consultant solely or mainly employed immediately prior to the appointed day at or for the purposes of a hospital transferred to the Authority under section 23 of the Act, entered employment on the appointed day as an officer of an employing authority, there shall be reckonable as service in relation to any such employment as is mentioned in paragraph (2), for the purpose of determining whether any benefit is payable to or in respect of him but not for the purpose of calculating any benefit to which he may become entitled, all periods of employment, not otherwise reckonable as service, after he attained the age of eighteen years, under any authority or body from which functions were transferred by the Act, or under an officer of such an authority or body or at or for the purposes of premises which have been transferred to or acquired by the Authority under the Act, and, if he left any such employment as aforesaid in order to undertake war service or, if immediately after leaving that employment he became engaged in national service, and within six months after the termination of that service returned to any such employment as aforesaid or entered the employment of an employing authority in circumstances in which regulation 74 or the corresponding provision of the previous regulations applied, there shall also be reckonable as service for the purpose aforesaid the period of that war service or national service:

Provided that where a benefit becomes payable to or in respect of a person to whom this paragraph applies in consequence of the acquisition of premises by the Authority under section 67 of the Act on or after the first day of July, 1954, and the amount of that benefit falls to be calculated by reference to any provision of these regulations prescribing a minimum benefit or a method of calculating the benefit otherwise than by reference to the amount of the person's contributions or the service reckonable by him or the amount of the pension which was or would in certain circumstances have become payable to him, then, if the number of years of service reckonable by the person is less than any minimum number of years of qualifying service prescribed for the receipt of the said benefit, the amount of the said benefit, in so far as it is obtained by reference to the said provision, shall be the amount which bears the same proportion to the sum otherwise payable as the number of years of service so reckonable bears to the minimum number of years of qualifying service.

- (2) The employments to which paragraph (1) refers are—

- (a) the employment to which the person was transferred as mentioned in that paragraph or which he entered in consequence of the acquisition of premises by the Authority as aforesaid or, in the case of a person being such a consultant as aforesaid, the employment which he entered on the appointed day; and
- (b) any other employment under an employing authority—
 - (i) which he entered on being so transferred;
 - (ii) which he entered on entering as aforesaid the employment of an employing authority in consequence of the acquisition of premises by the Authority; or
 - (iii) which, in the case of a person being such a consultant as aforesaid, he entered on the appointed day, being in any such case employment in which he thereupon became an officer.

Reckoning of certain periods of employment, etc., as service on payment of additional contributory payments

22.—(1) If after ceasing to be an officer a person (other than a person in respect of whom a transfer value or payment under paragraph (1) of regulation 70 or the corresponding provision of the previous regulations has been paid and has not been refunded) has entered employment in which under regulations 16 to 21 he is not entitled to reckon any period of employment, war service or national service which was reckonable as service at the date on which he ceased to be an officer, except for the purpose of determining whether any benefit was payable under these regulations, he shall be entitled, if he has given notice in writing to his employing authority within three months after entering their employment, or within such longer period as the Ministry may allow, that he intends so to do, to make payments in accordance with the provisions of the second schedule as if any such period were non-contributing service, and any such period in respect of which payments are made or are in the course of being made shall be reckonable as service.

(2) If a person—

- (a) immediately after ceasing to be an officer became engaged in national service; or
- (b) ceased to be an officer in order to enter an approved course of study or training and immediately after completing that course became engaged in national service, and has become an officer to whom paragraph (1) applies, that paragraph shall also apply in respect of the period of that national service other than any part thereof after the date on which contributions may have been returned to him :

Provided that this paragraph shall not apply to a person who has made no payment under paragraph (9) of regulation 6 or the corresponding provision of the previous regulations in respect of his national service.

(3) Where at the date of coming into operation of these regulations an officer has completed or was in the course of making payments under paragraph (10) of regulation 14 of the 1954 regulations in accordance with the second schedule to those regulations or under and in accordance with the corresponding provision of the previous regulations, any period of employment, war service or national service in respect of which such payments were made or were being made shall be reckonable as service, and in the case of payments which were being made the outstanding instalments of the sum payable shall be deemed to be instalments of a sum payable under the second schedule.

Limitation on service reckonable at 60 or, in certain cases, 55

23. Notwithstanding the provisions of regulations 16 to 22, where an officer has not attained the age of sixty years or, if the officer is a mental health officer, or a woman who is a nurse, physiotherapist, midwife or health visitor, the age of fifty-five years, and has completed forty years service, any non-contributing service being reckoned at half its actual length, the period of his employment between the date on which he completed that service and the date on which he attains the age of sixty years or, if the officer is a mental health officer, or a woman who is a nurse, physiotherapist, midwife or health visitor, the age of fifty-five years, shall not be reckonable as service for any purpose of these regulations.

Reckoning of contributing service and non-contributing service

24.—(1) There shall be reckonable as contributing service in relation to the employment of an officer by an employing authority—

- (a) service in respect of which he has made or is or was deemed to have made the contributions required by these regulations or by the previous regulations;
- (b) any previous employment reckonable as service which was—
 - (i) reckonable as established service under the Superannuation Acts;
 - (ii) contributory service under the Teachers Act or recognised service within the meaning of that Act;
 - (iii) reckonable for the purpose of determining whether he was eligible to receive a superannuation allowance under the Act of 1865; the Act of 1869 or the Act of 1943;
 - (iv) service for the purposes of the Act of 1909;
 - (v) contributing service under the Act of 1937;
 - (vi) service (other than non-contributing service) or a period of contribution for the purposes of a local Act scheme;
 - (vii) contributing service under the Belfast Corporation Superannuation Scheme;
 - (viii) contributing service under the Local Government Superannuation Regulations; or
 - (ix) employment under any other scheme approved by the Ministry under sub-paragraph (e)(vi) of paragraph (3) of regulation 16;
- (c) any period of employment, war service or national service which, under these regulations, is reckonable as service by reason of the fact that the officer is in the course of making or has completed payments in respect thereof under regulation 22 or under any corresponding provision of the previous regulations; and
- (d) any other service which by virtue of these regulations is to be reckoned as contributing service

Provided that—

- (i) any period of established service which by virtue of proviso (c) to paragraph (1) of regulation 16 is treated as being double the length at which it was reckonable for the purposes of the Superannuation Acts shall be reckonable as non-contributing service;
- (ii) if in the opinion of the Ministry any such employment as is mentioned in sub-paragraph (b)(ix) is not equivalent to contributing service, account shall be taken of that employment to such extent (whether greater or less than its actual length) as the Ministry may direct;

- (iii) if at the time when he ceased to be employed in employment mentioned in sub-paragraph (b)(v), (b)(vii), (b)(viii) or (b)(ix) an officer was in the course of making additional contributory payments under the second schedule to the English or Scottish Local Government regulations, 1954, the second schedule to the Belfast Corporation Superannuation Scheme, the second schedule to the Local Government Superannuation Regulations or any provisions of a scheme approved by the Ministry under sub-paragraph (e)(vi) of paragraph (3) of regulation 16 which are substantially similar to the provisions of the second schedule to these regulations, as the case may be, the service in respect of which those payments were being made shall not be reckonable as contributing service except in accordance with regulation 25;
- (iv) if at the time when he ceased to be employed in employment mentioned in sub-paragraph (b)(vi) an officer was in the course of making payments in respect of any period of service as a condition of being entitled to reckon that period as service or as a period of contribution for the purposes of the local Act scheme, that period shall not be reckonable as contributing service except in accordance with regulation 26;
- (v) if at the time when he ceased to be employed in employment mentioned in sub-paragraph (b)(vi) an officer was in the course of making payments in respect of any period of service or period of contribution under the local Act scheme as a condition of increasing the length at which that period would be reckonable for the purpose of calculating the benefits under the local Act scheme, that period shall be reckonable as contributing service at the length at which it would have been reckonable if no such payments as aforesaid had been made and shall not otherwise be reckonable as contributing service except in accordance with regulation 26; and
- (vi) if at the time when he left any such employment as is mentioned in sub-paragraph (b)(v), (b)(vi), (b)(vii), (b)(viii) or (b)(ix) an officer was in the course of making payments in respect of added years, those years shall not be reckonable as contributing service except in accordance with regulation 27.

(2) Any war service or national service which is reckonable as a period of service under regulation 20 in relation to an officer shall be reckonable as a period of contributing service if his service immediately before such war service or national service is so reckonable.

(3) Any service in respect of which an officer completed payments in accordance with the provisions of the third schedule to the 1948 regulations of the second schedule to the 1954 regulations, shall be reckonable as contributing service and any outstanding instalments of a sum payable or deemed to be payable under the second schedule to the 1954 regulations shall be deemed to be instalments of a sum payable under the second schedule to these regulations.

(4) There shall be reckonable as non-contributing service in relation to the employment of an officer by an employing authority any service which is not reckonable as contributing service and which is not reckonable solely for the purpose of determining whether any benefit is payable under these regulations.

(5) An officer may, within three months of becoming such officer or within such longer period as the Ministry may allow, elect to make payments in accordance with and subject to the provisions of the second schedule in order to convert any years of non-contributing service reckonable by him to contributing service.

(6) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (4), any period of service in respect of which an officer has made or is in course of making payments under the second schedule shall be reckonable as contributing service.

(7) Where a person to whom regulation 16 applies, or to whom the corresponding provision of the previous regulations applied, was in his former employment a contributory employee or local Act contributor, then if a discretionary power has been exercised in his favour under rules made under section 2 of the Act of 1948, any addition deemed under those rules to have been made to the service reckonable by him at the time when he left the employment in which he was a contributory employee or local Act contributor shall, if a transfer value has been paid in respect thereof under the said rules, be reckonable under these regulations as contributing service:

Provided that no period shall be reckonable as contributing service under this paragraph unless, had that period been reckonable immediately before he left his former employment as contributing service under the Act of 1937, or as service or as a period of contribution under the local Act scheme to which he was a contributor, it would have been reckonable in the employment in which the person is an officer.

Continuation of additional contributory payments previously made under certain schemes

25. Where a person to whom regulation 16 applies—

- (a) has become an officer after leaving employment in which he was a contributory employee or a person subject to the Belfast Corporation Superannuation Scheme, the Local Government Superannuation Regulations or a scheme approved by the Ministry under sub-paragraph (e)(vi) of paragraph (3) of regulation 16 containing provisions substantially similar to the provisions of the second schedule; and
- (b) at the time when he left that employment was, or was treated as if he was, in the course of making additional contributory payments under the second schedule to the English or Scottish Local Government regulations, 1954, the second schedule to the Belfast Corporation Superannuation Scheme, the second schedule to the Local Government Superannuation Regulations or any corresponding provision contained in any such scheme approved by the Ministry under sub-paragraph (e)(vi) of paragraph (3) of regulation 16 as aforesaid, he shall be entitled to make the outstanding payments as if they were instalments of a sum payable under the second schedule to these regulations and, if he completes the payments in the manner provided in the second schedule to these regulations, to have the service in respect of which they were made reckoned as contributing service:

Provided that this regulation shall not apply to any officer who has not, within three months after entering their employment, given notice in writing to the employing authority of his election to continue payments under this regulation and paid to that authority within that period or within such longer period as the Ministry may in any particular case allow an amount equal to any sum paid to him by way of return of additional contributory payments made in respect of the said period of service on or after his ceasing to hold his former employment together with an amount equal to any income tax which was deducted from his additional contributory payments in respect of such return.

Continuation of additional contributory payments previously made under a local Act scheme

26.—(1) This regulation shall apply where a person to whom regulation 16 applies—

- (a) has become an officer after leaving employment in which he was a local Act contributor; and
- (b) at the time when he left that employment was in the course of making payments (otherwise than in respect of added years) by way of—
 - (i) instalments in discharge of a fixed sum; or
 - (ii) contributions of a fraction or percentage of emoluments additional to the percentage payable in respect of current service, as a condition of being entitled to reckon any period of employment in relation to which those payments were being made as a period of service or a period of contribution for the purposes of the local Act scheme, or as a condition of increasing the length at which the said period of employment would be reckonable as a period of service or a period of contribution for the purpose of calculating a benefit under the local Act scheme.

(2) If the officer notifies the employing authority in writing within three months after entering their employment that he elects to make payments in pursuance of this regulation and pays to that authority within that period or within such longer period as the Ministry may in any particular case allow an amount equal to any sum paid to him by way of a return of any such payments as are referred to in paragraph (1), then—

- (a) in a case to which sub-paragraph (b)(i) of paragraph (1) applies the amount which, if paid as a single payment, would discharge the outstanding liability; and
- (b) in a case to which sub-paragraph (b)(ii) of paragraph (1) applies the capital value of the outstanding liabilities, as certified by an actuary appointed by the local Act authority, shall be deemed to be a sum payable under the second schedule and if payment is made in accordance with the provisions of that schedule the period of employment in respect of which the payments were being made shall be reckonable as a period of contributing service in the manner in which it would have been reckonable under these regulations if the payments had been completed before the officer left the employment in which he was a local Act contributor.

Provisions with respect to added years

27.—(1) Subject as hereinafter provided, where a person to whom regulation 16 applies—

- (a) has become an officer after leaving employment in which he was a contributory employee, a local Act contributor or a person subject to the Belfast Corporation Superannuation Scheme, the Local Government Superannuation Regulations or a scheme approved by the Ministry under sub-paragraph (e)(vi) of paragraph (3) of regulation 16 containing provisions substantially similar to the provisions of this regulation; and
- (b) at the time when he left that employment was in the course of making payments in respect of added years, then, if he complies with such of the conditions set out in paragraph (2) as are applicable in his case, he shall be entitled to continue to make the like payments to his employing authority in respect of the added years as he would have been liable to make under the superannuation scheme or enactment to which he was subject in his former employment had that scheme or enactment been applicable to him in his new employment; and if he makes the said payments to his employing authority in the manner in which, and at the times at which, he would have been liable to make them as aforesaid, he shall be entitled—

- (i) to enjoy in relation to his employment as an officer rights in respect of added years corresponding with the rights which he would have enjoyed if at the time of entering the employment in which he is an officer he had become instead a contributory employee, a local Act contributor or a person subject to the Belfast Corporation Superannuation Scheme, the Local Government Superannuation Regulations or such a scheme approved by the Ministry under sub-paragraph (e)(vi) of paragraph (3) of regulation 16 as aforesaid, as the case may be; and
- (ii) to continue to enjoy those rights so long as he makes payments in respect of the said added years in the manner and at the times aforesaid and remains an officer of any employing authority without a break of twelve months or more and without having become during any break of less than twelve months a contributory employee, a local Act contributor or a person subject to the Belfast Corporation Superannuation Scheme, the Local Government Superannuation Regulations or such a scheme approved by the Ministry under sub-paragraph (e)(vi) of paragraph (3) of regulation 16 as aforesaid.

(2) The conditions to which paragraph (1) refers are that within three months after entering the employment in which he is an officer he gives notice in writing to his employing authority of his election to continue payments in respect of the said added years and pays to that authority within that period or within such longer period as the Ministry may in any particular case allow an amount equal to any sum paid to him by way of return of contributions paid in respect of the said added years on or after his ceasing to hold the employment in which he was a contributory employee, a local Act contributor or a person subject to the Belfast Corporation Superannuation Scheme, the Local Government Superannuation Regulations or such a scheme approved by the Ministry under sub-paragraph (e)(vi) of paragraph (3) of regulation 16 as aforesaid together with an amount equal to any income tax which was deducted from his contributions in respect of such return.

(3) Notwithstanding anything in paragraphs (1) and (2)—

- (a) an officer shall not be entitled to make payments in respect of added years under paragraph (1) if he left employment in which he was a contributory employee, a local Act contributor or a person subject to the Belfast Corporation Superannuation Scheme or the Local Government Superannuation Regulations in such circumstances that in consequence of a resolution of the authority by whose consent the added years first became reckonable he ceased to be entitled to reckon the said added years; and
- (b) an officer who makes payments in respect of added years under paragraph (1) in respect of employment in which he is an officer shall also make payments in respect of those added years in respect of any other employment as an officer which he holds concurrently with the first-mentioned employment.

Method of calculating service, contributing service and non-contributing service

28. For the purpose of making any calculation under these regulations

(except a calculation under the second schedule, the third schedule or the fourth schedule) in respect of an officer's service—

- (a) all periods of his service shall be aggregated;
- (b) all periods of his contributing service shall be aggregated;
- (c) his non-contributing service shall be calculated by deducting all completed years of his contributing service from his service, and if his non-contributing service as so calculated includes a fraction of a year, that fraction shall, if it amounts to or exceeds six months, be treated as a year, and in any other case be disregarded:

Provided that for the purpose of calculating the amount of any benefit payable to or in respect of an officer employed whole-time in a single employment who had formerly been employed in a part-time capacity otherwise than as a practitioner, the period of part-time service shall be treated as though it were whole-time service for a proportionately reduced period.

Meaning of average remuneration

29.—(1) For the purposes of these regulations, the average remuneration of a person in relation to his employment as an officer by any employing authority means the annual average of the remuneration of his employment by that authority, and of any other employment, war service or national service reckonable by him as contributing service or non-contributing service in relation to that employment, for an aggregate period of three years during which he was so employed or engaged in war service or national service as aforesaid, ending on the date on which he ceased to hold his employment as an officer or the day preceding the date on which he became an officer mentioned in paragraph (4) of regulation 6 whichever is the earlier:

Provided that—

- (a) in the case of an officer who—
 - (i) during the said period of three years ceased to hold any other employment under an employing authority (hereinafter in this regulation called “a concurrent employment”) without being entitled in respect thereof to any benefit under these regulations; and
 - (ii) does not hold any other employment in relation to which the concurrent employment is reckonable as service, the remuneration of the concurrent employment so far as it was earned during the said period of three years shall be taken into account in calculating the annual average of his remuneration during that period;
- (b) in the case of an officer who, on a reduction in his remuneration, paid contributions in accordance with paragraph (5) of regulation 6 or the corresponding provision of the previous regulations, the remuneration on which he so paid contributions in respect of the period during which his remuneration was reduced shall be deemed to have been the remuneration of his employment during that period;
- (c) in the case of an officer who paid contributions in accordance with paragraph (6) of regulation 6 or the corresponding provision of the previous regulations, the remuneration on which he so paid contributions shall be deemed to have been the remuneration of his employment;
- (d) in the case of an officer whose remuneration was reduced or suspended by reason of his absence from duty owing to illness or injury, no account shall be taken of the reduction or suspension;
- (e) the remuneration of an officer in respect of any period of national service which is reckonable as service under these regulations shall be deemed to have been the remuneration on which he paid contributions in accordance with paragraph (9) of regulation 6 or paragraph (7) of regulation 5 of the 1954 regulations;

- (f) if the officer, having been previously engaged in any other employment, is engaged in the part-time employment of each of two or more authorities, the remuneration of that other employment shall be treated as attributable to those part-time employments and shall be apportioned between them; and
- (g) the average remuneration of an officer whose contributing service and non-contributing service is less in the aggregate than three years shall be deemed to be the annual average of his remuneration for such shorter period.

(2) Except as provided in proviso (f) to paragraph (1) the remuneration of any previous employment shall not be taken into account in calculating a person's average remuneration in relation to his employment as an officer if that remuneration has previously been taken into account in the calculation of his average remuneration in relation to any other employment for the purpose of a benefit payable to him under these regulations in respect of that other employment.

