

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations prescribe the grounds on which a planning authority may decline to modify a proposed local development plan as recommended in a report by a person appointed following the completion of an examination into a proposed local development plan under section 19(3) of the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act 1997.