- (c) the rates indicated for salaries, allowances and increments are rates per annum.

Application Application

4. Except as otherwise provided, these Regulations shall apply only to full-time qualified teachers employed in recognised institutions of further education.

Establishment and Grading

5. The establishment of senior posts, the group of any institution and the grade of any department in an institution shall be determined or reviewed by the local education authority in accordance with approved arrangements.

Salary scales

6. The scales of salaries for teachers shall be those set out in Schedule I.

Scale placing

7.—(1) A teacher who on 1st April 1972 was in service in an institution of further education (and had been immediately before that date) shall from that date enter the scale prescribed in Schedule I of these Regulations corresponding to his scale under the Regulations in force immediately before that date, at the corresponding position on the scale, subject to the maximum of the scale not being exceeded.

(2) Teachers not in service on 31st March 1972 shall be placed on the appropriate salary scale in accordance with the provisions of Schedule II.

Re-assessment of salary following incorrect placing

8.—(1) Where evidence becomes available that a teacher's placing on the salary scales is incorrect and a re-assessment of his salary is carried out with the result that the rate of salary is to be increased, the revised rate shall come into operation from a date not earlier than 1st April 1972:

Provided that the Ministry may determine otherwise where it is satisfied that the need for re-assessment did not arise because of the teacher's failure to supply in writing for the purpose of determination of his rate of salary and allowances under the provisions of the Regulations which from time to time governed the salaries of teachers in institutions of further education, full and correct information:—

- (a) when the initial assessment was made or within three months thereafter; or
- (b) at a time when the teacher was replaced for salary purposes following a general revision of teachers' salaries and allowances or within three months thereafter; or
- (c) at the time of a re-assessment following a break in service or within three months thereafter.

(2) For the purposes of this Regulation "salary" includes any allowances payable under Regulations 11, 12 and 13.

No. 211

Rate of salary

9. When a teacher's salary has been determined as provided elsewhere in these Regulations, the amount thus determined shall where necessary be rounded to the nearest whole pound, an amount of 50p being rounded up.

Award of annual increments

10. After a teacher's rate of salary has been determined subsequent increments in the scale shall be granted in accordance with approved arrangements:

Provided that

- (a) the Ministry may at any time withhold an increment or require it to be withheld if a teacher's service, in the judgment of the Ministry, does not reach a satisfactory standard;
- (b) if an increment is withheld at any incremental date or at any two or more successive incremental dates and if, at the next following incremental date, the teacher's service has, in the judgment of the Ministry reached a satisfactory standard he may at the discretion of the Ministry be allowed two increments (instead of one increment) in the appropriate scale;
- (c) a teacher appointed on any of the salary scales set out in Schedule 1 after the date of these Regulations who has no previous service or experience at the date of appointment shall, subject to satisfactory continuous full-time service, qualify in the following year for the award of his first increment on the first of the month corresponding to that in which he was appointed provided at that date his service amounts to at least 11 months and 15 days, but if at that date his service amounts to 11 months and a lesser number of days than 15, the increment will normally become due on the first day of the following month:
- (d) the first 15 days of the aggregate of any periods of absence without pay of a teacher in a period of twelve months terminating on his normal incremental date shall be counted as teaching service for the purpose of the award of increments.

ALLOWANCES

Acting principal, vice-principal, head of department

11. If a post of principal, vice-principal or head of department is vacant or in the prolonged absence of the holder of such a post the Ministry may approve the appointment of a teacher to the appropriate post in an acting capacity and the teacher shall be paid an allowance of such amount as the Ministry may determine:

Provided that the aggregate of salary and allowances payable shall not exceed the rate of salary he would receive if he were appointed to the particular post.

Head of department

12.—(1) Where a head of department is appointed by the local education authority with the approval of the Ministry to discharge the duties and responsibilities of a vice-principal, he shall receive, in addition to the salary otherwise payable to him, an allowance of such amount as the authority with the approval of the Ministry deems appropriate: Provided that such an allowance shall not exceed £430 per annum.