(3) Notwithstanding anything in paragraphs (1) and (2), there shall not be payable to or in respect of an officer to whom proviso (a) to paragraph (1) applies any greater amount by way of superannuation benefits than the aggregate amount which would have been payable to or in respect of him if he had—

- (a) continued to hold the concurrent employment to which that proviso refers until the expiration of the period of three years by reference to which his average remuneration was calculated; and
- (b) continued to earn remuneration in respect of the concurrent employment at the rate at which he was earning it immediately before he ceased to hold the concurrent employment.

Return of contributions

- 30.—(1) (a) The provisions of paragraph (2) shall apply in relation to a person who is an excepted officer, the provisions of paragraphs (3) to (5) shall apply in relation to a person who is not an excepted officer and the provisions of paragraphs (6) and (7) shall apply in relation to any person whether or not he is an excepted officer.
- (b) In this regulation, the word "contributions" has the meaning assigned to it by paragraph (7) of regulation 2, but only in so far as any sums included in that definition have not been returned to and retained by the person, and are attributable to service which might have been reckoned under these regulations in relation to the employment he has ceased to hold, or in which he has ceased to be an officer or has died.
- (c) In this regulation, references to cessation of employment by reason of resignation or dismissal in consequence of an offence of a fraudulent character or of grave misconduct, shall be deemed to include references to cessation of employment when such an offence or such misconduct is committed after notice to terminate that employment has been given.
- (d) For the purposes of this regulation a person shall not be regarded as entitled to an injury allowance if by reason of the provisions of paragraph (4) of regulation 9 no sum is for the time being receivable by him on account thereof.

(2) An officer who on ceasing to be employed is not entitled to a pension, retiring allowance, injury allowance or short service gratuity and who holds no other employment in which he is an officer and a person (other than a person to whom paragraph (2) of regulation 7 applies) who, though not ceasing to be employed, ceases to be an officer to whom these regulations apply shall be entitled to receive from the Ministry a return of his contributions, together with compound interest thereon :

Provided that—

- (a) if an officer ceases to be employed by reason of his resignation or dismissal in consequence of an offence of a fraudulent character or of grave misconduct, being such an offence or such misconduct committed by him in connection with the performance of the duties of his employment or otherwise in relation to his employment there shall be no right to a return of contributions, but the Ministry may, if it thinks fit, return to him or pay to his spouse or any dependant of his a sum equal to the whole or a part of his contributions, with interest; and
- (b) if any of the contributions were made under an enactment or scheme in the benefits of which the person participated before becoming an officer, and the officer has ceased to be employed in circumstances in which under that enactment or scheme those contributions would not have been returnable, or would have been returnable or might have been returned without interest, no interest shall be calculated on the contributions so made up to the date on which he became an officer.

(3) The following persons shall be entitled to receive from the Ministry a sum equal to the amount of their contributions together with compound interest thereon :—

- (a) an officer who, before becoming entitled to a pension, retiring allowance, injury allowance or short service gratuity, ceases to be employed by an employing authority for any reason other than his voluntary resignation or his resignation or dismissal in consequence of inefficiency or an offence of a fraudulent character or misconduct, and who holds no other employment in which he is an officer; and

Provided that if any of the contributions were made under an enactment or scheme in the benefits of which the person participated before becoming an officer, and the officer has ceased to be employed in circumstances in which under that enactment or scheme those contributions would not have been returnable, or would have been returnable or might have been returned without interest, no interest shall be calculated on the contributions so made up to the date on which he became an officer.

(4) The following persons shall be entitled to receive from the Ministry a sum equal to the amount of their contributions :—

- (a) an officer who, before becoming entitled to a pension, retiring allowance, injury allowance or short service gratuity, ceases to be employed by an employing authority by reason of his voluntary resignation or his resignation or dismissal in consequence of inefficiency or an offence of a fraudulent character or misconduct, not being such an offence or grave misconduct in connection with the duties of, or otherwise in relation to, his employment and who holds no other employment in which he is an officer; and
- (b) a person (other than a person to whom paragraph (2) of regulation 7 applies) who, though not ceasing to be employed, ceases at his own request to be an officer to whom these regulations apply.

(5) If an officer ceases to be employed by an employing authority by reason of his resignation or dismissal in consequence of an offence of a fraudulent character or of grave misconduct, being such an offence or such misconduct in connection with the performance of the duties of, or otherwise in relation to, his employment and is not entitled to a pension, retiring allowance, injury allowance or short service gratuity, the Ministry may, if it thinks fit, return to him or pay to his spouse or any dependant of his a sum equal to the whole or a part of his contributions.

(6) If an officer dies, and no death gratuity is payable in respect of his death, then, unless the Ministry grants a gratuity or annual allowance to that person's widow or a dependant in accordance with paragraph (3) of regulation 9, his personal representatives shall be entitled to receive from the Ministry the amount of his contributions, together with compound interest thereon.

(7) If a person dies who, at the time of his death, was entitled to an injury allowance but to no other benefit under these regulations, then, unless the Ministry grants a gratuity or annual allowance to that person's widow or a dependant in accordance with paragraph (3) of regulation 9 or a benefit becomes payable in respect of him under the provisions of regulation 13, his personal representatives shall be entitled to receive from the Ministry the amount of his contributions, together with compound interest thereon, less the amount which that person has received in respect of the said injury allowance.

Calculation of interest on contributions

31. Where under any of these regulations provision is made for the calculation of compound interest on the contributions of an officer, that calculation, unless otherwise provided, shall be made at the rate of two and one half per cent. per annum, with yearly rests, up to the date of his death, or if he ceased to be an officer before he died, the date on which he ceased to be an officer, and shall begin to run from the first day of the year commencing on the first day of April following the year in which the contributions were made :

Provided that—

- (a) if any of the contributions were made under an enactment or scheme in the benefits of which the officer participated before becoming an officer, and that enactment or scheme made provision for the calculation of interest on contributions returned thereunder in a different manner from that provided by this regulation, interest on the contributions so made shall be calculated in the manner provided by the enactment or scheme in the benefits of which the officer last participated before becoming an officer up to the date on which he became an officer or, if he received a return of those contributions before that date, up to the date of such return; and
- (b) where an officer, having received a return of contributions on or after ceasing to hold some former employment, has paid or repaid those contributions to the employing authority, then—
 - (i) if those contributions were returned without interest, the interest thereon shall not begin to run until the first day of April in the year following that in which those contributions were so paid or repaid as aforesaid; and
 - (ii) if those contributions were returned with interest, no interest shall be calculated thereon between the date on which they were returned and the first day of April in the year following that in which they were so paid or repaid as aforesaid.

Reduction of pension or injury allowance in certain cases

32.—(1) Where a person who has become entitled to a pension or injury allowance under these regulations or the previous regulations—

- (a) continues to hold any employment (hereinafter in this regulation called “continuing employment”) which he held immediately before he became entitled to the said pension or injury allowance; or
- (b) since becoming entitled to the said pension or injury allowance has entered employment (hereinafter in this paragraph called “new employment”), and the remuneration of the continuing or new employment is payable out of public funds, then the rate of pension or allowance payable to him at any time during the period during which he holds the continuing or new employment shall not exceed the amount (if any) by which the annual rate of remuneration of the continuing or new employment falls short of the annual rate of remuneration or the annual rate of the average remuneration, whichever is the greater, of the employment in relation to which he became entitled to the pension or allowance, together with the annual rate of remuneration payable in respect of the continuing employment (if any) immediately before he became entitled to the pension or allowance.

(2) Where a person who has become entitled to a pension or injury allowance under these regulations or the previous regulations proposes to accept further employment the remuneration of which will be payable out of public funds, he shall inform his prospective employer that he is so entitled and, if he enters that employment, shall forthwith give notice in writing to the Ministry that he is so employed.

(3) The provisions of paragraph (1) apply in relation to a person who holds both a continuing employment and a new employment as they apply to a person to whom either sub-paragraph (a) or sub-paragraph (b) of that paragraph applies.

(4) For the purposes of this regulation a person's annual rate of remuneration shall be computed, in so far as it consisted of or comprised salary, wages or other emoluments, whether in money or in kind, receivable by the person in the employment in relation to which he became entitled to the pension or allowance at a fixed rate, at the rate at which it was payable immediately before he ceased to hold the said employment; and in so far as it consisted of or comprised fees and other emoluments not of a fixed nature, at the average rate at which he received those fees and other emoluments during the three years immediately before he ceased to hold the said employment or, if he was not entitled during the whole of that period to receive those fees and other emoluments, at the average rate for the period during which, within the said period of three years, he was entitled to receive them.

Combined benefits in the case of certain re-employed pensioners

33.—(1) Where a person who has become entitled to a pension, retiring allowance or injury allowance under these regulations or the previous regulations has again become an officer, he may, unless the provisions of regulation 34 have been applied in respect of his previous service as an officer, if he so elects, or has so elected under the corresponding provision of the previous regulations, as from the date on which he ceases to be an officer, be entitled to benefits in accordance with the following provisions of this regulation in lieu of any pension or injury allowance to which he has become entitled as aforesaid and of any benefits to which he might otherwise be entitled under these regulations in respect of his service as such officer.

(2) A person to whom paragraph (1) applies shall be entitled on ceasing to be an officer to receive the like benefits as he would be entitled to receive if the service in respect of which he previously became entitled to a pension, retiring allowance or injury allowance were reckonable in addition to his service as such officer :

Provided that if the person had previously been entitled to a retiring allowance under these regulations, or the previous regulations, then—

(a) if the amount of the said retiring allowance (hereinafter in this paragraph called “the first allowance”) equals or exceeds the amount of the retiring allowance to which, apart from this sub-paragraph, he would be entitled under this paragraph (hereinafter called “the second allowance”)—

(i) a retiring allowance shall not be payable under this paragraph; and

(ii) any other benefits payable to or in respect of the person under this paragraph shall be reduced in such manner as the Ministry may determine to be necessary for the purpose of recovering the amount (if any) by which the first allowance exceeds the second allowance;

(b) if the amount of the second allowance exceeds the amount of the first allowance the second allowance shall be reduced by the amount of the first allowance.

(3) Where a person who has become entitled to benefits under this regulation dies, regard shall be had for the purposes of the application of proviso (iv) to regulation 12 to any payments made on account of any pension, retiring allowance or injury allowance to which he had previously been entitled.

(4) If a person to whom paragraph (1) applies had taken advantage of the provisions of regulation 11 or the corresponding provisions of the previous regulations, in relation to any pension or injury allowance to which he had previously become entitled as aforesaid, no title to any pension shall accrue by reason thereof.

(5) If a person who has become entitled to benefits under this regulation again enters employment as an officer, paragraph (1) shall not apply on his ceasing to hold that employment unless he so elects.

Separate benefits in the case of certain re-employed pensioners

34.—(1) Where a person who is entitled to a pension or injury allowance payable out of public funds, whether under these regulations or otherwise, has become an officer and his pension or allowance is on that account liable to be reduced or suspended, then on ceasing to be employed, unless he is a person to whom regulation 33 applies, the service in respect of which that pension or allowance was granted shall be reckonable for the purpose of determining whether the person is entitled to receive any benefit under these regulations and for the purposes of regulation 23, but for no other purpose.

(2) In the calculation of any benefit payable to or in respect of such a person under these regulations, whether by virtue of paragraph (1) or otherwise, account shall not be taken of any number of years of service under these regulations by which those years, together with the years of service in respect of which the pension aforesaid was granted, exceed forty-five years :

Provided that—

- (a) where the said pension was granted to an established officer or servant of the first class under the Act of 1909 or to a person having (by virtue of an option exercised or treated as having been exercised under regulation 22 of the 1948 regulations) rights corresponding with the rights of a first class officer or servant under the Act of 1909, the number of years in respect of which the pension was granted shall be multiplied by six fifths, and any fraction of a year shall be disregarded;
- (b) where the said pension was granted to a person who was a mental health officer or a person having, in respect of years of service over twenty, rights corresponding with those of a mental health officer, each year of which account was taken as if it were two years in calculating the amount of the said pension shall be reckoned as two years for the purposes of this paragraph;
- (c) where, under the proviso to paragraph (1) of regulation 8, or under a similar provision contained in or authorised by any other enactment or scheme, the said pension was calculated by reference to a minimum fraction of remuneration, it shall be deemed to have been granted in respect of years of service equal in number to the numerator of that fraction; and
- (d) any other notional increase or extension of service shall be similarly taken into account for the purposes of this paragraph.

(3) Where a benefit, other than a short service gratuity, becomes payable to or in respect of a person to whom this regulation applies, any provision of these regulations prescribing a minimum benefit or a method of calculating the benefit otherwise than by reference to the amount of the person's contributions or the service reckonable by him or the amount of the pension which was or would in certain circumstances have become payable to him shall be disregarded.

(4) Where a short service gratuity becomes payable to a person to whom this regulation applies, and the service which he is entitled to reckon for the purpose of calculating any benefit under these regulations is less than five years, the short service gratuity shall be either the amount which bears the same proportion to the sum otherwise payable as the period of service so reckonable bears to the period of five years or a sum equal to the amount of his contributions together with compound interest thereon, whichever is the greater.

(5) Where a person who has become entitled to benefits under this regulation dies, no regard shall be had for the purposes of the application of proviso (iv) to regulation 12 to any payments made on account of any pension, retiring allowance or injury allowance to which he became entitled before last becoming an officer.

(6) Notwithstanding anything in this regulation, the benefits payable under these regulations to or in respect of a person shall not be less than the benefits which would have been payable under these regulations had this regulation other than paragraph (2) thereof not been made.

Calculation of benefits on death of re-employed pensioner

35. Where such a person as is mentioned in regulation 33 dies while still an officer, the benefits payable in respect of him shall be calculated as if immediately before his death he had become entitled to a benefit under regulation 33 or a benefit under regulation 34, whichever method of calculation gives the greater benefit:

Provided that the method of calculation under regulation 34 shall not be applied in respect of any officer to whom that regulation could not have applied if he had ceased to be employed immediately before his death.

Benefits of officers who have exercised option to retain rights corresponding with those previously enjoyed

36.—(1) Where—

- (a) before the date of coming into operation of these regulations an officer was entitled by virtue of paragraph (1) of regulation 25 of the 1954 regulations to enjoy rights corresponding with those which he would have enjoyed if he had remained subject to the superannuation enactment previously applicable in his case or an officer was treated by virtue of any provision of the previous regulations in like manner as though he were an officer to whom regulation 25 of the 1954 regulations applied; and
- (b) but for the revocation of the 1954 regulations by these regulations the provisions of part I of the 1954 regulations would have applied to and in respect of him, in relation to the employment in which he is an officer, in the manner prescribed by paragraph (1) of regulation 25 of the 1954 regulations, the provisions of this part of these regulations shall similarly apply to and in respect of him, as if, in relation to his employment as such officer, they required him to make the like contributions (if any) as he would have been liable to make and conferred upon him rights corresponding with those which he would have enjoyed if he had remained subject to the enactment previously applicable in his case, and those provisions shall continue so to apply to and in respect of him so long as he is an officer of any employing authority without a break in employment of twelve months or more, and without having become entitled, during any break in employment, to participate in superannuation benefits by virtue of employment otherwise than under an employing authority:

Provided that—

- (a) for the purposes of this paragraph a person shall not be treated as having had a break in employment of twelve months or more if—
 - (i) he left employment as an officer, immediately thereafter became engaged in national service and returned to employment as an officer within six months after the termination of that service; or
 - (ii) he left employment as an officer in order to enter an approved course of study or training and re-entered employment as an officer without having had a break of twelve months or more since leaving his previous employment (no account being taken of the period of the said course of study or training), or within six months after the termination of national service in which he became engaged on completion of that course; or
 - (iii) he left employment as an officer and —
 - (i) immediately thereafter became engaged in national service;
 - (ii) on the termination of that service entered an approved course of study or training; and
 - (iii) re-entered employment as an officer within six months after the termination of his national service (no account being taken of the period of the said course of study or training);
- (b) if a person who exercised an option referred to in regulation 25 of the 1954 regulations to retain rights corresponding with those enjoyed under the Act of 1909 was immediately before being transferred under the Act an established officer or servant of the first class under the Act of 1909, and is at any time employed otherwise than for the purposes of a hospital or part of a hospital used for the treatment of persons suffering from mental disorder, the option shall cease to have effect; and

- (c) if a person (other than a mental health officer) who exercised an option referred to in regulation 25 of the 1954 regulations to retain rights corresponding with those enjoyed under any enactment, at any time becomes a mental health officer, he may, if he notifies the employing authority in writing within one month after becoming such an officer that he so desires, avail himself of the benefits provided by these regulations in lieu of the rights to which he was previously entitled and, if he does so, the option shall cease to have effect.

(2) Where a person has become entitled to a pension or injury allowance under these regulations or the previous regulations in pursuance of an option exercised, or treated as having been exercised, under regulation 22 of the 1948 regulations, the conditions prescribed by regulations 32 and 33 shall not apply in relation thereto, but in lieu thereof any corresponding conditions prescribed by the enactment to which he was formerly subject shall attach to the pension or allowance as if it had been granted under that enactment, and as if any employment as an officer, whether before or after his becoming entitled to the pension or allowance, were employment in the capacity in which he was subject to the said enactment.

(3) Notwithstanding paragraphs (1) and (2), if a person in pursuance of an option exercised, or treated as having been exercised, under regulation 22 of the 1948 regulations has become entitled to a benefit, other than a return of contributions, payable under these regulations or the 1954 regulations, and thereafter enters employment in which he is an officer, then, if he cannot in that employment become entitled to any further benefit in pursuance of the aforesaid option, part II shall apply to him in respect of that employment as if he had not exercised the aforesaid option:

Provided that paragraph (2), in so far as it excludes the application to him of regulation 32 and provides that in lieu thereof any corresponding conditions prescribed by the enactment to which he was formerly subject shall attach to his pension or allowance as if it had been granted under that enactment, shall continue to apply in relation to any pension or allowance payable in pursuance of the aforesaid option under these regulations or the 1954 regulations in respect of his former employment.

Benefits of officers who did not exercise option to retain previous rights or in whose case options have ceased to have effect

37.—(1) The provisions of this regulation shall apply in the case of any officer to whom paragraph (1) of regulation 22 of the 1948 regulations or the proviso to paragraph (1) of regulation 33 of those regulations applied and who did not exercise the option thereby conferred, or in whose case any option exercised thereunder has ceased to have effect.

(2) The amount of any retiring allowance payable to any officer to whom paragraph (1) applies shall be increased by one half per cent. in respect of each year of contributing service, and one quarter per cent. in respect of each year of non-contributing service, reckonable, in the case of an officer who did not exercise an option, in respect of any period prior to his becoming an officer or, in the case of an officer who exercised an option but in whose case the option has ceased to have effect, in respect of any period prior to the date on which the option ceased to have effect:

Provided that—

- (a) where the whole of the retiring allowance payable to the officer in respect of any such period as is mentioned in this paragraph falls to be calculated, in the case of any year of contributing service otherwise than as a practitioner by reference to one eightieth of the officer's average remuneration, and in the case of any year of non-contributing service by reference to one one-hundred-and-sixtieth of such remuneration, and in the case of any year or part of a year of contributing service as a practitioner by reference to one and one half per cent. or, as the case may be, one and three quarters per cent. of his remuneration as such for that year or part of a year, one and one half per cent. shall be substituted for one half per cent. in respect of each such year of contributing service, and three quarters per cent. shall be substituted for one quarter per cent. in respect of each such year of non-contributing service;
- (b) where part only of the retiring allowance falls to be calculated in the manner referred to in proviso (a), the amount of the retiring allowance shall be increased by a sum equal to the sum by which the retiring allowance would have been increased if the whole of that allowance had been calculated in the manner referred to in proviso (a).

