(a) 1907 c.24.

(b) Section 58A was inserted by the Bankruptcy (Scotland) Act 1993 (c.6), Schedule 1, paragraph 16.

(c) Section 5(4A)(b) was inserted by section 10(1) of the Home Owner and Debtor Protection (Scotland) Act (asp 6).

- (b) that the debtor agrees to convey to the trustee, for the benefit of creditors generally, any estate (wherever situated) which—
  - (i) is acquired by the debtor during a period of 4 years beginning with the date on which the trust deed is granted; and

- (c) that any contribution from income for the benefit of creditors is payable in accordance with regulation 8.

(2) Where the debtor's dwellinghouse, or part of the debtor's dwellinghouse, is excluded as mentioned in section 5(4A)(b)(i) of the Act from the estate conveyed to the trustee, the trust deed must also include details—

- (a) of any secured creditor who has agreed not to claim under the trust deed for any of the debt in respect of which the security is held; and
- (b) of that debt.

(3) Before the debtor grants the trust deed—

- (a) the trustee must advise the debtor that granting the deed may result—
  - (i) in the debtor's estate being sequestered;
  - (ii) in the debtor being refused credit, whether before or after the debtor's discharge under regulation 24;
  - (iii) subject to any exclusion mentioned in section 5(4A)(b)(i) of the Act, in the debtor not being able to remain in the debtor's current place of residence;

(3) The trustee may determine a shorter payment period only if, in the opinion of the trustee, payment of the debtor's contributions (from income or otherwise) during the shorter period would allow distribution of the debtor's estate to meet in full the total amount of the debtor's debts (including interest) at the date on which the debtor grants the trust deed.

(4) Where the debtor is a living individual, the debtor's contributions from income must be such as to result over the payment period in the payment of a sum less than the total amount of the debtor's debts (including interest) at the date on which the debtor grants the trust deed.

(e) a statement in Part 1 of Form 3 of the trustee's anticipated realisations from the trust deed.

(2) The trust deed must be acceded to by the notified creditors but is deemed to have been acceded to by them unless, within the relevant period, the trustee receives notification in writing from a majority in number, or no fewer than one third in value, of the notified creditors that they object to the trust deed being granted protected status.

PART 3

(i) a copy of every form of agreement obtained by virtue of regulation 6(c); or

(ii) a statement by the trustee that no such form of agreement has been obtained;

(2) The Accountant must register the trust deed in the register of insolvencies if—

(a) the Accountant has received all the documents required to be sent under paragraph (1);

(3) The trustee must notify the debtor and every creditor known to the trustee of the registration of the trust deed in the register of insolvencies or the refusal by the Accountant to so register the trust deed by no later than 7 days after receipt of the notification of the same by the Accountant.

Effect of protected status

- (a) subject to regulation 17, a creditor who (either or both)—
  - (i) is not a notified creditor; or
  - (ii) notified the trustee of objection to the trust deed during the relevant period,has no higher right to recover the debt than a creditor who has acceded to, or been deemed by virtue of regulation 10(2) to have acceded to, the trust deed; and
- (b) an application for sequestration of the debtor's estate may not be made by the debtor while the trust deed subsists.

(2) A creditor ceases to be deemed to have acceded to a trust deed in terms of regulation 10(2) if the trustee refuses a request by the debtor to apply to the Accountant for discharge in terms of regulation 24(8).

(2) Any existing earnings arrestment, current maintenance arrestment or, subject to paragraph (3), conjoined arrestment order ceases to have effect on the date of protection.

(3) Any sum paid by the employer to the sheriff clerk under a conjoined arrestment order on a pay day occurring before the date of protection will be disbursed by the sheriff clerk under section 64 of the Debtors (Scotland) Act 1987(a) notwithstanding that the date of disbursement is after the date of protection.

(4) The execution of an earnings arrestment or the making of a conjoined arrestment order is not competent after the date of protection to enforce a debt in respect of which the creditor is entitled to make a claim under the trust deed.

