EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations make consequential provision for the purposes of the Private Housing (Tenancies) (Scotland) Act 2016.

Regulation 2 makes a consequential amendment to the Local Government, Planning and Land Act 1980 to add a private residential tenancy to the list of tenancies which do not prevent an urban development corporation or local highway authority obtaining possession of a house where the Scottish Ministers have certified that the house is required for the purposes of urban development.

Regulation 3 makes a consequential amendment to the Housing (Scotland) Act 2010 to add a disposal by way of a lease under what would be a private residential tenancy, but for the grounds specified in certain paragraphs of schedule 1 of the Private Housing (Tenancies) (Scotland) Act 2016, to the list of disposals for which a landlord does not require the consent of the Scottish Housing Regulator.

Regulation 4 makes a consequential amendment to the Bankruptcy (Scotland) Act 2016 to ensure that the definition of “the whole estate of the debtor” excludes the interest of the debtor as tenant under a private residential tenancy.

Regulation 5 makes consequential amendments to the Letting Agent Code of Practice (Scotland) Regulations 2016 to ensure that the Code of Practice also applies to private residential tenancies.

No business and regulatory impact assessment has been prepared for these Regulations as no impact upon business, charities or voluntary bodies is foreseen.