Persons subject to non-statutory superannuation schemes and arrangements

38.—(1) Where before the date of coming into operation of these regulations the Ministry was under a liability imposed by paragraph (1) or (4) of regulation 27 of the 1954 regulations to pay in respect of an officer to whom that paragraph applied the contributions authorised or required by the Federated Superannuation Scheme for Nurses and Hospital Officers to be paid by the employer then, if the officer in respect of whom that liability was incurred, has remained and continues to remain without a break of more than one month at any one time an officer in the employment of any employing authority, the Ministry shall pay the contributions authorised or required by the Federated Superannuation Scheme for Nurses and Hospital Officers to be paid by the employer and in that event the officer shall not as such officer be subject to any provisions of these regulations except those contained in this regulation.

(2) Where before the date of coming into operation of these regulations the Ministry was carrying out the relevant scheme or arrangements referred to in paragraph (2) of regulation 27 of the 1954 regulations in exercise of the discretion conferred thereby, then, if the officer in respect of whom the Ministry was carrying out the relevant scheme or arrangements has remained and continues to remain without a break of more than one month at any one time an officer in the employment of any employing authority the Ministry may carry out the relevant scheme or arrangements, and in any case in which the Ministry exercises the discretion conferred by this paragraph, the officer concerned shall not as such officer be subject to any provisions of these regulations, except those contained in this regulation.

(3) Subject to the provisions of paragraphs (1) and (2), where a person has before the date of coming into operation of these regulations become an officer, having within twelve months before becoming such officer been participating in the superannuation scheme mentioned in paragraph (1), then, if the officer so requested the employing authority in writing within three months after becoming an officer, the Ministry may pay the contributions authorised or required by the scheme to be paid by the employer, and in that event the officer shall not be subject to any provisions of these regulations except those contained in this regulation:

Provided that this paragraph shall apply only if the person has remained and continues to remain without a break of more than one month at any one time an officer in the employment of any employing authority.

(4) Where any person becomes an officer of an employing authority in consequence of the acquisition of premises by the Authority under section 67 of the Act, then, if on such earlier date as the Ministry may determine and immediately before becoming an officer he was participating in the superannuation scheme mentioned in paragraph (1), and if the officer so requests the employing authority in writing within three months after becoming such officer, the Ministry shall, if the person remains without a break of more than one month at any one time an officer in the employment of any employing authority, pay the contributions authorised or required by the scheme to be paid by the employer, other than contributions in respect of any policy of insurance taken out under the scheme between such earlier date as aforesaid and the date of acquisition, and in that event the officer shall not be subject to any provisions of these regulations except those contained in this regulation, and the Ministry may, if it thinks fit, also pay the contributions authorised or required by the scheme to be paid by the employer in respect of any policy of insurance taken out under the scheme after such earlier date as aforesaid.

(5) Where any such person as is mentioned in paragraph (4), immediately before becoming an officer, was participating in any superannuation scheme of a similar character to the scheme mentioned in paragraph (1) or was participating or had reasonable expectations of participating in any other scheme or arrangements for the provision of superannuation benefits, then, if the officer so requests the employing authority in writing within three months after becoming an officer, the Ministry shall consider all the circumstances of the case, including any change which may have occurred on the person's becoming an officer in the emoluments previously enjoyed by him, and if it is satisfied that undue hardship would otherwise result, the Ministry shall, if any relevant scheme continues to be administered by a body, subject to such arrangements as it may have made with that body, pay the contributions authorised or required by that scheme to be paid by the employer, and in any case in which any relevant scheme continues to be administered by a body but the Ministry has been unable to make arrangements with that body and in any other case the Ministry may carry out the relevant scheme or arrangements, and in that event the officer shall not be subject to any provision of these regulations except those contained in this regulation :

Provided that this paragraph shall apply only if the person remains without a break of more than one month at any one time an officer in the employment of any employing authority.

(6) Subject to the provisions of paragraphs (4) and (5), where a person becomes an officer of an employing authority, having within twelve months before becoming such officer been participating in the superannuation scheme mentioned in paragraph (1) or any other scheme approved by the Ministry for the purposes of this paragraph, then, if the officer so requests the employing authority in writing within three months after becoming an officer or within such longer period as the Ministry may in any particular case allow, the Ministry may, if any relevant scheme continues to be administered by a body, subject to such arrangements as it may have made with that body, pay the contributions authorised or required by the scheme to be paid by the employer, and in any case in which any relevant scheme continues to be administered by a body but the Ministry has been unable to make arrangements with that body and in any other case the Ministry may carry out the relevant scheme or arrangements, and in that event the officer shall not as such officer be subject to any provisions of these regulations except those contained in this regulation :

Provided that this paragraph shall apply only if the person remains without a break of more than one month at any one time an officer in the employment of any employing authority.

(7) Where in respect of any person contributions are paid by the Ministry under the foregoing provisions of this regulation or the Ministry carries out any such scheme or arrangements as are referred to in those provisions, the employing authority shall deduct from that person's remuneration the amount of any contributions required by the scheme or under the arrangements to be paid by the employee, and shall pay the same to the Ministry, together with the like contributions which they would have paid in respect of that person under regulation 6 but for the provisions of this regulation.

(8) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this regulation, where a person—

- (a) in consequence of a request made by him to the Ministry under this regulation or the corresponding provision of the previous regulations has remained subject to the scheme or other arrangements for the provision of superannuation benefits applicable to him before he became an officer; and
- (b) after having become entitled to a benefit under any such scheme or arrangements as aforesaid enters employment in which he is an officer, then, if in that employment—
 - (i) he cannot become entitled to any further benefit under such scheme or other arrangements as aforesaid; and
 - (ii) the benefit to which he has become entitled is liable to be reduced or suspended in consequence of his having entered the employment in which he is an officer, part II shall apply to him in that employment as if he had not elected to remain subject to the scheme or other arrangements as aforesaid.

Supplementary payments in the case of certain officers

39.—(1) The provisions of this regulation shall apply in the case of any person (not being a person to whom regulation 38 applies) who, on being transferred under the Act, or in consequence of the acquisition of premises by the Authority under section 67 of the Act, became an officer, and who had been engaged, for not less than ten years prior to his becoming an officer, in employment solely or mainly at or for the purposes of premises which have been transferred to or acquired by the Authority under the Act :

Provided that if he left any such employment as aforesaid in order to undertake war service or immediately after leaving that employment became engaged in national service and within six months after the termination of that service returned to any such employment as aforesaid, the period of that service shall be treated as if it were such employment as aforesaid.

(2) If any person to whom this regulation applies was not, immediately before becoming an officer, participating in superannuation benefits, or was so participating otherwise than under the Act of 1865, the Act of 1869, the Act of 1909 or the Act of 1943, and if on the nineteenth day of March, 1946 (or such later date as the Ministry may have determined in the case of a person who became an officer on the acquisition of premises by the Authority as aforesaid), and immediately before becoming an officer, he had reasonable expectations that on his retirement from his employment or on his death superannuation benefits would become payable to or in respect of him, then, unless those benefits were secured to him as such participant as aforesaid, and on becoming an officer he received some benefit on account thereof, if he remains, and in the case of a person who became an officer before the date of coming into operation of these regulations has remained, without a break in employment of twelve months or more at any time in any of the following employments:—

- (a) employment as an officer of any employing authority; or
- (b) in the case of a person who has entered employment in which he is a participant in a superannuation scheme in England and Wales, Scotland or the Isle of Man approved by the Ministry under paragraph (1) of regulation 70 in respect of whom the Ministry has paid a sum under that paragraph, employment in the health service of England and Wales, Scotland or the Isle of Man; or
- (c) in the case of a person who has entered employment subject to the Belfast Corporation Superannuation Scheme or the Local Government Superannuation Regulations in respect of whom the Ministry has paid a transfer value under regulation 73, employment subject to that scheme or those regulations during which he has remained a member of the medical, dental or nursing staff of a health authority; or
- (d) in the case of a person who has entered employment in which he has become a contributory employee or local Act contributor in respect of whom the Ministry has paid a transfer value under regulation 73, employment as a person to whom paragraph (1) of regulation 21 of the English or Scottish Local Government regulations, 1954, or paragraph (1) of regulation 22 of those regulations applies, the Ministry, with the approval of the Ministry of Finance, on his ceasing to be employed or on his death, may make such payments, supplementary to any superannuation benefits which may become payable to or in respect of him, as the Ministry considers equitable, having regard to the fact that in the calculation of those superannuation benefits account is not taken of any such employment before he became an officer.

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (2), a person shall not be treated as having had a break in employment of twelve months or more if—

- (a) he left employment as an officer in order to undertake war service and returned to employment as an officer within six months after the termination of that service; or
- (b) he left employment as an officer, immediately thereafter became engaged in national service and returned to employment as an officer within six months after the termination of that service; or
- (c) he left employment as an officer in order to enter an approved course of study or training and re-entered employment as an officer without having had a break of twelve months or more since leaving his previous employment (no account being taken of the period of the said course of study or training), or within six months after the termination of national service in which he became engaged on completion of that course; or
- (d) he left employment as an officer and—
 - (i) immediately thereafter became engaged in national service;

- (ii) on the termination of that service entered an approved course of study or training; and
- (iii) re-entered employment as an officer within six months after the termination of his national service (no account being taken of the period of the said course of study or training).

(4) An officer shall not be entitled to have his case considered under this regulation unless within three months after the date on which he became an officer, or such longer period as the Ministry may in any particular case allow, he furnished the employing authority with a written application for the purpose, and furnished the employing authority or the Ministry with such relevant information as may have been required.

Discretionary payments in respect of certain officers

40. Where by virtue of an option exercised, or treated as having been exercised, under regulation 22 of the 1948 regulations, an officer is, at the time when he ceases to be employed as an officer, entitled to enjoy rights corresponding with those which he would have enjoyed if he had remained subject to the provisions of the Act of 1909, the Ministry may, with the approval of the Ministry of Finance, on the officer's so ceasing to be employed make to or in respect of him payments corresponding with any discretionary payments (additional to any payments to which the person would have been entitled as of right in respect of benefits conferred by the Act of 1909) which the Ministry considers would have been made to or in respect of the person if the person had remained subject to the Act of 1909.

Holders of joint appointments

41. Where one of the holders of a joint appointment under an employing authority ceases to hold his appointment, and the appointment of the other is thereby determined, then that other, if he is an officer to whom part II applies, and has either attained the age of fifty years and completed ten years service, or has completed twenty years service, shall be entitled to receive a pension and retiring allowance, calculated in accordance with the provisions of regulation 8 :

Provided that this regulation shall not apply in any case where a joint appointment is determined in consequence of the misconduct of one of the holders thereof.

Female Nurses, Physiotherapists, Midwives and Health Visitors

42. These regulations, in their application to women who are nurses, physiotherapists, midwives or health visitors, shall have effect subject to the modification that in regulation 7 fifty-five years shall be substituted for sixty years.

Mental Health Officers

43.—(1) These regulations, in their application to any mental health officer who has been employed for an aggregate period of at least twenty years as such an officer or as a person to whom the Act of 1909 applied as an established officer or servant of the first class or, if the Ministry so directs, as a person subject to a scheme approved by the Ministry under sub-paragraph (e)(vi) of paragraph (3) of regulation 16, shall have effect subject to the following modifications:—

- (a) in regulation 7, fifty-five years shall be substituted for sixty years; and
- (b) for the purposes of paragraph (4) of regulation 6, regulation 8, paragraph (2) of regulation 11, regulation 12, proviso (ii) to paragraph (1)

of regulation 13, regulation 23, paragraphs (3) and (4) of regulation 44, regulation 56 and regulation 57, account shall be taken as if it were two years of every year in excess of twenty years of contributing service as a mental health officer or of contributing service so reckonable by such an officer by virtue of such employment as aforesaid:

Provided that—

- (i) this paragraph shall not apply to a mental health officer who, before completing an aggregate period of twenty years employment in the capacity or capacities as aforesaid, has become a mental health officer to whom paragraph (2) applies and has attained the age of fifty years; and
- (ii) in any case in which it would be more advantageous to an officer to whom this paragraph applies or, if he has died, to a person entitled to any benefit in respect of him not to apply sub-paragraph (b), the provisions of the said sub-paragraph shall not apply to or in respect of him.

(2) These regulations, in their application to any mental health officer (not being an officer to whom paragraph (1) applies) who has been employed for an aggregate period of at least twenty years as such an officer and before he became such an officer as a person on the staff of a hospital used wholly or partly for the treatment of persons suffering from mental disorder, devoting the whole or substantially the whole of his time to the treatment or care of such persons, shall have effect subject to the following modifications:—

- (a) in regulation 7, fifty-five years shall be substituted for sixty years; and
- (b) for the purposes of paragraph (4) of regulation 6, regulation 8, paragraph (2) of regulation 11, regulation 12, proviso (ii) to paragraph (1) of regulation 13, regulation 23, paragraphs (3) and (4) of regulation 44, regulation 56 and regulation 57, account shall be taken as if it were two years of every year of contributing service as a mental health officer rendered after attainment of the age of fifty years, or after the date on which he first became subject to this paragraph or the corresponding provision of the previous regulations whichever is the later:

Provided that, in any case in which it would be more advantageous to an officer to whom this paragraph applies or, if he has died, to a person entitled to any benefit in respect of him not to apply sub-paragraph (b), the provisions of the said sub-paragraph shall not apply to or in respect of him.

(3) In reckoning the aggregate period of a mental health officer's employment for the purpose of this regulation account shall be taken as if it were a period of employment of any period of service which he is entitled to reckon by virtue of the exercise in relation to him of the powers conferred by paragraph (1) or paragraph (4) of regulation 15 of the 1948 regulations.

(4) Where a person has become an officer otherwise than in the capacity of a mental health officer within twelve months after ceasing to be—

- (a) a mental health officer to whom paragraph (1) or (2) or either of the corresponding provisions of the previous regulations was applicable; or
- (b) a contributory employee or local Act contributor or a person subject to the Belfast Corporation Superannuation Scheme or the Local Government Superannuation Regulations having rights corresponding with those conferred by sub-paragraph (b) of paragraph (1) or paragraph (2), the provisions of sub-paragraph (b) of either paragraph (1) or paragraph (2) shall apply to him if he remains, and, in the case of a person who became such an officer before the date of coming into operation of these regulations he has remained, an officer in the employment of any employing authority without a break of twelve months or more at any one time and without having entered during any break of less than twelve months in his employment as an officer employment in which he was—

- (i) a person to whom paragraph (1) of regulation 21 of the English or Scottish Local Government regulations, 1954, or paragraph (1) of regulation 22 of those regulations applied;
- (ii) a person in employment subject to the Belfast Corporation Superannuation Scheme or the Local Government Superannuation Regulations in which he was a member of the medical, dental or nursing staff of a health authority; or
- (iii) a person in employment in which he was subject to such provisions of a scheme approved by the Ministry under sub-paragraph (e)(vi) of paragraph (3) of regulation 16 as are referred to in paragraph (5).

(5) Where a person has become an officer otherwise than in the capacity of a mental health officer within twelve months after leaving employment subject to a scheme approved by the Ministry under sub-paragraph (e)(vi) of paragraph (3) of regulation 16 or, if immediately after leaving any such employment he became engaged in national service, within six months after the termination of that service, then, if—

- (a) that scheme included provisions as to the reckoning of service which in the Ministry's opinion were substantially similar to the provisions contained in paragraph (1) or (2) or this paragraph; and
- (b) by virtue of the said provisions of the scheme he was entitled to reckon any year of service as if it were two years, he shall, if the Ministry so directs, continue to be entitled so to reckon any such year if he remains an officer in the employment of any employing authority without a break of twelve months or more at any one time and without having entered during any break of less than twelve months in his employment as an officer employment in which he was—

- (i) a person to whom paragraph (1) of regulation 21 of the English or Scottish Local Government regulations, 1954, or paragraph (1) of regulation 22 of those regulations applied;
- (ii) a person in employment subject to the Belfast Corporation Superannuation Scheme or the Local Government Superannuation Regulations in which he was a member of the medical, dental or nursing staff of a health authority; or
- (iii) a person in employment in which he was subject to such provisions of a scheme approved by the Ministry under sub-paragraph (e)(vi) of paragraph (3) of regulation 16 as aforesaid.

Modification of benefits and obligations under these regulations in connection with the National Insurance Act (Northern Ireland), 1946

- 44.—(1) (a) The provisions of paragraph (2) shall apply in relation to every officer (not being an officer to whom regulation 36 applies) unless he is a person in relation to whom paragraph (5), (7) or (8)

or sub-paragraph (a) of paragraph (11) applies or a person in relation to whom paragraph (9) applies who did not give the notice referred to in that paragraph, and, if he is a person in relation to whom paragraph (6) applies, only to the extent indicated in that paragraph; and

- (b) the provisions of paragraph (3) shall apply in relation to every person in receipt of a pension under these regulations who in the employment in relation to which he became entitled to that pension was an officer to whom paragraph (2) applied, but, if he is a person in relation to whom paragraph (4) applies or paragraph (7) applied, only to the extent indicated in whichever of those paragraphs applies or applied in his case.

(2) The amount of the contributions to be paid under regulation 6 by such an officer as is mentioned in sub-paragraph (a) of paragraph (1) shall be reduced at the rate of three pounds and eight pence per annum in the case of a man and of a woman who is a nurse, mental health officer, physio-therapist, midwife or health visitor, and at the rate of three pounds and five shillings per annum in the case of any other woman, and the amount of the contributions to be paid in respect of the officer by the employing authority shall be reduced at the like rate:

Provided that—

- (a) in the case of a mental health officer who by virtue of regulation 43 is entitled to reckon any year of contributing service as such officer as if it were two years, the amount of the reductions for that year shall be doubled; and
- (b) in the case of an officer who is a self-employed person within the meaning of the National Insurance Act (Northern Ireland), 1946, the amount by which his contributions are to be reduced shall be doubled, and the employing authority's contributions shall not be reduced.