(2) Where, in an institution in group 7 or higher, departments are grouped into a faculty and a head of department, other than one to whom paragraph (1) applies, exercises co-ordinating responsibilities within the faculty he shall receive, in addition to the salary otherwise payable to him, an allowance of such amount as the local education authority with the approval of the Ministry deems appropriate not exceeding £375.

Additional allowances

13.—(1) A local education authority may in accordance with arrangements approved by the Ministry award to a lecturer grade I an allowance of $\pounds 220$ per annum in respect of responsibilities of a supervisory or administrative nature.

(2) An allowance made under the provision of Regulation 17(1) of the Institutions of Further Education (Salaries and Allowances) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1965(f) to an assistant lecturer may be continued so long as he remains in the post. The amount of the allowance shall be £145 per annum.

Teachers in receipt of compensation allowances

14. Unless the Ministry shall approve otherwise, a local education authority shall

- (a) appoint to any vacant senior post a teacher serving in the institution who is in receipt of a compensation allowance;
- (b) award an allowance under paragraph (1) of Regulation 13 to a lecturer grade I serving in the institution who is in receipt of a compensation allowance before making such an award to any other lecturer grade I serving in the institution.

Allowances for evening work

15.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Regulation, a teacher shall, in accordance with approved arrangements, be entitled to payments in respect of evening work.

(2) The rate of remuneration for such work shall be $\pounds 1.65$ per hour for each reckonable hour calculated in accordance with the approved arrangements.

(3) Payments shall not by virtue of this Regulation be made to a teacher who is remunerated on a daily basis under the provisions of paragraph (1) of Regulation 21 or to a head of department, vice-principal or principal of an institution.

Absences of Teachers

Definitions

16. In Regulations 17 and 18:

"teacher" means a teacher in respect of whose employment an agreement is required under Section 84 of the Act;

"temporary teacher" means a teacher who in accordance with paragraph (2) of Regulation 21 is paid salary as though he was employed in a permanent capacity; and

"salary" includes any allowances to which the teacher is entitled under Regulations 11, 12 and 13 and a compensation allowance.

(f) S.R. & O. (N.I.) 1965, No. 280.

No. 211

Absences due to illness

17.—(1) A teacher shall, subject to these Regulations, be entitled while absent because of illness to receive salary at the full rate for a period not exceeding six months and thereafter at one half of the full rate for a further period not exceeding six months, in any period of four years' service. For the purposes of this paragraph six months shall be taken as 183 days.

(2) A teacher who has been absent, because of illness, for an aggregate of twelve months in any period of four years' service shall not, within that period, be entitled to salary for any further period of absence from duty because of illness.

(3) Any absence owing to illness during a period of temporary service to which paragraph (2) of Regulation 21 applies shall not be counted as absence for the purpose of paragraph (2) of this Regulation.

(4) A temporary teacher who in accordance with paragraph (2) of Regulation 2 is paid salary as though he were employed in a permanent capacity shall subject to the provisions of these Regulations be entitled while absent because of illness to receive salary at the full rate in accordance with Schedule III.

(5) A teacher or temporary teacher who is absent because of illness and who does not resume his teaching duties for ten successive working days immediately before, or immediately after, or immediately before and after a period of school vacation shall be regarded as absent because of illness for that period of vacation:

Provided that this paragraph shall not apply to any period of vacation or to any part of such period, if the teacher or temporary teacher satisfies the Ministry that during such period or such part of such period as the case may be, he was in all respects fit to undertake teaching duties.

(6) A teacher or temporary teacher who is absent because of illness shall not be entitled to salary—

- (a) for more than three successive working days; or
- (b) for more than ten working days in all in any year ending 31st December;

unless a medical certificate specifying the nature of the illness and certifying the incapacity of the teacher for the performance of duty, is furnished through the local education authority to the Ministry.

Absence for other causes

18. Full salary may be paid to a teacher—

- (a) for a brief period of necessary absence due to infectious disease in his home or to the serious illness or death of a near relative;
- (b) for a period of absence not exceeding three working days, due to special circumstances; or
- (c) with the approval of the Ministry, for a period of absence exceeding three working days, due to special circumstances.

Leave for other purposes

19.—(1) Subject to the approval of the Ministry a teacher may be granted leave of absence by a local education authority, with or without pay as may be approved by the Ministry, to attend an approved course of study or training or for such other purposes as the Ministry may approve.