(5) A deduction from earnings order under the Debtors (Scotland) Act 1987 is not competent after the date of protection to secure the payment of any amount due by the debtor under a maintenance calculation within the meaning of that Act in respect of which a claim could be made under the trust deed.

(5) On delivery of the instruction and while the instruction is in effect, the employer must deduct the sum specified in the instruction on every pay day, and pay the sum deducted to the trustee as soon as it is reasonably practicable to do so.

(6) Where an employer fails without good cause to make a payment due under an instruction, the employer is—

- (b) not entitled to recover from a debtor the amount paid to the debtor in breach of the instruction.

(7) An employer may on making a payment due under an instruction charge a fee equivalent to the fee chargeable for the time being under section 71 (employer's fee for operating diligence against earnings) of the Debtors (Scotland) Act 1987(a) and deduct that fee from the balance due to the debtor.

(8) The trustee must, without delay after the discharge of a debtor under regulation 24, notify in writing any person who has received an instruction in accordance with paragraph (2) or (3) (or varied in accordance with paragraph (9)) that the instruction has been recalled.

(9) Following agreement by the debtor and the trustee, the debtor may give to the person by whom the debtor is employed a variation to the instruction mentioned in paragraph (2) in Form 4C.

Agreement in respect of debtor's heritable property

(2) Subject to the conditions in paragraph (3), the trustee may agree in Form 1B at the date on which the trust deed was granted—

- (a) not to realise any specified heritable estate of the debtor which has been conveyed to the trustee;
- (b) to relinquish the trustee's interest in respect of such heritable estate; and

- (b) the debtor must co-operate with the administration of the trust.

(4) The amount of the debtor's payments under paragraph (3)(a)(i) and (ii) must be determined in accordance with a valuation made by a chartered surveyor or other suitably qualified third party of the debtor's heritable estate as at the date of grant of the trust deed.

(a) c.18.

(5) If the debtor fails to fulfil a condition mentioned in paragraph (3), the trustee may withdraw from the agreement.

(6) The trustee must, as soon as is practicable, send a copy of the agreement mentioned in paragraph (2) in Form 1B to the Accountant and to every creditor known to the trustee (other than any secured creditor who has under section 5(4A)(b)(ii) of the Act agreed not to claim under the trust deed for any of the debt in respect of which the security is held).

- (b) at any time if the creditor avers that the provision for distribution of the estate is, or is likely to be, unduly prejudicial to a creditor or class of creditors.

(2) Paragraph (1)(b) is subject to section 8(1)(b) of the Act.

(3) The sheriff may award sequestration in pursuance of—

(2) Where on such an application the sheriff is satisfied, on grounds other than those on which a petition under regulation 17(1)(b) has been or could have been presented by the creditor, that the intrusions of the trustee with the estate of the debtor have been so unduly prejudicial to the creditor’s claim that the creditor should not be bound by the trustee’s discharge, the sheriff may order that the creditor will not be so bound.

(3) On the sheriff making an order under paragraph (2), the sheriff clerk must—

- (a) send a copy of the order to the trustee; and
- (b) send a copy of the order to the Accountant for registration in the register of insolvencies.

(5) For the purposes of paragraph (2), the sheriff to whom the application may be made is the sheriff to whom a petition for sequestration would be brought in respect of the debtor by virtue of section 9(1) or (2) of the Act.

- (a) the appeal was dismissed by the sheriff; or
- (b) the appeal was withdrawn by the trustee.

(6) If it appears to the Accountant that the trustee has failed, without reasonable excuse, to comply with the direction, the Accountant may report the matter to the sheriff who, after hearing the trustee on the matter, may—

Information and notification obligations of trustee under protected trust deed

20.—(1) Where the trustee under a protected trust deed makes a determination to shorten or lengthen the payment period under regulation 8, the trustee must notify the debtor of the determination without delay.

(3) If it appears to the Accountant that the trustee has failed, without reasonable excuse, to supply information to the Accountant which is requested in accordance with paragraph (2), the Accountant may report the matter to the sheriff who, after hearing the trustee on the matter may—

- (b) make such other order as the circumstances of the case require.