(3) As from the date on which such an officer as is mentioned in sub-paragraph (b) of paragraph (1) becomes entitled to a pension, or, if on becoming entitled to such pension he has not reached pensionable age within the meaning of the National Insurance Act (Northern Ireland), 1946, as from the date on which he reaches that age, the pension shall be reduced—

- (a) if he became an officer within twelve months after leaving employment in relation to which he was subject to the Belfast Corporation Superannuation Scheme or the Local Government Superannuation Regulations, or if he left that employment in order to undertake war service or if immediately after leaving that employment he became engaged in national service, within six months after the termination of that service, and remained an officer of an employing authority until becoming entitled to a pension, without any break of twelve months or more during no part of which he was an established civil servant, such a person in contributory service under the Teachers Act or in recognised service within the meaning of that Act as is mentioned in sub-paragraph (c) of paragraph (3) of regulation 16, a contributory employee, a local Act contributor or a person subject to the Belfast Corporation Superannuation Scheme or the Local Government Superannuation Regulations, and if by virtue of the Belfast Corporation Superannuation Scheme or the Local Government Superannuation Regulations, as the case may be, any superannuation allowance to which he might have become entitled under the enactment to which he was subject as aforesaid would have been reduced by reference to his age at the date on which the Belfast Corporation Superannuation Scheme or the Local Government Superannuation Regulations, as the case may be, became applicable in relation to him—

- (i) by the annual sum shown in the appropriate column of the relative table set out in the fifth schedule in relation to an age which corresponds with his age at the date on which the Belfast Corporation Superannuation Scheme or the Local Government Superannuation Regulations, as the case may be, became applicable in relation to him, for each year of contributing service on and after that date; and
 - (ii) by one half of the said annual sum for each year of non-contributing service on and after the said date;
- (b) if he became an officer within twelve months after leaving employment in which he was such a person in contributory service under the Teachers Act or in recognised service within the meaning of that Act as aforesaid, or if he left that employment in order to undertake war service or if immediately after leaving that employment he became engaged in national service, within six months after the termination of that service, and remained an officer until becoming entitled to a pension, without any break of twelve months or more during no part of which he was an established civil servant, such a person in contributory service under the Teachers Act or in recognised service within the meaning of that Act as aforesaid, a contributory employee, a local Act contributor or a person subject to the Belfast Corporation Superannuation Scheme or the Local Government Superannuation Regulations, and if by virtue of regulations made under sub-section (4) of section 66 of the National Insurance Act (Northern Ireland), 1946, modifying the Teachers Act or a 1923 Act scheme any superannuation allowance to which he might have become entitled under the Teachers Act or a 1923 Act scheme would have been reduced by reference to his age at a given date—
- (i) by the annual sum shown in the appropriate column of the relative table set out in the fifth schedule in relation to an age which corresponds with his age at the date which was relevant for the purposes of the aforesaid regulations modifying the Teachers Act or a 1923 Act scheme for each year of contributing service on and after that date; and
 - (ii) by one half of the said annual sum for each year of non-contributing service on and after the said date;
- (c) if he became an officer within twelve months after leaving employment in relation to which he was subject to the Act of 1937 or a local Act scheme, as modified by regulations made under sub-section (4) of section 69 of the National Insurance Act, 1946, or if he left that employment in order to undertake war service or if immediately after leaving that employment he became engaged in national service, within six months after the termination of that service, and remained an officer until becoming entitled to a pension, without any break of twelve months or more during no part of which he was an established civil servant, such a person in contributory service under the Teachers Act or in recognised service within the meaning of that Act as aforesaid, a contributory employee, a local Act contributor or a person subject to the Belfast Corporation Superannuation Scheme or the Local Government Superannuation Regulations, and if by virtue of the said regulations or regulations made under section 1 of the Act of 1953 or a local Act scheme any superannuation allowance to which he might have become entitled under the enactment to which he was subject as aforesaid would have been reduced by reference to his age at the material date—

- (i) by the annual sum shown in the appropriate column of the relative table set out in the fifth schedule in relation to an age which corresponds with his age at the material date, for each year of contributing service on and after that date or in respect of which he paid reduced contributions in pursuance of a scheme (hereinafter called a “pre-existing scheme”) made under sub-section (3) of section 28 of the Widows’, Orphans’ and Old Age Contributory Pensions Act, 1936, or the corresponding provisions of any Act repealed by that Act; and
 - (ii) by one half of the said annual sum for each year of non-contributing service on and after the said date;
- (d) if, not being such a person as aforesaid, he became an officer in consequence of the acquisition of premises by the Authority under section 67 of the Act or was such a person as is mentioned in paragraph (9), and remained an officer without any break of twelve months or more during no part of which he was an established civil servant, such a person in contributory service under the Teachers Act or in recognised service within the meaning of that Act as aforesaid, a contributory employee, a local Act contributor or a person subject to the Belfast Corporation Superannuation Scheme or the Local Government Superannuation Regulations—
- (i) by the annual sum shown in the appropriate column of the relative table set out in the fifth schedule in relation to an age which corresponds with his age at the appointed day or at the date on which he became an officer, whichever was the later, for each year of contributing service on and after the appointed day, or on and after the date on which he became an officer, whichever was the later; and
 - (ii) by one half of the said annual sum for each year of non-contributing service on and after the said date; and
- (e) in any other case, by the sum of one pound and fourteen shillings for each year of contributing service on and after the appointed day and by the sum of seventeen shillings for each year of non-contributing service on and after that day:

Provided that—

- (i) in the case of an officer (other than an officer to whom paragraph (9) applies) who, within twelve months before becoming an officer had been subject to the Act of 1943, or had been subject to the Belfast Corporation Superannuation Scheme and had, immediately before becoming subject to that scheme, been subject to the Act of 1943, sub-paragraph (e) shall have effect as if the references to “service on and after the appointed day” and “service on and after that day” were references respectively to “service before, on and after the appointed day” and “service before, on and after that day”;
- (ii) for the purpose of calculating the amount of any reduction under this paragraph, where a pension is by virtue of the proviso to paragraph (1) of regulation 8 at the rate of twenty eightieths of an officer’s average remuneration, he shall be treated as having reckonable as contributing service in calculating the amount of the pension, and as having paid reduced contributions in respect of, an additional period equal to the difference between the aggregate period of his contributing and non-contributing service (non-contributing service being reckoned in calculating that period at half its actual length) and twenty years; and where the pension is by virtue of the proviso to paragraph (1) of regulation 8 increased by reference to service which the officer could have completed, that service shall be reckonable as contributing service after the relevant date;

- (iii) if a person, having paid reduced contributions for any period in pursuance of a pre-existing scheme has, in pursuance of that scheme, paid a sum representing the difference between those reduced contributions and the sum he would have contributed had his contributions not been reduced, his service during that period shall not for the purposes of sub-paragraph (c) be treated as service in respect of which reduced contributions were paid;
- (iv) if by virtue of regulation 16, as extended by paragraph (b) of regulation 18, or paragraph (5) or (6) of regulation 70 or sub-paragraph (d) of paragraph (2) of regulation 71, a person is entitled to reckon any prior period of employment or any period of war service or national service for the purpose of calculating the pension to which he has become entitled, then, if the period so reckonable was a period during which he paid contributions at an unreduced rate, his pension, in so far as it falls to be calculated by reference to that service, shall not be reduced under the provisions of this regulation; and
- (v) the total amount of the reduction shall in no case exceed sixty-seven pounds and fifteen shillings per annum.

(4) In the case of an officer who on completing forty-five years contributing service, or forty-five years contributing service and non-contributing service, the non-contributing service being reckoned at half its actual length, would, if he then ceased to be employed, be entitled to a pension, any further service shall be disregarded for the purposes of paragraph (3), if that paragraph subsequently becomes applicable in relation to him.

(5) Paragraph (2) shall not apply in the case of any person who in pursuance of paragraph (a) of sub-section (3) of section 68 of the National Insurance Act (Northern Ireland), 1946, is deemed to attain pensionable age within the meaning of that Act on the expiration of ten years from the appointed day for the purposes of that section.

(6) Where a person is an officer in the part-time employment of two or more employing authorities, paragraph (2) shall apply in relation to him only in his employment under that employing authority which is treated as his employer for the purposes of the National Insurance Act (Northern Ireland), 1946.

(7) Where an officer in the part-time employment of one or more employing authorities is also employed in other employment in which he is not entitled to participate in superannuation benefits provided by these regulations, and his employer in that other employment is treated as his employer for the purposes of the National Insurance Act (Northern Ireland), 1946, paragraph (2) shall not apply, and whether or not he subsequently becomes an officer to whom that paragraph applies, no account shall be taken for the purposes of paragraph (3) of his service during the period in which this paragraph applied to him.

(8) Where a person has become an officer within twelve months after leaving employment in relation to which he was an established civil servant, such a person in contributory service under the Teachers Act or in recognised service within the meaning of that Act as aforesaid, a contributory employee, a local Act contributor, a person subject to the Act of 1865, the Act of 1869 or the Act of 1909, or a person subject to the Belfast Corporation Superannuation Scheme or the Local Government Superannuation Regulations, or if he left that employment in order to undertake war service or if immediately after leaving that employment he became engaged in national service, within six months after the termination of that service, and, having been—

- (a) in the case of a person who in the employment he has left was an established civil servant, such a person in contributory service under the Teachers Act or in recognised service within the meaning of that Act as aforesaid, or a person subject to the Act of 1909, insured or deemed to have been insured under the National Health Insurance Acts (Northern Ireland), 1936 to 1938, as amended by the National Health Insurance and Contributory Pensions Act (Northern Ireland), 1941, or the Widows', Orphans' and Old Age Contributory Pensions Act (Northern Ireland), 1936, or an insured person for the purposes of the National Insurance Act (Northern Ireland), 1946, and also having been excepted from the provisions of any regulations made under sub-section (4) of section 66 of the National Insurance Act (Northern Ireland), 1946, modifying the Superannuation Acts, the Teachers Act or a 1923 Act scheme, or the Act of 1909; or
- (b) in the case of a person who in the employment he has left was subject to the Belfast Corporation Superannuation Scheme or the Local Government Superannuation Regulations, an insured person for the purposes of the National Insurance Act (Northern Ireland), 1946, and also having been excepted from the operation of any provisions of the enactment to which he was subject modifying the benefits provided by the enactment in relation to any such insured person as aforesaid; or
- (c) in the case of a person who in the employment he has left was a contributory employee or a local Act contributor, insured or deemed to have been insured under the National Health Insurance Acts, 1936 to 1938, as amended by the National Health Insurance Contributory Pensions and Workmen's Compensation Act, 1941, or the Widows', Orphans' and Old Age Contributory Pensions Act, 1936, or an insured person for the purposes of the National Insurance Act, 1946, and also having been excepted from the provisions of any regulations made under sub-section (4) of section 69 of the National Insurance Act, 1946, modifying the Act of 1937 or a local Act scheme, then, paragraph (2) shall not apply in relation to that person in any employment in which he is an officer if, since he first became an officer, there has been no period of twelve months or more throughout which he was not an officer of an employing authority, an established civil servant, such a person in contributory service under the Teachers Act or in recognised service within the meaning of that Act as aforesaid, a contributory employee, a local Act contributor or a person subject to the Belfast Corporation Superannuation Scheme or the Local Government Superannuation Regulations.

(9) Where a person was an officer on the appointed day, or where a person was on war service on the appointed day and became an officer within six months after the termination of that service, not being in either case a person who had had an opportunity of electing during a period that had expired that the provisions of any regulations made under sub-section (4) of section 66 of the National Insurance Act (Northern Ireland), 1946, modifying the Act of 1909, should apply to him in relation to any previous employment in which he was subject to the said Act of 1909, then, unless he gave notice in writing to his employing authority within three months after the appointed day or the date of his becoming an officer, as the case may be, that he wished paragraph (1) of regulation 30 of the 1948 regulations to apply in his case, paragraph (2) shall not apply in relation to him, if he has remained and continues to remain an officer without any break of twelve months or more during no part of which he was an established civil servant, such a person in contributory service under the Teachers Act or in recognised service within the meaning of that Act as aforesaid; a contributory employee, a local Act contributor, or a person subject to the Belfast Corporation Superannuation Scheme or the Local Government Superannuation Regulations.

(10) If during any period an officer has not paid contributions under these regulations by reason of the fact that the amount of the reduction in his contributions provided for by this regulation equalled or exceeded the amount of his contributions, he shall nevertheless be deemed for the purposes of sub-paragraph (a) of paragraph (1) of regulation 24 to have made the contributions required by these regulations in respect of that period.

(11) Where a person becomes or has since the thirtieth day of June, 1950, become an officer within twelve months after leaving such employment as is mentioned in sub-paragraph (e)(vi) of paragraph (3) of regulation 16, or, if he left that employment in order to undertake war service or if immediately after leaving that employment he became engaged in national service, within six months after the termination of that service, and in that employment he was an insured person within the meaning of the National Insurance Act (Northern Ireland), 1946, or any corresponding enactment in force in the part of Her Majesty's dominions in which he was employed, then—

- (a) if he had been excepted from the operation of any provision (hereinafter called "the modification provision") of the scheme to which he was subject modifying the benefits provided by the scheme in relation to any such insured person as aforesaid, paragraph (2) shall not apply in relation to him so long as he is an officer without a break of twelve months or more at any one time reckoned from the time when he left the employment of an employing authority (no account being taken of any period spent on an approved course of study or training which he entered after leaving that employment); and
- (b) if he had not been so excepted—
 - (i) the provisions of this regulation shall apply to him as if any service which he is entitled to reckon under these regulations, being service of which account would have been taken under the modification provision for the purpose of reducing any benefit to which the person might have become entitled under the said scheme had he continued to be subject thereto, were contributing service rendered on or after the appointed day; and
 - (ii) if the modification provision modified any benefit to which he might have become entitled under the said scheme by reference to a table and to his age at a given date, this regulation shall have effect as if he were a person to whom sub-paragraph (b) of paragraph (3) applied, except that the reference therein to his age at a given date shall be construed as a reference to his age at the date which was relevant for the purposes of the modification provision :

Provided that sub-paragraph (b)(ii) shall not apply to any person unless the modification provision, or any corresponding provision modifying the benefits provided by any superannuation scheme to which he was formerly subject in employment which was reckonable as service for the purposes of the scheme applicable to him in such employment as is mentioned in sub-paragraph (e)(vi) of paragraph (3) of regulation 16, applied to him on or before the appointed day.

(12) For the purposes of sub-paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d) of paragraph (3) and of paragraphs (8) and (9) a person shall not be treated as having had such a break as is therein mentioned if—

- (a) he ceased at any time to be an officer, an established civil servant, such a person in contributory service under the Teachers Act or in recognised service within the meaning of that Act as aforesaid, a contributory employee, a local Act contributor or a person subject to the Belfast Corporation Superannuation Scheme or the Local Government Superannuation Regulations, in order to undertake war service and re-entered employment in one of those capacities within six months after the termination of that service;
- (b) he ceased at any time to be an officer, an established civil servant, such a person in contributory service under the Teachers Act or in recognised service within the meaning of that Act as aforesaid, a contributory employee, a local Act contributor or a person subject to the Belfast Corporation Superannuation Scheme or the Local Government Superannuation Regulations, immediately after so ceasing became engaged in national service, and re-entered employment in one of those capacities within six months after the termination of that service;
- (c) he ceased at any time to be an officer in order to enter an approved course of study or training and re-entered employment as an officer without having had a break of twelve months or more since leaving his previous employment (no account being taken of the period of the said course of study or training), or within six months after the termination of national service in which he became engaged on completion of that course; or
- (d) he ceased at any time to be an officer and—
 - (i) immediately thereafter became engaged in national service;
 - (ii) on the termination of that service entered an approved course of study or training; and
 - (iii) re-entered employment as an officer within six months after the termination of his national service (no account being taken of the period of the said course of study or training).

(13) In this regulation—

(a) “the material date” means—

- (i) in relation to a person to whom sub-paragraph (c) of paragraph (3) applies (other than a person who was subject to the provisions relating to modification of retirement benefits contained in the English or Scottish Local Government regulations, 1954, or who was subject to corresponding provisions contained in a local Act scheme), the date on which regulations made under sub-section (4) of section 69 of the National Insurance Act, 1946, first applied to him; and
- (ii) in relation to a person to whom sub-paragraph (c) of paragraph (3) applies and who was subject to the said provisions in the English or Scottish Local Government regulations, 1954, or corresponding provisions contained in a local Act scheme, the material date as defined in sub-paragraph (1) of paragraph 1 of the third schedule

Avoidance of duplicate benefits

45. If the Ministry is of opinion that any service in respect of which a benefit is payable under these regulations has been or will be taken into account for the purpose of any other benefit which has or may become payable out of public funds, the Ministry may make such deduction from the benefit under these regulations as may appear to it to be equitable, in order to secure that there may not be payable in respect of the same service a benefit under these regulations as well as such other benefit as aforesaid.

Payment without probate in certain cases

46. Where any sum not exceeding one hundred pounds is payable under these regulations to any person or to his personal representatives in respect of superannuation benefits or by way of the return of contributions, probate or other formal proof of title of the personal representatives may be dispensed with, and the sum may be paid to or distributed among the persons appearing to the Ministry to be beneficially entitled to the personal estate of such person, or to or among one or more of those persons, or in the case of the illegitimacy of such person or of his children, to or among such persons as the Ministry may think fit.

47. Provided that the Ministry shall not make any payment under this regulation if a committee, receiver or guardian has been appointed to manage the beneficiary's estate pursuant to the Lunacy Regulation (Ireland) Act, 1871.

Benefits not assignable

48. Subject to any statutory provision in that behalf a pension or other benefit to which an officer, or the spouse or dependant of an officer, becomes entitled under these regulations shall be payable to, or in trust for, the person who is entitled to receive it, and shall not be assignable or chargeable with his debts or other liabilities.

49. An officer who is dismissed, resigns or otherwise ceases to hold his employment in consequence of an offence of a fraudulent character or of grave misconduct, being such an offence or such misconduct committed by him in connection with the performance of the duties of his employment or otherwise in relation to his employment, or who commits such an offence or such misconduct after notice to terminate his employment has been given, shall, if the Ministry so directs, forfeit all claim in respect of his previous service to any superannuation benefits, whether provided under these regulations or under any enactment or scheme modified by these regulations.

Application to other officers engaged in health services

50. If the Ministry so directs, these regulations shall also apply, with any modifications or adaptations which the Ministry considers necessary or desirable, to any other person who would be an officer if he were in the employment of an employing authority and who is wholly or mainly engaged in health services, whether provided under the Act or otherwise, but not provided by a health authority or other local authority, as if the person's employer were an employing authority.

51.—(1) The Ministry shall keep an account in such form and prepared in such manner as the Ministry of Finance may approve of all revenue received and expenditure incurred by the Ministry under these regulations, and as at the thirty-first day of March, 1969, and at the expiration of every subsequent period of seven years, there shall unless the Ministry of Finance otherwise determines be an actuarial investigation by the Government Actuary of the assets and liabilities of the Ministry in respect of the benefits provided by the Ministry under regulations made under sub-section (1) of section 61 of the Act, to determine what adjustments (if any) are needed to maintain a balance between the said assets and liabilities.

(2) There shall be included in the said account such particulars as may be necessary in order that the said account shall also show the revenue that would be received and the expenditure that would be incurred if, whenever any person transferred to or from employment subject to these regulations from or to employment as an established civil servant or such employment in contributory service under the Teachers Act or in recognised service within the meaning of that Act as is mentioned in sub-paragraph (c) of paragraph (3) of regulation 16, a transfer value were payable to or by the Ministry of such amount as the Ministry of Finance shall indicate as representing the liability of which the Ministry of Finance, the Ministry of Education or the Ministry, as the case may be, is relieved as a result of that transfer.

(3) The said account shall be subject to examination by the Comptroller and Auditor General.

Meaning of "remuneration"

54.—(1) This regulation shall apply in the case of a practitioner other than an assistant practitioner in place of the definition of "remuneration" contained in paragraph (1) of regulation 2.