(2) A period of such absence shall, unless the Ministry otherwise determines, rank for increment.

Credit for periods of absence

20.—(1) Periods of absence for which a teacher is entitled to full salary or salary at one-half of the full rate shall be regarded as teaching service for the purpose of these Regulations.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in these Regulations a period of absence in respect of which salary is not paid shall not be regarded as teaching service for the purpose of these Regulations.

MISCELLANEOUS

Remuneration of temporary teachers

21.—(1) A temporary teacher, including an unqualified teacher shall, except as provided in paragraph (2), be remunerated for each working day at the rate of 1/200th of the annual salary which he would receive if he were employed in a permanent capacity:

Provided that such a teacher may with the approval of the Ministry be paid salary as though he were employed in a permanent capacity.

(2) A temporary teacher who is appointed for a period of not less than one year during the absence of a teacher

- (a) to whom leave of absence has been granted under paragraph (1) of Regulation 19, or
- (b) who has been seconded under the Secondment of Teachers Overseas Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1961(g) shall be paid salary as though he were employed in a permanent capacity.

(3) In the case of any teacher to whom, in respect of any period of service, remuneration is paid on a daily basis in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (1) each working day shall, for the purposes of increment if he is being paid on an incremental scale, and for such other purposes as the Ministry may determine, be reckoned as 1/200th of a year of service:

Provided that in any twelve consecutive months any such period of service together with any other period of teaching service which such teacher may perform during that time shall not be reckoned as more than one year of service.

- (4) For the purposes of this Regulation:
- (a) not more than five working days shall be counted in any one week: and
- (b) "salary" includes any allowances under Regulations 13 and 15 to which the temporary teacher is entitled and compensation allowance.

(5) A temporary teacher to whom in respect of any period of service remuneration is paid on a daily basis in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (1)

- (a) shall have his rate of salary determined on 1st April 1973 and on each subsequent 1st April if employed on that day, or at the date of first employment after each 1st April, and the rate so determined shall, notwithstanding the provisions of these Regulations, be the teacher's rate of salary for any periods of service until the following 31st March; and
- (b) shall if in service on the date of these Regulations have his rate of salary determined at that date or at the date of first employment thereafter before 1st April 1973, and the rate so determined shall, notwithstanding the provisions of these Regulations, be the teacher's rate of salary for any periods of service until 31st March 1973.

Remuneration of unqualified teachers

22. The minimum rate of salary for full-time unqualified teachers shall be $\pounds 850$:

Provided that a full-time unqualified teacher who possesses qualifications entitling him to recognition as a qualified teacher in a grant-aided school shall be paid salary at the rate at which he would be paid if he were a qualified teacher.

Payment of salaries

23.—(1) Subject to the deduction of any sums properly deductible therefrom the Ministry shall pay to teachers appointed to institutions of further education in accordance with the Ministry's Regulations the salaries and allowances to which they are entitled under these Regulations and any other Regulations applicable thereto.

(2) In this Regulation "teachers" includes unqualified teachers.

Remuneration of part-time teachers

24. The minimum rate of remuneration of part-time teachers shall be $\pounds 1.25$ per hour:

Provided that such a teacher may, with the approval of the Ministry, be paid salary in accordance with the appropriate scale for a full-time teacher.

Expenses

25.—(1) A teacher who is required to give instruction in more than one centre shall be assigned headquarters by the local education authority.

(2) When it becomes desirable to assign new headquarters to a teacher, he shall be allowed reasonable expenses of removal by the local education authority.

(3) The expenses of a teacher, incurred in travelling on the business of the -local education authority, shall be paid by the said authority in accordance with arrangements approved by the Ministry.

(4) Subsistence allowance at rates approved by the Ministry may be paid by the local education authority to a teacher who is compelled to be absent from his headquarters on the business of the said authority. 26. A full-time teacher in recognised teaching service on 31st March 1972 shall not receive by reason of the operation of these Regulations a lesser rate of salary than he received under the Regulations in force on that date.

