Financial assistance under the Regulations can be provided for the implementation of a development plan which achieves one of the objectives listed in regulation 3(2).

An eligible applicant who wishes to benefit from financial assistance must prepare a development plan which must include the information listed at regulation 4(2). Applications can be made at any time. The Scottish Ministers may, however, suspend receipt of applications.

The Regulations also–

- (a) make provision for the determination of applications by the Scottish Ministers (regulation 5);