(2) In the case of a practitioner other than an assistant practitioner "remuneration" means all payments made by the Board to the practitioner in respect of general medical services or general dental services provided by him and of pharmaceutical services provided by him, all payments made to the practitioner by any health authority in respect of services provided by him in pursuance of arrangements made by the health authority under paragraph (b) of sub-section (2) of section 38 of the Act, and any charge made to a patient in respect of those services which the practitioner is authorised by or under any enactment to retain, less such sum on account of practice expenses as may be appropriate in accordance with a formula laid down by the Ministry for the purpose, and less the remuneration approved by the Ministry of any assistant practitioner in his employment:

Provided that—

(a) if the practitioner is a dental practitioner and is a party with any other practitioner or practitioners to a partnership agreement then, if such practitioners give notice in writing to the Board stating that for the purposes of these regulations they wish their total remuneration to be allocated between them in the manner provided by this proviso, their total remuneration as practitioners on the list of the Board shall, for the purposes of these regulations and in respect of a period during which the notice is effective, be allocated between them on the basis of their shares in the partnership profits and accordingly in respect of any such period as aforesaid the remuneration of each of them as a practitioner on the list of the Board shall be deemed to be such proportion of the total remuneration of such practitioners as practitioners on the list of the Board as the proportion of his share in the partnership profits bears to the total proportion of the shares of such practitioners in those profits;

- (b) if the practitioner is a medical practitioner and is a party with any other practitioner or practitioners to a partnership agreement then—
- (i) if such practitioners give notice in writing to the Board stating that for the purposes of these regulations they wish their total remuneration to be allocated between them in the manner provided by this paragraph of this proviso, their total remuneration as practitioners on the list of the Board shall, for the purposes of these regulations and in respect of a period during which the notice is effective, be allocated between them on the basis of their shares in the partnership profits and accordingly in respect of any such period as aforesaid the remuneration of each of them as a practitioner on the list of the Board shall be deemed to be such proportion of the total remuneration of such practitioners as practitioners on the list of the Board as the proportion of his share in the partnership profits bears to the total proportion of the shares of such practitioners in those profits;

 - (iii) if such practitioners gave notice to the Board under paragraph (iii) of proviso (iA) to paragraph (2) of regulation 39 of the 1954 regulations that they wished that paragraph of that proviso to apply in their case, then so long as the notice remains effective they shall be treated for the purposes of this paragraph as if they were not in partnership;
 - (iv) except while any notice mentioned in one of the preceding provisions of this proviso is effective the total remuneration of the practitioners as practitioners on the list of the Board shall be allocated between them, for the purposes of these regulations, in equal shares and the share so allocated to each shall be deemed for the purposes of these regulations to be his remuneration as a practitioner on the list of the Board;
- (c) if the practitioner is simultaneously employed as an officer of an employing authority or a local authority or as an established civil servant or in any other such employment as the Ministry may in any particular case allow, and as a term or condition of that employment he is required to account to his employer for any remuneration received by him as a practitioner, that remuneration shall not be treated as remuneration within the meaning of the foregoing definition; and
- (d) no account shall be taken of any remuneration of a dental practitioner in excess of three thousand, five hundred pounds per annum.

(3) A notice given under proviso (a) or under paragraph (i) or (ii) of proviso (b) to paragraph (2)—

- (a) shall be signed by all the practitioners who are members of the partnership to which it relates, and unless so signed shall be of no effect;
- (b) shall state as a fraction the share of each practitioner in the partnership profits; and
- (c) may be cancelled or amended by a subsequent notice signed as aforesaid.

(4) A notice given under paragraph (ii) of proviso (b) to paragraph (2) shall also—

- (a) state in respect of every practitioner who is a member of the partnership and employed by an employing authority other than the Board the name of the employing authority and the remuneration (as defined in paragraph (1) of regulation 2) payable to him by that authority; and
- (b) include an undertaking by the practitioners to give notice in writing to the Board at the end of each quarter stating the remuneration (as defined in paragraph (1) of regulation 2) paid in that quarter by an employing authority other than the Board to any such member of the partnership as is referred to in sub-paragraph (a).

(5) A notice mentioned in paragraph (iii) of proviso (b) to paragraph (2) may be cancelled by a subsequent notice signed by all the practitioners who are members of the partnership to which it relates.

(6) A notice given under proviso (a) or (b) to paragraph (2), and a notice given under sub-paragraph (c) of paragraph (3) or under paragraph (5) shall, if it complies with the preceding provisions of this regulation, be effective from such date as may be agreed between the practitioner by whom it was given and the Board or as may, in default of agreement, be determined by the Ministry; and any such notice as aforesaid given under proviso (a) or proviso (b) to paragraph (2) shall, so long as the partnership subsists, and subject to any amendment made in accordance with the preceding provisions of this regulation, remain effective until it is cancelled.

- (b) “quarter” means a period of three months ending 31st March, 30th June, 30th September and 31st December.

Amendments with respect to contributions, etc.

55.—(1) Paragraph (5) of regulation 6 shall not apply in the case of a practitioner.

(2) If the practitioner made contributions during any period in accordance with paragraph (6) of regulation 6 or the corresponding provision of the previous regulations the remuneration on which he so made contributions shall be deemed to have been his remuneration in respect of that period.

(3) If a practitioner's remuneration is reduced or suspended by reason of absence due to illness or injury then, except for the purposes of the provisions of these regulations relating to the payment of contributions—

- (a) if the practitioner is practising in partnership and the total remuneration is allocated under proviso (a) or (b) to paragraph (2) of regulation 54, the total remuneration of the partners shall be deemed to have remained at the same rate as during the preceding twelve months; or
- (b) in any other case the practitioner shall be deemed to have continued to receive the same average rate of remuneration as he received during the preceding twelve months:

Provided that if any such reduction or suspension continued for a longer period than twelve months, this paragraph shall apply only in respect of the period of twelve months immediately following the reduction or suspension.

(4) A practitioner to whom paragraph (3) applies for any period by reason of the suspension of his remuneration shall be deemed for the purposes of sub-paragraph (a) of paragraph (1) of regulation 24 to have made the contributions required by these regulations in respect of that period and regulation 17 shall not apply to such a practitioner until the end of that period.

(5) Where a practitioner has become engaged in national service without having ceased to be a practitioner within the meaning of these regulations and his average rate of remuneration as a practitioner during the period of his national service is less than his average rate of remuneration during the twelve months prior to his having become engaged in national service, he shall be treated for the purposes of these regulations as if during the period of his national service he was receiving such higher average rate of remuneration as aforesaid.

(6) Where a person became engaged in national service after ceasing to be a practitioner within the meaning of these regulations, and the period of his national service falls to be treated as service as a practitioner under these regulations subject to his compliance with the provisions of paragraph (9) of regulation 6, he shall be deemed to have continued to receive during that period the same average rate of remuneration as he received during the twelve months prior to his ceasing to be a practitioner as aforesaid.

56. For regulation 8 there shall be substituted the following provision:—

“8.—(1) The pension to be paid to a practitioner shall be on the following scale:—

- (a) in respect of any period of contributing service as a practitioner, one and one half per cent. of any remuneration for that period paid to him prior to 1st April, 1963, and one and three quarters per cent. of any such remuneration paid to him on or after that date;
- (b) in respect of each year of contributing service otherwise than as a practitioner, one eightieth of his average remuneration at the date on which he last ceased to be employed in such other capacity; and

- (iv) in the case of a practitioner whose contributing service includes a period of service as a practitioner during which he devoted substantially the whole of his time to the performance of part-time specialist services pursuant to section 21 of the Act, that service shall be treated as service otherwise than as a practitioner if such method of calculation is more advantageous to him.
- (2) The retiring allowance to be paid to a practitioner shall be a sum equal to the aggregate of the following amounts:—
- (a) in respect of any period of contributing service as a practitioner, four and one half per cent. of any remuneration for that period paid to him prior to 1st April, 1963, and five and one quarter per cent. of any such remuneration paid to him on or after that date;

Provided that—

- (i) in the case of a married male practitioner in respect of whose service a widow's pension may become payable, one and one half per cent. shall be substituted for four and one half per cent. and one and three quarters per cent. shall be substituted for five and one quarter per cent. in sub-paragraph (a), one eightieth shall be substituted for three eightieths in sub-paragraph (b) and one one-hundred-and-sixtieth shall be substituted for three one-hundred-and-sixtieths in sub-paragraph (c);
- (ii) in the case of a married male practitioner to whose wife, if she survives him, a widow's pension will not become payable because she is such a person as is mentioned in proviso (iv) to paragraph (1)

of regulation 13, the amount of the allowance shall be reduced by two ninths thereof, unless at the time of her marriage to him she was already entitled to a pension otherwise than as a practitioner or, being an officer other than a practitioner, had reached such an age and completed such number of years of service as would entitle her to a pension on her ceasing to be employed;

- (iii) in the case of a practitioner entitled to a pension or injury allowance who is a widower or who is divorced or judicially separated from his wife and who satisfies the description contained in paragraph (5), one and one half per cent. shall be substituted for four and one half per cent. and one and three quarters per cent. shall be substituted for five and one quarter per cent. in sub-paragraph (a) in relation to any period of contributing service as a practitioner before the date of his wife's death or the divorce or separation, as the case may be, one eightieth shall be substituted for three eightieths in sub-paragraph (b) in relation to each year of contributing service otherwise than as a practitioner before the said date, and one one-hundred-and-sixtieth shall be substituted for three one-hundred-and-sixtieths in sub-paragraph (c) in relation to each year of non-contributing service before the said date;
- (iv) in the case of a practitioner whose contributing service as a practitioner exceeds forty-five years, and who has no service in any other capacity, the sum to be calculated under the foregoing provisions of this paragraph shall be calculated by reference to the last forty-five years contributing service;
- (v) in the case of a practitioner whose service includes service in any other capacity, and whose contributing service, together with his non-contributing service (if any) reckoned at half its actual length, exceeds forty-five years, the amount of the allowance shall be calculated by reference to the last forty-five years actual service, any non-contributing service within that period being reckoned as contributing service;
- (vi) in the case of a practitioner whose contributing service includes a period of service as a practitioner during which he devoted substantially the whole of his time to the performance of part-time specialist services pursuant to section 21 of the Act, that service shall be treated as service otherwise than as a practitioner if such method of calculation is more advantageous to him; and
- (vii) in the case of a practitioner to whom no pension is payable, if the amount of the allowance, calculated as aforesaid, is less than the amount of his contributions, together with compound interest thereon, the allowance shall be increased by the amount of the deficiency.

(3) Where a retiring allowance paid to a practitioner has been calculated in accordance with the provisions of proviso (i) to paragraph (2) or the corresponding provisions as modified and set out in relation to a practitioner in the previous regulations and the practitioner's wife has become such a person as is mentioned in proviso (iv) to paragraph (1) of regulation 13, there shall be paid to the practitioner a sum equal to two thirds of the difference between the amount of the retiring allowance so paid to him and the amount of the retiring allowance which would have been paid to him had he not been a person to whom the said provisions applied.

(4) Where a practitioner has become entitled to a retiring allowance and the amount of such allowance, together with the capital value of any pension to which he may also have become entitled, is less than the amount of his average remuneration, then, if he requests the Ministry in writing to apply this provision in his case, the Ministry may either increase the amount of the retiring allowance by the amount of the capital value of the death gratuity and of any widow's pension which would apart from this provision become payable on his death or increase the amount of any such pension as aforesaid by an equivalent annual sum, and if the Ministry exercises this discretion no death gratuity or widow's pension shall be payable in respect of him.

(5) A practitioner to whom proviso (iii) to paragraph (2) refers is a practitioner (other than a practitioner who married in such circumstances that his wife could not become entitled to a widow's pension by reason of proviso (ii) to paragraph (1) of regulation 13 or the corresponding provision of the previous regulations) whose wife died or was divorced or judicially separated from him—

- (a) on or after the date on which he first became subject to these regulations or the previous regulations in whatever capacity;
- (b) while he was subject to a superannuation scheme the service reckonable in which is reckonable by him for the purposes of these regulations, and which provided a widow's pension as one of its benefits; or
- (c) during the period between his leaving employment in which he was subject to any such scheme as is mentioned in sub-paragraph (b) and his entry into employment in which he became subject to these regulations or the previous regulations as aforesaid."

Amount of death gratuity, short service gratuity, etc.

57.—(1) If a death gratuity becomes payable in respect of a practitioner, then, for the reference in regulation 12 to a sum to be calculated by reference to a fraction of a person's average remuneration in respect of each year of service, there shall be substituted a reference to a sum obtained by the addition of the following amounts:—

- (a) in respect of any period of contributing service as a practitioner, four and one half per cent. of any remuneration for that period paid to him prior to 1st April, 1963, and five and one quarter per cent. of any such remuneration paid to him on or after that date, or if a widow's pension is payable in respect of his death, one and one half per cent. shall be substituted for four and one half per cent. and one and three quarters per cent. for five and one quarter per cent.;
- (b) in respect of each year of contributing service otherwise than as a practitioner, three eightieths of his average remuneration at the date on which he last ceased to be employed otherwise than as a practitioner, or, if a widow's pension is payable as aforesaid, one eightieth thereof; and
- (c) in respect of each year of non-contributing service, three one-hundred-and-sixtieths of his average remuneration at the said date, or, if a widow's pension is payable as aforesaid, one one-hundred-and-sixtieth thereof:

Provided that—

- (i) in the case of a practitioner whose contributing service as a practitioner exceeds forty-five years, and who has no service in any other capacity, the said sum shall be calculated by reference to the last forty-five years contributing service; and
- (ii) in the case of a practitioner whose service includes service in any other capacity, and whose contributing service, together with his non-contributing service (if any) reckoned at half its actual length, exceeds forty-five years, the sum shall be obtained by reference to the last forty-five years actual service, any non-contributing service within that period being reckoned as contributing service.

(2) For the purposes of—

(a) regulation 10;

(b) regulation 12; and

(c) paragraph (4) of regulation 8 as substituted by regulation 56, the average remuneration of a dental practitioner whose service as such practitioner exceeds three years shall be calculated by reference to all periods of service as such practitioner.

Treatment of prior service as an officer in certain cases

58. Where a practitioner has previously been an officer by virtue of part II or the corresponding part of the previous regulations not having been a practitioner prior to becoming such officer, and his service otherwise than as a practitioner, any non-contributing service being reckoned at half its actual length, does not exceed ten years, such service shall be treated for the purposes of these regulations as if it were contributing service as a practitioner, any non-contributing service being reckoned as aforesaid, and remuneration received in respect of that non-contributing service being reckoned at half its actual amount.

Simultaneous employment as a part-time officer of an employing authority and as a practitioner 59.—(1) Where a practitioner is simultaneously employed as a part-time officer of an employing authority, these regulations shall apply in relation to him as if in such employment he were a practitioner, and as if the remuneration of that employment were his remuneration as such practitioner.

(2) Proviso (iii) to paragraph (1) of regulation 4 shall not apply in the case of a practitioner.

Treatment of national service in certain cases

60. If a practitioner has undertaken national service and that service is reckonable as a period of service under these regulations by virtue of paragraph (2) of regulation 20 such service shall be treated as if it were service as a practitioner.

Reckoning of practitioner's service for purpose of calculation of benefits

61.—(1) Paragraph (c) of regulation 28 shall not apply in respect of service as a practitioner, and if a practitioner's contributing service, after deducting all completed years of such service, includes a fraction of a year, that fraction shall for all the purposes of these regulations (except the provisions of subparagraphs (a) and (c) of paragraphs (3) and (4) of regulation 8, proviso (iii) to paragraph (4) of regulation 8, proviso (ii)(iii) to regulation 12, paragraphs (1) and (2) of regulation 8 as substituted by regulation 56, and subparagraph (a) of paragraph (1) of regulation 57), if it exceeds six months, be treated as a year, and in any other case be disregarded.

(2) The proviso to regulation 28 shall apply for the purpose of calculating the amount of any benefit payable to or in respect of a practitioner only in relation to so much of that benefit as is attributable to service reckonable otherwise than as a practitioner.

(3) There shall be reckonable for the purpose of calculating the amount of a benefit payable to or in respect of a practitioner under these regulations not only all periods of contributing and non-contributing service reckonable as service in relation to the employment which he has ceased to hold, but also all periods of contributing and non-contributing service not otherwise reckonable—

- (a) which were reckonable on his ceasing to hold any previous employment in which he was, or was deemed to be, a practitioner;
- (b) which have not previously been taken into account for the purpose of calculating any benefits payable under these regulations; and
- (c) which have not ceased (in consequence of a payment made in respect of him under paragraph (1) of regulation 70 or under regulation 73, or by reason of his having ceased to be employed for a period of twelve months or more during no part of which he was, or was treated as if he were, an officer of any employing authority) to be reckonable under these regulations :

Provided that no period of service in respect of which the practitioner has received a sum by way of return of contributions shall be reckonable under this paragraph unless under these regulations or the previous regulations an equivalent sum plus any income tax deducted in respect of the sum returned to him by way of return of contributions has subsequently been repaid by him to the Ministry, or the Ministry has subsequently received in respect of that service a transfer value or payment by virtue of the receipt of which that service thereupon became reckonable for the purpose of calculating benefits under these regulations or the previous regulations.

Further employment not to be taken into account for reduction of pension in certain cases

62. For the purposes of regulation 32 further employment as a practitioner between the ages of sixty-five and seventy years in the case of a person who became entitled to a pension as a practitioner on or after attaining the age of sixty-five years shall be disregarded.

Further modifications with respect to assistant practitioners

63. These regulations, in their application in the manner hereinbefore provided to an assistant practitioner, shall have effect subject to the following further modifications:—

- (a) for the definition of "remuneration" in paragraph (1) of regulation 2 there shall be substituted the following definition:—

" 'remuneration' means the whole or such part as the Ministry may approve of all salary, wages, fees and other payments paid or made to an assistant practitioner as such for his own use, including the money value of any apartments, rations, or other allowances in kind appertaining to his employment, but not including payments for overtime or any allowances paid to him to cover the cost of providing office or laboratory accommodation or clerical or other assistance, or any travelling or subsistence allowances or other moneys to be spent, or to cover expenses incurred by him, for the purposes of his employment";

- (b) the practitioner by whom he is employed shall be deemed to be the employing authority for the purposes of paragraph (7) of regulation 6 but for no other purpose and shall remit the assistant practitioner's contributions to the Board after they have been obtained from him; and

- (c) for the purposes of regulation 32 his remuneration from the date of operation of these regulations shall be deemed to be payable out of public funds.

Application of regulations to a person who is a practitioner by reason of rendering specialist services pursuant to section 21 of the Act

64. These regulations, in their application to a person who is a practitioner by virtue of being a person rendering specialist services pursuant to section 21 of the Act, shall have effect subject to—

- (a) the modifications contained in paragraphs (1), (2), (5) and (6) of regulation 55 and in regulations 56 to 61; and
- (b) the further modification that if the person is a mental health officer to whom the provisions of paragraph (1) or paragraph (2) of regulation 43 apply as respects the calculation of any benefit to which he becomes entitled as a person rendering specialist services pursuant to section 21 of the Act, the remuneration in respect of each year of which by virtue of the said regulations account is to be taken as if it were two years, shall, for the purpose of calculation of benefits but for no other purpose, be deemed to be a sum equal to twice the amount of the actual remuneration in respect of such year.

Continuation of contracts or policies of insurance in certain cases

65.—(1) Where immediately before the date of coming into operation of these regulations the Ministry was under a liability imposed by subparagraph (n) of paragraph (3) of regulation 39 of the 1954 regulations to pay to a practitioner as a contribution towards the maintenance of a contract or policy of insurance held by that practitioner with any of the Life Assurance Companies an amount equal to eight per cent. of the practitioner's remuneration, the Ministry shall, subject to such terms and conditions as it may have determined, continue to pay to the practitioner, so long as he remains a practitioner, as a contribution towards the maintenance of the aforesaid contract or policy an amount equal to eight per cent. of the practitioner's remuneration as defined in regulation 54 and the practitioner, so long as he remains a practitioner, shall not be subject to any of the provisions of these regulations except this provision.

