
SCOTTISH STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

2001 No. 390

The Abolition of the Intervention Board for Agricultural Produce (Consequential Provisions) (Scotland) Regulations 2001

Transitional provisions

4.—(1) Anything (including any legal proceedings) which, immediately before the coming into force of these Regulations, is in the process of being done by or in relation to the Board may, so far as it relates to any function transferred by virtue of these Regulations, be continued by or in relation to the Scottish Ministers.

(2) Anything done by or in relation to the Board for the purposes of or in connection with any function transferred by virtue of these Regulations shall, if in force immediately before the coming into force of these Regulations, have effect as if done by or in relation to the Scottish Ministers in so far as that is required for continuing its effect on or after that date.

(3) These Regulations shall not affect the validity of anything done by the Board before the coming into force of these Regulations.

(4) Any enactment, instrument, agreement (whether or not in writing) or other document, which was made before the coming into force of these Regulations, shall have effect, so far as may be necessary for the purposes of, or in consequence of—

- (a) any transfer effected by virtue of these Regulations; or
- (b) the abolition of the Board, as if any references to the Board were references to the Scottish Ministers.

(5) This regulation is subject to any specific provision made by virtue of these Regulations.

(6) In this regulation, “the Board” means the Intervention Board for Agricultural Produce, established by section 6(1) of the European Communities Act 1972.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Abolition of the Intervention Board for Agricultural Produce (Consequential Provisions) (Scotland) Regulations 2001, Section 4.