(4) On the trustee under a protected trust deed being replaced with a new trustee, the new trustee must notify the Accountant accordingly without delay.

21.—(1) At intervals of not more than 12 months (the first such interval beginning with the date on which the trust deed was granted) and by no later than 6 weeks after the end of each interval, the trustee under a protected trust deed must send the trustee's accounts of the trustee's intrusions with the debtor's estate in administering the trust during the period in question—

- (a) to the debtor;
- (b) to each creditor; and
- (c) to the Accountant (unless they are sent under regulation 25).

(2) At such intervals the trustee must send to the Accountant, the debtor and each creditor a report in Form 4 on the management of the trust during the period in question.

(3) The debtor or any creditor may, within 14 days after receiving a statement by virtue of paragraph (1), require the Accountant to exercise the function mentioned in section 1A(1)(a)(ia) of the Act by carrying out an examination of the administration of the trust by the trustee.

(4) In determining the amount of any contribution from income to be made by the debtor, the trustee may take account of any social security benefit paid to the debtor but any contribution must not include an amount derived from social security benefit.

1. This form must be immediately sent to the Accountant in Bankruptcy when the trustee wishes the debtor's discharge to be registered in the register of insolvencies.
2. Total realisation from assets should exclude the value of any security and realisation costs.
3. An application for discharge is not appropriate where the trustee does not consider that the debtor has met his/her obligations in terms of the trust deed, or if the debtor has failed to co-operate with the administration of the trust.
4. The debtor's discharge will not discharge the debtor from any liability arising after the date on which the trust deed was granted or any debt which would be excluded from a discharge under section 55(2) of the Act. Furthermore, the discharge does not affect the rights of secured lenders or the right to recover any debt arising from a student loan.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations make provision about how voluntary trust deeds entered into by debtors for the benefit of their creditors become protected from action by creditors, the consequences of a trust deed being granted that status, the rights of creditors, the discharge of the debtor and trustee from the trust deed, and the administration of trust deeds.

Trust deeds can be protected under paragraph 5 of Schedule 5 to the Bankruptcy (Scotland) Act 1985 as amended by the Bankruptcy and Diligence etc (Scotland) Act 2007 and section 10 of the Home Owner and Debtor Protection (Scotland) Act 2010.

Regulation 3 provides that a trust deed has protected status from the date when it is registered in the Register of Insolvencies by the Accountant in Bankruptcy, who must record the deed following receipt of certain documents from the trustee (regulation 11). Before registration certain conditions require to be met, set down in regulations 4 to 10—

- Regulation 4 states who can and cannot be a debtor under a trust deed and regulation 5 states who can be a trustee under such deeds.
- Regulation 6 prescribes additional conditions for a trust deed which excludes a dwellinghouse: the trustee must provide the debtor and secured creditor with a valuation, the debtor consent to the trustee dealing with the secured creditor and the secured creditor consent, using consent Form 1A.
- After the trust deed is signed by the debtor a statement must be signed by the trustee and the debtor (regulation 7(3)(c)) confirming that the trustee provided the debtor with advice about the effect of the trust deed and that the debtor agreed in the trust deed to estate acquired after the grant of the trust deed (i.e. acquirenda) going to the trustee (regulation 7(1)(b)). The trust deed must contain further details if a debtor's dwellinghouse is excluded (regulation 7(2)).
- Where a contribution from the debtor's income is taken, under regulation 8 it must be payable under the trust deed for the "payment period" of 48 months unless that period is varied.
- The creditors must be notified through publication by registration in the Register of Insolvencies (regulation 9).
- Not later than 7 days after the notice is published, the trustee must send certain documents to the creditors who have 5 weeks to object, and unless the majority in number (or not less than one third in value) do not so object, they are deemed to accede to the trust deed (regulation 10). The definition of "notified creditors" in regulation 2 makes clear with regulation 10(2) that a secured creditor of an excluded dwellinghouse cannot vote for these purposes. Where a dwellinghouse is excluded, other creditors receive additional information on the effect of an exclusion on any dividend, on any trust deeds in the previous 6 months, on the value of the excluded dwellinghouse and on the debt owed to the secured creditor.