(2) Paragraph (1) shall, if the Ministry consents and subject to such additional terms and conditions as it may determine, also apply in relation to any contract or policy of insurance entered into or taken out in substitution for the contract or policy therein mentioned for the purpose of complying with section 22 of the Finance Act, 1956.

Special provisions in respect of practitioners providing maternity medical services

66.—(1) In the case of a practitioner mentioned in regulation 52, other than an assistant practitioner, who is providing services in pursuance of arrangements made by a health authority under paragraph (b) of sub-section (2) of section 38 of the Act the health authority shall—

- (a) furnish to the Board at the end of each quarter a statement showing the amount of the fees paid to the practitioner by that health authority during that quarter in respect of such services as aforesaid provided by him; and
- (b) pay to the Board on demand a sum equal to any amount which, by reason of the taking into account of the said fees for the purposes of the definition of "remuneration" in paragraph (2) of regulation 54, becomes payable—

- (i) by way of contributions by the Board under sub-paragraph (b) of paragraph (1), and paragraph (2) of regulation 6; or
- (ii) by the Ministry to the practitioner in pursuance of regulation 65.

(2) Any sum payable by a health authority to the Board in accordance with paragraph (1) in respect of an amount payable by the Ministry to a practitioner in pursuance of regulation 65 shall be remitted to the Ministry by the Board after it has been received by them from the health authority.

(3) In this regulation "quarter" has the meaning given to that expression by sub-paragraph (b) of paragraph (7) of regulation 54.

Special provisions relating to service before the appointed day as dispensary medical officers and hospital officers

67.—(1) These regulations shall apply to a practitioner who prior to the appointed day was subject to the Medical Officers Superannuation Act (Ireland), 1869, as a dispensary medical officer, subject to the following modifications:—

- (a) regulation 16 shall not apply;
- (b) sub-paragraph (b) of paragraph (1) of regulation 24 shall not apply;
- (c) paragraph (1) of regulation 8 shall have effect so that where the practitioner's contributing service as such practitioner does not amount to forty-five years the Ministry may, on his retirement on grounds of age or incapacity, pay to him, in addition to the pension or other benefit to which he may be entitled under these regulations, an additional pension or allowance in respect of his period of employment as a dispensary medical officer; and
- (d) there shall be reckonable as service for the purpose of determining whether any benefit is payable to or in respect of him but not for the purpose of calculating any benefit to which he may become entitled, any period of employment as a dispensary medical officer prior to his becoming a practitioner.

(2) Where the total service of a practitioner to whom paragraph (1) applies, being service as a dispensary medical officer and contributing service under these regulations does not in the aggregate exceed forty-five years the Ministry may, for the purposes of paragraph (1) and on being satisfied that it is just and reasonable so to do, add a number of years to the number of years of actual service as a dispensary medical officer:

Provided that—

- (a) the number of years added in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this paragraph shall not exceed the number which might have been added had he retired from his dispensary office on the day preceding the appointed day; and
- (b) the addition shall be such that the total period of service of the practitioner both as a dispensary medical officer and as a practitioner under these regulations together with the years so added as aforesaid shall not exceed forty-five years.

(3) Paragraphs (1) and (2) shall apply to a practitioner who, prior to the appointed day, was subject to the Medical Officers Superannuation Act (Ireland), 1869, as a medical officer in part-time employment on the staff of a hospital for a period of not less than ten years.

(4) Paragraphs (1) and (2) shall not apply in the case of a person who is or has been at any time in receipt of a pension or other allowance in respect of his period of employment as a dispensary medical officer.

(5) Without prejudice to the provisions of paragraph (4) where a person to whom the provisions of paragraphs (1) and (2) or the corresponding provisions of the previous regulations were applicable has on or after ceasing to be a practitioner taken up further employment in which he is a participant in a superannuation scheme under the provisions of which he is entitled to reckon for the purposes of calculating the amount of any superannuation benefit payable to him thereunder any service which was reckonable as contributing service under these regulations or the previous regulations at the date on which he ceased to be a practitioner, then, if he ceases to hold any such further employment in circumstances which, had they obtained at the date on which he ceased to be a practitioner, would have enabled the Ministry to pay to him an additional pension or allowance by virtue of the said paragraphs (1) and (2) or the corresponding provisions of the previous regulations, paragraphs (1) and (2) shall apply to him in like manner as if he had ceased to be a practitioner at the date on which he ceased to hold that further employment and as if any superannuation benefit payable to him under the provisions of the superannuation scheme applicable to him in that further employment were a benefit to which he is entitled under these regulations.

PART IV

MISCELLANEOUS

Definition of "the prescribed time limit"

68. In this part "the prescribed time limit" means a period of twelve months after leaving employment as an officer or, in the case of a person who immediately after leaving such employment became engaged in national service, a period of six months after the termination of that service :

Provided that—

- (i) in the case of a person who after leaving employment as an officer has become a contributory employee or local Act contributor or has entered employment in which he is subject to the Belfast Corporation Superannuation Scheme or the Local Government Superannuation Regulations and in which he is a member of the medical, dental or nursing staff of a health authority, there shall be excluded in reckoning the aforesaid period of twelve months or, as the case may be, the aforesaid period of six months, any period spent on a course of study or training if, under rules made under section 2 of the Act of 1948 or under the provisions of the Belfast Corporation Superannuation Scheme or the Local Government Superannuation Regulations, the period of that course is excluded in determining for the purposes of those rules, the Belfast Corporation Superannuation Scheme or the Local Government Superannuation Regulations whether his previous service is reckonable in his new employment, and if, under those rules or under the provisions of the Belfast Corporation Superannuation Scheme or the Local Government Superannuation Regulations, in determining whether his previous service is reckonable in his new employment, he is deemed to have left employment as an officer on completion of a course of study or training, any period of national service in which he became engaged on completion of that course shall be deemed to have begun immediately after he left employment as an officer;
- (ii) in the case of a person who after leaving employment as an officer has entered employment in the health service of England and Wales, Scotland or the Isle of Man, there shall be excluded in reckoning the aforesaid period of twelve months or, as the case may be, the aforesaid period of six months, any period spent on approved employment or on a course of study or training and any period of national service in which he became engaged on completion of that employment or course shall be deemed to have begun immediately after he left employment as an officer; and

- (iii) where a person who has entered employment in the health service of England and Wales, Scotland or the Isle of Man is a person who after ceasing to be employed as an officer of an employing authority continued in the employment of that authority otherwise than as an officer he shall be deemed for the purposes of this regulation to have left employment as an officer on the date on which he ceased to hold the said employment otherwise than as an officer.

Reckoning of service on transfer to civil service

69.—(1) Where a person has left employment in which he was an officer and, within the prescribed time limit and without having become entitled to any benefit under these regulations or the previous regulations other than a return of contributions, has become an established civil servant he shall be entitled to reckon as established service all periods of employment, war service or national service which for the purposes of these regulations or the previous regulations he was entitled to reckon as contributing service or non-contributing service in relation to his employment under the employing authority immediately before he ceased to be employed by them, and any period of national service after so ceasing to be employed, excluding, in the event of his having received a return of contributions on or after so ceasing to be employed, any part of that period after the date of the return, and to reckon as established service for the purpose of determining whether he has served for the minimum period prescribed under the Superannuation Acts for the payment of a superannuation allowance or additional allowance or gratuity to his personal representatives on his death, any service which he was entitled to reckon in relation to his former employment solely for the purpose of determining whether he was entitled to any benefit under these regulations or the previous regulations:

Provided that—

- (i) this paragraph shall not apply to any person who has not, within three months or within such longer period as the Ministry may in any particular case allow after becoming an established civil servant, given notice in writing to his employer of his previous period of employment and war service or national service (if any) and repaid to the Ministry an amount equal to any sum paid to him by way of return of contributions on or after his ceasing to hold his former employment, together with an amount equal to any income tax which was deducted from his contributions in respect of such payment;
- (ii) for all the purposes of this paragraph, any period of part-time service shall be treated as though it were whole-time service for a proportionately reduced period, and except in the calculation of any qualifying period of service, any period of non-contributing service shall be treated as being half its actual length; and
- (iii) this paragraph shall not apply to any person who, on or after leaving the employment of an employing authority forfeits all claim in respect of his previous service to any superannuation benefits by virtue of a direction of the Ministry in that behalf under regulation 49.

(2) Where an established civil servant to whom paragraph (1) applies ceases to be employed in circumstances which under these regulations would have entitled him to a return of contributions had he then ceased to be employed by an employing authority, he shall be entitled to receive from the Ministry a sum equal to the amount to which he would have been so entitled as aforesaid.

Rights on transfer to other employment

70.—(1) Where a person has left employment in which he was an officer and, within the prescribed time limit and without having become entitled to any benefit under these regulations or the previous regulations other than a return of contributions, has become a participant in the superannuation scheme operated under the Federated Superannuation System for Universities or the Federated Superannuation Scheme for Nurses and Hospital Officers or any other superannuation scheme approved by the Ministry for the purposes of this paragraph, he may within three months thereafter, or within such longer period as the Ministry may in any particular case allow, notify the Ministry that he desires the provisions of this paragraph to apply to him, and in that event, if—

- (a) the body administering the scheme undertakes to invest or secure the investment of such sum as is hereinafter mentioned for the person's benefit under the scheme and (unless the Ministry dispenses with this requirement) to comply with the provisions of paragraph (4); or
- (b) the Ministry is satisfied, having regard to the character of the scheme, that no such undertaking can be given but is satisfied that the benefits for which the scheme provides are adequately secured, the Ministry may pay to that body a sum not exceeding at its discretion either the amount of the transfer value which would have been payable under regulation 73 had the person become employed in circumstances in which that regulation applied, or the amount of a transfer value calculated in accordance with the provisions of the fourth schedule.

(2) Where a person has left employment in which paragraph (1), (2), (4) or (5) of regulation 43 was applicable to him and, within the prescribed time limit and without having become entitled to any benefit under these regulations other than a return of contributions, has become subject to a scheme approved by the Ministry under sub-paragraph (e)(vi) of paragraph (3) of regulation 16 and by virtue of the provisions of that scheme he becomes entitled to reckon as if it were two years any year of contributing service which he had been entitled so to reckon by virtue of the provisions of paragraph (1), (2), (4) or (5) of regulation 43 then, in calculating any sum payable under paragraph (1) of this regulation, the Ministry may take account of any such year as if it were two years.

(3) Paragraphs (1) and (2) shall not apply in relation to any person who has not within the period of three months mentioned in paragraph (1) or within such longer period as the Ministry may in any particular case allow, repaid to the Ministry an amount equal to any sum paid to him by way of return of contributions on or after leaving the employment in which he was an officer, together with an amount equal to any income tax which was deducted from his contributions in respect of such payment.

(4) If a person to whom paragraph (1) or the corresponding provisions of the previous regulations have been applied ceases to participate in the scheme in circumstances in which he becomes entitled to a benefit based solely on his contributions thereunder, the body administering the scheme shall pay to the Ministry a sum equal to the sum received by the body pursuant to paragraph (1) or the corresponding provisions of the previous regulations in respect of the person and the Ministry shall pay to him a sum equal to the amount which would have been paid to him by way of return of contributions on his ceasing to be employed as an officer or on the termination of his national service, as the case may be, if no payment had been made in respect of him under paragraph (1) or the corresponding provisions of the previous regulations.

(5) If such a person as is mentioned in paragraph (4), within twelve months after so ceasing to participate in the scheme and within five years after ceasing to be employed as an officer by an employing authority, again becomes an officer to whom part II applies, he shall be entitled, if he pays or repays to the employing authority any sum paid to him by the Ministry under paragraph (4), together with an amount equal to any income tax which was deducted in respect of such payment, to reckon as service, contributing service and non-contributing service respectively, all periods of employment, war service or national service which he was entitled so to reckon in relation to his employment under the former employing authority immediately before the date on which he ceased to be employed by them, and as contributing service any period of national service after so ceasing to be employed.

(6) If a person to whom the provisions of paragraph (1) or any corresponding provisions of the previous regulations had been applied—

- (a) leaves the employment in which he is a participant in the scheme in circumstances other than those in which paragraph (4) applies; and
- (b) within twelve months after leaving that employment and within five years after ceasing to be employed as an officer again enters employment in which he is an officer; and
- (c) within three months after entering the last-mentioned employment or within such longer period as the Ministry may in any particular case allow notifies the employing authority by whom he is employed in that employment that he desires this paragraph to apply to him, then if the body administering the scheme pay to the Ministry a sum equal to the sum received by them pursuant to paragraph (1) or any corresponding provisions of the previous regulations in respect of the person, he shall be entitled to reckon such service as he would have been entitled to reckon had there been no break between his ceasing to be an officer and his again becoming an officer as aforesaid.

(7) Paragraphs (5) and (6) shall not apply if the scheme in the benefits of which a person to whom paragraph (1) or any corresponding provision of the previous regulations has been applied has ceased to participate is a scheme which has been approved by the Ministry under sub-paragraph (e)(vi) of paragraph (3) of regulation 16.

Provisions relating to approved employment

71.—(1) Where a person, having left employment in which he was an officer or employment to which this regulation applies without having become entitled to any benefit under these regulations or the previous regulations other than a return of contributions, has entered within the prescribed time limit employment in which he is not entitled to reckon his service under these regulations for the purpose of participating in any superannuation benefits, otherwise than for the sole purpose of determining whether any such benefits are payable, he may (unless he is a person to whom paragraph (1) of regulation 70 or the corresponding provision of the previous regulations has been applied) apply to the Ministry within three months after entering that employment, or within such longer period as the Ministry may in any particular case allow, to approve the employment for the purposes of this paragraph, and if the employment is so approved paragraph (2) shall apply in relation to the person by whom the application under this paragraph was made:

Provided that this paragraph shall not apply in relation to any person who has not within the said period of three months, or within such longer period as the Ministry may in any particular case allow, repaid to the Ministry an amount equal to any sum paid to him by way of return of contributions on or after leaving the employment in which he was an officer together with an amount equal to any income tax which was deducted from his contributions in respect of such payment.

(2) Where under paragraph (1) a person's employment has been approved in pursuance of an application made, or having effect as if made, by him under that paragraph and that person has not given notice under paragraph (4), then—

- (a) if he ceases to hold that employment, or any subsequent employment approved (on his application) by the Ministry for the purposes of this paragraph, in such circumstances, including that of his age, as, had they obtained when he left the employment in which he was an officer, would have entitled him to any benefit under these regulations, the Ministry may grant him that benefit, as from the date on which he ceases to hold the approved employment, calculated as if he had become entitled to that benefit at the date on which he left the employment in which he was an officer;
- (b) if he ceases to hold that employment or any subsequent employment approved (on his application) by the Ministry for the purposes of this paragraph and by reason of his age he does not qualify for a benefit under sub-paragraph (a) but becomes entitled to a pension under any pension scheme applicable to him in that employment, the Ministry may grant to him, as from the date on which he ceased to hold that employment, a benefit equal to the benefit to which he would have become entitled under these regulations on ceasing to hold the employment in which he was an officer, if at the date on which he ceased to hold the employment in which he was an officer he had attained the age of sixty years and had been entitled for the purpose of determining whether any such benefit was payable to him to aggregate with his service for the purposes thereof a period of service equal in length to the period of his approved employment;
- (c) if he dies while in approved employment, the Ministry may grant the like benefits (if any) by way of widow's pension and death gratuity as would have been granted under these regulations if he had died immediately before he ceased to hold the employment in which he was an officer; or
- (d) if within twelve months after ceasing to hold approved employment he again becomes an officer to whom part II applies he shall, if he repays to the Ministry a sum equal to the amount (if any) paid to him by way of return of contributions on or after ceasing to hold the approved employment, together with an amount equal to any income tax which was deducted from his contributions in respect of such payment, be entitled to reckon as service, contributing service and non-contributing service respectively, all periods of employment, war service or national service which he was entitled so to reckon immediately before he left the employment in which he was formerly an officer, and

- (i) he shall be entitled to reckon the period of his approved employment for the purpose of determining whether any benefit is payable to him under these regulations; and
- (ii) if in his approved employment he devoted the whole or substantially the whole of his time to the treatment or care of persons suffering from mental disorder he shall be entitled to reckon the period of that employment for the purpose of assessing the period of twenty years mentioned in paragraph (2) of regulation 43,

but not for any other purpose:

Provided that—

- (i) where a benefit is granted by the Ministry under sub-paragraph (b), that benefit shall be reduced, according to the age of the person to whom it is payable, by the percentage shown in the appropriate column of the table set out in the sixth schedule, or shall not become payable until the person attains such an age as would have entitled him to a similar benefit under sub-paragraph (a), but any such reduction shall be disregarded in the calculation of any widow's pension which may become payable in respect of the person;
- (ii) in the calculation of any benefit granted by the Ministry to or in respect of any person by virtue of sub-paragraph (a) or (c), any provision of these regulations prescribing a minimum benefit or a method of calculating the benefit, otherwise than by reference to the amount of the person's contributions or the service reckonable by him or the amount of the pension which was or would in certain circumstances have become payable to him, shall be disregarded; and
- (iii) where a benefit becomes payable to or in respect of a person to whom sub-paragraph (d) has become applicable, and the amount of that benefit falls to be calculated by reference to any provision of these regulations prescribing a minimum benefit or a method of calculating the benefit otherwise than by reference to the amount of the person's contributions or the service reckonable by him or the amount of the pension which was or would in certain circumstances have become payable to him, then, if the number of years reckonable by the person is less than any minimum number of years of qualifying service prescribed for the receipt of the said benefit, the amount of the said benefit, in so far as it is obtained by reference to the said provision, shall be the amount which bears the same proportion to the sum otherwise payable as the number of years of service so reckonable bears to the minimum number of years of qualifying service.

(3) The provisions of paragraph (2) shall apply in relation to a person who, after leaving employment in which he was an officer, entered employment which was approved on his application under the corresponding provision of the previous regulations as they apply in relation to a person whose employment has been approved under paragraph (1):

Provided that in relation to a person who, at the time when he left the employment in which he was an officer, was subject to the previous regulations, references in paragraph (2) to these regulations shall be construed as references to the regulations to which he was subject at that time.

(4) No payment shall be made by way of return of contributions to any person who has entered employment in which paragraph (2) has become applicable to him unless and until he either—

- (a) ceases to hold that employment in circumstances in which he does not become entitled to any benefit under these regulations; or

(b) gives notice to the Ministry that he wishes this regulation to cease to apply in respect of him from the date of that notice.

(5) This regulation shall apply to a person who ceases to be subject to a direction of the Ministry made in pursuance of sub-section (1A) of section 61 of the Act, without having ceased to hold the employment in which he was so subject as it applies to a person mentioned in paragraph (1).

Transfer values payable to the Ministry in respect of persons leaving certain approved schemes

72.—(1) Where a person has become an officer of an employing authority within twelve months after ceasing to be a contributor to a scheme approved by the Ministry under sub-paragraph (e)(vi) of paragraph (3) of regulation 16, not being a scheme for providing superannuation benefits by means of contracts or policies of insurance made or effected with any of the Life Assurance Companies or, if immediately after so ceasing he became engaged in national service, within six months after the termination of that service and without having become entitled to any benefit under the scheme other than a return of contributions, the body administering the scheme or any persons maintaining any fund for the purposes of the scheme or the successors in title of either that body or those persons shall, if the Ministry so requires, pay to the Ministry a transfer value of such amount as the Ministry may determine to be actuarially equivalent to the liability of which the body administering the scheme or any such fund as aforesaid is relieved as a result of that person's ceasing to be subject to the scheme and becoming an officer.

