2001 No. 477

The Curators ad Litem and Reporting
Officers (Panels) (Scotland) Regulations 2001

Nominations

5.—(1) Before a local authority makes any appointment they shall invite nominations for persons as potential members of a panel from—

- (a) the Sheriff Principal;
- (b) other local authorities; and
- (c) such other persons as the local authority may consider appropriate.

(2) A local authority may take such steps, including public advertisement, as they consider appropriate, to secure the nomination of a sufficient number of persons as potential members of a panel, and may themselves make nominations.