Regulation 11 provides that the trustee must send information on all trust deeds, including on any dwellinghouse excluded, to the Accountant in Bankruptcy, within 4 week time limit. It also provides for when the Accountant in Bankruptcy must register the trust deed as protected.

Regulations 12 to 18 provide for the consequences of a trust deed becoming protected, including the consequences of a trust deed becoming protected for a secured creditor who has consented to the exclusion (regulation 12(3)), the circumstances in which a qualified creditor can petition for sequestration (regulation 17) and which creditors can apply to the courts (regulation 18).

Regulations 19 to 23 deal with the administration of the trust deed. Regulation 19 gives the Accountant in Bankruptcy power to give directions to the trustee as to how the administration should be conducted, with intimation of the terms of the direction to the debtor and creditors. Regulation 20 requires the trustee to provide information to the trustee and the Accountant in Bankruptcy as required and the trustee can be reported to the sheriff for failures, and subject to censure or other orders. Under regulation 21, the trustee is required to send statements of account to the debtor, creditors and the Accountant in Bankruptcy. The trustee is also required to send a report on the management of the trust deed to the Accountant in Bankruptcy. The trustee cannot take any contribution from income from social security benefit (regulation 21(4)). Regulation 22 stipulates documents the trustee must retain for 12 months after the trustee's discharge.

Regulation 23 deals with the trustee's remuneration. The remuneration must consist of a fixed fee and an additional fee based on a percentage of assets realised together with outlays, subject to unforeseen circumstances. The fee can include remuneration for work done in seeking a secured creditor's consent prior to a trust deed becoming protected. The Accountant in Bankruptcy may, at any time, audit the trustee's accounts and fix the outlays of the trustee in the administration of the trust.

Regulation 24 sets out the conditions which must be met for a debtor to be discharged of debts and obligations under the protected trust deed. If they have been met, the trustee must send a letter of discharge to the debtor. Refusal to sell a dwellinghouse as defined in section 5(4AA) of the 1985 Act or a family home as defined in section 40(4) of the 1985 Act is not treated as failure to meet a debtor's obligations. Once the Accountant in Bankruptcy receives a copy of the letter, the debtor's discharge must be recorded in the Register of Insolvencies and the discharge is effective from that date. If the trustee decides a debtor is not discharged, the debtor may appeal to the sheriff. Student loans cannot be discharged under a protected trust deed.

Regulation 25 deals with the discharge of the trustee and defines the date of the final distribution (only for the purposes of regulation 25) including what actions must be carried out by the trustee once discharged. A trustee can still seek discharge where a creditor has not yet collected the funds of the distribution, provided the funds have been placed beyond the control of the trustee.

Regulation 26 provides for electronic delivery of notices and other documents and a presumption for when electronic delivery is taken to have occurred.

Regulation 27 allows inter alia appeals to be made by the debtor, creditor or trustee to the sheriff by way of summary application against any refusal by the Accountant to register a trust deed on the ground that the Accountant is not satisfied that expenditure allowed or a contribution from income is appropriate under regulation 11(2)(c). Appeal is also allowed against any determination by the Accountant in Bankruptcy fixing the remuneration payable to the trustee, or any direction by the Accountant to the trustee as to the conduct of the administration of the trust deed.

Regulation 28 provides for a general direction-making power of the sheriff on the application of any interested party.

Regulation 29 amends fees payable under the Bankruptcy Fees etc. (Scotland) Regulations 2012 in respect of protected trust deeds.

Regulation 30 revokes the Protected Trust Deeds (Scotland) Regulations 2008 and an amending instrument, which these Regulations replace, subject to the saving in regulation 31(1) under which those Regulations will continue to apply to trust deeds granted before 28th November 2013 and a transitional modification in regulation 30(2) which corrects an error in those Regulations as they will continue to apply to those trust deeds.

A Business and Regulatory Impact Assessment has been prepared for these Regulations. Copies can be obtained from the Accountant in Bankruptcy's website: <http://www.aib.gov.uk>.