(2) For the purpose of determining whether a person has left employment in the health service of England and Wales, Scotland or the Isle of Man within the period referred to in paragraph (1), no regard shall be had to any period of employment or course of study or training approved by the body administering that service.

Transfer values payable by the Ministry

73.—(1) Where a person has left employment as an officer and within the prescribed time limit and without having become entitled to any benefit under these regulations or the previous regulations other than a return of contributions, has become a contributory employee or local Act contributor or has become subject to the Belfast Corporation Superannuation Scheme or the Local Government Superannuation Regulations, a transfer value shall be payable by the Ministry to the authority or body by whom he has become employed or to the authority administering the scheme to which he has become subject, as the case may be, calculated in accordance with the provisions of the third schedule.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), a transfer value shall not be payable by the Ministry in respect of a person unless within such period as may be specified in rules made under section 2 of the Act of 1948 or in the enactment or scheme to which he has become subject, he has given such notice and furnished such particulars as may be required by the aforesaid rules, enactment or scheme, as the case may be, as a condition of his being able to reckon any of the service which he was entitled to reckon immediately before ceasing to be an officer of an employing authority, and in the case of a person who, on or after leaving the employment in which he was an officer, received a return of contributions—

(a) he has, if he has become a contributory employee or local Act contributor, made a payment to his employer or to the authority maintaining the fund to which he has become a contributor in accordance with the provisions of the aforesaid rules; or

(b) he has, if he has become subject to the Belfast Corporation Superannuation Scheme or the Local Government Superannuation Regulations, paid to the authority or body by whom he has become employed or the authority administering the scheme to which he has become subject, as the case may be, an amount equal to any sum paid to him by way of such return as aforesaid, together with an amount equal to any income tax which was deducted from his contributions in respect of such payment.

(3) Notwithstanding this regulation, the Ministry may withhold the payment of a transfer value in respect of a person who, on or after leaving the employment of an employing authority, forfeits all claim in respect of his previous service to any superannuation benefits by virtue of a direction of the Ministry in that behalf under regulation 49.

Persons engaged on war service or national service

74.—(1) Where a person, but for any war service on which he was engaged, would have been transferred under the Act to the employment of an employing authority, he shall be deemed for the purposes of these regulations to have been so transferred if he has entered the employment of that authority within six months after the termination of that service.

(2) If any such person, immediately before becoming engaged on war service, was subject to the provisions of any such enactment or scheme as was mentioned in paragraph (1) of regulation 25 of the 1954 regulations, he shall be deemed for the purposes of these regulations to have been so subject immediately before becoming an officer.

(3) Where a person was engaged on war service or national service at the date of the acquisition of premises by the Authority under section 67 of the Act and immediately before undertaking that service was employed at, or for the purposes of administering the services provided at, those premises then, if he has become an officer within six months after the termination of that service, he shall be deemed for the purposes of these regulations to have been employed in such premises immediately before and at the date of their acquisition by the Authority and to have become an officer in consequence of that acquisition.

Determination of questions

75. Any question (not being a point of law or construction) arising under these regulations as to the rights or liabilities of an officer or retired officer, or of a person claiming to be treated as such, or of the widow, any dependant or the personal representatives of an officer or retired officer shall be determined by the Ministry.

76. The Pensions (Increase) Acts (Northern Ireland), 1944 and 1947, shall have effect as if a pension or injury allowance payable under these regulations were specified in Part I of the First Schedule to the said Act of 1944.

FIRST SCHEDULE

Allocation of Part of Pension or Injury Allowance

Regulation 11

1. A person shall not surrender—

- (a) more than one third of the injury allowance to which he is entitled or of the pension to which he is entitled (or, in the case of a person to whom paragraph (2) or (3) of regulation 11 applies, of the pension to which he would be entitled if he ceased to be employed) or, in a case in which regulation 44 applies, the pension to which he would be entitled apart from the provisions of that regulation;
- (b) any such part as would make the amount of the reduced pension or allowance which is or may become payable to him less than the amount of the pension which might become payable to the person in whose favour the allocation is made (hereinafter referred to as the "beneficiary");
- (c) a smaller part than would secure for the beneficiary a pension of twenty-six pounds per annum; or
- (d) any part which is not an exact number of pounds.

2. The amount of pension payable in return for each one pound of a pension or injury allowance surrendered by a person shall be the amount shown in the tables in force at the date on which the person becomes or is deemed to have become entitled to the pension or allowance which is appropriate to the age and sex of the beneficiary.

3.—(1) Upon a person's becoming eligible to notify his desire to surrender part of his pension or injury allowance, the employing authority shall furnish him with a copy of regulation 11 and of this schedule, and of the tables for the time being in force, together with two copies of a form of notification of surrender of pension or injury allowance, and, in the case of a person to whom paragraph (2) or (3) of regulation 11 applies, a provisional estimate of the value of the pension that may become payable to him.

(2) A person to whom paragraph (1) of regulation 11 applies, and who desires to surrender a part of his pension or injury allowance, shall notify the employing authority accordingly not later than one month after the date on which he ceases to be employed, or within such longer period as the Ministry may in any particular case allow.

4. For the purpose of notifying his desire to surrender a part of his pension or injury allowance, a person shall complete the form provided for the purpose, and send it, together with a copy thereof, to the employing authority whose officer he is or was, and they shall transmit the original to the Ministry.

5. On receipt by the Ministry of a notification given by a person under paragraph 4—

- (a) the Ministry shall arrange for the person to be examined by a registered medical practitioner nominated by the Ministry, with a view to obtaining from such practitioner a report stating whether, in his opinion, the person is in good health, regard being had to his age; and if the opinion stated in such report is that he is not in good health, the Ministry shall notify him

accordingly, and offer him an opportunity of a further examination by some other registered medical practitioner nominated by the Ministry;

- (b) the Ministry shall require the person to furnish at his own expense—
- (i) a certified copy of his birth certificate, except where the date of birth has been duly recorded by the Ministry and is not disputed; and
 - (ii) with respect to the beneficiary, a birth certificate, a marriage certificate (in the case of a spouse) and any other information or evidence which the Ministry may consider necessary:

Provided that if for any reason a birth certificate or a marriage certificate cannot be supplied, the Ministry may accept such other evidence of age or marriage as it may think fit.

6. Any fee payable to a practitioner in respect of an examination and report under paragraph 5 shall be paid by the person examined at the time of the examination.

7.—(1) Subject to the provisions of these regulations, unless the Ministry is of opinion, on consideration of a report obtained by it under paragraph 5, that the person to whom the report relates is not in good health, or unless it is of opinion that the evidence produced in regard to age or marriage is not satisfactory, it shall accept the surrender of such part of the pension or injury allowance as is specified in the person's notification and as is in conformity with this schedule, and shall grant to the beneficiary named in the notification a pension in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 2.

(2) As soon as practicable after coming to a decision in regard to a notification given by a person, the Ministry shall inform him whether or not the notification has been accepted, and if it has been accepted, shall furnish him with a statement as to the amount of the pension to which the beneficiary may become entitled after his death, and the amount of the reduced pension or injury allowance that is or may become payable to him, and, if the notification has not been accepted, shall inform him of the reason.

8.—(1) A person who has given a notification of his desire to surrender part of his pension or injury allowance may cancel or amend the notification by a notice in writing given to the employing authority at any time before he has been informed by the Ministry that his surrender has been accepted.

(2) An amendment of a notification shall be disregarded if the notification as so amended does not comply with this schedule.

9.—(1) A notification given by a person under this schedule shall become null and void if—

- (a) the beneficiary dies before the person has been informed by the Ministry that his surrender has been accepted; or
- (b) the person dies at any time before midnight on the day on which the Ministry decides to accept the surrender; or
- (c) a person to whom paragraph (3) of regulation 11 applies again becomes an officer and has not become an officer mentioned in sub-paragraph (3) or completed forty years contributing and non-contributing service, the non-contributing service being reckoned at half its actual length.

(2) Subject as aforesaid, a surrender of part of a pension or injury allowance accepted in pursuance of a notification shall have effect as from the date on which the pension or allowance becomes payable.

(3) The reference in sub-paragraph (1) to an officer mentioned in this sub-paragraph is a reference to an officer who—

- (a) in the case of a mental health officer or of a woman who is a nurse, physio-therapist, midwife or health visitor, has attained the age of sixty years; or

(b) in any other case has attained the age of sixty-five years.

10. A notice in writing sent by an employee to his employing authority under paragraph 4 or 8, and information given by the Ministry to an employee under paragraph 7 of acceptance or non-acceptance of the employee's notification of his desire to surrender part of his pension or injury allowance shall, if posted in a properly addressed prepaid envelope, be deemed to have been received by the person to whom it was addressed at the time at which a letter would have been delivered in the ordinary course of post.

SECOND SCHEDULE

Additional Contributory Payments

Regulation 22, regulation 24 (3) and (5), and regulations 25 and 26

1. The sum payable by an officer who desires to reckon any completed year of non-contributing service as contributing service shall be calculated in accordance with paragraph 6, and may be paid upon the officer's notifying the employing authority in writing in accordance with the regulation applicable in his case that he intends to make a payment under this paragraph (the date of such notification being hereinafter referred to as "the material date")—

- (a) in a lump sum accompanying such notification;
- (b) partly in a lump sum, of not less than one tenth of the sum payable, accompanying such notification, and as to the remainder, and subject as hereinafter provided, by such instalments as within three months after the material date may be agreed between the officer and the employing authority; or
- (c) wholly, subject as hereinafter provided, by such instalments as aforesaid.

2. The instalments of any sum payable under paragraph 1 shall be of equal amounts spread over a period of not more than ten years after the material date, the first instalment to be paid within four months after the material date:

Provided that the whole of the instalments shall be payable before the date on which the officer will attain the age at which he may become eligible for a pension on ceasing to be employed.

3. While any instalment of any sum payable under this schedule remains to be paid, the following provisions shall have effect—

- (a) compound interest shall be payable as from the material date upon the amount for the time being unpaid, and shall be calculated at the rate of three and one quarter per cent. per annum, with yearly rests;
- (b) if the officer becomes entitled to a pension, retiring allowance or short service gratuity, or if a widow's pension or death gratuity becomes payable in respect of him, a deduction in respect of any amount due may be made from any payments on account of such pension, retiring allowance, short service gratuity, widow's pension or death gratuity;
- (c) if the officer becomes entitled to an injury allowance without having become entitled to a short service gratuity or dies without having become entitled to a pension or retiring allowance and without leaving a widow entitled to a widow's pension, and no death gratuity is payable in respect of him, all liability in respect of the balance of the debt shall cease;
- (d) if the officer ceases to hold his employment without having become entitled to any benefit under these regulations, other than a return of contributions, then, at the expiration of twelve months or, if immediately after ceasing to hold his employment the officer became engaged in national service, at the expiration of six months after the termination of that service, the officer shall cease to be entitled to any rights in respect of payments made by him on account of the debt, except any right to a return of the amount of such payments, and his liability in respect of the balance of the debt shall cease, unless within that period the officer, without in the meantime having become a contributory employee, a local Act contributor or a person subject to the Belfast Corporation Superannuation Scheme or the Local Government Superannuation Regulations—

- (i) enters employment in which he is an officer or an established civil servant, in which event, subject as hereinafter provided, his liability in respect of the balance of the debt shall continue, and the officer shall pay or repay an amount equal to any sum which may have been returned to him in respect of payments made by him on account of the debt, together with an amount equal to any income tax which was deducted from such payments in respect of such return; or
- (ii) enters employment in which he is in such contributory service under the Teachers Act as is mentioned in sub-paragraph (c) of paragraph (3) of regulation 16, in which event, subject as hereinafter provided, the right to receive the balance of the debt shall be deemed to be transferred to the Ministry of Education, and the officer shall pay to that Ministry an amount equal to any sum which may have been returned to him in respect of payments made by him on account of the debt, together with an amount equal to any income tax which was deducted from such payments in respect of such return:

Provided that where a person—

- (i) ceased at any time to be an officer, immediately thereafter became engaged in national service and returned to employment as an officer within six months after the termination of that service; or
- (ii) ceased at any time to be an officer in order to enter an approved course of study or training and re-entered employment as an officer within twelve months (no account being taken of the period of the said course of study or training), or within six months after the termination of national service in which he became engaged on completion of that course; or
- (iii) ceased at any time to be an officer, immediately thereafter became engaged in national service, on the termination of that service entered an approved course of study or training and re-entered employment as an officer within six months after the termination of his national service (no account being taken of the period of the said course of study or training); or
- (iv) ceased at any time to be an officer by virtue of paragraph (1) of regulation 17 and re-entered employment as an officer within twelve months (no account being taken of any period mentioned in paragraph (2) of that regulation),

he shall not be treated as having ceased to be entitled to any rights in respect of payments made by him on account of the debt and, subject as hereinafter provided, his liability in respect of the balance of the debt shall continue and he shall pay or repay an amount equal to any sum which may have been returned to him in respect of payments made by him on account of the debt, together with an amount equal to any income tax which was deducted from such payments in respect of such return;

- (e) if the officer ceases to hold any employment by virtue of his entry into which his liability in respect of the balance of the debt has been continued in accordance with sub-paragraph (d), that sub-paragraph shall apply, with any necessary modifications, and shall continue so to apply, whenever the officer ceases to hold employment during which he has been making, but has not completed making, payments on account of the debt; and
- (f) sub-paragraphs (b) and (c) shall apply, with any necessary modifications, whenever the officer is employed in circumstances in which his liability in respect of the balance of the debt is continued under the provisions of sub-paragraph (d) or (e).

4. Where paragraph 3 applies in relation to a person who at any time enters two or more employments, or who simultaneously becomes a part-time officer under the authority in whose employment he is and enters the employment of another authority, the right to receive the balance of the debt shall be apportioned between the authorities concerned in such manner as the Ministry shall direct.

5. Any sum payable under this schedule by an officer, or by a person who has ceased to be such and has become an established civil servant, shall be paid to the employing authority for transmission to the Ministry.

6.—(1) For the purpose of calculating the sum to be paid by an officer under this schedule the relative table shall be used in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph:

Provided that where before the first day of August, 1960, an officer had notified the employing authority of his intention to make a payment in accordance with the second schedule to the 1954 regulations, the payment shall be made, or, if it has been made in part, shall be completed in accordance with the said schedule.

(2) The age and remuneration of an officer means his age at the material date and the annual remuneration on which he is paying contributions on that date:

Provided that—

(a) if account is required to be taken of any fees payable to an officer, other than a practitioner, in respect of any service, the amount thereof shall be taken to be the annual average of the fees payable to him in respect of that service during the three years immediately preceding the material date or, if that service was of shorter duration, such shorter period;

(b) references to contributions payable by any person shall include references to contributions which would have been payable by him but for any reduction in or suspension of his remuneration by reason of his absence from duty owing to ill-health or injury;

(c) the sum payable whether by a practitioner or an officer other than a practitioner, in respect of any period of service as a practitioner shall be calculated by reference to the annual average of the remuneration during that period; and

(d) in the case of a practitioner, the sum payable in respect of any period of service in any other capacity shall be calculated by reference to his annual remuneration at the date on which he last ceased to be employed in such capacity, or, if in that employment he was not an officer of an employing authority, the annual emoluments of that employment.

(3) The amount shown in table I(a), I(b), II(a), II(b), III, IV(a) or IV(b), as the case may require, in relation to an age which corresponds with that of the officer is an amount appropriate in respect of one hundred pounds of remuneration. A total amount is to be calculated proportionately by reference to the remuneration of the officer. Such total amount is the sum payable by the officer in order to reckon as contributing service one year of the non-contributing service which he is entitled to reckon on the material date.

(4) The sum payable by an officer in order to reckon as contributing service more than one year of the non-contributing service which he is entitled to reckon at the material date is the amount calculated in accordance with sub-paragraph (3), multiplied by the number of years of the said service which the officer desires so to reckon.

(5) Any sum payable by a person to whom paragraph (2) of regulation 44 applies, in respect of any period of non-contributing service of which account would be taken under paragraph (3) of regulation 44 in calculating the amount of the reduction of any pension to which the person might become entitled, shall be reduced by the sum shown in the appropriate column of table V in relation to an age which corresponds with that of the person at the material date, in respect of each one pound of the amount of the reduction of the pension as aforesaid in respect of that period of service, and by a proportionate sum in respect of any fraction of a pound included in the said amount.

THIRD SCHEDULE

Provisions for the calculation of Transfer Values payable by the Ministry under Regulation 73, and Directions for the use of the sub-joined Tables in connection therewith

Regulation 73

PART I

TRANSFER VALUE PAYABLE IN RESPECT OF A PERSON WHO HAS CEASED TO HOLD ONE EMPLOYMENT AS AN OFFICER OF AN EMPLOYING AUTHORITY AND HAS ENTERED ONE OTHER EMPLOYMENT

1. In this part, the following expressions, unless the context otherwise requires, have the respective meanings hereby assigned to them:—

“the material date”, in relation to any person in respect of whom a transfer value is being calculated, means the date on which he ceased to hold his employment as an officer under the employing authority or, if on ceasing to hold that employment he became engaged in national service and continued during the whole or part of that service to make the contributions required by regulation 6, the last date in respect of which he made those contributions;

“age”, in relation to a person to whom proviso (i) to regulation 68 applies, means his age at the date on which he became a contributory employee or local Act contributor or a person subject to the Belfast Corporation Superannuation Scheme or the Local Government Superannuation Regulations; and in relation to any other person, means his age at the material date;

“remuneration”, in relation to a practitioner, means the annual average of his remuneration in respect of all periods of service as a practitioner, in relation to such a person as is mentioned in paragraph (1) of regulation 36 who was not on and before the material date required to pay contributions, means the annual pensionable remuneration of his employment under the employing authority at that date; and in relation to any other person means the annual remuneration of his employment under the employing authority on which contributions were payable by him on the material date:

Provided that—

(a) if, for the purposes of this definition account is required to be taken of any fees payable to a person, other than a practitioner, in respect of any employment, the amount thereof shall be taken to be the annual average of the fees payable to him in respect of that employment during the three years immediately preceding the material date or, if that period was of shorter duration, such shorter period;

(b) references in this definition to contributions payable by a person shall include references to contributions which would have been payable by him but for any reduction in or suspension of his remuneration by reason of his absence from duty owing to ill-health or injury;

“service”, in relation to a person who in the employment he has ceased to hold was in the whole-time employment of a single employing authority means, in respect of any period of previous part-time employment, whole-time service for a proportionately reduced period; and

“contributing service”, in relation to a person to whom, at the date on which he ceased to hold the employment in relation to which the transfer value is payable, sub-paragraph (b) of either paragraph (1) or (2), or paragraph (4) or (5) of regulation 43 applied, and who in the employment he has entered has become a contributory employee or local Act contributor to whom paragraph (1) of regulation 21 of the English or Scottish Local Government regulations, 1954, or paragraph (1) of regulation 22 of those regulations applies, or has become subject to the Belfast Corporation Superannuation Scheme or the Local Government Superannuation Regulations and is a member of the medical, dental or nursing staff of a health authority, includes any additional years which, at the date on which he ceased to hold the employment in relation to which the transfer value is payable he was entitled to reckon by virtue of sub-paragraph (b) of either paragraph (1) or (2), or paragraph (4) or (5) of regulation 43.