Sealed with the Official Seal of the Ministry of Education for Northern-Ireland this 30th day of August 1972 in the presence of

J. Finney, Deputy Secretary.

(d) The head of a department established before 6th March 1968, which falls below the requirements of grade I, shall continue to receive salary on the scale for grade I for as long as he continues in the post and the department remains below grade II.

Has & Lot

- (e) Where as a result of a review under Regulation 5 a department is placed in a lower grade, or an institution is placed in a lower group, the head of department or principal or vice-principal of the institution in post at that time and continuing in post shall receive:—
 - (i) salary on the scale applicable to the grade or group immediately above the lower grade or group for so long as the department or institution remains in that lower grade or group and where required;
 - (ii) a personal allowance of such amount as may be necessary to ensure that the teacher receives the same rate of salary as would have been applicable to him before the review.
- (f) Where the local education authority considers that in the special circumstances of a particular case the scale applicable to a post of principal or vice-principal of an institution or a head of department grade VI is not adequate the Ministry may:—
 - (i) in the case of a principal or vice-principal make payment on such higher scale as it deems appropriate;
 - (ii) in the case of a head of department grade VI make an extension to the prescribed scale.
- (g) The salaries of the principal and vice-principal of the College of Technology, Belfast, and the holders of any corresponding posts in the School of Music, Belfast, shall be determined by the Belfast County Borough Education Authority with the approval of the Ministry.
- (h) The salary of the principal and vice-principal of an institution whose services are shared with a secondary school shall be determined by the local education authority subject to the approval of the Ministry.

SCHEDULE II

SALARY PLACING OF TEACHERS TO WHOM REGULATION 7(2) APPLIES

1. An assistant lecturer or a lecturer grade I shall be placed on the appropriate scale with such values for incremental credit (if any) as may be given in accordance with Annex B and Annex C to this Schedule and shall receive any additions as appropriate under sub-paragraphs (1) to (3) subject to the maximum of the scale not being exceeded:

- (1) An addition of £162 in the case of an assistant lecturer or lecturer grade I other than one to whom sub-paragraph (2) applies, who holds an approved university degree, or other qualification adjudged by the Ministry to be equivalent thereto.
- (2) an addition of £324 in the case of an assistant lecturer or lecturer grade I who holds an approved university degree with first or second class honours, or other qualification adjudged by the Ministry to be equivalent thereto.
- (3) (a) an addition of £81 in the case of an assistant lecturer or lecturer grade
 I who has successfully completed a course of training or has obtained a qualification and the course or the qualification is approved by the Ministry for the purposes of this sub-paragraph:

Extent of incremental credit

Full credit.

To such extent as the Ministry may determine.

To such extent as the Ministry may determine.

Full credit.

At the discretion of the Ministry, incremental credit up to a maximum aggregate of 12 increments for (j) and (k); provided that experience reckoned for any other salary purpose shall not also be reckoned for incremental credit.

- (k) In the case of a teacher who has become qualified after attaining the age of 21 years, time spent in teaching, professional, clerical, social or other gainful employment.
- (l) Such other service as in the opinion of the Ministry should be recognised.

At the rate of one increment for each three years of employment up to a maximum aggregate of 12 increments for (j) and (k); provided that employ-ment reckoned for any other salary purpose shall not also be reckoned for incremental credit.

To such extent as the Ministry may determine.

2. A lecturer grade I shall be allowed increments in respect of full-time educational service, industrial, commercial, professional or other experience or research work which in the opinion of the Ministry should be regarded as of equivalent value to service as lecturer grade I.

3.—(1) Subject to the maximum of the scale not being exceeded, an assistant lecturer or lecturer grade I who has successfully completed at least four years approved full-time study, training or research shall be allowed increments for the purposes of determining a salary placing as follows:----

- (a) one increment where the aggregate of such full-time study, training or research is less than five years;
- (b) two increments where the aggregate of such full-time study, training or research is at least five years but is less than six years;
- (c) three increments where the aggregate of such full-time study, training or research is at least six years.

(2) For the purposes of this paragraph a year of study or training shall not be counted unless the teacher had attained the age of eighteen years not later than the end of the first term of that year, the Spring, Summer and Autumn terms being deemed to end on 30th April, 31st August and 31st December respectively.
