"Reckoning of service in certain continuing employments"

"Calculation of part-time service

28A.—(1) For the purpose of determining whether any benefit is payable to or in respect of an officer, or in applying any provision of these regulations limiting the service to be taken into account to a specified period of forty or forty-five years, or in reckoning the period of any employment for the purposes of regulation 43 or of any service for the purposes of regulation 8A or regulation 44(3), the service of an officer in part-time employment shall be treated as whole-time service, and for these purposes concurrent periods of employment shall be regarded as a single employment.

(2) For any purpose of these regulations not specified in paragraph (1), the service of an officer in part-time employment shall be calculated in accordance with the following provisions of this regulation, but so that, except as provided in regulation 43, concurrent part-time employments during any period shall not in aggregate be treated as a greater period of whole-time service.

(3) Where a part-time employment is expressed to be for a specified number of half-days or sessions per week, the service shall be treated as whole-time service for a period which bears the same proportion to the period of the service in part-time employment as the number of half-days or sessions of employment bears to the number of half-days or sessions which would have constituted whole-time service for the employment in question.

(4) Where the remuneration for any employment referred to in paragraph (3) is expressed to be at a rate greater or less than the relevant proportion of whole-time salary, the period of service calculated under that paragraph shall be increased or decreased, as the case may be, in the same proportion.

(5) For any part-time employment other than those described in paragraph (3), the service shall be treated as whole-time service for a period which bears the same proportion to the period of the service in the parttime employment as the number of hours of employment in each week bears to the number of hours which would have constituted whole-time service for the employment in question.

(6) Notwithstanding anything in regulation 28, where a benefit payable to or in respect of an officer whose service consists of or includes service in part-time employment, is required to be calculated by reference to years of contributing or non-contributing service, the amount payable in respect of any fraction of a year shall be the same fraction of the amount payable for a year.

(7) Notwithstanding anything in the proviso to regulation 8(1), in calculating the amount of a pension payable under regulation 7(1)(a)(i) in respect of service which consists of or includes service in part-time employment and which, when calculated under regulation 28 and paragraph (1) of this regulation, any non-contributing service being reckoned at half its length, amounts in aggregate to less than twenty years, such aggregate service shall be increased to twenty years or such lesser period as could be completed by the age of sixty-five years, and the reckonable service shall be increased by the same proportion as the aforesaid aggregate service is increased."

and after proviso (g) to the said regulation 29(1) there shall be added the following proviso:—

"(h) in calculating for the purposes of these regulations, except regulation 32, the average remuneration of an officer whose service includes service as a medical officer or a dental officer, no account shall be taken of any fees paid to him in accordance with his terms of service for domiciliary consultations."; and proviso (a) to the said regulation 29(1) shall cease to have effect.

18. For the purpose of calculating the amount payable under the second, third or fourth schedule to the principal regulations by a part-time officer or in respect of a period or any concurrent period of part-time employment, the remuneration at the material date shall be deemed to be the remuneration which the Ministry determines would have been paid in respect of a single comparable whole-time employment.

(3) At the beginning of regulation 13(3) of the principal regulations (which relates to widow's pension) there shall be inserted the words "Subject to the provisions of paragraph (3A)".

Transitional Provisions

52.—(1) Where a benefit becomes payable to or in respect of an officer whose service includes service rendered before the date of operation of these regulations as a practitioner or as a person rendering part-time specialist services pursuant to section 21 of the Act, and it would be to his advantage if any benefit payable under the principal regulations in respect of his service as a practitioner or as such a person were calculated in accordance with paragraphs (2) and (3), the benefit shall be so calculated.

(2) The benefit referred to in paragraph (1) shall be calculated as if—

- (a) regulation 28A and proviso (h) to regulation 29(1) of the principal regulations, the revocation of regulations 61(1) and (2) and 64 of the principal regulations, and the amendments to the definition of "practitioner" in regulation 2(1) and to regulations 28 and 52 of the principal regulations had not been made; and
- (b) there were substituted for regulation 56(2)(a) of the principal regulations the following sub-paragraph:—
 - "(a) The pension to be paid in respect of service which is reckonable under these regulations as service as a practitioner shall be oneand-one-half per cent. of the remuneration for that service paid prior to 1st April 1963, and one-and-three-quarters per cent. of such remuneration paid on or after that date.".

(3) Where a benefit is calculated under paragraph (2) in respect of an officer whose service includes a period of service as a practitioner during which he devoted substantially the whole of his time to the performance of specialist services pursuant to section 21 of the Act, the benefit shall be calculated as if that period of service were service otherwise than as a practitioner, if such method of calculation is more advantageous to him.

(4) An officer of an employing authority to whom the principal regulations apply in consequence of regulation 25 of these regulations shall be entitled to reckon as service and, subject to the payment of the contributions required by the principal regulations or the previous regulations, as contributing service any prior period of employment by an employing authority which would have been so reckonable by him immediately prior to the coming into operation of that regulation but for the provisions of regulation 4(2) of the principal regulations or any corresponding provision of the previous regulations.

(5) Where before the date of the coming into operation of these regulations a person has notified the Ministry that he desires the provisions of regulation 70(1) of the principal regulations to apply to him but no transfer value has been paid before that date, the amount of the transfer value shall be calculated as if these regulations had not been made.

(6) Where before the date of the coming into operation of these regulations an officer has notified the employing authority of his intention to make a payment under the second schedule to the principal regulations the payment shall be made, or if it has been made in part, shall be completed as if these regulations had not been made.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the regulations but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These regulations amend the Health Services (Superannuation) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1962 which are made under section 61(1) of the Health Services Act (Northern Ireland) 1948 and which provide for the superannuation of persons engaged in the Health Service.

The main changes are—

- (a) the introduction of a revised basis for calculating the benefits payable to medical and dental practitioners (regulations 3 to 10);
- (b) the introduction of a revised basis for calculating the benefits payable to part-time hospital specialists and other part-time officers (regulations 11 to 18);
- (c) the introduction of optional arrangements for widows' pensions at an increased rate in lieu of certain lump sum benefits, and of a system of allowances for the dependent children of deceased officers and pensioners (regulations 19 to 21 and Schedule A);
- (d) the payment of superannuation benefits to officers who retire on grounds of redundancy and who have completed a minimum of ten years service—
 - (i) at date of retirement if they have attained age 55; or
 - (ii) at normal retiring age if they are made redundant before attaining age 55

(regulations 22 and 23);

- (e) the discontinuation of the employers' supplementary contribution (regulation 26(2));
- (f) the extension in certain circumstances of the time limits within which movements between the Health Service and other approved schemes must take place for superannuation rights to be transferred (regulations 30 and 45);
- (g) the abatement of pensions of re-employed practitioners is to be reckoned by reference to their earnings in the best three consecutive years before retirement instead of in the last three years, and a method of assessing abatement is specified where pensioners are re-employed for short periods or at varying remuneration (regulation 37);
- (h) raising the limit on the superannuable remuneration of a dental practitioner from £3,500 to £6,000 per annum (regulation 44(b));
- (i) the revision of actuarial tables set out in the regulations and of the rules for applying them (regulations 50 and 51 and Schedules B and C);
- (j) transitional provisions enabling practitioners and part-time specialists with service as such before the operative date of these regulations to have the existing basis for calculating their benefits applied if that would be to their advantage (regulation 52).

These regulations come into force on 1st April 1967.