2. Subject as hereinafter provided, the transfer value payable in respect of any person shall be the aggregate of the sums respectively calculated in accordance with the following provisions by reference to his contributing service, if any, and by reference to his non-contributing service, if any:

Provided that—

- (a) in the case of a person, not being a practitioner, whose service includes service as a practitioner, separate transfer values shall be calculated in respect of his service in the two capacities, by reference to his remuneration as such person and his remuneration as a practitioner respectively;
- (b) in the case of a practitioner whose service includes service otherwise than as a practitioner, separate transfer values shall be calculated in respect of his service in the two capacities, as if in relation to his service otherwise than in the capacity of a practitioner the material date for the purpose of ascertaining his remuneration were the date on which he ceased to hold his last employment before becoming a practitioner, and his remuneration were the annual remuneration of the employment on which contributions were payable by him on that date or, if in that employment he was not an officer of an employing authority the annual emoluments of that employment;
- (c) the transfer value shall be reduced—

- (i) by an amount equal to any sum together with any interest on any sum which, when the person ceased to hold the employment in relation to which the transfer value is payable, was paid to him by way of a return of contributions, and by a further amount equal to any income tax which was deducted from his contributions in respect of such payment;
- (ii) by an amount equal to any sum together with any interest on any sum which, when the person ceased to hold the employment in relation to which the transfer value is payable, was paid to him by way of a return of payments which were or were deemed to be additional contributory payments, by a further amount equal to any income tax which was deducted from such payments in respect of such return, and by a further amount estimated if necessary by the Government Actuary equal to any amount which, when the person ceased to hold the employment in relation to which the transfer value is payable, remained to be paid by him as a condition of reckoning any period of non-contributing service as contributing service, reckoning any period as contributing service or reckoning any period of employment as service or increasing the length at which the said period of employment would otherwise have been reckonable as service, as the case may be; and
- (iii) unless any added years in respect of which the person was at the date on which he ceased to hold the employment in relation to which the transfer value is payable in the course of making payments under regulation 27 are by virtue of sub-paragraph (7) of paragraph 4 not reckonable as contributing service, by an amount equal to any sum together with any interest on any sum which, when the person ceased to hold the employment in relation to which the transfer value is payable, was paid to him by way of a return of such payments, by a further amount equal to any income tax which was deducted from such payments in respect of such return, and by a further amount estimated by the Government Actuary to be the capital value of the person's outstanding liability in respect of added years.

3.—(1) If after a transfer value has been paid relating to the former employment of a person in respect of his entry into one other employment being a part-time employment, that person, within the prescribed time limit (as defined in regulation 68), while retaining that part-time employment and without having ceased to hold any other employment which he may have held at the material date as an officer of an employing authority, enters one or more other part-time employments in which he is an officer of an employing authority, a contributory employee or local Act contributor or a person subject to the Local Government Superannuation Regulations, the transfer value payable shall be calculated under the provisions of part I as if the person had simultaneously entered all the employments he has entered on or after the material date and as if his remuneration in relation to each part-time employment he has entered were such proportion of his remuneration (as defined in paragraph 1) as the annual remuneration of that part-time employment bears to the aggregate amount of the annual remuneration of the part-time employments, and the transfer value already paid shall be adjusted accordingly.

(2) References in sub-paragraph (1) to the annual remuneration of a part-time employment shall be construed as references to the annual remuneration of that employment on which superannuation contributions are payable.

Contributing Service

4.—(1) The sum to be calculated by reference to a person's contributing service shall be ascertained in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph.

(2) The amounts shown under the heading "contributing service" in the appropriate column of the relative table in relation to an age which corresponds with that of the person are to be multiplied respectively by the number of years, and of months aggregating less than one year, of contributing service reckonable at the material date.

(3) The sum of the two products aforesaid is an amount appropriate in respect of one hundred pounds of remuneration.

(4) A total amount is to be calculated proportionately by reference to the remuneration of the person.

(5) Where a person's service has not been continuous and each of two or more periods thereof consists of or includes a period of contributing service of less than one month, then, if a sum falls to be calculated under sub-paragraph (2) the periods of contributing service of less than one month shall be aggregated and, of the aggregate, each period of thirty days shall be counted as one month and any number of days smaller than thirty shall be disregarded.

(6) Where a person has less than one month's service the transfer value payable in respect of that service shall be the aggregate of the contributions paid or payable by him and by the employing authority by whom he was employed in respect of that service, other than such additional contributions as are required to be paid by the employing authority under paragraph (2) of regulation 6, or the corresponding provision of the previous regulations, after deduction of an amount equivalent to any sum paid to the person by way of a return of contributions and of any sum which may have been deducted from his contributions on account of income tax in respect of such payment.

(7) In calculating contributing service for the purposes of this paragraph—

(a) there shall be excluded any added years in respect of which the person was at the date on which he ceased to hold the employment in relation to which the transfer value is payable in the course of making payments under regulation 27 and in respect of which he does not elect to continue the payments in accordance with the provisions of the Local Government Superannuation Regulations, the Belfast Corporation Superannuation Scheme or rules made under section 2 of the Superannuation (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1948, as the case may be, or which are otherwise not reckonable in his new employment; and

(b) any period of contributing service which would have been reckonable at a length other than its actual length for the purpose of calculating a superannuation benefit if, on the material date, the person had been entitled to such a benefit, shall be reckoned at that other length.

Non-contributing Service

5.—(1) The sum to be calculated by reference to a person's non-contributing service shall be ascertained in accordance with this paragraph.

(2) The amount shown in the column under the heading "non-contributing service" in the relative table in relation to an age which corresponds with that of the person is to be multiplied by the number of years of non-contributing service reckonable at the material date. For this purpose a period of six months or more of an uncompleted year shall be treated as a completed year, and any shorter period shall be disregarded.

(3) The product aforesaid is an amount appropriate in respect of one hundred pounds of remuneration.

(4) A total amount is to be calculated proportionately by reference to the remuneration of the person.

(5) Where a person's service has not been continuous and each of two or more periods thereof consists of or includes a period of non-contributing service of less than one month, the periods of non-contributing service of less than one month shall be aggregated and, of the aggregate, each period of thirty days shall be counted as one month, and any number of days smaller than thirty shall be disregarded.

6. In the case of a person to whom paragraph (2) of regulation 44 or the corresponding provision of the 1954 regulations applied immediately before the material date, any sum calculated under paragraph 4 or 5 in respect of any period of service of which account would have been taken under paragraph (3) of regulation 44 or the corresponding provision of the 1954 regulations in calculating the amount of the reduction of any pension to which the person might have become entitled shall be reduced by the sum shown in the appropriate column of table IV in relation to the person's age, in respect of each one pound of the amount of the reduction of the pension as aforesaid in respect of that period of service, and by a proportionate sum in respect of any fraction of a pound included in the said amount:

Provided that the reference in this paragraph to a period of service of which account would have been taken under paragraph (3) of regulation 44 or the corresponding provision of the 1954 regulations shall be construed in relation to a practitioner or a person whose service includes service as a practitioner as a reference to the period of which account would so have been taken apart from the provisions of paragraph (1) of regulation 61.

PART II

1. The transfer value payable in any case to which this part applies shall be calculated in accordance with the provisions of part I, except paragraph 3 thereof, and those provisions shall apply accordingly, but subject to the following provisions of this part:

Provided that the provisions of paragraph 6 of part I shall apply only in relation to a part-time employment in which the person has become subject to provisions of an enactment or scheme which are substantially to the same effect as the provisions of paragraph (3) of regulation 44 and by virtue of which any benefit by way of annual amounts to which the person may become entitled may be reduced with reference to any service of which account is taken in the calculation of the transfer value.

2.—(1) For the purposes of paragraphs 4 and 5 of part I the expression "remuneration" shall, in relation to each of the part-time employments which a person has entered, be construed as meaning such proportion of his remuneration (as defined in paragraph 1 of part I) as the annual remuneration of that part-time employment bears to the aggregate amount of the annual remuneration of the part-time employments.

(2) References in sub-paragraph (1) to the annual remuneration of a part-time employment shall be construed as references to the annual remuneration of that employment on which superannuation contributions are payable.

3. If after a transfer value has been paid relating to the former employment of a person in respect of his entry into two or more part-time employments, that person, within the prescribed time limit (as defined in regulation 68), while retaining those part-time employments and without having ceased to hold any other employment which he may have held at the material date as an officer of an employing authority, enters one or more other part-time employments in which he is an officer of an employing authority, a contributory employee or local Act contributor or a person subject to the Local Government Superannuation Regulations, the transfer value payable shall be calculated under paragraphs 1 and 2 as if the person had simultaneously entered all the employments he has entered on or after the material date, and the transfer value already paid shall be adjusted accordingly.

PART III

TRANSFER VALUE PAYABLE IN RESPECT OF A PERSON WHO HAS CEASED TO HOLD A WHOLE-TIME EMPLOYMENT AS AN OFFICER OF AN EMPLOYING AUTHORITY BUT HAS REMAINED IN THE EMPLOYMENT OF THAT OR ANY OTHER EMPLOYING AUTHORITY AS A PART-TIME OFFICER AND HAS ENTERED ONE OR MORE OTHER PART-TIME EMPLOYMENTS

1. The transfer value payable in any case to which this part applies shall be calculated in accordance with the provisions of part I, except paragraph 3 thereof, and those provisions shall apply accordingly, but subject to the following provisions of this part :

Provided that the provisions of paragraph 6 of part I shall apply only in relation to a part-time employment in which the person has become subject to provisions of an enactment or scheme which are substantially to the same effect as the provisions of paragraph (3) of regulation 44 and by virtue of which any benefits by way of annual amounts to which the person may become entitled may be reduced with reference to any service of which account is taken in the calculation of the transfer value.

2.—(1) For the purposes of paragraphs 4 and 5 of part I the expression "remuneration" shall, in relation to each part-time employment (not being an employment as an officer of an employing authority) which the person has entered, be construed as meaning such proportion of his remuneration (as defined in paragraph 1 of part I) in the whole-time employment of an employing authority as the annual remuneration of that part-time employment bears to the aggregate amount of the annual remuneration of all the part-time employments including any employment as an officer of an employing authority.

(2) References in sub-paragraph (1) to the annual remuneration of a part-time employment shall be construed as references to the annual remuneration of that employment on which superannuation contributions are payable.

3. If after a transfer value has been paid relating to the former whole-time employment as an officer of an employing authority of a person in respect of his entry into a part-time employment (not being an employment as an officer of an employing authority), that person, within the prescribed time limit (as defined in regulation 68), while retaining the part-time employments (including any part-time employment as an officer of an employing authority) he has entered, enters one or more other part-time employments in which he is an officer of an employing authority, a contributory employee or local Act contributor or a person subject to the Local Government Superannuation Regulations, the transfer value payable shall be calculated under the provisions of part II, except paragraph 3 thereof, as if the person had simultaneously entered all the employments he has entered on or after the material date, and the transfer value already paid shall be adjusted accordingly.

FOURTH SCHEDULE

Provisions which may be used for the calculation of certain Transfer Values payable by the Ministry, and Directions for the use of the sub-joined Tables in connection therewith

Regulation 70(1)

1. In this schedule, the following expressions, unless the context otherwise requires, have the meanings hereby assigned to them:—

“the material date”, in relation to any person in respect of whom a transfer value is being calculated, means the date upon which he ceased to hold his employment as an officer under the employing authority or, if on ceasing to hold that employment he became engaged in national service and continued during the whole or part of that service to make the contributions required by regulation 6, the last date in respect of which he made those contributions;

“remuneration”, in relation to any person other than a practitioner, means the annual remuneration of his employment under the employing authority on which contributions were payable by him on the material date, in relation to a practitioner, means the annual average of his remuneration in respect of all periods of service as a practitioner, and in relation to such a person as is mentioned in paragraph (1) of regulation 36 who was not on and before the material date required to pay contributions means the annual pensionable remuneration of his employment under the employing authority at that date:

Provided that—

(a) if, for the purposes of this definition, account is required to be taken of any fees payable to a person, other than a practitioner, in respect of any employment, the amount thereof shall be taken to be the annual average of the fees payable to him in respect of that employment during the three years immediately preceding the material date or, if that employment was of shorter duration, such shorter period; and

(b) references in this definition to contributions payable by any person shall include references to contributions which would have been payable by him but for any reduction in or suspension of his remuneration by reason of his absence from duty owing to ill-health or injury;

“service”, in relation to a person who in the employment he has ceased to hold was in the whole-time employment of a single employing authority means, in respect of any period of previous part-time employment, whole-time service for a proportionately reduced period; and

“contributing service”, in relation to any period of service in respect of which a person was in the course of making payments which were or were deemed to be additional contributory payments, shall, if that period would, apart from the making of such payments, be reckonable as non-contributing service, be construed as meaning service of one half the actual length of that period of service, and if that period would not, apart from the making of such payments, be reckonable as a period of service, be disregarded.

2. The transfer value payable in respect of any person shall be the aggregate of the sums respectively calculated in accordance with the provisions of paragraphs 3, 4 and 5 :

Provided that—

(a) in the case of a person not being a practitioner, whose service includes service as a practitioner, separate transfer values shall be calculated in respect of his service in the two capacities, by reference to his remuneration as such person and his remuneration as a practitioner respectively;

(b) in the case of a practitioner whose service includes service otherwise than as a practitioner, separate transfer values shall be calculated in respect of his service in the two capacities, as if in relation to his service otherwise than in the capacity of a practitioner the material date for the purpose of ascertaining his remuneration were the date on which he ceased to hold his last employment before becoming a practitioner, and his remuneration were the annual remuneration of the employment on which contributions were payable by him on that date or, if in that employment he was not an officer of an employing authority, the annual emoluments of that employment; and

- (c) if in relation to the employment which the person has ceased to hold he was in the course of making payments which were or were deemed to be additional contributory payments or payments in respect of added years, the transfer value shall be increased by an amount equal to the aggregate amount of the additional contributory payments or payments in respect of added years so made.

3.—(1) The sum to be calculated by reference to a person's contributing service shall be ascertained in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph.

(2) The amounts shown under the heading "contributing service" in the appropriate column of the relative table in relation to an age which corresponds with that of the person at the material date are to be multiplied respectively by the number of years, and of months aggregating less than one year, of contributing service reckonable at the material date.

(3) The sum of the two products aforesaid is an amount appropriate in respect of one hundred pounds of remuneration.

(4) A total amount is to be calculated proportionately by reference to the remuneration of the person.

(5) Where a person's service has not been continuous and each of two or more periods thereof consists of or includes a period of contributing service of less than one month, then, if a sum falls to be calculated under sub-paragraph (2) the periods of contributing service of less than one month shall be aggregated and, of the aggregate, each period of thirty days shall be counted as one month and any number of days smaller than thirty shall be disregarded.

(6) Where a person has less than one month's contributing service the transfer value payable in respect of that service shall be the aggregate of the contributions paid or payable by him and by the employing authority in respect of that service other than such additional contributions as are required to be paid by the employing authority under paragraph (2) of regulation 6 or the corresponding provision of the previous regulations.

4.—(1) The sum to be calculated by reference to a person's non-contributing service shall be ascertained in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph.

(2) The amount shown in the column under the heading "non-contributing service" in the relative table in relation to an age which corresponds with that of the person at the material date is to be multiplied by the number of years of non-contributing service reckonable at the material date. For this purpose a period of six months or more of an uncompleted year shall be treated as a completed year, and any shorter period shall be disregarded.

(3) The product aforesaid is an amount appropriate in respect of one hundred pounds of remuneration.

(4) A total amount is to be calculated proportionately by reference to the remuneration of the person.

(5) Where a person's service has not been continuous and each of two or more periods thereof consists of or includes a period of non-contributing service of less than one month, the periods of non-contributing service of less than one month shall be aggregated and, of the aggregate, each period of thirty days shall be counted as one month, and any number of days smaller than thirty shall be disregarded.

5. In the case of a person to whom paragraph (2) of regulation 44 or the corresponding provision of the previous regulations applied immediately before the material date, any sum calculated under paragraph 3 or 4 in respect of any period of service of which account would have been taken under paragraph (3) of regulation 44 or the corresponding provision of the previous regulations in calculating the amount of the reduction of any pension to which the person might have become entitled under these regulations or the previous regulations shall be reduced by the sum shown in the appropriate column of table V set out in the second schedule in relation to an age which corresponds with that of the person at the material date, in respect of each one pound of the amount of the reduction of the pension as aforesaid in respect of that period of service, and by a proportionate sum in respect of any fraction of a pound included in the said amount.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the regulations but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These regulations consolidate with amendments the regulations in force under section 61(1) of the Health Services Act (Northern Ireland), 1948, providing for the superannuation of persons engaged in the Health Service.

The main changes are as follows:—

- (a) Provision is made for extension by the Ministry of the periods during which certain applications and payments may be made for the purpose of reckoning service (regulations 2(1), 16(1) proviso (a), 20(2) proviso (ii), 25 proviso, 26(2), 27(2), 38(6), 69(1) proviso (i) and 70(6)(c)).
- (b) Where, in calculating an injury allowance, no payment is found to be due, contributions are to be returnable (regulations 9 and 30(1)(d)).
- (c) An employee whose remuneration is suspended owing to illness or injury will cease to be an officer within the meaning of the regulations from the date of the suspension. In this case, or where the illness or injury has resulted in the termination of the person's superannuable employment, a period of incapacity of up to two years (or longer at the Ministry's discretion) will not in future be taken into account in determining whether a disqualifying break in service has occurred. The amendments preserve rights as to options, supplementary payments and modification of benefits. Consequential changes are made in relation to general medical and dental practitioners (regulations 17 and 55(3)).
- (d) Where a person has transferred to or from health service employment in England and Wales, Scotland or the Isle of Man a period of study or training or of approved employment undertaken in the interval between the health service employments will be disregarded in determining whether he has transferred within the time limit for preservation of previous superannuation rights. Transfer values are to be paid accordingly (regulations 18, 68 and 72).
- (e) A person who devotes substantially the whole of his time to part-time specialist services for any period is a practitioner within the meaning of the regulations but, if it is to his advantage, that period will be treated as service as an officer in calculating his benefits on retirement (regulations 2(1), 8(3) and (4), and regulation 8 as substituted by regulation 56).
- (f) Provision is made for an increase in the rates of pension and lump sum benefits payable to practitioners. In respect of remuneration paid on or after 1st April, 1963, the pension will be at the rate of $1\frac{3}{4}$ per cent. of total remuneration instead of $1\frac{1}{2}$ per cent., and lump sum benefits at the rate of $1\frac{3}{4}$ per cent. or $5\frac{1}{4}$ per cent. instead of $1\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. or $4\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. respectively of total remuneration (regulations 8(3) and (4), regulation 8 as substituted by regulation 56, regulation 12 proviso (ii), regulation 37(2) proviso (a) and regulation 57(1)(a)).
- (g) A person in receipt of a pension who is re-employed as an assistant practitioner within the meaning of the regulations is to be treated as being paid out of public funds and consequential adjustments in his pension may be made (regulations 32 and 63(c)).
- (h) A person whose rights under the regulations are preserved while he is in approved employment outside the health service is to be entitled to receive the return of his contributions on giving notice for the cancellation of the approval of his employment (regulation 71(4)).
